COVID Vaccinations: There are phony links being texted and emailed about Free COVID vaccines. Please do not click on any links. This is not the Health Dept. Please see the list of vaccine sites below. As soon as I hear back from the Health Department I will reach out to all residents. The COVID-19 vaccine is only authorized for :

- Long term care facility residents and staff
- Persons 65 years of age and older
- Health Care personnel with direct patient contact, though hospitals may vaccinate persons who they deem vulnerable to COVID-19.

The vaccine is available to residents, part-time residents, and seasonal residents (such as “snowbirds”) who meet the residency requirements of the Public Health Advisory issued by the State Surgeon General on January 21, 2021. Vaccine Providers should verify residency prior to administering the first dose of the vaccine. Residents of Florida may provide a copy of their Florida Driver’s License or an identification card issued by the State of Florida. Part time/seasonal residents who do not have a valid Florida Driver license or identification card may demonstrate proof of residency by providing copies of 2 of the following documents:

- Deed/mortgage/residential lease or rental agreement.
- Utility bill or utility hookup order, not more than 2 months old.
- Mail from a financial institution (including account statements), not more than 2 months old.
- Mail from a government agency, not more than 2 months old.
- If the seasonal resident lives with a permanent resident, proof of residential address and a statement from the person with whom the seasonal resident resides stating that the seasonal resident does reside with them.
- If a non-resident received a first dose vaccination in Florida prior to 1/21/2021, they are eligible to receive their second dose in Florida.
- You can receive the vaccine in any county; you are not limited to your home county.

Respectfully,
Christine Roberts, LCAM

Champa Bay!!!

I'm writing this 4 days after the Tampa Bay Buccaneers won the NFL Championship! People down here are beside themselves!! They have suffered through years of less-than-stellar football. This was both an unexpected and truly appreciated victory. Thank you Tom Brady (some are calling us "Tomp Bay"). Celebrations continue.

To add to sports fans' delight, the Tampa Bay Lightning also had a season to remember. Yes, our hockey team actually won the Stanley Cup! That's the second team from Tampa Bay finishing at #1! Hooray!

But wait! That's not all. The Tampa Bay Rays baseball team can brag about their season as well. Maybe they fell short of winning the World Series, but taking home the American League Championship isn't chopped liver! They deserve congratulations just like the Bucs and the Lightning. To win the pennant and play in the World Series is a dream come true.

In this crazy year when it seems up is down and in is out, Tampa Bay has much to cheer about. Even those who may not be considered sports enthusiasts are becoming super fans! Many thanks to our teams that never gave up. We appreciate your efforts. Your blood, sweat and tears! Needless to say, this year hasn't given us much to smile about. You have!

We always knew that this was a special place. Pointe West is our unique family. Florida is a magical place to spend our winters. I can't wait for the next time we can all get together in the sun and celebrate!

CHAMPA BAY!!!!!!

St Patrick's Day Fun Facts

While St. Patrick's Day is now associated with wearing green, parades (when they're not canceled) and beer, the holiday is grounded in history that dates back more than 1,500 years. The earliest known celebration was held on March 17, 1631, marking the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick in the 5th century. Learn more about the holiday's history and how it evolved into the event it is today.

- ❖ The Real St. Patrick Was Born in Britain: St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, was born in Britain near the end of the 4th century. At age 16 he was kidnapped by Irish raiders and sold as a slave to a Celtic priest in Northern Ireland. After toiling for six years as a shepherd, he escaped back to Britain. He eventually returned to Ireland as a Christian missionary.
- ❖ There Were No Snakes Around for St. Patrick to Banish from Ireland: Among the legends associated with St. Patrick is that he banished snakes from Ireland. Snakes never occupied the Emerald Isle in the first place. There are no signs of snakes in the country's fossil record. And water has surrounded Ireland since the last glacial period. Before that, the region was covered in ice and would have been too cold for the reptiles.
- ❖ Leprechauns Are Likely Based on Celtic Fairies: The Leprechaun is commonly associated with St. Patrick's Day. Belief in leprechauns likely stems from Celtic belief in fairies. In Celtic folktales, leprechauns were cranky souls, responsible for mending the shoes of the other fairies.
- ❖ The Shamrock Was Considered a Sacred Plant: The shamrock, a three-leaf clover, has been associated with Ireland for centuries and was considered a plant that symbolized the arrival of spring. According to legend, St. Patrick used the plant as a visual guide when explaining the Holy Trinity.
- ❖ Corned Beef and Cabbage Was an American Innovation: The meal that became a St. Patrick's Day staple across the country was an American innovation. While ham and cabbage were eaten in Ireland, corned beef offered a cheaper substitute for impoverished immigrants. Irish-Americans living in the slums of lower Manhattan in the late 19th century and early 20th, purchased leftover corned beef from ships returning from the tea trade in China. The Irish would boil the beef three times—the last time with cabbage—to remove some of the brine.

Traditional Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
The rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of His hand

Recipe Roundup

Slow Cooker Corned Beef & Cabbage

Ingredients

- 1 corned beef brisket 3-4 pounds
- 1 onion
- 3 cloves garlic
- 2 bay leaves
- 2 ½ - 3 cups water
- 2 pounds potatoes peeled & quartered
- 2 large carrots chopped
- 1 small head of cabbage cut into wedges

Instructions

1. Chop onion into large chunks and place in the bottom of a 6 qt slow cooker. Top with corned beef and seasoning packet.
2. Pour water into slow cooker until it just about covers the corned beef. Add garlic and bay leaves.
3. Cook on low 8-10 hours.
4. After the initial 3 hours, add potatoes and carrots to the slow cooker.
5. Two hours before serving, add cabbage wedges to the slow cooker.
6. Remove corned beef from slow cooker and let rest 15 minutes before slicing.
7. Serve with potatoes, carrots and cabbage.

History of Daylight Saving Time

1. It's "daylight saving time," not "daylight savings time." Many people render the term's second word in its plural form. However, since the word "saving" acts as part of an adjective rather than a verb, the singular is grammatically correct.
2. Benjamin Franklin did not originate the idea of moving clocks forward. The man who espoused the virtues of "early to bed and early to rise" was not practicing what he preached. After being unpleasantly stirred from sleep at 6 a.m. by the summer sun, he wrote an essay in which he calculated that Parisians, simply by waking up at dawn, could save the modern-day equivalent of $200 million through "the economy of using sunshine instead of candles." As a result of this essay, Franklin is often erroneously given the honor of "inventing" daylight saving time, but he only proposed a change in sleep schedules—not the time itself.
3. Germany was the first country to enact daylight saving time on April 30, 1916 during WW1, Germany embraced daylight saving time to conserve electricity. Weeks later, the United Kingdom followed suit and introduced "summer time."
4. Daylight saving time in the United States was not intended to benefit farmers, as many people think. Contrary to popular belief, American farmers did not lobby for daylight saving to have more time to work in the fields; in fact, the agriculture industry was deeply opposed to the time switch when it was first implemented on March 31, 1918, as a wartime measure. The sun, not the clock, dictated farmers' schedules, so daylight saving was very disruptive.

5. Not everyone in the United States springs forward and falls back. Hawaii and Arizona—with the exception of the state's Navajo Nation—do not observe daylight saving time, and the U.S. territories of American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and the Northern Mariana Islands also remain on standard time year-round. Some Amish communities also choose not to participate in daylight saving time. Around the world, only about one-quarter of the world's population, in approximately 70 countries, observe daylight saving.

The Marble Statue

A marble statue stood in the middle of a large city, surrounded by hundreds of marble tiles that visitors from all over the world stood on to admire the statue's beauty.

One night, when the city square was empty, one of the marble tiles right in front of the statue spoke.

"Hey, statue, don't you think it's not fair that people from all over the world come here to admire you while ignoring and stepping on me?"

The statue replied, "Don't you remember we were actually cut from the same block of marble?"

"Yes, I do! That's why it's even more unfair. Both of us came from that block, and yet the world treats you so differently now!"

The statue said, "Do you remember the day the sculptor tried to work on you, but you resisted his tools?"

"Yes, it hurt! I hated him! How could he use those nasty tools on me?"

The statue continued: "Well, because you resisted his tools, he couldn't work on you, so he decided to give up and work on me instead. I knew at once that I would be something different and unique after his efforts, so I bore all the painful tools he used on me and allowed him to craft me as he wanted."

"But those tools were so painful!"

The statue said, "My brother, there is a price for everything in life. You decided to resist and give up, so you can't blame anybody who steps on you now."

The marble tile silently listened to the statue's words and started to reflect on them

The Defective Phone

An elderly gentleman took his cell phone to a repair shop. "I've only had this phone for a few weeks, but it doesn't receive calls. Can you fix it for me?"

The technician took it into the back and came out a few minutes later. "Actually, there's nothing wrong with this phone. I tested it, and it receives calls just fine."

The old man stared at him, then took the phone. "Then why aren't my children calling me?"

The technician didn't know what to say. As the old man turned to leave, he asked quietly, "Do you call your parents?"

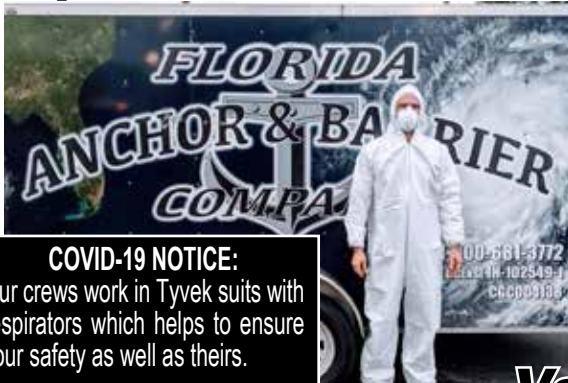

The technician was caught off guard. Between his job, his bills, raising his family, and all the other distractions of his life, he realized he hadn't called his mother and father in weeks.

"Do me a favor," the elderly man said. "Call them right now."
