SNIFF OUT LEMONS TO BOOST YOUR BRAIN

Stop and smell...the lemons! The citrusy scent may improve your mood and mental processing. When the daily crossword has you stumped or you need to concentrate on a task, researchers have found that a whiff of lemon can enhance cognitive performance. Lemony smells also made people feel better and more motivated and alert.

ICED IS NICE

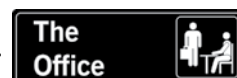

Summer days are a time to cool down and kick back with a refreshing glass of iced tea. This popular thirst-quencher accounts for about 80% of the tea consumed in the United States.

SUMMERTIME SIPS

This summer, relax and unwind by enjoying an Arnold Palmer, the refreshing beverage created and loved by its legendary namesake. According to the golf great himself, he got the idea one day at lunch to add lemonade to his wife's batch of iced tea, and he experimented until he found the perfect ratio: 2 parts iced tea to 1 part lemonade. Palmer began carrying a thermos of the concoction on courses and ordering the mixed beverage in restaurants, and the drink was eventually named after him.

OFFICE NOTIFICATIONS

GOLDEN GATES RULES AND GUIDELINES

The board continues to be made aware of rule violations. Problems that can easily be resolved.

PET WASTE REMOVAL: All pet owners or persons taking care of a pet are required to promptly pick up after their pets in all areas and dispose of waste in designated receptacles. The grounds in front of the Clubhouse is not designated to be used as an area for your pet and especially if you're not going to pick up after them. Unfortunately, we are having to install cameras in front of the clubhouse and signage.

As per our Rules and Regulations, no animals or pets should roam the community at large. At large is deemed to be that when your pet is off your property and not in control or supervised by a competent person. Roaming of dogs, cats and other non-domesticated animals should and will be reported to Animal Control.

COMMUNITY FACILITY ACCESS: Only residents and their sign-in, authorized guests may use community facilities. It is up to you as a Shareholder to make sure your guests are aware of all the Rules and Regulations of Golden Gate and its amenities that are available and that they should be made aware of Rules that are posted in the areas. Disregarding these rules leads to concern and consequences.

Allowing entry to the Pool area, individuals who are not recognized as residents or do not have prior approval is strictly prohibited to ensure the safety and security of Golden Gate.

Golden Gate is not a public facility, it is a private facility with Rules and Regulations to maintain its quality, investment and standard that each Shareholder needs to maintain and contribute to.

HOUSE NUMBER DISPLAY AND PARKING: Homeowners must ensure that their house numbers are always clearly visible from the street. Proper display aids emergency services, deliveries and visitors in locating residences efficiently.

Please make sure guests, caretakers and delivery vehicles are not parked on the sidewalks and they are located on the same side of the street. This will ensure that emergency vehicles have easy access to an emergency situation. Any delay could be detrimental, don't be that reason.

Let the trees remind you that growth takes time.

 Let the flowers remind you that nothing blooms forever, and that's part of the beauty.
 Let the ocean teach you that you can hold both stillness and storm, softness and strength.
 Let the clouds show you that when things grow heavy, it's time to let go.
 Let the stars remind you that light is revealed though darkness.

RHYME AND REASON

JUNE

Our streets are empty, the sidewalks are bare.
Half the folks who live here are no longer there.
Gone back to the cold and the snow beyond.
Now, we can search down the avenue and see nary a one.
When they leave us, we know the heat is about to arrive
Thank God for A-C, that's how we'll survive.
Waiting till October, when they'll return for the season
To do yoga and pot lucks, all sorts of reasons.
Well live through the summer and swim in the pool,
Watering our greenery and keeping cool.
Sometimes when they leave there just are no words,
Our world would be so different without our Snow Birds.

DONNA OLANDER

SHUFFLEBOARD Club Update

Now that the Snowbirds have returned north, we're pleased to report that there's plenty of FUN available on the courts for everybody else!
Each Tuesday and Saturday Horsecollar will now be played at 9 am with the warmer days. This is an ideal way to get familiar and comfortable with shooting the discs and learn some strategy. There's always somebody available to provide guidance and tips. Simply bring 50 cents wearing closed toe shoes.

In addition, our friends at Mainlands Unit 5 are hosting friendly Regular shuffle play on Mondays at 9am along with Horsecollar Thursdays at 9 am.

Our thanks to Charleen Socha for keeping the FUN alive throughout the summer months. Stay in touch with Charleen regarding any schedule updates.

Please remember that any resident visitors are welcome to play but must be accompanied by the resident host. No food or drinks allowed on the courts.

Tip of the Month - NO walking on the playing surface of the courts EXCEPT to check a disc during play.

Come on out - give it a try and join in the FUN!

SHUFFLEBOARD Club Update

Now that the Snowbirds have returned north, we're pleased to report that there's plenty of FUN available on the courts for everybody else!

WOMEN'S CLUB

Women's Club

I hope that all of our snowbirds who have already left for the summer had safe travels. Though we will not be having any meetings for the next few months we are still active in the park and hope that all residents join us in the activities during the summer months.

We will be spearheading the 4th of July picnic and of course our annual back-to-school luncheon where we request attendees bring some school supplies that we distribute to Pinellas County schools. If you are available to help at either of these events please reach out to Debby Johnson.

Hope you all enjoy the quiet summer months....rest up and consider joining us when we ramp up in October.

Flying in the face of disaster

In the 1980s and early '90s, Continental Airlines was a disaster. The organization had gone bankrupt twice and was on its way to a third (and final) catastrophe. It had gone through 10 presidents in 10 years, and employees mistrusted management.

Then in 1994 Gordon Bethune stepped in. Instead of running around willy-nilly trying to stamp out the various raging fires, Bethune took a step back to return to the basics. He identified Continental's key goals so that employees' efforts would be concentrated on them rather than diffused by the disaster of the moment. One of his areas of focus was creating a corporate culture. Without the commitment of the employees, the other goals would be impossible.

Drawing on the organization's history of excellence in service, he rallied the workforce. Bethune discovered that the employees weren't bad—they just worked in a dysfunctional organization. So they were quick to get behind his new leadership.

Senior management was a different story. Bethune knew he had to make wholesale changes, and that meant getting rid of the bureaucracy. In a couple of months, Bethune and his top executives replaced 50 of the company's 61 officers with 20 top-notch people.

The changes were dramatic. In one year's time, Continental went from being ranked the worst in customer satisfaction among major airlines to first.

The birth of 'excellence'

Tom Peters didn't exactly give birth to excellence, but he did establish the idea that companies can achieve excellence under the inspiration of a management guru—like himself.

It all began in the spring of 1978. John Larson of McKinsey's San Francisco office was set to give a presentation to a client. But his computer crashed and took with it his notes. He turned to another consultant, Tom Peters, to throw together a presentation that would satisfy the client.

Peters had just returned from traveling the world to compile research on best practices in business. Up until then, his research had been collecting dust after he had presented it to the McKinsey powers that be. With an opportunity to present his findings again, Peters gathered his data. In search of a sexy title to give his presentation, Peters came up with "Excellence." It was a hit.

Eventually, Peters edited the material into a manuscript. Continuing with the idea of excellence, he titled the book The Secrets of Excellence. But the title didn't fly with the McKinsey folks, who feared that clients would think the company was selling the secrets of client operations. In 1982, Peters and co-author Robert Waterman renamed it the more politically astute In Search of Excellence. And thus was excellence born.

Beware these creativity myths

Creativity can seem magical and mysterious, but you shouldn't make assumptions that can hold your imagination back. Watch out for these misconceptions that can impede your efforts to find innovative ideas and solutions:

- The “eureka” moment. Many people believe that creativity is a sudden flash of insight. More often it's the result of research and persistence, immersing yourself in a subject, and then building on what you learn.
- Inborn creativity. You aren't necessarily born with the ability—or inability—to think creatively. You can learn the knack by asking questions, looking at things in new ways, and challenging the status quo.
- Uniqueness. Good ideas don't always spring from something new. Often the best ideas and solutions come from combining separate elements in different ways.
- Lone wolves. The stereotype of the genius working alone in an office or laboratory is misleading at best. Although some mavericks do produce good ideas totally on their own, many of the best ideas and solutions are the result of collaboration by smart, motivated people.
- Brainstorming. Brainstorming sessions can produce results if they're focused on a specific issue. If it's just a free-form session of throwing ideas around, chances are you won't generate practical solutions. Keep the discussion centered on the problem you're trying to solve.
- No limits. Creativity may seem to thrive on the concept of thinking beyond boundaries. In reality, constraints can force your thinking in the right direction. Try setting some limits to what you want to create—size, budget, deadlines—and see how that helps focus your imagination.

Quote

Curiosity about life in all of its aspects, I think, is still the secret of great creative people.
