From The President

Tom Vanzant

It's hard to believe our season of wonderful Florida weather is going to ending soon.

Many of you seasonal shareholders' have either returned to their summer home, and the rest will be doing so shortly. All of you will be surely missed, and those of us remaining look forward to your return.

Although you won't be here, you can be assured that Park volunteerism will continue with our office, committees' and your Board will keep us moving forward, while keeping the Park up to HSP's Standards.

And if you haven't done so, we ask that you complete your Departure Slip indicating who will be taken care of your home while you're away. Weeds do grow in the summer.

Let me also say, some seasonal shareholder's, and we thank you for your help, will be working with our committees, etc, as it becoming easier and easier to work anywhere, and still get the job done.

I'd like for all of our Shareholders, seasonal and non-seasonal to think about getting involved as a HSP volunteer. Whether that be attending meetings, joining committees, becoming a Board member, and as one shareholder told me recently, Geoff Robinson is volunteering by picking up cigarettes butts as he walks the Park with his dog. He is right he is volunteering, and hats off to him for doing so.

From The Office

Pat Merl

The Park's pool lovers are anxiously counting down the days until the pool resurfacing and paver refinishing have been completed. I have kept in touch with Jim Rouleau, The Pool Works Construction Manager, along the way and now we are looking forward to the pool opening on May 11, 2021 for the shareholders to enjoy this summer.

The worn and broken concrete around the clubhouse has been replaced, further beautifying the area and making it easier to navigate with walkers, etc.

A new treadmill has been installed in the gym, completing the upgrade of equipment that is available for you to use and the environment is very inviting with a nice view of the outdoors.

The 2021 Reserve Study upgrade is near completion. The Board and the Long and Short committee are looking forward to taking advantage of the detailed financial and amortization information it provides. This information helps them to make the best possible decisions when it comes financial planning and scheduling of major Park projects. For example, one of the larger projects that is on the near horizon is the sealing of the streets and others will be identified, evaluated, and planned based on suggested timelines provided by the study.

One last thought, last month, we thanked Geoff Robinson for contributing toward keeping Holiday Shores Park grounds clean, during his daily walks in the Park. I noticed that there was a typo in his last name in the April Newsletter and I wanted to correct it in this month's issue.

For those of you departing for home, have a safe trip and an enjoyable summer. For those of you who remain in the Park, the newly renovated Pool will reopen shortly, for your summer long enjoyment!

Thanks to all the volunteers who put up tents, bartenders, games and food. Kim Keady for always being there to take care of the tables.

Without their help, the event wouldn't have taken place. A special thanks to Harvey Shaw who is always there when you need him. So again..... Thank You!

Ask Yourself These
10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

Be aware of Amazon scams. People have been receiving letters by both texts and e-mail, indicating that a hold has been placed on your account and all pending orders until such time as billing information can be verified. Unsuspecting people will tap on the link, which directs you to a website that looks like it's Amazon, but in reality it's a data mining site that steals your identity in order to secure mail order merchandise under your name and bank account. The scam also involves texts and emails claiming you have won a prize. Amazon does not give out prizes.

Don't fall for this! If you have questions or real concerns about your Amazon account, contact Amazon directly through known and trusted links, and not through links provided in e-mails or text messages.

Just a reminder that you MUST fill out and return a DEPARTURE NOTICE to the Office prior to leaving for a week or more. You can find these on the bulletin board in the pool room or at the Office. You also MUST designate a caretaker for your property. (Page 5 & 6, Departure)

THANK YOU – THANK YOU – THANK YOU

Norman and Linda Burkey

Linda and I would like to thank our good friends and neighbors here at Holiday Shores for all the nice cards, well wishes, thoughts and prayers while Linda was in the hospital and after she came home. Special thanks to Dave and Vicki Nichols, Tom and Marsha Dufford, John and Debbie Rosenbaum, Louie and Carol Paris and Russell Cummings and Sandy Bryant for supplying all the good meals. Thanks to all the neighbors that helped Linda get in the house when she came home.

Holiday Shores Activities Association

Bernadette Drouin

As Mother Nature blessed us with some much needed April showers, we started off the month with a painted rock scavenger hunt. All rocks were hand painted. Though a small turnout, the rock painting and the rocks themselves were a big hit. A beautiful large basket went to Dave & Joyce Gonzales for grand prize.

A vote was taken at our activities meeting on April 3rd for our Happy Days entertainment to take place inside the clubhouse on April 24th at 2 p.m. observing all CDC guidelines..

By popular demand, Stephanie Bowlin will host another Paint and Sip when she returns in fall. David Gonzales will host a Movie Night outside at the Clubhouse in May. The date to be announced. Activities will host an Ice Cream Social to coincide with the pool reopening. Please watch the A-Frames.

Our Mothers Luncheon on April 22nd (not excluding men) was held at Seabreeze at Reddington Beach. One more luncheon is being planned for June at the Olive Garden. If anyone needs a ride, please be in front of the Clubhouse at 11:30am. Please make sure you are on the signup sheet. Thank You to Diane Gramatikas for all the luncheon planning this year.

Memorial Day! Activities start at 10am at the flagpole. We'll then proceed inside and have fellowship and refreshments. Please join us.

For those of you going home, have a safe and happy summer with your families. We do look forward to our Canadian family returning too. Maybe while your dreaming under that big oak tree, think about how you might be able to volunteer for Activities this Fall.

- We would like a Craft Fair in the spring.
  - We would like to restart Bingo
- (Just for starters)

Please continue to use the Suggestion Box. It's very helpful.

Sharing and Caring

Nita Anderson

Hello Friends and Neighbors of Holiday Shores Park. It greatly saddens me to inform you that Nancy Plowright (10244 106th Street) passed away. Also Bev McCaffrey (10461 Holiday Shores Drive) passed away.

Mary Sauer (10290 Broadview) has been hospitalized. We are waiting to be informed of her condition. She is home as of April 14 and sounded very good!

George Wright (10381 North Lake) was hospitalized with very low potassium levels. We will keep you posted on his progress.

Randy Brose (10221 South Lake) is doing much better and is expected to return home any day now. As of April 5, he was home. But as of yesterday (4/13), he was taken back to the hospital. I will keep you informed.

Please call me (440-724-1488) if you are aware of any of our friends and neighbors who are ill, have had a death in the family, or have had a surgical procedure. I will keep you posted on any new developments. Please keep these friends and neighbors (and their families) in your prayers.

Shuffleboard News

Priscilla Donegan

The shuffleboard season is winding down. Members of the club had their spring luncheon at the Acropol and a wonderful lunch was enjoyed by all.

The results of the blind shuffle at the picnic are: Women: Norma Murphy, Eva Doman, and Mary Brown. Men: Dave Gonzales, Paul Milette, and Terry Hop & Dale Duquet tied. The Shuffleboard Club would like to thank Paul, Terry & Dale for donating their winnings back to the club. It is greatly appreciated.

We are still shuffling but please watch for the shuffleboard flag to be out telling you there will be shuffle that day or evening. Since the picnic, we have had a few new residents come out to shuffle. Anyone is welcome to come and give it a try.

See you on the courts.

Have the Right Doctor? Ask Yourself These 10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

‘Everything you love will be lost’

Writer Franz Kafka (1883–1924) never married and had no children. According to a story, he liked to walk through a park in Berlin where one day he met a girl who was crying because she had lost her favorite doll. She and Kafka searched for the doll unsuccessfully.

Kafka told her to meet him there the next day and they would come back to look for her. The next day, when they had not yet found the doll, Kafka gave the girl a letter “written” by the doll saying, “Please don’t cry. I took a trip to see the world. I will write to you about my adventures.”

Thus began a story which continued until the end of Kafka’s life.

During their meetings, Kafka read the letters of the doll, carefully written with adventures and conversations that the girl found adorable.

Finally, Kafka bought another doll and gave it to the girl. “It doesn’t look like my doll at all,” said the girl.

Kafka handed her another letter in which the doll wrote: “My travels have changed me.” The little girl hugged the new doll and carried it home.

A year later Kafka died.

Many years afterward, the now-adult girl found a letter inside the doll. In the tiny letter, signed by Kafka, was written: “Everything you love will probably be lost, but in the end, love will return in another way.”

So no aliens, but still a fascinating phenomenon for scientists to study.

Here’s the thing—you don’t need a captive audience to be heard. You need better true stories, well told. You don’t have to rely on luck to tell better stories, you can do it with intention and practice—by design. You don’t need permission to take the stage. You need to find and practice telling stories that matter.

— Bernadette Jiwa

There is something in us, as storytellers and as listeners to stories, that demands the redemptive act, that demands that what falls at least be offered the chance to be restored.

— Flannery O’Connor

Nap time

An old, tired dog ambled into a man's backyard one afternoon. He was obviously well fed, and wore a collar, showing that he had a home and was well taken care of.

The man patted the dog on the head for a few minutes. Then the dog laid down and went to sleep. An hour later, he woke up and walked away.

The dog came back the next day, and the day after that, until soon he was coming every single day. The man didn't mind, but he was curious, so one day he pinned a note to the dog's collar:

"Your wonderful, sweet dog comes to visit me every day for head pats and then a long nap. I just wanted you to know that we enjoy his visits."

The next day the dog arrived with a note in response:

"Thank you! He lives in a house with five children, two under the age of three, so he's trying to catch up on his sleep. Can I come with him tomorrow?"

Things to think about

Ever wonder about these?

- What if my dog only brings back the ball because he thinks I like throwing it?
- If poison is past its expiration date, does that mean it's no longer poisonous?
- Which letter in the word "scent" is silent, S or C?
- Do twins ever realize that one of them is unplanned?
- Why is the letter W called "Double U"? Shouldn't it be called "Double V"?
- Do you ever think that every time you clean something, you make something else dirty?
- Have you ever noticed that the word "swims" upside down is still "swims"?
- Did you know that trying to lose a game of rock-paper-scissors is just as hard as trying to win?

Language follies

English is strange, isn't it?

- "Minute" and "minute" shouldn't be spelled the same.
- I am not content with this content.
- I object to that object.
- I need to read what I just read.
- Excuse me, but there's no excuse for this.
- Someone should wind this article up and throw it in the wind.
