President’s Message

Kay Siudzinski, Lot #190

May....nice weather, cookouts and Memorial Day. The unofficial start of Summer. Here’s hoping we can all gather together for an event on Memorial Day as we have in the past now that vaccines are more readily available. Most that I’ve spoken with have either completed or are in the process of completing their vaccinations. You can still sign up for an appointment at myvaccine.fl.gov.

The activities committee led by Diane Rogers is coming up with some great ways for all of us to get together as we wait for clubhouse restrictions to lift. By the time you read this the Spring Fling dance will have been held outside and don’t forget the Ducky Derby coming up on the 1st of May at the pool.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at the events and remember HOA meetings are the first Tuesday of the month. See you there!

Ladies Luncheon –

Ladies Luncheon – Now that it is getting warmer, Nancy Bilcheck should be starting up the monthly ladies luncheons. Stay tuned for details, as Nancy will make announcements on our FB pages.

The March ladies luncheon was held on a beautiful sunny day at Bahama Breeze. Unfortunately I was unable to attend, but it looks like it was a good turnout.

Thank you Nancy for keeping up this IITS tradition!

Lending Library

Submitted by Cindy Sadusky, Lot 14

Please come check out the updated library! The bookcases are now organized by type of book; non-fiction together, separated by subject. The fiction is organized by Romance, Mystery/Thrillers, Science Fiction/Fantasy, and Religious fiction. All of the Large Print books are also all together. Within these categories the books are in alphabetical order by author.

Hopefully by the time you read this the shelves will be labeled so you know exactly where to go to find something new to read.

In addition there is a brand new bookcase that is dedicated just for jigsaw puzzles!

Please also remember: When returning books and puzzles, place them in the basket so we can make sure they are returned to the correct area. Thanks so much!!

May Humor

The Nutty Soldier

A general noticed one of his soldiers behaving oddly. The soldier would pick up any piece of paper he found, frown and say, 'That's not it' and put it down again. This went on for some time, until the general arranged to have the soldier psychologically tested. The psychologist concluded that the soldier was deranged, and wrote out his discharge from the army. The soldier picked it up, smiled and said: 'That's it.'

Big Eric

One day, Dave, the bus driver, was in his bus when the biggest man he had ever seen got on. The giant looked at the driver and growled, 'Big Eric doesn't pay', and took his seat. Dave was only a little man and he didn't really want to argue. This happened for several days. After a week, Dave was beginning to get a little angry. Everybody else paid, so why not the big man? So Dave went to the gym and started a course of body-building. He didn't want to be frightened of Big Eric any longer. Eight weeks later the driver had strong muscles and was feeling very fit. At the usual stop, Big Eric got on. 'Big Eric doesn't pay', he barked; but this time Dave was prepared for him. He stood up, shaking slightly, and said between clenched teeth, 'Oh, yeah? And why doesn't Big Eric pay?' 'Because Big Eric has got a bus pass', the man replied.

Tempus Fugit (Time Flies)

Two elderly ladies had been friends for many decades. Over the years they had shared all kinds of activities and adventures. Lately, their activities had been limited to meeting a few times a week to play cards. One day they were playing cards when one looked at the other and said, 'Now don't get mad at me....I know we've been friends for a long time.....but I just can't think of your name! I've thought and thought, but I can't remember it. Please tell me what your name is.' Her friend glared at her. For at least three minutes she just stared and glared at her. Finally she said, 'How soon do you need to know?'

A Soldier is Always Prepared

The American Air Force unveiled its new Battle Dress Uniform today. The utilitarian thing about the new uniform said Air Force representatives was that it has a built-in reversible Hawaiian shirt. 'This helps keep troops at the ready,' said one Air Force Official. 'If they are off duty they simply turn the shirt inside-out and come into work.'

Absolutely useless trivia:

- The word 'Checkmate' in chess comes from the Persian phrase 'Shah Mat,' which means 'the king is dead'.
- There is a seven letter word in the English language that contains ten words without rearranging any of its letters, 'therein' the, there, he, in, rein, her, here, ere, therein, herein.
- The dot over the letter 'i' is called a tittle.
- The word 'set' has more definitions than any other word in the English language.
- 'Underground' is the only word in the English language that begins and ends with the letters 'und.'
- There are only four words in the English language which end in '-dous' tremendous, horrendous, stupendous, and hazardous.

Even more trivia:

- The longest word in the English language. According to folk-lore Antidisestablishmentarianism is the longest word in the dictionary, it means being against separating church and state. However, floccinaucinihilipilification, a word found in the Oxford English dictionary since 1800, is one letter longer. This strange word means estimating that something is worthless. While the Oxford English Dictionary has even longer words such as pneumoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis, these are compound technical words and many people discount them.
- The longest one-syllable word in the English language is 'screched.'
- The longest place-name still in use is Taumatawhakatangihangakoauauotamateaturipuk-akapikimaungahoronukupokaiwenuakitanatahu, a New Zealand hill.
- Los Angeles's full name is 'El Pueblo de Nuestra Senora la Reina de los Angeles de Porciuncula' and can be abbreviated to 3.63% of its size, 'L.A.'
- The name for Oz in the 'Wizard of Oz' was thought up when the creator, Frank Baum, looked at his filing cabinet and saw A-N, and O-Z, hence 'Oz.'

- The longest common word that you can type with just the left hand is probably 'Stewardesses', however there is the obscure but longer: 'Aftercataracts'. With the right hand the longest word is Phyllophyllin. (Lollypop comes close, but as Groucho Marx would say: 'no cigar')
- To 'testify' was based on men in the Roman court swearing to a statement made by swearing on their testicles.
- The combination 'ough' can be pronounced in nine different ways. The following sentence contains them all 'A rough-coated, dough-faced, thoughtful ploughman strode through the streets of Scarborough; after falling into a slough, he coughed and hiccoughed.'
- The only 15 letter word that can be spelled without repeating a letter is uncopyrightable.
- Facetious and abstemious contain all the vowels in the correct order, as does arsenious, meaning 'containing arsenic.'

THE NOT SO CRAFTY CRAFTER's Monthly Project

This month I thought I'd try to buy a Topsy Turvy Planter. Well, I quickly found out that they're not as cheap as I believed. They're $69 at Lowe's. So I looked and found how to make them with items purchased at the Dollar Tree store - Yeah the one where everything's a Buck!!

 Not all materials can be bought at the Dollar Store.

FAUX GALVANIZED TOPSY TURVY FLOWER POT

- 3 Plastic Buckets the same size
- 1 Larger Bucket
- 1 Bag Quikkrete
- 1" PVC Pipe
- 1 Can Grey Primer Spray Paint
- 1 Can Silver Spray Paint
- Drill & Small Drill Bit
- Scissors
- Block of wood slightly taller than your buckets
- Soil & Flowers

Step 1) Spray all the buckets with primer. Let dry.

Step 2) Spray all the buckets with metallic spray paint. Let dry.

Step 3) In the larger bottom bucket mix your Quikrete according to the instructions on the bag. Don't add too much water. You need the thickness so your pole will stay up while it dries.

Step 4) Push the pole down into Quikrete and smooth it down and around the pole. Let dry.

Step 5) Because these are plastic buckets you will want to put a block of wood down that is slightly taller than the bucket. Put the bucket over the wood.

Step 6) Drill a hole in the bottom of the bucket. You will need to make the hole wide enough to put the pole through. I found using scissors or small wire cutters to expand the hole the easiest.

Step 7) Drill a couple holes in the back of the bottom bucket right above the concrete for flower pot water drainage. I thought of this as I was putting in my soil, that is why my soil is already in the bucket Step 8) Start stacking your faux galvanized flower pot buckets. I put the first 2 on and then filled them with soil and flowers. Then I put on the third. It seemed easier that way. You can plant flowers in the bottom bucket if you have room, or just put soil in it to cover the concrete.

Curious how to find out what is happening at IITS?

Submitted by Marilyn Babcock, Lot 161

As there are many new neighbors here at Island on the Sun, I thought I would take a minute to let you know about the various ways you can stay abreast of the meetings and activities taking place in the park.

There are 2 Facebook pages:

1. Island in the Sun HOA - this page contains information about HOA related issues.
2. Island in the Sun Social Group - this group has information about activities taking place in our community and provides notifications.

The Island in the Sun Sentinel, also known as the media, is delivered by fellow neighbors monthly. It contains information about the community and articles of general interest.

The marquee as you enter the park has up-coming events. If sign-up is required, the form will be in the clubhouse on the table straight ahead as you enter.

The HOA meeting for all residents takes place on the first Tuesday of the month at 7 PM. By the way, if you have not already done so, please join the HOA. Current dues for a 2 person household are $20.00 annually. See Cathy Ralston, Treasurer, at the HOA meetings or stop by Lot 184 for membership.

There is also a Robocall, placed by Mike Malliet, for upcoming events. If you wish to be on the list to receive these calls, please send Mike an email at: mmal1974@yahoo.com. Please include your Name, Lot number and full telephone number including area code. Be aware some carriers have auto-blocking for numbers. If you add 1-877-333-9336 to your contacts the call will go through without issue. If you do not have access to email, please see any board member and we will be happy to forward your information to Mike.

I hope this has helped our new neighbors. Our community is warm and welcoming. Glad you joined the IITS family!

When preparing for an event that involves expenditures from the HOA, a budget sheet needs to be submitted. Diane Rogers, Linda Walker or Scott Schewe can assist with this as we start ramping up regular events.

Based on The Gospel According to St. Matthew
Director: Maria Gerakios
Music Director: Jason Tucker

Prepare ye for the timeless tale of friendship, loyalty and love based on the Gospel According to St. Matthew. Godspell, the first major musical theatre offering from three-time Grammy and Academy Award winner, Stephen Schwartz (Wicked, Pippin), is led by the international hit "Day by Day" and features a parade of beloved songs, including "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord", "Learn Your Lessons Well", "All for the Best", "All Good Gifts", "Turn Back, O Man" and "By My Side". A small group of people help Jesus Christ tell different parables by using a wide variety of games, storytelling techniques and hefty doses of comic timing. An eclectic blend of songs, ranging in style from pop to vaudeville, is employed as the story of Jesus' life dances across the stage. Dissolving hauntingly into the Last Supper and the Crucifixion, Jesus' messages of kindness, tolerance and love come vibrantly to life.

An Eight O'Clock Theatre Production
