Food insecurities continue to grow for families and individuals in the Dunedin area.

Honeymoon Park residents continue to be generous contributors to the Dunedin Cares Food Pantry!

Your support and donations of nonperishable food, personal hygiene products, paper goods and pet food do make a difference. I personally experience their gratitude when I assist in the distribution of donations. These items truly give recipients some hope and happiness.

Thank you for all your continued support and kindness.

As always, donations can be left at my home (#196), in the container at the clubhouse, or I am happy to pick up from you (just give me a call 785-493-4844).

In addition, if you know of anyone who is in need of food assistance please direct them to the Pantry. Location at 1630 Pinehurst, Dunedin. Current distribution is on Thursday and Saturdays from 10 a.m. - Noon.

A few laughs from Carolyn Carr:

“Mum, did you want a boy or a girl?” Mum, “I wanted a back rub.”

A guy walked into a crowded bar, waving his pistol and yelled, “I have a 45 caliber colt 1911 with a 7-round magazine plus one in the chamber and I want to know who's been sleeping with my wife!!”

A voice from the back of the room called out, “You need more ammo!”

As I was getting into bed she said “You're drunk.” I said, “How do you know?” She said, “You live next door.”

Just as the graveside service finished, there was a distant lightning bolt accompanied by a tremendous burst of rumbling thunder. The little old man looked at the pastor and calmly said, “Well, she's there and it's His problem now.

CALLER: I have dialed a wrong number. Sorry.

GOOGLE: No sir, Google bought Gordon's Pizza last month.

CALLER: OK. I would like to order a pizza.

GOOGLE: Do you want your usual, sir?

CALLER: My usual? You know me?

GOOGLE: According to our caller ID data sheet, the last 12 times you called you ordered an extra-large pizza with three cheeses, sausage, pepperoni, mushrooms and meatballs on a thick crust.

CALLER: OK! That's what I want....

GOOGLE: May I suggest that this time you order a pizza with ricotta, arugula, sundried tomatoes and olives on a whole wheat gluten-free thin crust?

CALLER: What?? I detest vegetables!

GOOGLE: Your cholesterol is not good, sir.

CALLER: How the hell do you know that?

GOOGLE: Well, we cross-referenced your home phone number with

Another one from Carolyn Carr -

Alan and Sandra lived on a cove at Gull Lake Alberta. It was early winter and the lower portion of the cove had frozen over. Alan asked Sandra if she would walk across the frozen part of the cove to the general store and get him some smokes and beer. She asked him for some money, but he told her, "Nah, just put in on our tab. Old man Stacey won't mind."

So Sandra, being the good wife, walked across the ice, got the smokes and beer at the store and then walked back home across the cove.

When she got home with the items she said, "Alan, you always tell me not to run up the tab at Stacey's store. Why didn't you just give me some money?"

Alan replied, "Well, Sandra, I didn't want to send you out there with cash when I wasn't sure how thick the ice was."

A love story like this brings a tear to your eye.

A Walk Thru Time – Honeymoon Park - 30th Anniversary 1968-1998

“Delightful Dunedin” is the home of Honeymoon Park. It is midway on Florida's west coast in the heart of Pinellas County. With an average winter low of 62.2 degrees and an average summer high of 80.7 degrees. Dunedin is a year-round tropical paradise.

The area was first settled in the 1860s by homesteaders. They came by schooner to find a new life, to farm and to grow cotton in the warm climate along the peninsula. Their homesteads spread over several acres, surrounding what we now know as downtown Dunedin. Slowly it began to grow into a permanent town.

First, a horse-powered cotton gin building was erected on the waterfront where the Sea Island cotton growers could do their own ginning. A Mr. Jones built a small store and a large two-story building for his home and boarding house. Then two Scotsmen added a waterfront store and trading post. By 1870, Jonesville, named after Mr. Jones, became a small community.

In 1873 some of the Scottish settlers wanted to change the town's name to Dunedin, the original name of Edinburgh, Scotland. After a lengthy controversy, the Scotsmen won, and in 1878 the U.S. Government established a post office in the name of Dunedin.

Dunedin has retained its Scottish heritage and has close ties with its sister city, Stirling, Scotland. Annual Highland Games and pipe bands help keep the traditions alive.

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

From the Editor

How about those Bucs!! Super Bowl champions, right here in Champa Bay! A bright spot in these boring COVID times.

I have noticed that lately when people greet one another on the street, it's “have you got your shot yet?” Apparently the demand is far greater than the supply. Wonder why that wasn't taken into consideration when all the promises were made. But anyway, many folks have gotten vaccinated and eventually we will all get there, and the world will be a safer place.

In the meantime, life does go on – my third great-grandson came into the world early in the morning of February 10th. He is adorable, but he will be 3 months old before I get home to cuddle him. But he will not be lacking in family to love him.

Life is Good!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
