HOA MEETING FEBRUARY 8th , 7: 00 pm, Clubhouse

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 512, 843-457-9599

I would like to thank Hazel Regan for her years of service on the Residents's board. She has been a valuable asset to our group as well as a great friend. She spent many months helping revise our outdated bylaws, helping with the pancake breakfast, and countless hours of service to our club. She will be missed.

Our last Residents' Club meeting was held on January 4th, which included the election of officers for this next year. We would like to welcome Mark Zanol to the position of First Vice President. Congratulations Mark and welcome to the board. Also, we would like to officially welcome Stephen Stancick as second Vice President. He graciously stepped into John Topor's position temporarily for the rest of the year as John & Connie moved back to New York because of health issues. Please thank Mark and Stephen for volunteering to serve on our board.

Pancake breakfast, Saturday, February 6th, 8:30-10:00 a.m. Sausage links, scrambled eggs, blueberry pancakes, coffee, o.j. and sweet roll, $5.00. Dine in or take out. Bring your own containers for take out.

VALENTINES DAY

Valentine's Day, also called St. Valentine's Day, holiday when lovers express their affection with greetings and gifts. The holiday has origins in the Roman festival of Lupercalia, held in mid-February. The festival, which celebrated the coming of spring, included fertility rites and the pairing off of women with men by lottery. At the end of the 5th century, the pope Gelasius I replaced Lupercalia with St. Valentine's Day. It came to be celebrated as a day of romance from about the 14th century. Although there were several Christian martyrs named Valentine, the day may have taken its name from a priest who was martyred about 270 ce by the emperor Claudius II Gothics. According to legend, the priest sighed a letter "from your Valentine" to his jailer's daughter, whom he had befriended and, by some accounts, healed from blindness. Other accounts hold that it was St. Valentine of Terni, a bishop, for whom the holiday was named, though it is possible the two saints were actually one person. Another common legend states that St. Valentine defied the emperor's order and secretly married couples to spare the husbands from war. It is for this reason that the feast day is associated with love.

Formal messages, or Valentines, appeared in the 1500s, and by the late 1700s commercially printed cards were used. The first commercial valentines in the United States were printed in the mid-1800s. Valentines commonly depict Cupid, the Roman god of love, along with hearts, traditionally the seat of emotion. Because it was thought that the avian mating season begins in mid-February, birds also became a symbol of the day. Traditional gifts include candy and flowers, particularly red roses, a symbol of beauty and love,

The day is popular in the United States as well as in other countries, it is the most common wedding anniversary, and mass weddings of hundreds of couples are not uncommon on that date. The holiday has expanded to expressions of affection.

IN THE NEWS

SURPRISE PACKAGE

There are a couple of ways to deal with thieves; You can call the police And Let them deal with it, or, like one woman in Canada, take things into your own hands by making the criminals regret their actions.

Laurie Pringle has been the victim of numerous thefts over the past three year. Her front door pretty much opens out onto the sidewalk of a terribly busy downtown street, as a result, some passersby have taken it upon themselves to take a quick detour to her front door and help themselves to her parcels. After having multiple packages stolen, she decided to hit back by wrapping up a package that would give the thieves a not so pleasant surprise. She emptied a cat litter tray into a delivery box and left it on the front porch for the taking.

Pringle did not have to wait long for her plan to come together as just 40 minutes later the package was gone. Unless the thief in question needed some cat litter, it is safe to say they weren't checking the contents before stealing it. The predator was clearly willing to gamble that the theft would pay off, so hopefully Pringles plan will have taught them a lesson.

A FLORIDA MAN WAS ARRERSTED FOR SETTING HIS TRUCK ON FIRE, BUT HE HAD A GOOD REASON.

The Okaloosa County Sheriff's deputies responded to a report of a loud explosion on the side of a road and found a Chevy Silverado fully engulfed in flames. While speaking to the owner of the truck, [Kevin Robert Murphy] he told deputies he had poured gasoline onto and into the truck, then set it on fire. When asked why, he said he had set the truck on fire to give you guys something to do.

[This guy has got to be missing a few cards.]

Deputies arrested the 28-year-old Murphy for arson, meth., and drug paraphernalia that were found in his pocket.

CAKE ECSTASY

A Florida man, Jethro Geneus, 30 was a passenger in a Honda that was pulled over by Port St. Lucie cops after a license plate check determined that Geneus was the subject of an outstanding arrest warrant, A subsequent search of a backpack that was at his feet on the front floorboard revealed, a scale, and two bags each containing white and brown substances. Geneus claimed that he was carrying "a bag of sugar and a bag of corn starch to bake a cake."

However, a field test revealed that both substances were found to be meth and ecstasy.

What is the last thing you would expect to find at an Olympic swimming pool? They are rarely shown on television and they are rarely needed, but they are there. They are there more as an extra precaution, but at least they get to see the action upfront, not too shabby for a day's work. The answer is ...LIFEGUARDS.

Las Vegas, on average, sees slightly over 300 weddings per day if you're doing the math, that's roughly 10,000 ceremonies per month and 120,000 per year.

It has been calculated that on average a football/soccer player runs just under 10 miles in a single game.

One can be released early from prison for good behavior. In one country, one can get out early by reading books. Do to overcrowding in Brazil's prison system, the government has a program in place in which a prisoner can reduce his or her sentence by 4 days for every book they read. Inmates read a book, submit a book report and if approved they will spend 4 days less in the system.

A Student was heading home for the holidays, when she got to the airline counter, she presented her ticket, as she gave the agent her luggage, she said " I would like you to send my green suitcase to Hawaii and my red suitcase to London."

The agent replied, "I'm sorry we can't do that."

"Really," said the student, "I'm so relieved to hear that, because that's exactly what you did to my luggage LAST YEAR."

A blond walk into a bank in New York city and askes for the loan manager, she says she is going to Europe on business for two weeks and needs to borrow 5 thousand dollars. The bank officer says he will need some kind of security for such a loan. So, she hands over the keys to a new Rolls Royce parked in front of the bank. The loan officer agrees to accept the car as collateral and motions an employee to drive the car into the banks underground garage. Two weeks later the woman returns to the bank and repays the loan in full. The loan officer says we are a bit puzzled, while you were gone, we checked you out and found you are a multimillionaire, why would you bother to barrow $5000.00 from us? The blond replied.
