PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

It's the merry month of May, and yes we will have a Kentucky Derby Party – yea! We missed it last year – the only time since Marie Reiser originated it way back in the 1970s – but it wasn't our fault, it was that darned virus! After Marie moved away, Lei Crance took it on as her special project and the tradition continues. This year for the first time we must charge for the event since it cannot be “pot luck” as in prior years. By now you should have received a flyer announcing all the details for the event. I can hardly wait to see what interesting – or should I say creative – Derby Bonnets the ladies have designed this year. The hat parade is always one of the event highlights.

If we can keep this tradition thing going, we will also have a Memorial Day BBQ on Monday, May 31, which normally replaces the June membership dinner. A sunny day, a dip in the pool and a tasty hamburger off the grill – could anything be better than that? Of course, we will also pause to honor those brave men and women who gave their lives in service to our beloved country.

This will be the last month for weekly bingo games for several months. As in the past, we'll have the games on the third Thursday of each month over the summer. So, if you want to join in on the fun, please come – it's an inexpensive way to have an entertaining evening AND we serve dessert at half-time.....and who knows, you may go home with a few extra coins in your pocket.

The last of our snowbird residents will be departing soon and we wish them a happy and safe summer. Once again we'll have the park to ourselves although with more and more permanent park residents the snowbirds are beginning to make less of an impact, even the traffic doesn't seem to decrease after they're gone – there was a time though when one could definitely tell the difference.

Wishing all the mothers, grandmothers and great-grandmothers in our community a very happy Mother's Day. Hope you can celebrate this special day with those you love.

Don't forget the monthly Association Meeting on May 1; and please remember to check your white mail tube for flyers and special announcements.

HAPPY MEMORIAL DAY – GOD BLESS AMERICA

TREASURE COVE HAPPENINGS-PARK 2

Susan Regan-Secretary

Well the beautiful month of May is upon us. They say April showers bring May flowers but we didn't really have much rain in April! Hopefully we will get some more as we know our grass and flowers love it. It's also a nice break sometimes to have one of those lazy rainy days.

This month we celebrate Mothers Day! A celebration in which we honor our mothers, motherhood, maternal bonds and the influence mothers have on us. We also have cat and dog mothers! Let us remember to do something nice for mothers on this special day. We also pay tribute to our moms that have passed on remembering all they did for us and the impact they've left on our lives. So we say to all the mothers and those that have stepped in as mothers HAPPY MOTHERS DAY! May your day be special and filled with happiness and love.

We also celebrate Memorial Day another important day! We remember all those men and women who died serving our country. No matter what branch of the military they served in we remember and thank them for the ultimate sacrifice made for our freedom. We honor you.

Things are looking up as far as social events go. Most people are getting vaccinated and as time goes on restrictions will be lifted slowly. We want to ensure that this is done safely. So I hope this news I have excites you! We're having a Chicken BBQ on May 15th at 5pm. We'll be serving BBQ chicken with various sides and dessert and we're going to have GREAT entertainment. We're having an Illusionist! This is going to be so much fun. You don't want to miss this event. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased from Lori (254) or Susan (501). Hurry because tickets are going fast. We hope to see you there!

DAY

‘Everything you love will be lost’

Writer Franz Kafka (1883–1924) never married and had no children. According to a story, he liked to walk through a park in Berlin where one day he met a girl who was crying because she had lost her favorite doll. She and Kafka searched for the doll unsuccessfully.

Kafka told her to meet him there the next day and they would come back to look for her. The next day, when they had not yet found the doll, Kafka gave the girl a letter “written” by the doll saying, “Please don’t cry. I took a trip to see the world. I will write to you about my adventures.”

Thus began a story which continued until the end of Kafka’s life.

During their meetings, Kafka read the letters of the doll, carefully written with adventures and conversations that the girl found adorable.

Finally, Kafka bought another doll and gave it to the girl. “It doesn’t look like my doll at all,” said the girl.

Kafka handed her another letter in which the doll wrote: “My travels have changed me.” The little girl hugged the new doll and carried it home.

A year later Kafka died.

Many years afterward, the now-adult girl found a letter inside the doll. In the tiny letter, signed by Kafka, was written: “Everything you love will probably be lost, but in the end, love will return in another way.”

So no aliens, but still a fascinating phenomenon for scientists to study.

Here’s the thing—you don’t need a captive audience to be heard. You need better true stories, well told. You don’t have to rely on luck to tell better stories, you can do it with intention and practice—by design. You don’t need permission to take the stage. You need to find and practice telling stories that matter.

— Bernadette Jiwa

There is something in us, as storytellers and as listeners to stories, that demands the redemptive act, that demands that what falls at least be offered the chance to be restored.

— Flannery O’Connor

Nap time

An old, tired dog ambled into a man's backyard one afternoon. He was obviously well fed, and wore a collar, showing that he had a home and was well taken care of.

The man patted the dog on the head for a few minutes. Then the dog laid down and went to sleep. An hour later, he woke up and walked away.

The dog came back the next day, and the day after that, until soon he was coming every single day. The man didn't mind, but he was curious, so one day he pinned a note to the dog's collar:

"Your wonderful, sweet dog comes to visit me every day for head pats and then a long nap. I just wanted you to know that we enjoy his visits."

The next day the dog arrived with a note in response:

"Thank you! He lives in a house with five children, two under the age of three, so he's trying to catch up on his sleep. Can I come with him tomorrow?"

Things to think about

Ever wonder about these?

- What if my dog only brings back the ball because he thinks I like throwing it?
- If poison is past its expiration date, does that mean it's no longer poisonous?
- Which letter in the word "scent" is silent, S or C?
- Do twins ever realize that one of them is unplanned?
- Why is the letter W called "Double U"? Shouldn't it be called "Double V"?
- Do you ever think that every time you clean something, you make something else dirty?
- Have you ever noticed that the word "swims" upside down is still "swims"?
- Did you know that trying to lose a game of rock-paper-scissors is just as hard as trying to win?

Language follies

English is strange, isn't it?

- "Minute" and "minute" shouldn't be spelled the same.
- I am not content with this content.
- I object to that object.
- I need to read what I just read.
- Excuse me, but there's no excuse for this.
- Someone should wind this article up and throw it in the wind.

Something new to read?

A chicken walks into a library and up to the front desk. “Buk,” it says.

The librarian gives it a book. The chicken leaves, then comes back a few minutes later to return the book. “Buk,” it says again, and the librarian hands him another book.

This goes on several more times, until the librarian gets curious. He follows the chicken outside, down the street, into a park, and to the edge of a pond, where the chicken drops the book in front of a frog.

“Buk, buk,” it says.

The frog pushes it away. “Reddit, reddit!”

A fishy tale

James asked his friend Bill, “How’s that new fish you bought? You told me he was really something special.”

Bill said, “To tell the truth, I’m a little disappointed. The guy at the fish store said he could sing like a bird.”

“What? You bought a fish because you thought it would sing like a bird?”

“Well, yeah. It’s a parrot fish.”

James said, “Look, Bill, you might be able to teach a parrot to sing, you’re never going to get anywhere with a parrot fish.”

Bill said, “Oh, he can sing, but he’s terribly off-key. Do you know how hard it is to tuna fish?”

If you’re going to tell people the truth, you better make them laugh; otherwise they’ll kill you.

May Monthly

ALS Awareness Month. ALS, or amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease), is a progressive neurodegenerative disease that affects nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord. ALS Awareness Month is an opportunity to focus the public spotlight on ALS, global ALS research, and vital public policy efforts.

Global Employee Health & Fitness Month. Global Employee Health & Fitness Month (GEHFM) is an international observance of health and fitness in the workplace. The goal of GEHFM is to promote the benefits of a healthy lifestyle to employers and their employees through worksite health promotion activities and environments.

National Bike Month. May is National Bike Month, promoted by the League of American Bicyclists and celebrated in communities from coast to coast. Established in 1956, National Bike Month is a chance to showcase the many benefits of bicycling and encourage more folks to give biking a try.

Skin Cancer Awareness Month. With more than 5 million cases diagnosed in the United States each year, skin cancer is America's most common cancer. Fortunately, skin cancer is also one of the most preventable forms of cancer. By sharing facts about the dangers of unprotected exposure and encouraging people to check their skin for warning signs, we can and will save lives.

Weekly

Be Kind to Animals Week, May 2–8. American Humane, the country's first national humane organization, challenges people to commit to protecting and improving the lives of millions of animals during the nation's longest-running humane education campaign.

EMS Week, May 16–22. EMS Week honors the frontline heroes dedicated to providing emergency medicine that saves so many lives every day. The 2021 EMS Week is particularly meaningful now, to remind people that every day emergency medical services workers are there to respond, support, and care for the needs of our communities.

Healthy and Safe Swimming Week, May 24–30. Swimming is a fun, healthy way to stay physically active and spend quality time with family and friends. Healthy and Safe Swimming Week highlights the roles that swimmers, parents, aquatics and beach staff, residential pool owners, and public health officials play in preventing disease outbreaks, drowning, and pool chemical injuries.
