A report from Tom Lenard....

Doug “Super Maintenance Man” does it again!

Horseshoes has always been a part of Honeymoon Park's activities. Time and use has required maintenance and improvements on a regular basis. Doug Sr. has always kept the horseshoe pits in good repair and up to standards.

The latest update idea came to us from a neighboring park. When we showed Doug a picture of the kind of score board we would like, he replied, “I like it, let me think about it for a while”. A few day later he said “I will have something you may like”. Take a look at the picture and see Doug and his new and improved scoring columns. THANK YOU DOUG!!! For all the extras you do for the park and especially the Horseshoers. We appreciate you very much!

Park Phone Directory

A reminder that the July newsletter will be replaced by the annual Park Phone Directory. The phone directory is for our residents only and is not available online.

Thank you to Ann Scott for gathering the information and trying to keep the directory up to date, as new residents move in and current residents move out quite often!

Honeymoon Facebook Page

It has been suggested that Honeymoon Mobile Home Park should have a Facebook page. A few years ago one was started by Donna Wittig-Carey, titled Honeymoon Mobil Home Park Community Association, Inc. Donna is no longer living in the park.

In checking the facebook page, the last entry was December of 2020. If any of you are savvy about such things, perhaps you could make it more user friendly, so Honeymooners could use it for current information, such as the water will be shut off this morning, or there will be a golf cart parade tomorrow, or potluck at the pool soon. I know there are some groups on Facebook, maybe we can be a group?

Obviously, I don't know very much about it! But it seems like a good idea to me. If anyone has social media knowledge and would be willing to get such a thing started, please talk to Gary Smith, Association president about it.

HOW TO KNOW YOU'RE GROWING OLDER

Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work.
The gleam in your eyes is from the sun hitting your bifocals.
You feel like the morning after the night before, but you haven't been anywhere.
Your “little black book” contains only names ending in M.D.
You get winded playing chess.
Your children begin to look middle aged.
You finally reach the top of the ladder only to find it leaning against the wrong wall,
You join a health club and don't go.
You begin to outlive enthusiasm.
You procrastinate, but then never get around to it.
You're still chasing women, but can't remember why.
Your mind makes contracts your body can't meet.
A dripping faucet causes an uncontrollable bladder urge.
You know all the answers, but nobody asks you the question.
You look forward to a dull evening.
You walk with your head held high trying to get used to your new bifocals.
Your favorite part of the newspaper is the section – 25 years ago today.
You turn out the light for economic rather than romantic reasons.
You sit in a rocking chair and can't make it go.
Your knees buckle and your belt won't.
You're 17 around the neck, 41 around the waist, and 96 around the golf course.
You stop looking forward to your next birthday.
You remember today that yesterday was your wedding anniversary.
You “burn the midnight oil” after 9:00pm.
Your back goes out more than you do.
A fortune teller offers to read your face.
Your pacemaker makes the garage door go up when you watch a pretty girl go by.
You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there.
The little gray-haired lady you help across the street is your wife.

Poisonous Pastor Imposters

A widow near Hattiesburg, Mississippi got an email in February ostensibly from her pastor, saying he was out of town and needed a favor: $100 gift cards for five women undergoing cancer treatment. He specified eBay or Amazon cards and said he'd pay her back.

The email looked legitimate, so she snapped up $500 in Amazon cards at Walgreens, took photos of their numbers and texted them to him. The numbers gave the imposter instant access to the funds. That evening, he sent a request for 10 more $100 gift cards. Smelling a rat, the widow fired back: "You are a thief and a liar. God sees what you did."

The Federal Trade Commission labels clergy cons as imposter fraud, which caused nearly $1.2 billion in losses in 2020. The FTC can't say how many crooks pose as religious leaders, but AARP's Fraud Watch Network says preying on the prayerful has spiked during the pandemic..

For the widow in Mississippi, the $500 loss will delay her dream of buying a home. "I've had opportunities to be scammed before, but this is the first time I fell for it," she says.

From the May issue of AARP Bulletin, by Katherine Skiba

From the editor's desk

Susie Buckley

Here I am, back home again in Indiana! I have missed the warm Florida weather, but I think it is finally warming up. There were snow flakes on Mother's Day! We had a few nice warm days, but have had frost advisories nightly for the past week. I have watched my neighbor put away her potted plants every night and bring them out during the day.

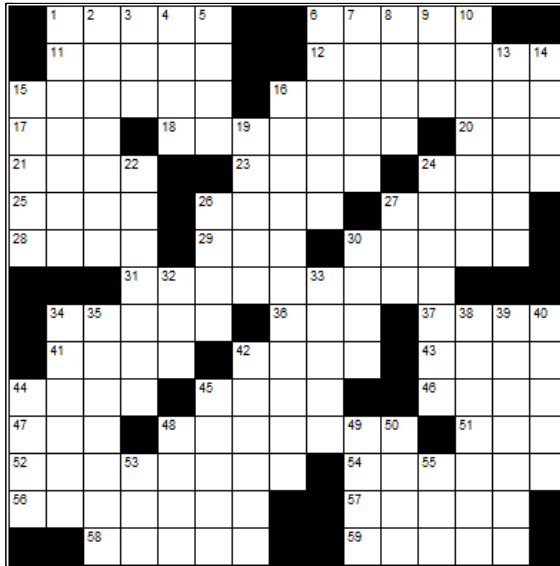

At last, forecast for the next 10 days shows highs in the 70s, lows in the 50s. I am on my way outdoors! Happy summer! Life is good!
