Bingo has been a fun community favorite for over a year, and we’re looking for a few volunteers to help keep it going. Even one Monday a month makes a big difference!

Volunteer Times:

- 📅 Sales: 4:30–6:00 PM
- 🕒 Kitchen: 4:30–6:30 PM

It’s a wonderful way to meet neighbors and be part of the fun.

🎱 Pickleball Update - Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday 7:30 am

John Chesney - Lot 337 • Joe Reddington - Lot 291 • Donna Koehn - Lot 335

Summer heat is here, so beginning June 1, pickleball will move to an early morning summer schedule. Set those alarms and beat the heat with us! 🕒

🎱 Summer Open Play Schedule

Tuesdays – 7:30 AM

Thursdays – 7:30 AM Saturdays – 7:30 AM

These are open play times where we’ll be available to help new players and welcome all residents. If these times don’t work for you, reach out, and we’ll gladly help arrange another time to learn and play.

- 📞 John Chesney – (814) 624-9350
- 📞 Joe Reddington – (978) 270-1865
- 📞 Donna Koehn – (919) 606-4361

The courts remain open daily from 7 AM to 10 PM, so feel free to organize your own games anytime!

🎱 June Pickle Tip: Keep the Wrist Firm.

Pickleball is all about control and consistency. Using too much wrist can cause shots to fly off target. Focus on keeping your wrist firm and letting your swing create the motion and spin for more accurate, controlled shots.

♠ Poker Night Update ♣ - Tues & Thurs 6:30 pm

Ed Strosky - Lot 240

We recently had a resident stop by looking for poker, and we were happy to point him in the right direction! For anyone wondering, poker is played every Tuesday and Thursday night in the RH card room, located next to the laundry room.

It's a comfortable, air-conditioned room with plenty of seating, easy access from the pool area or parking lot, and always a fun group of players. We play a variety of poker games, and payouts vary depending on the number of players each night.

🍷 New players are always welcome — and yes, ladies play too! Whether you're experienced or just curious to learn, come join us for a fun evening with neighbors and friends.

We still have a few open seats at the tables...and rumor has it the “Queen of Chips” is still reigning supreme! 👑 🎰

♣ Pokeno – Tuesdays 7 PM

Patti Perricone - Lot 463

Join us Tuesday nights at 7 PM for Pokeno—a fun mix of Bingo and cards played with pennies! We play for small pots and big laughs, wrapping up with a full-card round so everyone wins. Come join the fun and meet new friends!

Pool Exercise* - Wednesday 11:45 am

Carol Gabriele - Lot 486

Every Wednesday at 11:45 am, I will conduct a low-impact pool exercise class in our Regency Heights pool. The pool exercises will help build strength and balance with water as resistance. The class is only 30 minutes long. Come out for some fun in the pool as you tone your body. See you there!!!! 🏊 *Weather & temp permitting.

Bunco - Thursday 7 pm

Rose Reid - Lot 422

Grab your dice and join us for Thursday Night Bunco! We meet in the clubhouse every Thursday at 7 PM for fun, laughter, and friendly competition.

Bring $1.50 to play, and you might just roll your way home with a prize! 🎲
All are welcome—come join the fun!

🎲 LCR Update

Karen Lovell - Lot 427

LCR has wrapped up for the season! A big thank you to everyone who joined us for the fun, laughs, friendly competition, lucky quarter wins, and delicious snacks throughout the year.

We had a wonderful season and look forward to seeing everyone again in the fall. Until then—have a great summer, yinz! 🎲 😊

Need a Daily Smile?

Bob Fuchs - Lot 273

Be sure to check out RH Facebook Fun — a lighthearted community page filled with jokes, funny memes, brain teasers, uplifting quotes, and plenty of laughs to brighten your day! ✦

It's a great place to relax, enjoy some humor, and share a little positivity with neighbors. Feel free to join in and post your own favorites too! 😊

Make a plan today. Your family may not be together if a disaster strikes, so it is important to know which types of disasters could affect your area. Know how you'll contact one another and reconnect if separated. Establish a family meeting place that's familiar and easy to find.

Make A Family Plan

Step 1: Put together a plan by discussing these 4 questions with your family, friends, or household to start your emergency plan.

- How will I receive emergency alerts and warnings?
- What is my shelter plan?
- What is my evacuation route?
- What is my family/household communication plan?

Step 2: Consider specific needs in your household. As you prepare your plan tailor your plans and supplies to your specific daily living needs and responsibilities. Discuss your needs and responsibilities and how people in the network can assist each other with communication, care of children, business, pets, or specific needs like the operation of durable medical equipment. Create your own personal network for specific areas where you need assistance.

Step 3: Create an Emergency Plan

Step 4: Practice your plan with your family/household

Flying in the face of disaster

In the 1980s and early '90s, Continental Airlines was a disaster. The organization had gone bankrupt twice and was on its way to a third (and final) catastrophe. It had gone through 10 presidents in 10 years, and employees mistrusted management.

Then in 1994 Gordon Bethune stepped in. Instead of running around willy-nilly trying to stamp out the various raging fires, Bethune took a step back to return to the basics. He identified Continental's key goals so that employees' efforts would be concentrated on them rather than diffused by the disaster of the moment. One of his areas of focus was creating a corporate culture. Without the commitment of the employees, the other goals would be impossible.

Drawing on the organization's history of excellence in service, he rallied the workforce. Bethune discovered that the employees weren't bad—they just worked in a dysfunctional organization. So they were quick to get behind his new leadership.

Senior management was a different story. Bethune knew he had to make wholesale changes, and that meant getting rid of the bureaucracy. In a couple of months, Bethune and his top executives replaced 50 of the company's 61 officers with 20 top-notch people.

The changes were dramatic. In one year's time, Continental went from being ranked the worst in customer satisfaction among major airlines to first.

The birth of 'excellence'

Tom Peters didn't exactly give birth to excellence, but he did establish the idea that companies can achieve excellence under the inspiration of a management guru—like himself.

It all began in the spring of 1978. John Larson of McKinsey's San Francisco office was set to give a presentation to a client. But his computer crashed and took with it his notes. He turned to another consultant, Tom Peters, to throw together a presentation that would satisfy the client.

Peters had just returned from traveling the world to compile research on best practices in business. Up until then, his research had been collecting dust after he had presented it to the McKinsey powers that be. With an opportunity to present his findings again, Peters gathered his data. In search of a sexy title to give his presentation, Peters came up with "Excellence." It was a hit.

Eventually, Peters edited the material into a manuscript. Continuing with the idea of excellence, he titled the book The Secrets of Excellence. But the title didn't fly with the McKinsey folks, who feared that clients would think the company was selling the secrets of client operations. In 1982, Peters and co-author Robert Waterman renamed it the more politically astute In Search of Excellence. And thus was excellence born.
