SOUTHWIND HOA COMMUNITY UPDATES

By Bill A.

On Thursday May 13, we had a free brunch on the patio. It was a delightful spread of various goodies. We had muffins, scones, croissants, plus various pastries, fruit salad, juice, tea and coffee. About 40 plus residents were in attendance and what a wonderful time was had by all! The Clubhouse was open and we used the patio, so you had a choice to sit inside or outside.

The event was sponsored by Kingsley Management with the help of Ceci and Sandy. Bill and Mardy Adams served as host and hostess. Much thanks to Bob, Tom and John in getting the tables and chairs set up for the event.

The clubhouse is now open, so please look for some events to be happening.

By the time you read this we will be having our Memorial Day picnic. Again you will be able to sit inside or outside, if weather permits. Menu is chicken, corn on the cob and drinks sponsored by the HOA. Also in the planning stages will be a July 4th picnic. So keep an eye out for these events, they will be posted on the Community Bulletin board by the mailroom.

COVID PRECAUTIONS UPDATE

According to an article in the New York Times, on May 14th, by Apoorva Mandavilli, the following information was reported:

Why the C.D.C. Changed Its Advice on Masks

Two scientific findings altered the calculus: Vaccinated people don't transmit the virus, and the shots are effective against variants.

Advice from federal health officials that fully vaccinated people could drop their masks in most settings came as a surprise to Americans, from state officials to scientific experts.

Even the White House got less than a day's notice from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the press secretary, Jen Psaki, said at a news briefing on Friday.

"The C.D.C., the doctors and medical experts there, are the ones who determined what this guidance would be based on their own data, and what the timeline would be," Ms. Psaki said. "That was not a decision directed by or made by the White House."

For months, federal officials have vigorously warned that wearing masks and social distancing were necessary to contain the pandemic. So what changed?

Introducing the new recommendations on Thursday, Dr. Rochelle P. Walensky, the C.D.C. director, cited two recent scientific findings as significant factors: Few vaccinated people become infected with the virus, and transmission seems rarer still; and the vaccines appear to be effective against all known variants of the Coronavirus.

There is no doubt at this point that the vaccines are powerful.

On Friday, the C.D.C. released results from another large study showing that the vaccines made by Pfizer-BioNTech and Moderna are 94 percent effective in preventing symptomatic illness in those who were fully vaccinated, and 82 percent effective even in those only partly vaccinated.

"The science is quite clear on this," said Zoë McLaren, a health policy expert at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. Mounting evidence indicates that people who are vaccinated are highly unlikely to catch or transmit the virus, she noted.

The risk "is definitely not zero, but it's clear that it's very low," she said.

A CDC Spokesman said: Fully immunized people are unlikely to get seriously ill, even if they are infected with the Coronavirus. The risk of infection is greater for the people around them — unvaccinated children and adults, or vaccinated people who remain unprotected because of a medical condition or treatment.

The new guidelines should serve as a reminder to health officials to step up their outreach and investment to ensure that everyone has access to vaccines, Dr. McLaren said. Parents of children under 12 should continue to urge them to wear masks indoors.

WHO WILL INSURE A MOBILE HOME IN FLORIDA?

By Terri C.

Information on this topic can be researched online at:
<https://www.myfloridamobilehomeinsurance.com/insurance/homeowners-insurance-for-mobile-homes>

I do NOT recommend that you request a quote on this website, or you will be BOMBARDED with emails/ phone calls from every insurance sales agent in the State!

Many Southwind Homeowners found it more convenient to go straight to our closest local agent office: Ross Insurance Group, Inc. (727) 734-7000. They are located in the Publix shopping center at 934 Curlew Rd., in Dunedin. They found me the best price through Citizen's Insurance and I referred a neighbor last year who was with a different insurance company, and Ross Insurance saved him a lot of money too!

Generally, 3 factors impact which companies will offer you a policy or quote, which includes: 1) age of the manufactured home, 2) proximity to the ocean and 3) county in Florida

New policies do require an inspection, which is an extra cost, but my agent referred me to an Inspector they work with and whose fees were reasonable. Several years ago, homeowners here in Southwind had tie downs installed on their homes, and that made a difference in my insurance costs. It's important to let any Inspector know to check your home for tie downs (not every homeowner opted for this install)

If you are new to Southwind MHP, or new to mobile homes in Florida, you might want to check it all out as soon as possible.

HOUSEHOLD HACKS

1. Lay a wooden spoon across the top of a pot/pan when you're boiling water, so it won't boil over.
2. When you buy large quantities of ground beef, transfer (in 1 pound amounts) to a plastic 1 gallon freezer bag and flatten the meat to the bottom edges inside the bag. This helps increase freezer storage space and will reduce thawing time on the frozen meat.
3. To transport hanging clothes with ease, use a tall kitchen bag with ties, criss-cross the ties over a bunch of clothes on hangers, to keep them all together and cover the clothes.
4. For easy closet access and storage of your favorite summer tank tops, try getting a sturdy wood hanger and a bag of shower curtain rod rings, Then attach the rings to the hanger, with the opening at the top. Hang tank tops (arm straps) from the rings to store all on one hanger and keep out of sight in your closet, wrinkle free.

5. Use a tube of blue Crest toothpaste to clean your car headlights. Apply the toothpaste and then wipe it off with a rag, to remove haze and discoloration.
6. Soda has many chemical properties that work to erase stains and remove rust. Pour a can of Coke in your toilet for a quick cleaning.
7. For small painting projects to do around the house, try this neat trick: Simply place a rubber band around your paint can before opening it. You can use the rubber band across the top of the open can to quickly remove excess paint from your brush. This rubber band trick will also allow you to keep your paint can completely free from drips. But don't forget the tarp or paper to set under the can on the floor, just in case.
8. Driving in the car and not enough cup holders? Use your tennis shoe on the floor, or the back seat, to keep the cup steady while you drive home.
9. For a simple DIY ice pack – to cool you down in hot weather or calm an injury. Take a Ziploc freezer bag, water, and rubbing alcohol. Mix 3 parts water to 1 part rubbing alcohol in your Ziploc bag. Freeze the bag and use it as much as you like, at home or on the go!
10. Got scratches in your wood furniture? Use a snack nut to fix it (walnut, etc). Rub the nut against the scratch several minutes until the scratch begins to fade. The oil will work to repair damage and leaves your furniture in good shape!

A Fathers Day Tribute

By Bill Roberts

“Dad, I Was Thinking”

I was thinking about:

- the smiles on my kids faces after you took them to the store for a sack of candy
- when you gave me a Jerry's Body Shop hat that I wore till it could be worn no more
- that early morning call when you told me that Granny had passed
- when you rode in on a Harley for my 40th birthday
- about the call from you when I was going through a rough time
- the messages to let me know about the fish fry's and chili suppers
- your love of country music and our discussions where you educated me about the old country stars
- how you enjoyed talking about Franklinton and days past
- Christmas and the stories you told at Aunt Jean's and how I laughed until I cried
- how You and Neal drove twelve hours round trip in one day to surprise me at my 50th birthday party
- when Neal called me at the store to tell me you were gone

I was thinking that Deb, Neal, Jeri Lynn, Kim, and Jill are also thinking about you today

I was thinking that getting to know you Dad forever changed me

I was thinking that Samson has made me a Papaw too

I was thinking today about you, Dad

JOKES OF ART

from Art Temple

$500 NEGLIGEE:

Tony Blake went to Victoria's Secret to purchase a sheer negligee for his wife. After viewing several choices that ranged in price from $250 to $500, (the more sheer, the higher the price), he decides on the sheerest. On arriving home, he said to his wife, "Go upstairs and put it on and model it for me."

While putting on the negligee, she got the idea that since it is so sheer, it might as well be nothing. She thought, "I won't put it on. I'll do the modeling naked, return it tomorrow and keep the $500 for myself." So, she went out to the balcony and struck a sexy pose, and said, "What do you think of this, Honey?" He looked up at her and said, "GOOD GRIEF! You'd think for $500, they'd at least IRON IT!"

QUIK KLIPS

- The worst thing about retirement is you have to drink coffee on your own time.
- A man walked into a military surplus store and asked, "Do you have camouflage pants?" "Yes," the clerk replied, "but we can't find them."
- When the office is having a picnic, it may just mean that the boss is on vacation.

GETTING OLDER

A group of American tourists were on a bus touring through Switzerland. One of the stops was a cheese farm, where they were guided through the process of cheese making. She explained that goat's milk is used in the making of cheese, and pointed to a lovely hillside where many goats were grazing.

"Those goats you see there are the older goats that have been put out to pasture when they no longer produce milk," she explained. She then asked, "What do you Americans do with your old goats?"

A spry old gentleman answered, "They send us on bus tours!"

A Tampa doctor was giving a speech on the benefits of healthy eating. "The food we put into our stomachs is enough to have killed most of us sitting here, years ago. Red meat is awful, Soft drinks corrode your stomach lining, and Chinese food is loaded with MSG. "High fat diets can be disastrous," he continued, "and none of us realizes the long-term harm caused by the germs in our drinking water.

However, there is one thing that's the most dangerous of all, and we all have eaten it. Can anyone here tell me what food is the one that causes the most grief and suffering for years after eating it?"

No one offered an answer for several seconds. Then a 75-year-old man in the front row raised his hand, and softly said, "Wedding Cake."

“WON’T YOU BE OUR NEIGHBOR?”

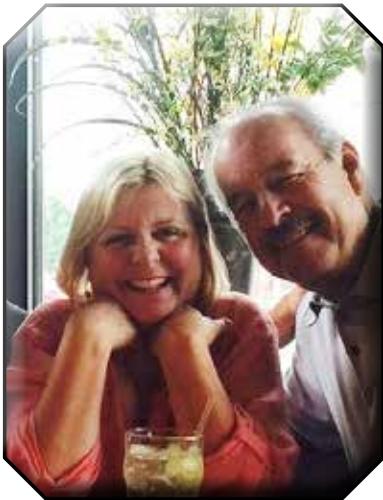

By Terri C.

Resident Spotlight – Jim and Rita Angle

In April 2018, the same month as I became a resident of Southwind – so did Jim and Rita Angle, Lot #54. Like so many residents here, we met while walking our dogs in the park. Our fur babies became friends first, and it’s funny because many of us remember our dogs name before we remember our neighbor’s names...

Jim and Rita Angle are from Grand Blanc, MI and they met while performing at a Dinner Theatre Group, some 40 years ago. They also became friends with their Southwind next door neighbor Sue (& Ed) Kernish, from the same theatre group. Jim and Rita found their home here first, and then when the home next door went up for sale, Sue & Ed bought that home. Many residents here have family and/or long term friends living in Southwind, as well. It’s definitely part of the appeal of living in this unique community.

Jim and Rita have been married 34 years and have a son and daughter, both currently living in the Tampa Bay area. Jim is a retired commercial, retail, industrial Real Estate Broker and Rita was a stay-at-home Mom and volunteer. She held a real estate license and helped Jim as much as she could. This loving couple absolutely adores each other and Rita says she’s “blessed with the greatest guy in the world!” They both enjoy socializing and value spending time with friends and family. They used to do television and radio ads, and are both very outgoing with a passion for getting to know people and getting the job done!

Rita is one of the hardest working people I know, and she is an extremely helpful and dear friend. Before Covid hit, the Angle’s had a booming Estate Sale business. She is extremely knowledgeable about personal property with resources and referrals on everything from A – V (Antiques to Valuables).

Rita currently works for Elite Mobile Home Sales, as a Sales Agent. Her first listing in Southwind was in March 2021. She sold Al & Maryanne Bailey’s home (#192) in only a month. Rita brought her 2 offers in one day! Maryanne was very impressed with the professional quality ad photos, where Rita had “staged” their home and took the photos herself. Maryanne has many, many wonderful things to say about Rita! She first met Rita through walking their dogs, and she encouraged Rita to become a Realtor. Rita’s enthusiasm, energy, personality and experience in her Estate Sale business won the Baileys’ trust and their home was her first sale! They appreciate that Rita is very honest and personable with everyone.

Then, in April – Rita had two listings and both sold within a month.

Pat Stolberg, #122, said “Working with Rita was good and FAST!”

Dave Cheney #200 (who closes in July), said “Rita was a true joy to have as a Realtor. Her greatest gift is her warm personality. My house was on the market for less than 2 weeks, before it sold. Rita kept me updated on all the showings and any concerns that I and the buyers had. She comes highly recommended!”

The process of selling your home can be overwhelming for the resident owner or families of the owners. Her initial consultation includes finding out about the mechanics of the home and small tweaks in the home to help a potential buyer see themselves in your home, as their home. Fortunately, Rita can and does help out in every way possible to make the sale go smoothly and to meet the needs of both the seller and the buyer, with the goal of making the selling and buying experience a positive one.

Rita says “I’m your neighbor and I’m going to be the buyer’s neighbor too!” With neighbors like Rita and Jim, who know first-hand about life in the most desired community in the area, we all know Southwind is the best place to call home.

If you are considering selling your Southwind home or know someone looking to buy a home here, do yourself (or them) a huge favor and CALL RITA at (810) 348-1131 TODAY. In our cherished Southwind community, as you now know - OUR homes sell very quickly!

Thank you, Rita and Jim, for being great neighbors and sharing your passion for getting to know people in the best way possible – by serving the needs of our Community!

LADIES LUNCHEON PHOTOS

Submitted by Maggie Griscavage

Thank you to Joanne Zeffiro, Lot #118, for organizing and reserving space for our monthly offsite lunch and to Maggie G. for taking the attached photos at Yiannis Greek restaurant at the Tarpon Springs Sponge Docks. Some ladies took the Trolley and enjoyed visiting, sightseeing and shopping in the quaint Greek town to our north.

If you are new to the area, and enjoy sightseeing and shopping, you will want to go to Tarpon Springs on Dodecanese Blvd. Taking the Trolley from nearby Dunedin saves you the driving and looking for a hard to find (paid) parking spot.

Maggie took these photos of our lunch trip.

WELCOME NEW SOUTHWIND NEIGHBORS!

Our Welcome Committee, Cheryl Hudecek and Kimberly Henkel, have been busy trying to make up for lost time (due to Covid) getting out to greet many new neighbors.

When you see this dynamic duo out and about in their golf cart (pictured below), you will know they are probably on a mission to welcome new residents! They deliver a packet with a welcome letter, maps of the community, information about our HOA, etc. and are happy to answer general questions about our community.

In this monthly newsletter - delivered to your door, the Southwind Breezes has a phone directory, on Page 2, with many of our community volunteers listed, including our Welcome Committee with their phone numbers. You are also encouraged to contact Maggie G., to be included in our Annual Directory (residents only), and text or email your birthday /anniversary - month and day to Terri C. at breezes.editor@gmail.com

Ask Yourself These
10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

How the Breezes Word Search puzzle became part of our newsletter:

By Terri C.

In 2018, I met a very special lady here in Southwind and she was the leader of the pool exercise class. Her name was Alice Malinowski and she was 97 years old. She was very inspiring and quite special to be so active at her age. I felt compelled to write a feature article for the Breezes. Alice's close friend was another Southwind resident - Peggy H., who was then 96.

These two ladies motivated all of us to keep as active as we can! Alice even had her own "saved" seat at Monday night BINGO and she won quite frequently, as I recall. Both ladies had very sharp minds and kept up with what was going on in the world and in Southwind. Alice kept track of birthdays, anniversaries, who was sick, etc. and she sent greeting cards to everyone! Alice said she kept her mind sharp by doing word search puzzles.

As a tribute to this tiny white haired lady, I created and added a word search puzzle to the monthly Southwind Breezes. It has been a continued feature each month, even after they have both passed away. (Photo attached)

In loving memory of these two very special Southwind residents, Alice M and Peggy H - please enjoy the word search puzzle. We miss you ladies!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY!
