For Over 3 Decades!

It's too hot for spot

By Jennifer O'Connor

Walking with our dogs is one of life's simple pleasures - and the highlight of a dog's day - but please keep a few tips in mind.

On an 87-degree day, asphalt temperatures can reach a scorching 140 degrees.

Even just a few minutes' contact with hot pavement can cause dogs' sensitive paws to burn. Hot sidewalks also reflect heat onto dogs' bodies, increasing their risk of suffering from deadly heatstroke.

A long hot summer is in front of us. Walk your doggies very early or very late, carry water and take frequent breaks in shady spots.

And please never leave an animal inside a vehicle in hot weather! Temperatures can quickly soar in parked cars, and a dog trapped inside can die from heatstroke within minutes—even if the vehicle is in the shade with the windows slightly open, which has little to no effect on lowering the temperature inside.

If you see an animal inside a hot car, please take immediate action - a life depends on it.

If there's time, go into the nearest building and find a manager. Remember: It only takes minutes for a dog to suffer brain damage when the weather is hot. Time is of the essence!

Politely ask the manager to page the owner of the car.

BE PERSISTENT!

If the owner doesn't show up or doesn't do anything, call animal control (Pinellas County: (727) 582-2600 - put it in your contacts). If animal control can't come immediately, call 911. And remember, if all else fails, do what's necessary to save the animal's life.

According to Florida law (768.139 Rescue of vulnerable person or domestic animal from a motor vehicle; immunity from civil liability), someone who enters a car, including by force like breaking a window, can be immune from penalty for saving a person or animal.

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $156,600 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • 220 Bahama St. • Venice, FL 34285.

That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.
