HOA President's UPDATES

Pat Lucksinger, HOA President, 518-573-0968

Notes from the monthly meeting with ELS February 2021:

Serendipity joined with Blue Jay Mobile Home Park to offer COVID vaccines to our residents. You needed to be a resident of these parks and over 65. It has been a struggle to get everyone vaccinated and we hope this helps!

I am finally back in Florida and happy to leave the cold and snow behind. The park is slowly opening amenities and the HOA is planning activities that we feel can be done safely. We still need our masks, and we need to socially distance. Betty is posting the upcoming events.

It seems that the new lawn service is an improvement, but it is early in the game. Trees will be started soon (hopefully by the time we deliver this news) and be done in 2 parts. Very costly project. Nothing is allowed on your grass, so lawn service is easily completed. Put your sign, flag, pot etc. in your garden beds. REMEMBER NO VEGETABLE GARDENS.

The Directory is still at the printer today Feb 13 and I hope you have it by the time you receive this news. We still need to update the HOA list so we can email you or call you when we have information to share. You can ask to have it omitted from the directory. Please leave your information at the office for the HOA or give it to me or any Director.

Flags that are seasonal or sports related or anything not in prospectus need approval one time and you attach this to your prospectus, and you are covered. Send an email to the office. No flags have been denied as of yet.

We have asked for ELS to consistently to apply the rules. 360's have started again. They are doing the front of the park first.

It is best to email the office for requests. If you need forms, keys etc. they can be dropped off to you.

PLEASE Don't try to adjust the temperature in the clubhouse, gym and or pools. If persons continue messing with pools, they could easily turn them off.

Gate is opened now for Bingo nights. Monday at Riviera and Thursday here at Serendipity.

Remember you need to update your annual tags and display on your mobile home. Management will be checking this.

Please help to keep our park looking the best possible! It has been reported that people who smoke are leaving their cigarette butts on the streets or sidewalk. Please pick up your own trash! Thanks, from a concerned resident.

I again hope as vaccines are given and we all try to be safe that we get closer each month to normal.

Stay safe - Pat

Serendipity Couple Celebrates 60th Wedding Anniversary!

Who would think that a young couple could meet in a Bowling Alley in New Jersey and well over a half of a century later, would be celebrating 60 years of a great marriage together? That is exactly what happened when New Jersey native Walt Schulz met his future wife Diana shortly after his discharge from the US Army. He had been stationed in Germany and was also in other European countries, so what else was a fitting first date for them? Meeting up with Walt's Army buddies of course!

Walt and Diana Schulz were married on January 20, 1961 and spent most of their early life in Union, New Jersey where Walt was a bread/bakery delivery person and Diana worked many years for the PS Electric & Gas Company, as well as the Chevrolet Division of Chrysler Motors. They were blessed with 4 children. Wally, who now resides in Dunedin, Jon who lives in Pennsylvania, Amy who is still in New Jersey, and Jeff who lives in Brooklyn, New York. Walt and Diana have 2 grandchildren, Sydney and Dylan by their only daughter, Amy. Both grandchildren have attended Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri (one recently graduated). However, this family had many other children, friends of their kid's around at most times! Very seldom only 4 kids!

As an added note, their son, Jeff who is a graphic design artist was just nominated for a Grammy Award for his work! The Schulz's are very proud of all their children and cannot wait until this COVID-19 is under control as it has been almost a year and a half since they have been together.

Sports kept this family going and together. With coaching, supporting their kids with their sporting games, Walt and Diana also loved to play games such as volleyball, racquetball, hiking, cross country skiing, and more! Wow! Walt in his younger days was scouted by the baseball team the Cincinnati Reds...a dream come true, but he was not able to play for them because of an arm injury.

The Schulz's sold their home in New Jersey and bought a wonderful 5th wheel and traveled the United States with the whole family. Camping was their life, and they loved every minute of it! They would travel to camp and be managers at different campground.

Walt and Diana Schulz live at Lot # 240 and have been in Serendipity for 20 years this March. Although, Walt jokes he does not do anymore mountain climbing, he does play golf here in Florida, and they do enjoy the beaches!

How to stay married for 60 years? They both chimed in with these answers: “to wake up each day with a smile, work hard at it and spend your day with laughter!” If you see this happy couple around the park, please tip your hat to these sweet neighbors and congratulations!

Bingo

THERE WILL BE NO BINGO UNTIL RESTRICTIONS ARE LIFTED AND THAT WILL ALL DEPEND ON HOW THINGS TURN OUT FROM THIS PANDEMIC. AS LONG AS WE DON'T GO BACK TO A CLOSE DOWN AGAIN, WE WILL TRY TO REOPEN. WE SURE DO HOPE THIS CAN HAPPEN BUT FOR NOW IT CAN'T HAPPEN AT THIS TIME IT'S JUST NOT SAFE.

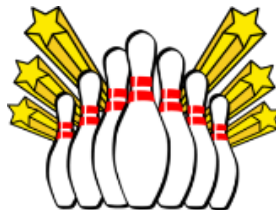

BINGO is played in the East clubhouse. We have all new equipment including a new screen and computer. We play BINGO every THURSDAY at 7:00 P. M. sharp! Please bring a friend, bring a neighbor! It's a fun night out and you can get a chance to meet new people. I want to thank everyone for participating in our BINGO. We have a great group of people and we always welcome more to attend - the more the merrier! This also means the bigger the pots to win.

Any questions please call me at 518-337-0120.

Bowling

Bob Jones, 727-638-0822

I have contacted most of the bowlers who were bowling last year to see if they want to bowl this coming season. Understandably, most of the people contacted have decided not to bowl until this pandemic is under control. So, as of now bowling this season is “up in the air” and will be POSTPONED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

To all our park residents – we would like to invite you all to join our Friday morning mixed bowling family in the coming months. There will be a signup sheet in the West Clubhouse only for new bowlers to sign up for just in case all goes well!

Watch this Monthly Media and the bulletin boards for information on any changes or updates. No matter how well you bowl, please come, join our bowling family, and have a great time with us! We are a “fun” league, and we cheer everyone on! It is never too late to join. If you have any questions, please call me at 727-638-0822.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at the lanes in the near future! -Bob

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. The last four years has been fabulous! Our cruise on the “Oasis of the Seas” was remarkable. We discovered every corner of the world’s largest cruise ship. THE CURIOSITY CORNER

ANDREWS RAIDERS!

Chattanooga, Tennessee was a strategic railroad center for the south’s vital railroad system used for supplies and communication. The Union wanted to isolate and weaken Chattanooga before trying to capture the city. A civilian scout and Union spy named James Andrews stepped forward to pitch a plan to Generals Buell and Mitchel that would help isolate Chattanooga. The railroad lines out of Chattanooga connected many large cities in the northern Confederate states and other strategic cities such as Atlanta, Augusta, Charleston, and Savannah. Damaging or destroying as much of the Western & Atlantic railroad line between Marietta, Georgia and Chattanooga would seriously hamper Confederate troop and supply movements. Both generals embraced the plan and set into motion what would later become known as

“The Great Locomotive Chase.”

Twenty-two soldiers, volunteers from an Ohio brigade, and two civilians purchased railroad tickets, and in small groups meandered to Marietta, Georgia, where they would become aware of the plans for this daring raid. Then at around 5 AM on April 12, 1862 they boarded a train as passengers to Chattanooga. Two individuals for unknown reasons failed to board the train. Shortly after departing Marietta the train stopped so passengers and crew could have breakfast. When the crew and passengers were out of sight the raiders quickly separated the engine (named “General”), the coal tender and three boxcars from the rest of the train without raising suspicion. Andrews and three other men climbed aboard the engine and the remainder boarded the three boxcars. Moments later the legitimate crew looked up from their breakfast to the jolting sight of the “General” leaving Big Shanty station without them.

The courage of Andrews and his men was matched by the determination of the “General’s” rightful engineer, Jeff Cain. He and two of his crew, in a determined effort to recover the train, ran after the train on foot for two miles to Moon's Station. There they commandeered a hand-propelled cart to continue the chase. The Great Locomotive Chase had begun!

The first twenty miles seemed to go according to plan. The saboteurs were confident in the belief that the hard part was behind them, that the rest of the mission should be easy until they returned to the safety of the Union forces in Tennessee. They proceeded with caution, keeping the speed of the locomotive to a normal speed to avoid suspicion. They even had a cover story to explain their haste through rail stations. Periodically along the route they proceeded to cut telegraph lines, burn bridges, drop timbers across the tracks and destroy parts of the rail line. While passing the Etowah River they made a costly mistake by ignoring an old locomotive on a sidetrack.

Once Cain and his two crewmembers arrived, they quickly commandeered the old locomotive to continue the chase. At Kingston, the raiders were delayed by train traffic. Confident in the belief that no one was aware of their presence, they patiently but nervously waited on a siding, unaware that Cain was pursuing them and closing the distance with each passing minute. Finally, after more than an hour, Andrews' Raiders were able to continue their journey north, just as Cain arrived at the other end of the railyard. The two groups were now just ten minutes apart.

At Kingston, Cain and his crew traded the aging locomotive for better one. However, outside of Kingston, they encountered track that had been torn out and had to abandon it. Refusing to give up, Murphy and Fuller ran 3 miles on foot to Adairsville where they encountered a southbound train. Convinced the engineers of the urgency of the situation, they released the cars from the engine and continued the pursuit running in reverse.

While attempting to damage track north of Calhoon, the Raiders became aware that they were being pursued. They jumped back onto the "General" and pushed the throttle to maximum. Now both locomotives were racing northwards at full steam, the pursuing engine racing backwards, slowly closing the gap. Through the towns of Resaca and Dalton they raced. The Raiders dropped timbers behind them and even cut loose two boxcars in an effort to slow the pursuing locomotive, all attempts failed.

In a last desperate attempt to slow the pursuers, the raiders set fire to the coal tender and remaining box car hoping to burn the covered bridge over the Oostanaula River. Crowding onto the "General" they continued northward and looked back in astonishment as the bridge refused to ignite. One by one they began to jump from the train as they realized the safety of the Union forces was out of reach. Approximately 5 miles from Tennessee, the "General" ran out of steam and the remaining Raiders ran to avoid capture.

In about a week Andrews and all the Raiders, including the two who had failed to board the train, were captured. In Atlanta, James Andrews and seven others were tried for being unlawful combatants and convicted as spies. Andrews was hanged on the 7th of June and the other seven hanged eleven days later. The remaining 14 soldiers were placed in prison camps. The 14 prisoners thinking they had nothing to lose engineered an escape four months later in which eight reached safety. Six were captured and brutally punished.

On March 25, 1863, these six, now ragged, weakened soldiers stood before Secretary of War Edwin Stanton. They had just been released from a P.O.W. camp in a prisoner exchange. The condition of these once brave men moved him, and their story amazing. He decided that these six men for their acts of valor would receive the first Medals of Honor to be awarded in our country's history. The youngest of the six, Jacob Parrott, would receive the first medal. The six recipients by rank:

Ross, Marion A., Sergeant Major, 2d Ohio Infantry, Born in Christiansburg, Ohio Pittenger, William, Sergeant, Company G, 2d Ohio Infantry, Born in Knoxville, Ohio Bensinger, William, Private, Company G, 21st Ohio Infantry, Born in Wayne County, Ohio Buffum,

Eventually all but two members of the raid, Wilson and Shadrack, would receive the Medal of Honor. Despite years of effort by their descendants, military personnel, members of Congress and other influential people these two individuals, for reasons unknown, have not received the medal. Wilson and Shadrack were laid to rest in the Chattanooga National Cemetery, alongside the other six Raiders who were executed in Atlanta.

“National Medal of Honor Day” is now celebrated on March 25th and Chattanooga recognized as the birthplace of the Medal of Honor. All three services now have their own designed Medal of Honor. This medal is not pinned on but worn around the neck of recognized individuals. They become part of a very select group, approx. 3,400 to date, who have demonstrated uncommon valor, at the risk of their lives, above and beyond the call of duty. While most of these medals are given posthumously, a living recipient receives special privileges and compensation as an expression of gratitude for their valor by a grateful nation. These people, as well as all those who have served in an armed conflict, deserve respect from those who can only speculate about their own behavior in similar circumstances.
