FROM THE OFFICE

As I approach the deadline for this issue, my Manager's meeting is scheduled for tomorrow, March 17th. I am planning on discussing the reopening of the pool. It is still leaking, which is a concern for Walter because the water bill is $3000 higher per billing period. I proposed to him that I would open the pool without the heater, using only the solar, to compensate a little for the water usage. I plan to put it to a vote at my meeting. As I type this, the deck is being power washed. The construction date is still July 5th, but there is a slim chance that it will get moved up.... here's hoping.

The Social Club Board of Director's have a meeting scheduled before the final Social Club meeting on April 7th. The Activities for next season will be discussed. I believe that we should wait until November to see where we are at pandemic/Canadian border wise in order to accurately know what the season will bring. We have been thru a year of "what ifs"; hopefully, we will be able to welcome all our Canadians residents back next season and have a fun filled activities calendar. I have had phone calls from other Parks asking if we are having Fun Night, Bingo, Cards, etc. Embassy is known for its full activity calendar! If you would like to weigh in on this decision, give Nedra Woodroof, President of the Social Club, a call, 727-538-9507.

Residents are still not following Park rules regarding guests. All guests who are staying for over 48 hours are supposed to be registered in the Office, with photo ID. If the same guest returns, then only a phone call or email would be necessary, giving the office the dates of their visit. Common sense says if someone is arriving Friday for a long weekend then leaving on Monday, then they wouldn't have to register due to the Office hours. Any guest with a dog must also notify the office about the dog, keeping in mind that certain breeds are not welcome "guests" in the Park...refer to the Park rules for a list. It is also the Residents responsibility that their guests follow the rules.

When selling your mobile home, you must make sure the buyer has been approved by the Office. Just because someone used to live here (or is currently living here) doesn't mean they are automatically approved. Some residents let their mobile fall into disrepair, don't follow rules, move in younger people, etc. and I am glad they are moving....OUT OF THE PARK!

Another reminder that parking on the grass or street overnight is not allowed. If you have guests and need extra parking, short term, call me at the office and I will see if I can accommodate you. 12th street parking lot spots are "rented" except for the front row on 7th street. This row is for "temporary" parking.

The next Manager's Meeting will be JUNE 16TH, 9:00 A.M. for coffee; meeting at 9:30 a.m. Please note: If you plan to attend, practice social distancing that you are comfortable with. If everyone at the table is wearing a mask and you are not, please respect that and sit elsewhere.

LIBRARY

Fern Michaels was born Mary Ruth Kudzkir and nicknamed Dink by her father because she was a dinky little thing weighing in at only four and a half pounds, in July of 1933. Mary grew up, went to college, got married and had 5 children. When her youngest went to kindergarten her husband told her to get off her ass and get a job! She decided to write a book. Her husband had little faith in her. He said, “stupid is as stupid does”. Guess what-the book was a best seller and she got rid of him!

Fern Michaels has written more than 156 books, most of which are best sellers! She likes to write about women who persevere and prevail. Her series are: Godmothers, Cisco family, Sisterhood, Men of the Sisterhood, Texas, Vegas, Kentucky, Sins and Captive.

Come check her out at the Library.

NEW FEATURE: There will be a designated spot where all the books Embassy has from the featured Author will be on display.

Don't forget the Library is open daily 10 – 6: Wi-Fi can be accessed from the screen room 24/7. Please use your Library.

The office also has for sale pool cover-ups, embassy mailboxes, and face masks that help support our Library.

Please remember to be safe and take precautions. Turn out the lights and please turn off the fans when you leave.

DEATHS AND ILLNESSES:

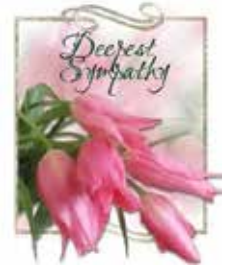

Get Well cards were sent to:

Barb Whitman, who is home after a hospital and short rehab stay.

Deaths:

Tom Messina Lot 1220 (cards can be sent to his Family at his address)

Tom fought a valiant battle with many, many medical issues in the last 3 years; through it all he kept busy with his wood working projects, refusing to give up. The last time I saw him he was down to 80 pounds and joked about being a “Gangsta” because he couldn’t keep his pants up! He was just 58 years old and will be missed by his Mother and Daughter.

EMBASSY FOOD DRIVE

Once again, Cathy Russell is hard at work helping the Food Pantry. They need canned vegetables, cereal, pasta, to name a few things—Non-Perishable items only. It will be a drive thru event in the Clubhouse parking lot at 10:00 a.m. April 7th (immediately following the Social Club Meeting).

If you can’t make this event, items can be dropped off at the Russell home, Lot 1301.

FROM EMBASSY EDITOR:

How many times after someone passes away that you hear: “he was the best father, provider, friend, etc.” when you know differently; OR when a young person is killed in the streets, “he was the best son, he was turning his life around, the drugs weren’t his”; I shrug my shoulders and silently say “yeah, right”!

Following is the eulogy wrote by the adult grandchildren of a truly great man.

In Loving Memory of Edward J Morenzoni Jr. 6/15/31 – 2/9/21

This week, we lost a great man that we wish the entire world had a chance to meet...our Grandfather.

We could list a million things to explain who our grandfather was and what he stood for, lessons he taught us that will never be forgotten, and values that we will carry with us to continue his legacy. From an early age he taught his grandchildren that respect was not something to be taken lightly. He explained to us how men needed to open and hold the door allowing a woman to enter first. We knew the second we walked into his home that the ball caps came off.

He was never afraid to approach a complete stranger in a restaurant wearing a hat, prompting them to remove it, or remind someone to watch their language “because ladies are present”. He displayed dignity and respect at all times and taught his daughters and granddaughters to never settle for anything less than that. This is the type of man that he was, and he shaped his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren to carry on these beliefs. This is the legacy he is leaving behind.

He had an uncanny ability to never be lost no matter where he was, if he traveled somewhere once he would never forget the route again. His landmarks along a particular route, more often than not, would include a golf course along the way! We are forever grateful for the time and opportunity we had to spend with Grandpa at the golf course. He would bring his young grandsons to the course to pass on his love for the sport and teach us the integrity it takes to play the game the right way. We would constantly hear from his friends at Winnapaug Country Club how much fun it was to play a round of golf with our grandfather. They would tell us how he always approached and played the game the right way, how respected and respectful of a person he was both on and off the golf course. We have come to appreciate how true these sentiments are and that he was so much more than the average man.

The lessons he taught us go so much further than respecting others or the love and passion for sport, he also taught us the importance of family, hard work, and dedication. These lessons now become his legacy that we use as a guideline to raise the next generation. We speak about him in the highest regard, as does everyone that knew him.

He was a giant to us growing up, but always a gentle and humble one. He was a smart and hard worker. He was the definition of chivalry and respect. Most of all, we love you because you gave us the blueprint on how to become great human beings. His demeanor and attitude now serve as a benchmark for the type of son, brother, husband, friend, father, grandfather, and great grandfather WE can now only hope to become. He was the greatest role model that any grandchild could ask for and we are so proud to be able to call you our Grandfather. We look forward to passing on the lessons you taught us to our own children and grandchildren. People like grandpa don't come along often, but because of this, he will live forever!!!

We lost a man larger than life, as we cry tears of sorrow and sadness, we find peace knowing he's finally back with Nana where he belongs. Rest Easy Gramps, We love you!

P.S. We hope the chicken in heaven is better than the chicken here one earth, maybe you'll try some!

(For the last several winters many residents of Embassy got to know Mr. Morenzoni when he stayed with his son, Ed; he would sit in the carport, playing cards, chat with anyone who stopped by, but the biggest highlight of his Life at Embassy was being able to enjoy golf during the winter months; those of us who knew him are thankful for the experience of knowing such a great man).
