THANK YOU

Opu and his Meowmy Donna want to SINCERELY THANK all of the residents in Harbor Lights who helped to bring him home! It could not have happened if not for everyone's help. I'm forever grateful for everything everyone did to bring my boy home. He is still traumatized but, for being lost for 3 weeks, he's in pretty good shape. You have my deepest gratitude!!

Phone Numbers and Addresses

Hello everyone and welcome to a little bit of Paradise.

My name is Dennis, and I along with a lot of help from my wife Mary, try to keep up a current directory for the residents here at Harbor Lights. Your help can make it a lot easier for us to produce a directory that is as accurate as possible at the time of printing. If you are new to the park or have had a change of address or phone number please, fill out the form on this page. You can then drop it off at our home at 4838 92nd Street N., or email it to: Harborlightsdirectory@gmail.com

We are going to try to have the 2020/2021 directory published for distribution to residents some time in December.

Chest pressure, a squeezing sensation or chest pain. These feelings may be angina, a symptom of heart disease.

Angina is your heart's warning system. It happens when part of the heart doesn't get enough blood and oxygen. It's also a symptom of coronary artery disease, a type of heart disease. It may feel like a pinching sensation in the chest, and could be accompanied by sluggishness and chest tightness. If you experience any of these symptoms, the experts at BayCare's Morton Plant Hospital can get to the cause and treat it with a procedure that's right for you. We use state-of-the-art technology to treat rhythm disorders and offer minimally invasive procedures for structural heart and valve conditions. Morton Plant Hospital provides care for heart failure through our Heart Function Clinic and BayCare's ventricular assist device program, has an accomplished open-heart surgery program and you can recover from heart issues with our cardiac rehab services. Our team is here when you need us. And we have enhanced safety measures to help keep you protected. Don't ignore your heart's warning system. ## Enough is enough

Investor John Bogle, founder of Vanguard, once told a profound story about the value of money:

“At a party given by a billionaire on Shelter Island, Kurt Vonnegut informs his pal, Joseph Heller, that their host, a hedge fund manager, had made more money in a single day than Heller had earned from his wildly popular novel Catch-22 over its whole history. Heller responds, ‘Yes, but I have something he will never have—enough.’”

Legend of the touchstone

When the library of Alexandria burned centuries ago, only one insignificant book was saved. A poor man who could read a little bought it for a few coppers. The book wasn't very interesting, but between its pages he found something very interesting indeed—a thin strip of parchment on which was written the secret of the touchstone.

The touchstone, according to the document, was a small pebble that could turn any common metal into pure gold. The writing explained that it was lying among thousands and thousands of other pebbles on a beach. The real stone would feel warm to the touch, while ordinary pebbles are cold.

The man sold his few belongings, went to the seashore described on the parchment, and began testing pebbles. Figuring that if he picked up ordinary pebbles and threw them down again because they were cold, he might pick up the same pebble hundreds of times. So, when he felt one that was cold, he threw it into the sea.

He spent days at his search, picking up a pebble—cold—then throwing it into the sea. Picking up another and throwing it into the sea.

One day, after weeks and months, the man picked up a pebble and threw it into the sea. Then he realized that the pebble had been warm—the touchstone! But he had formed such a strong habit of throwing each pebble into the sea that when the one he wanted came along he still threw it away.

Don't let your habits trick you into throwing away your opportunities.

Storytelling is among the oldest forms of communication. Storytelling is the commonality of all human beings, in all places, in all times.

Last will

Robert went to a lawyer and said, "I'd like to make a will, but I don't know exactly how to go about it."

The lawyer smiled at Robert and replied, "Not a problem, just leave everything to me."

Robert looked upset. "I knew you were going to take a big portion, but I would like to leave a little to my family, too!"

Happy landing

An airline had a policy that required the pilot to stand at the door while the passengers exited, smile, and say, "Thanks for flying with our airline!" The landing on one particular flight was particularly rough, and the pilot had difficulty looking the passengers in the eye, expecting that one or two would have a smart comment for him. However, it seemed that all the passengers were too shaken to say anything.

Finally, everyone had gotten off except for one little old lady walking with a cane. At the door she said, "Sonny, mind if I ask you a question?"

"Why, no, ma'am," said the pilot. "What is it?"

The woman said, "Did we land or were we shot down?"
