Corn Hole Tournament

by Bill A.

The tournament scheduled for Saturday Feb. 20th, looked questionable because the morning weather was chilly and overcast. But the good old Florida weather came through, and by 12 noon - it was a little windy, but it warmed up and we started on time. A special “thank you” to Carl Mankowski, for setting up the teams and running this event.

The HOA Board of Directors showed up by 10:30am and each Board member had an assignment. Rick Landon and John Mietus set up the new canopy. The grill and tanks were brought down and by 11:15, Jack Manning was ready to cook hotdogs with Rick. Ellie Malloy was in charge of the condiments and Karen Ragsdale was in charge of collecting the money. Bill was in charge of the drinks.

Where else can you buy a hot dog and a drink for $2.00? A nice long line formed for this bargain. Over 60 people were watching and playing. People were cheering for their favorite team.

By 2:30 p.m. the finals were starting. In the finals were Jerry Carroll and Karen Ragsdale against Lee Taormina and our host Carl M. The finals were finished very quickly. Carl and Lee were up 2 nothing. Then Carl stepped forward and threw three in the hole to win the game 11 - nothing. The winners received a trophy and a cash prize and the 2nd place team won ribbons and a cash prize also.

By the time the semifinals were over, the clean up was done. Special thanks to Peg Zillman and Cheryl Hudecek for helping clean up along with several board members. Everyone seemed to have a good time and wanted to know when we could hold this event again. Keep watching the bulletin board to see what your HOA Board has planned for you.

A special thank you goes out to Ceci, Sandy and Kingsley Management for buying the new canopy, trophies, the hot dogs and drinks. Your HOA Board of Directors bought two new set of boards and bags, plus donated the prize money. Thanks to everyone for showing up and having a good time, win or lose or just sitting on the sidelines. Everyone had a great day and the weather was almost perfect.

*Note from Breezes Editor – it was great to hear the sounds of fun, cheering and laughter in this Community again! Carl M. said this Tournament had 44 participants (22 teams), plus spectators. Carl did a great job, and he said he is willing to run another tournament soon and then every few months after.

Teams were randomly matched by drawing numbers. The newly engaged couple, Bill and Frieda, just happened to draw the same number – 10! Every team played 5 games each and the winners kept playing to place. The 4th place winners were Dave Lense and Lori Chappell, 3rd place winners were Dale Fieste and Patty, 2nd place winners were Jerry Carroll and Karen Ragsdale and in 1st Place were Carl Mankowski and Lee Taormina. Congratulations to all winners and a special thank you to Lori Chappell for taking and sending in the attached photos!

A FOND FAREWELL TO AL AND MARYANNE BAILEY

By Terri C.

Maryanne Bailey was the very first representative of our Community that I met shortly after moving in to my Southwind home in April 2018. She was with the Welcome Committee and gave me a packet of useful information about the Community. She showed me around the Club House, introduced me to then HOA President Lyle Neumann (which sparked my interest in writing for The Breezes), and she invited me to the Pool exercises weekdays at 9:30am. Maryanne and Al went to pool exercises and Al kept us on pace with the routine of 15 repetitions for each exercise, by announcing “14” just before the change. He had to say it pretty loud because we were a very talkative bunch!

Al and Maryanne are from Frankenmuth, MI and have been married for 60 years. They have been very active in the community, participating in many past events and dinners, delivering The Breezes newsletters door to door, helping out as much as they could, and just making everyone feel welcome. They moved into Southwind 6 years ago.

Due to Al's healthcare needs, they have moved to an Assisted Living Facility in Hudson called Atria Park of Baypoint Village where staff is on hand to help, they are allowed to bring their pets and get 3 prepared meals a day! Al loves desserts, so hopefully he can get his fill and Maryanne can still bake her famous cookies. They may have moved, but their hearts are still here in Southwind, and when activities resume in the Club House, they plan on visiting all of their friends here. We hope that happens soon.

Al and Maryanne, you have touched our lives in many memorable and wonderful ways and we wish you the best! You will be missed, dear friends! Be well and stay safe!

**Maryanne shared their new address with me and welcomes friends and neighbors to visit them at: 7927 State Rd 52, Apt #123 Hudson, FL 34667. It's a 50 minute drive straight up US19. They are doing well, enjoying getting to know some new neighbors and their surroundings, but they still think of Southwind as “home”.

JOKES OF ART

Senior Citizen and Car Keys

Several days ago, as I left a meeting at a hotel, searching for my keys and finding none, I gave myself a TSA pat down, only to find no keys. A quick search of the meeting room revealed nothing.

Suddenly, I realized I must have left them in the car. Frantically, I headed for the parking lot. My husband has scolded me many times for leaving the keys in the ignition. I, on the other hand, believed that the ignition was the safest place. So, I rushed to the parking lot. My husband's theory was right; the parking lot was empty. I immediately called the police, gave them my location, and confessed that I had left the keys in the car and the car had been stolen.

I called my husband, "Hi, Honey," I stammered. (I always call him "Honey" in times of crisis. "I love you. I left my keys in the car and the car has been stolen.")

After a period of silence I thought the call had been dropped, and then I heard his voice.

"ARE YOU KIDDING ME," he barked, "DON'T YOU REMEMBER? I DROPPED YOU OFF!"

Now it was my turn to be silent. Embarrassed, I calmly said, "Will you please come and get me?" He retorted, "I will, just as soon as I can convince this cop that I DIDN'T STEAL YOUR CAR!"

The Brunette, the Redhead and the Blonde

Three women are about to be executed. One's a brunette, one's a redhead and one's a blonde. The guard brings the brunette forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no and the executioner shouts, "Ready! Aim!" Suddenly the brunette yells, "EARTHQUAKE!!!" Everyone is startled and throws themselves on the ground while she escapes.

The guard brings the redhead forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no and the executioner shouts, "Ready! Aim!" Suddenly the redhead yells, "TORNADO!!!" Everyone is startled and looks around for cover while she escapes.

By now the blonde has it all figured out. The guard brings her forward and the executioner asks if she has any last requests. She says no and the executioner shouts, Ready! Aim!" and the blonde yells, "FIRE!!!"

The Ventriloquist And The Blonde

A ventriloquist was touring the clubs and stopped to entertain at a bar in a small town. Blonde jokes were a very popular fare for his routine. But this night, he got a reaction from the audience he hadn't expected...

Suddenly, after one blonde joke after another, a large blonde woman in the fourth row stood on her chair and shouted, "I've heard just about enough of your perverted blonde jokes. What makes you think you can stereotype women that way? What does a person's physical attributes have to do with their worth as a human being?"

The startled ventriloquist looked on in amazement, as the blonde continued, "It's guys like you who keep women like me from getting respect at work and in our communities, and of reaching our full potential as a person because you and your kind continue to perpetuate discrimination against, not only blondes, but women at large...all in the name of humor!"

Flustered, the ventriloquist began to apologize. The blonde interjected, "You stay out of this, Mister. I'm talking to that little 'Dumb Bunny' on your knee!"

Kindergarten Teacher

A teacher was helping one of her kindergarten students put his boots on. He had asked for her help, and she could understand why. No matter how hard she pushed and he pulled, the boots just did not want to go on. By the time the second boot was on, she had worked up a sweat.

She almost whimpered when the little boy said, "Teacher, they're on the wrong feet." She looked and sure enough, they were. She pulled at the boots trying to get them off, but it wasn't any easier than putting them on.

Once they were off, again they worked together to get them back on, this time on the right feet. As soon as they were on, he announced, "These aren't my boots." She wanted to scream at him, but bit her tongue and maintained her cool.

Once again they struggled to pull the ill-fitting boots off. He then said, "These are my brother's boots. My mother made me wear them."

The teacher didn't know whether she should laugh or cry. She mustered up enough grace to wrestle the boots on again, then asked, "Where are your mittens?"

He said, "I stuffed them in the toes of the boots".

Have the Right Doctor? Ask Yourself These 10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

www.Dedicated.care

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

Starting Over

By Bill Roberts

Starting Over. Change. Two concepts that go hand in hand but usually are very hard for us to do. Of course change is inevitable and is said to be one of the few constants in our lives. I will fully admit that change is not always easy for me and something that I tend to resist. If change in the world would have been left in my charge we would probably still be in caves drawing on the walls and wondering how we were going to warm up our hot dogs. But I have found that when I have accepted change my life has usually been enriched and gone down a smoother road.

As is my custom I usually derive my wonderings that lead to my scribbling from music. When I heard the new song “Starting Over” by Chris Stapelton from his new album of the same name it got me to wondering how my life started over about eleven years ago.

It was a very uplifting turn and one that finally allowed me to start living my life at forty-five years old. I will not bore you with the details as they would not be all that interesting and in stark opposition of today’s world view, some things need to remain private. I will say though that change becomes a lot more apparent when you are at the bottom and looking up. But let us move from the dramatic, and as the old saying goes, onward and upward.

Change or starting over can be small and subtle, loud and proud, or somewhere in between. It can come out of necessity or just merely by choice. The point is, when it comes knocking, it is probably a good idea to get up and answer the door. It is something that starts early in our lives and remains with us until we make the final big change that history tell us is inescapable.

So to get the ball rolling I thought I would share some of the changes that I made eleven years ago and have provided me with a new direction and a more enjoyable time on this earth:

Exercise: This is something that allows you to be in your own thoughts and is a great stress reducer. I have also heard a rumor that it makes you healthier.

Tanning: At one time in my life I was whiter than Casper the Ghost. Then I found the sun and true love was found. Hey when you’re brown you don’t frown.

Reading: Apparently they have these things called books. They allow you to go to many different places and your imagination can be boundless.

Sending of birthday cards to friends and family: Yes very old fashioned but one that is enjoyable and rewarding. Besides it was something that my grandmother always did and how can you go wrong doing something that your grandmother did.

Wearing flip flops: Is there really anything better to wear on one’s feet. Enough said.

Enjoying your family and friends: Nothing really profound here but something that should NEVER be taken for granted. Also gives me time for a shout out to Debbie, Neal, Jeri Lynn, Kim, and Jill.

Living your own life: It seems rather simple but is so easy to get off track. Not trying to promote narcissism here but remember you count too.

Well here are just a few examples from my own life. Your list and reasons behind a change in your life will of course be your own. It doesn’t matter how big or small the changes are or for that matter why you are starting over. Just know that option is available to us all. Sometimes you just have to live with the memories, endure the pain, and shake off the past. You turn over that new leaf, find those new interests, and begin again. Then you will be starting over.

*Notes from Editor:

Bill Roberts moved to Southwind from North Carolina more than 2 years ago. He bought his home, #107 and moved in – sight unseen! His cousin, Suzanne Johnston, lives across the street in #120. His sister, Debbie, and his Mother live in Tarpon Springs.

Bill is from a large family and he has 4 children and 1 grandson – who calls him “Papa”. He works full time in management at Walgreen’s. He enjoys spending time at the beach on Honeymoon Island.

Like many of us, he got tired of the cold weather and so he moved to Florida. Bill loves fresh air and sunshine and you can often find him sitting outside wearing sunglasses. (see photo)

Bill has written other articles for the Breezes and his contributions are very much appreciated.

- **To correct an error in editing “Southern Born and Southern Bred” - Merle, Johnny, George, Dolly, and Tammy – are NOT his siblings – my mistake, I’m sorry Bill

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

seek new ways to steal money and personal information from older Americans, federal officials warned on Feb. 23 during an hour long “COVID-19 Scams and Older Adults” webinar.

After scams involving fake test kits and phony cures, nonexistent cleaning supplies and bogus stimulus grants and other financial benefits (some still wreaking havoc), here's what officials said are among today's red-hot COVID-19 scams:

- 1. Vaccine scams. You can't pay to skip the line, reserve an appointment spot or join a clinical trial. Be wary of inbound calls or texts that ask for your Social Security number, financial details or insurance information to reserve your spot. There also have been reports of scammers impersonating local health departments and vaccine providers. Never share personal, financial or medical information with people you don't know. If your pharmacy sends you a text, don't respond; instead reach out with a phone number you know is legit.
- 2. Vaccine-for-sale scams. Ignore ads touting vaccine for sale from an online pharmacy or elsewhere. It is not.
- 3. Contact tracing scams. Genuine contact tracers will not ask for money or your Social Security number, bank account or credit card number. Nor will you be asked to disclose your immigration status.
- 4. At-home test kit scams. While the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has authorized at-home diagnostic tests for COVID-19, scammers are posing as Medicare representatives and asking for Social Security numbers in exchange for what they purport is a free test kit. Some promise overnight delivery. Don't believe it. Instead check with your health department to find a legitimate testing site.
- 5. Government payment scams. Government agencies will not ask you for payments via cash, gift cards, wire transfers or cryptocurrency.
- 6. Air filter scams. Fraudsters are emailing, texting, calling and sending letters claiming they have air filters that “will remove COVID-19 from the air in your home.” The claim is false.

PLEASE AVOID THIS LINK: Getavaccinenow.com – DO NOT CLICK ON THIS LINK – THIS IS A SCAM!!!!!!

ALSO, ANY “ONLINE PHARMACY” who texts or emails from an email ending in “.exe ” IS A SCAM!!!
