October

When I think of October, I think of a time of change, gratitude, and new beginnings. Although the fall season officially started in September, October brings it to life.

We can be grateful for the past summer season and prepare for the coming Florida "summer" season. We are the fortunate ones that can experience the wonderful weather most of the year.

In the next couple of weeks, I will be calling those that volunteered to lead regular activities last year to confirm you are willing to lead again. We may have a couple of events to put on the calendar. Look forward to making those connections.

Our park continues to experience sales bringing in new neighbors. I am excited about meeting everyone and enjoying their new ideas.

Halloween

Origins & History

- Ancient Celtic Festival of Samhain: Halloween traces back over 2,000 years to the Celtic festival of Samhain, marking the end of the harvest and the beginning of winter. Celts believed that on this night, the boundary between the living and the dead blurred, allowing spirits to roam the earth.
- Christian Influence: In the 8th century, Pope Gregory III designated November 1 as All Saints' Day, and the night before became known as All Hallows' Eve, eventually shortened to Halloween.
- American Evolution: Irish and Scottish immigrants brought Halloween to the U.S. in the 19th century. It evolved from somber spiritual traditions into a fun, community-centered celebration.

Traditions & Activities

- Trick-or-Treating: Children dress in costumes and go door-to-door saying "Trick or treat!" to receive candy. This practice stems from medieval "souling," where people collected food in exchange for prayers.
- Costume Parties: People of all ages wear costumes ranging from spooky creatures to pop culture icons and attend themed parties.
- Pumpkin Carving & Jack-o'-Lanterns: Inspired by Irish folklore about "Stingy Jack," people carve pumpkins into faces and light them with candles to ward off spirits.
- Haunted Houses & Corn Mazes: These attractions offer spooky thrills with eerie decorations, jump scares, and ghostly themes.
- Horror Movies & Storytelling: Watching scary films and sharing ghost stories are popular ways to embrace Halloween's eerie vibe.

Symbols & Superstitions

- Ghosts & Spirits: Represent the belief that the dead return on Halloween night.
- Witches & Black Cats: Associated with magic and superstition.
- Skeletons & Gravestones: Symbolize death and the afterlife.
- Bats & Spiders: Creatures of the night that add to the spooky atmosphere.

The Hot Dog Dilemma

A golden retriever named Max was dressed as a hot dog—complete with bun and mustard. At the local pet parade, he saw a real hot dog stand and bolted toward it, tail wagging. The vendor panicked, thinking a giant hot dog was attacking. Max just wanted a snack.

The Costume Rebellion

A cat named Luna was dressed as a bat. She tolerated it for exactly 3 minutes before climbing onto the bookshelf and knocking down every Halloween decoration in protest. Her owner said, “She’s not a bat—she’s a wrecking ball.”

Superdog Takes Flight

A Labrador named Buddy wore a Superman costume with a cape. During trick-or-treating, a gust of wind caught the cape and made it flap dramatically. A toddler screamed, “He’s flying!” Buddy just ran faster, loving the attention.

The Pumpkin Thief

A pug named Olive was dressed as a pumpkin. She blended in so well with the porch decorations that neighbors kept trying to pick her up, thinking she was a plush toy. She didn’t mind—she got belly rubs every time.

Bunny in a Shark Suit

A rabbit named Snowball wore a shark costume. When guests arrived, she hopped out from under the couch, and one person shrieked, “It’s a land shark!” Snowball paused, then casually started nibbling on a shoe.

Animal Quotes for Halloween

“My dog’s Halloween costume cost more than my own. He’s going as a spoiled brat.”

“Cats are the only creatures that can knock over your decorations and still look like they’re doing you a favor.”

“My pet’s costume is so good, even the squirrels are scared.”

“If you think ghosts are scary, try taking a costume off a cat.”

“This Halloween, my dog is going as a vacuum cleaner—because he already eats everything off the floor.”

HEALTH

Dishes with portion-control markers effective

Sometimes simple ideas work best. That seems to be the case with a plate and cereal bowl equipped with markers for proper portion sizes when it comes to helping people lose weight. The dishes appear to help obese patients with diabetes lose weight and decrease their use of glucose-controlling medications, according to a report in the Archives of Internal Medicine.

In the past 40 years, the number of obese U.S. adults increased from 13.4 percent to 30.9 percent—and most cases of Type-2 diabetes can be attributed directly to obesity. When you consider that restricting calories has been shown to improve blood sugar control in diabetics, in part by controlling weight, you get an idea of how powerful a simple tool like a portion-control dish can be. Many studies have shown the number of calories ingested is directly related to the serving size offered. At a time when restaurants seem to be offering ever-larger meals, and the rate of obesity is soaring, most people seem to be unable to determine what correct portion size is on their own.

Researchers at the University of Calgary conducted a six-month study of commercially available portion-control plates and bowls. The plates were divided into sections for carbohydrates, proteins, cheese and sauce, with the rest left open for vegetables. The plates provided for appropriate calorie intake for men (approximately 800 calories) and women (approximately 650 calories). The cereal bowl held a 200-calorie meal of cereal and milk.

Half of the study participants used the plates; the other half received the usual care of being instructed by dietitians. Those using the plates and bowls lost an average of 1.8 percent of their body weight as compared to those not using the plates, who lost an average of 0.1 percent of their body weight. Significantly, 16.9 percent of those using the portion-control plates lost 5 percent of their body weight as opposed to 4.6 percent of those who did not use the plates. Researchers say this is important because a 5 percent weight loss has been shown to decrease morbidity and mortality associated with obesity-linked disorders such as cancer and heart attack. Additionally, 26.2 percent of those who used the portion-control plates decreased their use of diabetes medications after six months as opposed to 10.8 percent of those who did not use the plates. Researchers say these inexpensive tools can help overweight populations with and without diabetes.

For information about portion control plates and bowls in this study, browse The Diet Plate Web site at www.thedietplate.us/index.php.

Tips for Avoiding Facebook Scams

facebook.com/help

1. Secure your Facebook account with a strong password and two-factor authentication

Avoid including your name, phone number, email address or common words. Don't reuse your Facebook password on other services online, and never share your password with others.

2. Don't accept friend requests from people you don't know
Scammers may create fake accounts in an attempt to friend and manipulate people.

3. Watch out for suspicious links and malicious software

Be careful not to click on suspicious links, open suspicious files or install malicious apps or browser extensions—even if they appear to come from a friend or a company you know.

Halloween Humor

The Vampire Who Couldn't Bite

A little boy dressed as a vampire went trick-or-treating with plastic fangs so big he couldn't talk properly. At every house, he'd mumble "Trick or treat!" and people would ask, "What are you supposed to be?"

He finally pulled out the fangs and yelled, "I'm a vampire, okay?! But I can't bite anyone because my mom says no chewing plastic!"

Pumpkin Panic

One family carved a super elaborate jack-o'-lantern and placed it on the porch. The next morning, it was gone. They checked the security camera and saw a squirrel trying to climb inside it, then getting stuck and rolling off the porch like a pumpkin bowling ball.

The squirrel was fine—but the pumpkin? Not so much.

Ghost in the Mirror

A dad tried to scare his kids by dressing up as a ghost and hiding in the bathroom. He waited quietly behind the shower curtain.

His daughter walked in, saw her reflection in the mirror, screamed, and ran out—because she thought she was the ghost.

The dad never got to jump out. He just stood there, defeated, in a sheet.

Witchy Mix-Up

A teacher wore a witch costume to school and added a fake wart to her nose. One student stared at her all day. Finally, he raised his hand and asked, "Miss, is that wart part of your costume or... should we be worried?"

Funny Halloween Quotes

"If you've got it, haunt it!"

"I would make a skeleton joke, but you wouldn't find it very humerus."

"Witch better have my candy!"

"Ghosts are just people who didn't get enough attention in life."

"I'm too ghoul for school."

"You say witch like it's a bad thing."

"Creepin' it real since 1800."

"Resting witch face."

October Anecdotes & Puns

“Outstanding in His Field”

A scarecrow won “Best Fall Decor” in the neighborhood. When asked how he did it, he said, “I was just outstanding in my field.”

“Pumpkin Panic”

Someone dropped a pumpkin and yelled, “Squash!” A kid nearby screamed, “It’s alive!” Turns out, it was just a rolling gourd with googly eyes.

“Oct-over Already?”

A dad told his kids, “Tomorrow is October 31st, so October is officially Oct-over.” The kids groaned. The dad smiled. Mission accomplished.

“Witchful Thinking”

A woman left a broom on her porch hoping to attract a witch. Nothing happened. She sighed, “Guess it was just witchful thinking.”

“Nut-flix and Chill”

A squirrel was spotted lounging on a pile of leaves with a half-eaten acorn. Someone joked, “He’s just enjoying some Nut-flix and chill.”

“Green Day Wake-Up Call”

On October 1st, someone posted: “Can someone wake up Green Day? September’s over.” The internet collectively nodded.

“Autumn-Mobile”

A kid asked what car is best for October. The answer? “An autumn-mobile!” Bonus points if it’s pumpkin orange.

“Mock-tober Madness”

A teacher declared the first day of October “Mock-tober” and encouraged sarcastic answers all day. The students thrived. The principal... not so much.

“Jingle Bell Rock Defense”

One person carries a rock labeled “Jingle Bell Rock” to throw at anyone playing Christmas music in October. It’s a seasonal defense mechanism.
