CLUBHOUSE

Please keep in mind that office hours for Glenwood are 9:00 a.m. to 3 pm, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and the office is closed on Thursday

FROM YOUR SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Jennifer Paredes / President

The Social Club Committee met on April 7th. We approved the purchase of some equipment to replace some worn Shuffleboard disks and poles. Our Treasurer, Georgia Fox, reported that we received many donations for the Glenwood Sunshine Fund. Thanks to all for your generosity.

The next Social Club Workshop is Wednesday, May 5th at 10:00 am.

After the Summer break, we will resume Workshops starting on Thursday, October 7th. We welcome all committee members and Glenwood residents to attend our Workshops.

Our Association Board of Directors has informed me that until the CDC and Pinellas County updates their guidelines, mandates set for Glenwood will remain the same for social distancing.

The activities we do have are well attended, as reported to us by the Bingo, Horseshoes, Shuffleboard and Cards sub-committees. Water Aerobics and Needlework groups are meeting as well. As many of our residents have been fully vaccinated, I am optimistic we will be able to plan a picnic or two this summer for those of us who are year-round residents.

I would like to wish everyone a fun Summer and safe travels!

COFFEE

Coffee is still cancelled until further notice due to the Covid virus.

HORSESHOES

Wayne Neville

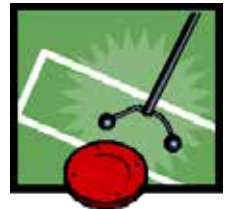

We have expanded your opportunity to have more fun playing horseshoes! Come join us on Wednesdays and Fridays at 10 am at the lake pavilion. Any questions contact Wayne Neville at (727) 291-3206.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Connie Ramsey

We would like to thank the Social Committee for the purchase of 3 new poles and 2 sets of disks. It's amazing the difference the new disks make! The shuffleboard players have voted to move the time to 6:15 pm on Tuesdays as the temperatures will be cooler, especially in the summer evenings. Even though we are playing outside, we ask that you wear a mask due to Covid and social distancing, and be sure to bring a quarter!

BEREAVEMENT COMMITTEE

Jan Kearney and Marge Giroux

We are doing very well with our members of the park in taking care of themselves. We have not had anyone that passed in the month of March. We hope we keep up with these good results.

We are here if anyone needs our services. Let's keep up the good results. If anyone hears of anyone passing, please contact us. Thank you.

MARILYN'S LITTLE STORE

Chi Chi Ceron, Janet Green, ShirleyWagner

Stop into Marilyn's Little Store: hours are Wed 1-2 pm and Sat 10-11 am. Please drop off any donations 1/2 hour before store hours begin.

Barb Strachan was the March winner for our monthly drawing. Stop in, buy something & put your name in for the drawing.

GLENWOOD NEEDLEWORK

Barbara Strachan

May will be our last month for meeting for needlework this spring. Folks are leaving for the summer months, me included, so May 24th will be our last morning. We've had a productive year with seven lap robes given to Bon Secours Maria Manor in St Petersburg for the elderly. A huge basket of bunnies and chicks was given to the nursing station in "B" wing. (My mom's wing). Everyone was pleased and thankful for the gifts.

We will start up again on October 4th at 10am till 11:30am. Christmas items for donation will be on the agenda. Bring any ideas you come across for something simple to knit or crochet.

Have a happy and healthy summer.

‘Everything you love will be lost’

Writer Franz Kafka (1883–1924) never married and had no children. According to a story, he liked to walk through a park in Berlin where one day he met a girl who was crying because she had lost her favorite doll. She and Kafka searched for the doll unsuccessfully.

Kafka told her to meet him there the next day and they would come back to look for her. The next day, when they had not yet found the doll, Kafka gave the girl a letter “written” by the doll saying, “Please don’t cry. I took a trip to see the world. I will write to you about my adventures.”

Thus began a story which continued until the end of Kafka’s life.

During their meetings, Kafka read the letters of the doll, carefully written with adventures and conversations that the girl found adorable.

Finally, Kafka bought another doll and gave it to the girl. “It doesn’t look like my doll at all,” said the girl.

Kafka handed her another letter in which the doll wrote: “My travels have changed me.” The little girl hugged the new doll and carried it home.

A year later Kafka died.

Many years afterward, the now-adult girl found a letter inside the doll. In the tiny letter, signed by Kafka, was written: “Everything you love will probably be lost, but in the end, love will return in another way.”

So no aliens, but still a fascinating phenomenon for scientists to study.

Here’s the thing—you don’t need a captive audience to be heard. You need better true stories, well told. You don’t have to rely on luck to tell better stories, you can do it with intention and practice—by design. You don’t need permission to take the stage. You need to find and practice telling stories that matter.

— Bernadette Jiwa

There is something in us, as storytellers and as listeners to stories, that demands the redemptive act, that demands that what falls at least be offered the chance to be restored.

Daily

Beltane, May 1. A Gaelic May Day festival most commonly held about halfway between the spring equinox and summer solstice.

International Firefighters' Day, May 4. A day when the world's community can recognize and honor the sacrifices that firefighters make to ensure that their communities and environment are as safe as possible.

Mother's Day, May 9. Send a card, make a call, or meet on Zoom to remind mom how much you love her.

International Museum Day, May 18. An opportunity for museum professionals to meet the public and alert them to the challenges that museums face.

Memorial Day, May 31. A day to remember those who gave their lives for their country.

Memorial Day: a solemn occasion

Memorial Day began in the 19th century as "Decoration Day." Citizens were urged to decorate the graves of soldiers who'd died in the Civil War. After World War I, Decoration Day expanded to include ceremonies honoring the dead in all of America's wars.

Decoration Day became Memorial Day officially in 1967. In 1968 the Uniform Holidays Act established it as one of three holidays (including Veteran's Day and George Washington's birthday, now called President's Day) celebrated on a Monday to create a convenient three-day weekend. Memorial Day is now observed on the last Monday in May.

Call it a clan, call it a network, call it a tribe, call it a family: Whatever you call it, whoever you are, you need one.

It didn't matter how big our house was; it mattered that there was love in it.

Nap time

An old, tired dog ambled into a man's backyard one afternoon. He was obviously well fed, and wore a collar, showing that he had a home and was well taken care of.

The man patted the dog on the head for a few minutes. Then the dog laid down and went to sleep. An hour later, he woke up and walked away.

The dog came back the next day, and the day after that, until soon he was coming every single day. The man didn't mind, but he was curious, so one day he pinned a note to the dog's collar:

"Your wonderful, sweet dog comes to visit me every day for head pats and then a long nap. I just wanted you to know that we enjoy his visits."

The next day the dog arrived with a note in response:

"Thank you! He lives in a house with five children, two under the age of three, so he's trying to catch up on his sleep. Can I come with him tomorrow?"

Things to think about

Ever wonder about these?

- What if my dog only brings back the ball because he thinks I like throwing it?
- If poison is past its expiration date, does that mean it's no longer poisonous?
- Which letter in the word "scent" is silent, S or C?
- Do twins ever realize that one of them is unplanned?
- Why is the letter W called "Double U"? Shouldn't it be called "Double V"?
- Do you ever think that every time you clean something, you make something else dirty?
- Have you ever noticed that the word "swims" upside down is still "swims"?
- Did you know that trying to lose a game of rock-paper-scissors is just as hard as trying to win?

Language follies

English is strange, isn't it?

- "Minute" and "minute" shouldn't be spelled the same.
- I am not content with this content.
- I object to that object.
- I need to read what I just read.
- Excuse me, but there's no excuse for this.
- Someone should wind this article up and throw it in the wind.

Something new to read?

A chicken walks into a library and up to the front desk. “Buk,” it says.

The librarian gives it a book. The chicken leaves, then comes back a few minutes later to return the book. “Buk,” it says again, and the librarian hands him another book.

This goes on several more times, until the librarian gets curious. He follows the chicken outside, down the street, into a park, and to the edge of a pond, where the chicken drops the book in front of a frog.

“Buk, buk,” it says.

The frog pushes it away. “Reddit, reddit!”

A fishy tale

James asked his friend Bill, “How’s that new fish you bought? You told me he was really something special.”

Bill said, “To tell the truth, I’m a little disappointed. The guy at the fish store said he could sing like a bird.”

“What? You bought a fish because you thought it would sing like a bird?”

“Well, yeah. It’s a parrot fish.”

James said, “Look, Bill, you might be able to teach a parrot to sing, you’re never going to get anywhere with a parrot fish.”

Bill said, “Oh, he can sing, but he’s terribly off-key. Do you know how hard it is to tuna fish?”

If you’re going to tell people the truth, you better make them laugh; otherwise they’ll kill you.

— George Bernard Shaw

Laughter is sunshine, it chases winter from the human face.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
