Dear Southwind readers,

First let me start with a parable Joanne Zeffiro asked me to share. A story named:

Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody.

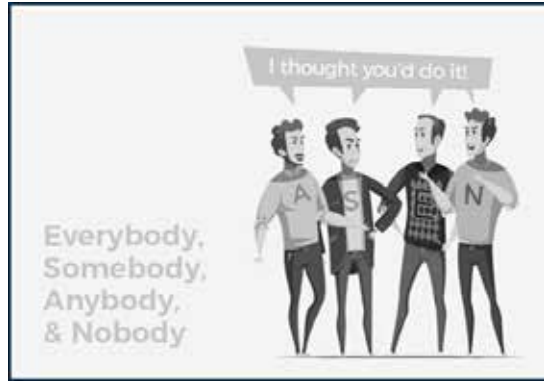

There was an important job to be done, and “Everybody” was sure that “Somebody” would do it. “Anybody” could have done it, but “Nobody” did it.

“Somebody” got angry about that, because it was “Everybody’s” job. “Everybody” thought “Anybody” could do it, but “Nobody” realized that “Everybody” wouldn’t do it.

It ended up that “Everybody” blamed “Somebody” when “Nobody” did what “Anybody” could have done!

Joanne also would like to remind the “fairer” residents in the park, “the ladies”, about the monthly: Ladies Luncheon – So bring your girlfriends and join in for an afternoon of laughter, fun and friendship! All ladies are welcome... the more the merrier! The location changes each month so check the activities board in the clubhouse for details. Do not miss out... mark your calendars and joining the girls for a great time every 3rd Friday of the month.

Last month we had some exciting events to share: Check out the events’ photos to follow – and a big thank you Jeanine Funk-Govern & Terry Riste for being this month’s Cinematic Visionaries!

Karaoke Night – Southwind’s “You’ve Got talent”

Last month’s karaoke extravaganza with friends and neighbors turned into a hilarious affair as we discovered that pitch is merely a suggestion! Armed with microphones and a healthy dose of liquid courage, the boys belted out a rendition of New York, New York that would have made Sintra roll over and Michael Bubl  go back to Canada! Participants performed classic hits and by the end of the night, we learned two things: we take our karaoke seriously, and our real talents lie in the art of enthusiastic singing! A big round of “APPLUASE” to all our resident STARS!

Night at the Races

The Kentucky Derby party was a wild ride, as friends and neighbors transformed the clubhouse into a makeshift mini-racetrack, complete with hats so elaborate you would think you were at the very event itself.

Each race began with everyone placing friendly bets based on the unique horses' names. The atmosphere buzzed with anticipation, and when the horses galloped down the track, it felt like the whole room erupted in cheers and playful banter, making it a truly memorable day of community spirit and joy.

June: A Joyful Celebration of Life, Love, and Light

As the calendar flips to June, a vibrant season of warmth and joy unfurls before us. This month, best known as the gateway to summer in the Northern Hemisphere, brings with it an assortment of delightful events, observances, and traditions that brighten our lives and set the stage for a wonderful summer. Grab your sunscreen, and let's dive into the cheerful world of June!

Thank you,
From: Tony & Spencer; Jan & Griff; Jeanine & the Frenchies (Louie & Frankie); Terry & Shaggy; and our beloved Cookie, the Breezes sweet savory star!

Seasonal and Astronomical Events

The Summer Solstice: Nature's Grand Show

Picture this: June 20th or 21st arrives, and the sun rises a tad earlier and sets a bit later than on any other day of the year. This magic moment is known as the summer solstice, when we embrace the longest day of daylight. Nature celebrates by throwing open the curtains of summer, inviting all to revel in extended sunshine—perfect for picnics, barbecues, and late-night stargazing. The summer solstice invites us to connect with nature, feel the warmth on our skin, and bask in the beauty of the world around us.

The Return of Lovebugs & Fireflies: Nature's Tiny Lanterns and the pests in our Grills

With June's arrival, a sprinkle of magic dances through the air as fireflies emerge from their hiding spots. These tiny creatures flicker like little lanterns, lighting up our backyards and parks with their soft glow. Watching fireflies at dusk becomes a nostalgic experience—reminding us of childhood evenings spent chasing their shimmering light, each spark a reminder that summer evenings are nothing short of enchanting.

Love bugs are like the romantics of the insect world, known for their dramatic displays of affection that could rival any soap opera. Imagine two tiny bugs, blissfully entwined, taking a leisurely flight together, all while ignoring the bewildered looks from passersby! They don't just choose any fancy dinner spot; they prefer the hottest highways, turning your commute into an unintended obstacle course of love-struck pairs. With their black bodies and red accents, they're dressed to impress for their season of love. Just don't be surprised if you find them hanging out in your hair or your car's grill, making them the most unexpected—and somewhat sticky—winged companions of your summer adventures!

Say Hello to the Strawberry Moon

June also invites us to gaze at the skies during the full moon, known as the Strawberry Moon. This lovely name is rooted in the time of year when strawberries are harvested, adding a delicious twist to the lunar celebration. It's the perfect occasion for moonlit celebrations, whether it's a backyard gathering with friends or a quiet moment of reflection while savoring some ripe berries under the night sky.

Key Holidays and Celebrations

Flag Day: Saluting Our National Symbol

Flag Day is celebrated in the United States on June 14th each year. It commemorates the adoption of the flag of the United States, which was first approved by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777. The day serves as a reminder of the values and principles that the flag represents, including freedom, unity, and patriotism.

While Flag Day is not a federal holiday, many people and communities take the opportunity to honor the American flag through various activities. These can include displaying the flag, holding parades, participating in ceremonies, and educating others about its history and significance. Schools often engage students in learning about the flag and its symbolism, fostering a sense of national pride.

In recent years, Flag Day has also been an occasion to reflect on the meaning of the flag in the context of diverse American experiences, celebrating the rich tapestry of culture and identity that makes up the nation. Whether through formal observances or simple acts of appreciation, Flag Day encourages individuals to express their love for their country and its enduring ideals. Let your flags fly!

Pride Month: A Kaleidoscope of Love

June bursts into a kaleidoscope of colors as we celebrate Pride Month, honoring the diversity, culture, and achievements of the LGBTQ+ community. Events like parades and festivals declare love in all its forms, encouraging acceptance and equality. This wonderful month showcases the spirit of inclusivity, inviting everyone to join in the celebration and to stand together in solidarity. It's a joyous time when the streets come alive with music, laughter, and the vibrant hues of a rainbow, reminding us that love knows no boundaries!

Juneteenth: A Moment of Reflection and Celebration

On June 19th, we commemorate Juneteenth, a historic day that marks the end of slavery in the United States. This day is a poignant reminder of resilience, courage, and the ongoing quest for justice and equality. Celebrations include community events, educational programs, and family gatherings that foster unity and awareness. It's a day that encourages reflection on the past while embracing a hopeful future where freedom and justice prevail.

Father's Day: Honoring Our Heroes

Falling on the third Sunday of June, Father's Day is a heartfelt occasion to celebrate the fathers and father figures in our lives. Celebrating our dads on Father's Day is a heartfelt reminder of the love and wisdom they bring into our lives. It's a day to honor the countless sacrifices they've made and the laughter they've shared with us. From simple moments like teaching us how to ride a bike to deep conversations that shape our dreams, dads have a unique way of making us feel cherished and supported. On this special day, we gather to show our appreciation with heartfelt cards, favorite meals, and shared stories, creating new memories that will last a lifetime. It's a beautiful opportunity to express our gratitude, reminding them just how much they mean to us and celebrating the incredible bond that makes them our heroes!

Observances and Themes

National Rose Month: The Blossoming of Beauty

June, famously known as National Rose Month, welcomes these stunning blooms in all their orders. Roses, with their captivating colors and enchanting fragrances, symbolize love, friendship, and beauty. They fill our gardens, farmers' markets, and homes, inviting us to appreciate nature's artistry. So, let's take a stroll through a rose garden, or perhaps gift a bouquet to someone special—after all, every rose is a story waiting to be told!

Men's Health Month: A Focus on Well-Being

As we celebrate the joys of June, we also take a moment for reflection on Men's Health Month. This is an awareness campaign aimed at encouraging men to prioritize their health and well-being. Check-ups, exercise, and healthy habits take center stage as we remind ourselves that taking care of our bodies is an essential part of living our best lives. So, let's step into the great outdoors, engage in some physical activities, and celebrate the gift of health!

Great Outdoors Month: Adventure Awaits

June marks Great Outdoors Month, a celebration of nature's wonders and an invitation to explore the beautiful landscapes that await us. As warmer days arrive, it's the perfect time to embark on adventures, whether it's hiking through area parks, biking along scenic trails, or hitting the many beach activities. This month encourages us to reconnect with the outdoors, promoting not only fun and excitement but also the importance of environmental stewardship. Families and friends will gather for grilling, the white sandy beaches, nature walks, and outdoor sports, creating lasting memories while fostering a love for nature. Every sunrise brings new opportunities for discovery, so lace up your hiking sneakers, pack a picnic, and get ready to embrace the great outdoors—adventure is just around the corner!

The Cookie Sheet

by Cookie Pontis

Cookie Pontis –
Author of
“The Cookie Sheet”

Apricot Crescents

350° oven

Use an ungreased cookie sheet (I use parchment).

Dough: 1 Cup cold butter
2 Cups flour
Crumble butter and flour
1 beaten egg yolk
½ Cup Sour cream
Add these to flour mixture

Filling: 1 Cup apricot preserves
1 Cup flaked coconut
½ Cup chopped pecans (You can use walnuts if preferred.)

Mix until dough forms. (I use a dough hook on my mixer.) Refrigerate overnight covered with plastic wrap. Take dough out and let sit 30 minutes. Divide into 4 balls. Lightly flour the board. With a rolling pin, roll each ball into a circle about 1/8” thick. Cut into twelve pie shaped pieces. Top with 1 teaspoon filling each. Roll up from large side to the point. Dip top into sugar. Place on cookie sheet. (You can get 2 dozen on a cookie sheet.)

Bake at 350° for 15 to 17 minutes or until light golden in color.
Remove immediately from baking sheet. Some of the filling will leak out and will be hard to remove if you wait too long.
Cool completely on rack. When cooled, sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Take Me Out to $2 Night

The Dunedin Blue Jays are a Minor League Baseball team of the Florida State League and are the Single-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays Major League Baseball club. The team plays throughout the summer at TD Ballpark on Douglas Avenue in Dunedin. Home games, particularly Wednesday night games, are popular with Southwind residents. We are typically found sitting behind first base. Folks really enjoy $2 Wednesdays. Fans can grab $2 tickets, $2 hot dogs, $2 popcorn, and $2 12 oz. beer on Wednesdays. Plus, the 6:30 pm games are cooler than day games. And parking at the ballpark is free.

Tickets can be purchased online prior to the game at www.mlb.com/mlb/dunedin. Or you can purchase tickets at the ticket window the day of the game and your tickets will be sent to your email address. Either way be sure to bring your phone and email address to the game. There aren't any paper tickets.

Come and join your Southwind neighbors for a fun night out. The Wednesday home games in are June 3 against the Daytona Tortugas and June 24 against the Tampa Tarpons. Hope to see you there!

Southwind Earns Volunteer Appreciation Award

You'll recall the Breakfast with Santa event held November 8, 2025, here in Southwind. The proceeds from the breakfast were donated to Family Support Services (FSS). Residents and guests also donated gifts for the children supported by FSS. The generosity didn't stop there. Proceeds from Share the Wealth were also donated to FSS by the HOA as well as winners Jeanine and Rick Govern. The kindness and big-heartedness of our community are what make this such a wonderful place to live.

Family Support Services is the lead child welfare agency in Pasco and Pinellas County providing adoption and foster care for children.
