Humor

There was a man who worked for the Post Office whose job was to process all the mail that had illegible addresses. One day, a letter came addressed in a shaky hand-writing to God with no actual address. He thought he should open it to see what it was about. The letter read:

Dear God, I am an 83-year-old widow, living on a very small pension. Yesterday someone stole my purse. It had $100 in it, which was all the money I had until my next pension payment. Next Sunday is Christmas, and I had invited two of my friends over for dinner. Without that money, I have nothing to buy food with and you are my only hope. Can you help me please.

Sincerely, Edna

The postal worker was touched. He showed the letter to all the other workers. Each one dug into his or her wallet and came up with a few dollars. By the time he made the rounds, he had collected $96, which they put into an envelope and sent to the woman,

The rest of the day, all the workers felt a warm glow thinking of Edna and the dinner she would be able to share with her friends. Christmas came and went.

A few days later, another letter came from the same old lady to God. All the workers gathered around while the letter was opened. It read:

Dear God, how can I ever thank you enough for what you did for me? Because of your gift of love, I was able to fix a glorious dinner for my friends. We had a very nice day and I told my friends of your wonderful gift. By the way, there was $4 missing. I think it might have been those bastards at the post office.

Sincerely, Edna

Book Signing

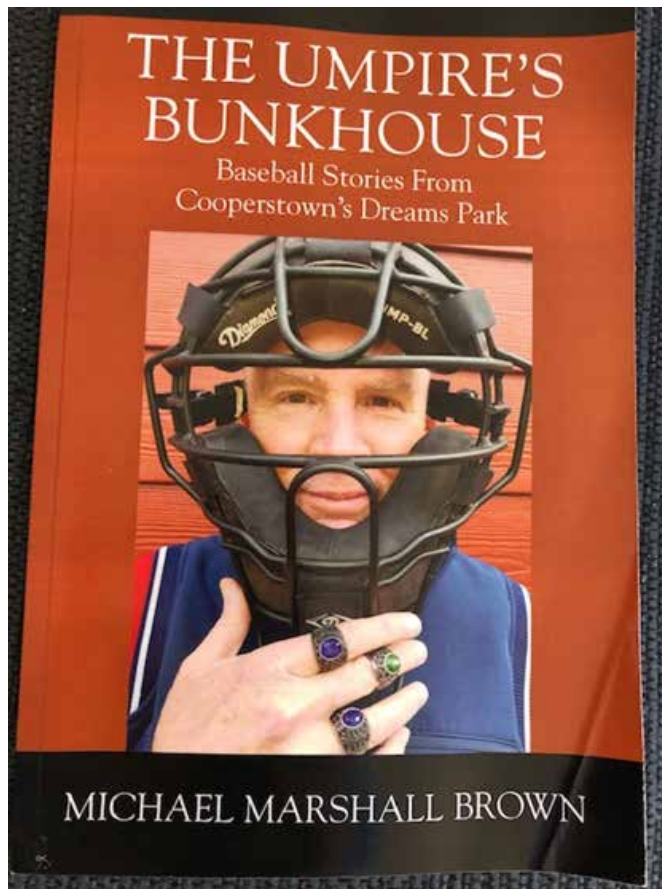

In case you missed it, as I did, author Michael M. Brown, son of Dick Brown, was in town visiting his dad and promoting his new book, “The Umpire's Bunkhouse”.

Dick hosted a book-signing event at his house the weekend of March 13th.

Mr. Brown writes of his experience umpiring at Cooperstown Dreams Park in Cooperstown, NY in 2018 and 2019. Cooperstown Dreams Park is a baseball tournament facility open June through August for players 12 and under. Weekly Tournaments involve 104 teams coming from all over the U.S. Although Mr. Brown has many year's experience as an umpire, it was his first time in a bunkhouse.

Baseball fan or not, this looks like an interesting read.
Check with Dick Brown if you would like a copy.

P.S. There is another book in the planning stages, about Dick and his best friend for 75 years.

Here's one from Carolyn Carr:

An old man lay awkwardly sprawled across three entire seats in the movie theater. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the old man, “Sorry sir, but you're only allowed one seat.”

The old man didn't budge. The usher became more impatient. “Sir, if you don't get up from there I'm going to call the manager.”

Once again, the old man just muttered and did nothing. The usher marched briskly back up the aisle, and in a moment returned with the manager.

Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move the old disheveled man, but with no success. Finally they summoned the police.

The officer surveyed the situation briefly, then asked, “All right, buddy, what's your name?” “Fred,” the old man moaned.

“Where are you from, Fred?” asked the officer.

With a terrible strain in his voice, and without moving, Fred replied: “The balcony”...

Common Courtesy

I was talking to a neighbor recently who was upset that dogs have been peeing on their flowers. Common courtesy would suggest that if people have plants, flowers, or yard decorations in their yards it's rude to allow your dog to spoil them. Just sayin'!
