SOCIAL CLUB NEWS

Marsha Dixon #314, President, 931-607-1493

We are still waiting on April showers, however Doral has quietened down, we are enduring the heat, and staying busy. Several of us wore our Kentucky Derby hats and watched the race in the CH. We had three lucky winners for our horse draw and cheered loudly for the long shot. We also had 30 women to enjoy Mother's Day Brunch at Benedicts. Four lucky women won $25 gift cards from our Social Club! We will share more information on table cleaning day in our next issue. Eight new tables have arrived, so we currently have 16 new tables in the CH.

Our community looks very patriotic with the flags we provided for everyone to display through the 4th of July. We will have a celebration at the CH, but have a few more plans to make. Please watch for all the 4th plans on FB, in the CH, and announced at Coffee Hour. June Coffee Hours will be on the 3rd and 17th. At our 17th Coffee Hour, we will honor the men at Coffee Hour for Father's Day. OneBlood will also be here immediately after Coffee Hour. There will be a sign up sheet in the CH. We will also decide in June if we are going to continue summer Coffee Hours with our small group or cancel them until October. Stay tuned for more information.

Please pray for summer showers and watch for more details for the 4th activities and future plans for summer activities!

The 19th Hole

We want to thank everyone for their participation in this year's league. Everything ran very smoothly and was enjoyable. We especially want to thank Bill McVay for all he did and to everyone for all the work we do together to make the Doral Golf league the best!

Coming up next year is our picnic at the park and a golf trip at the end of the season. We may even try a new location, Mt. Dora. More details later! Thanks again.

Doral Knitters and Crocheters

Carol Sears 727-789-2536 or cell 727-459-0709

We are looking for knitters and crocheters. Currently we are knitting lap robes, chemo hats, baby blankets, and shrugs. These are donated to Mease Countryside Hospital, Baycare Hospitals and the Veterans at Christmas.

I do have some yarn that can be used for lap robes and chemo hats. This was donated by Baycare. I also have extra needles if you need them. Just give me a call and I will deliver.

I want to give an update on my SPECIAL PROJECT. With the help of some special ladies, we have completed a large amount of lap robes from these squares. The last count is 32 lap robes. They will be given to BayCare for cancer patients and kept for the Veterans Christmas project. Big THANK YOU to Roberta Todd, Ardythe Heiser and Donna Sciarra.

Thank you

HOTA

Tom Smith #585 810-836-2061

Hello Everyone,
First of all I would like to apologize for the mix-up for the April HOTA meeting. There wasn't one held due to our last meeting in March. There were only 2 members of the board here in the park, which is not enough members to hold the meeting. Unfortunately I didn't get it posted in time.

There will be no board meetings for May, June, July, August, and September. HOTA meetings will be posted on the Doral web page 801, under the entrance sign map at the back gate, and outside of the Doral sign in front of club house. Our next HOTA meeting will be in October 2026, an exact date will be posted prior to our meeting.

Just a reminder that our meetings are open to residents that own their home, but do not have a share.

I sure hope everyone is enjoying the new looks in the park, the new improvements being made to make Doral Village a wonderful place to live. Thank you to all those involved, your time, and effort, and your love for the park. Seeing the improvements to your homes are amazing, It doesn't go un-noticed. We have a great community here. We are all one! Lets keep moving upward and onward! Thank you for all you do!! Those of you leaving Doral for the summer, Stay Safe, Stay healthy, and enjoy your summer.

See you in the Fall when you return.

Doral Village Resident Facebook Page

Kathy Arritt #448 207-343-2304

All residents of Doral Village are invited to join the Doral Village Residents Facebook page. This page makes it possible for residents to keep in touch, sharing information. Some of the useful ways it has been used are: finding packages delivered to wrong address, Birthday and Anniversary greetings, sharing pictures of fun events that took place in park or fun times out of the park, selling something, recommending a great restaurant, letting our pet owners know if a coyote was spotted in the park, thanking our handymen/board members who get together to donate their time and energy repairing things that have gone wrong, etc.

This page was at its best after our back to back hurricanes when people who weren't here could see posted pictures of conditions in the park. Our out of state resident would also post their lot numbers and pictures would be posted of their coach either resting their minds at ease or giving them a heads up to look for a repairman! The page is privately run and basically what you want it to be. The only thing I ask is that you are kind, don't bash your neighbor or the park and most importantly NO POLITICS! If this interests you look us up on Facebook, we would love to have you!

This is not an official Doral Village page like Doral 801 or the Social Club page (which I do encourage you to sign up for).

Awww...the summer months in Doral! We are missing those gals that went north. However, the Dazzlers still here will be spending much needed quality time by sharing beach days, a day at the movies, wine and cheese game nights and whatever other kinds of fun we will come up with! The Dazzlers were awarded a prize for the most patriotic and beautifully decorated table at a Red White and Blue Tea in Largo and a couple of us celebrated the 28th birthday of the Red Hat Society at a Gala in Port Richey (see pictures). If you would like to learn more about us, come join us at our monthly meeting, which is usually the first Sunday of the month at 3:30 pm in the Clubhouse! Feel free to call Beth (#229 ~ 732-614-1704) or Carol Ann (#576 ~ 816-627-9322) if you want to feel young (a/k/a not acting your age), laugh till your cheeks hurt, and just have fun. ## Manager's Corner

Jeremy Londergan

Hello Doral Village,
Last month we said good bye to the eyesore at lot 324. The Musselwhites spent many years living in that location until a series of unfortunate events contributed to the demise in the integrity of the home. The Board and I deemed the home unsafe, and agreed it had to be pulled out. Mike, the Demo guy did a nice job cleaning up the site, and now the location is ready for a new chapter.

Beautification- The three point Bottle Palm has gotten some great feedback. That project was an absolute joy to head up. Thankfully for me the joy doesn't have to end because the clubhouse curb appeal upgrade continues. Thanks to some generous monetary and volunteer contributions, we have been working on updating the landscape around the main clubhouse building by adding fresh new plants, brick borders, lighting, and a donated flag pole around the "in memory of" sign. My wish is to continue to improve by moving into the gazebo island. Hopefully this will lead us to the grand finale.... Drum roll... Repairing and painting the exterior of the building. Very exciting! I hope you share the excitement I feel. Something we can all be proud of.

Also worth mentioning. This month I am celebrating my 6-year anniversary working with you all. Cheers to the years and to our great Volunteers. THANK YOU

Our office is open. If you have any questions, or need assistance please call or stop by. Jennifer and I will be happy to help.

Hope everyone stays well, and I'll see you around the village.
Make it a great day!

Flying in the face of disaster

In the 1980s and early '90s, Continental Airlines was a disaster. The organization had gone bankrupt twice and was on its way to a third (and final) catastrophe. It had gone through 10 presidents in 10 years, and employees mistrusted management.

Then in 1994 Gordon Bethune stepped in. Instead of running around willy-nilly trying to stamp out the various raging fires, Bethune took a step back to return to the basics. He identified Continental's key goals so that employees' efforts would be concentrated on them rather than diffused by the disaster of the moment. One of his areas of focus was creating a corporate culture. Without the commitment of the employees, the other goals would be impossible.

Drawing on the organization's history of excellence in service, he rallied the workforce. Bethune discovered that the employees weren't bad—they just worked in a dysfunctional organization. So they were quick to get behind his new leadership.

Senior management was a different story. Bethune knew he had to make wholesale changes, and that meant getting rid of the bureaucracy. In a couple of months, Bethune and his top executives replaced 50 of the company's 61 officers with 20 top-notch people.

The changes were dramatic. In one year's time, Continental went from being ranked the worst in customer satisfaction among major airlines to first.

The birth of 'excellence'

Tom Peters didn't exactly give birth to excellence, but he did establish the idea that companies can achieve excellence under the inspiration of a management guru—like himself.

It all began in the spring of 1978. John Larson of McKinsey's San Francisco office was set to give a presentation to a client. But his computer crashed and took with it his notes. He turned to another consultant, Tom Peters, to throw together a presentation that would satisfy the client.

Peters had just returned from traveling the world to compile research on best practices in business. Up until then, his research had been collecting dust after he had presented it to the McKinsey powers that be. With an opportunity to present his findings again, Peters gathered his data. In search of a sexy title to give his presentation, Peters came up with "Excellence." It was a hit.

Eventually, Peters edited the material into a manuscript. Continuing with the idea of excellence, he titled the book The Secrets of Excellence. But the title didn't fly with the McKinsey folks, who feared that clients would think the company was selling the secrets of client operations. In 1982, Peters and co-author Robert Waterman renamed it the more politically astute In Search of Excellence. And thus was excellence born.

Mix these ingredients for cultural creativity

Do you want to nurture a culture of creativity in your organization? Try to build in these essential ingredients:

- Curiosity. Ask people questions that challenge the conventional wisdom. Encourage them to stretch boundaries and take chances on new opportunities.
- Emotion. People who love what they do are better at generating new ideas about their work. Hire and support people who show a real enthusiasm for your organization and its mission.
- Tolerance. People won't suggest ideas if they're afraid of being punished for failure. Encourage risk taking by showing forgiveness when things don't work out, as long as people are giving their best efforts.
- Direction. A clear sense of what you want to achieve will help people focus their ideas. Have a concrete mission statement that tells everyone what you're trying to do, why it's important, and how it will benefit everyone.

What do the instructions say? Creativity expert

Yoram Solomon often conducts workshops that teach people to approach problems with an open mind. In one exercise (recounted on the Inc. magazine website), he asks participants to build a structure out of a sheet of paper. Some cut the paper into smaller pieces, although his instructions don't specifically say they can.

Once everyone is finished, Solomon asks, "Did the instructions allow you to cut the paper?" Most believe they've done something wrong. But one person usually pipes up with, "You didn't say we couldn't, either."

"To be creative," Solomon points out, "don't assume restrictions that don't really exist."
