Jokes

A Georgia state patrolman pulled a car over for speeding about 20 miles from the Florida line on I-95. When the officer asked the driver why he was speeding, the driver answered that he was a magician and juggler and was on his way to Jacksonville to do a show that night and didn't want to be late.

The patrolman told the driver that he was fascinated by juggling and if the driver would do a little juggling for him that he wouldn't give him a ticket. The juggler told him that he had sent all of his equipment on ahead and didn't have anything to juggle. The patrolman told him that he had some flares in the trunk of his car and asked if he could juggle them. The juggler said he could, so the patrolman got three flares and lit them, and handed them to the juggler.

While the man was doing his juggling act, a car pulled up behind the patrol car and a drunk got out and looked at the show, then went to the patrol car, opened the back door and got in. The patrolman saw him do this and went over to his car, opened the door and asked the drunk what he thought he was doing. The drunk replied, "Just take me to jail... ain't no way I'm gonna pass that test."

A young boy came to Sunday school late. His teacher knew that he was usually very prompt and asked him if anything was wrong.

The boy replied that he was going to go fishing, but his dad told him that he needed to go to church.

The teacher was very impressed and asked the boy if his dad had explained to him why it was more important to go to church than to go fishing, to which the boy replied, "Yes, Dad said he didn't have enough bait for both of us."

A man tell his friend, "I went to my doctor to see if he could help me give up smoking."
"What did he say?"
"He suggested that every time I felt like a smoke I should reach for a bar of chocolate."
"Did that do any good?"
"No, I can't get the chocolate to light."

SAYING GOODBYE

This note is to express our sorrow to see three of our favorite residents leaving the park.

Diane Durocher, our club house decorator of merit, has decided to move back to Massachusetts permanently. For many years Diane has not only willingly managed to decorate the hall for the various events for the residents, but also delivered your Shangra La newsletter monthly. Her timeless energy and beautiful smile will be missed. She will be hard to replace!!

Wally and Kathy Schultz has bought a mobile on Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg. They wanted a place where they could have a boat and marina. As we all know this couple were very active in the park. For many years Wally has been president of the HOA board, and leaving as Activity

Director. The shuffleboard will miss both of these active and giving persons. Kathy has arranged many Birthday parties for the park, as well as working endlessly on all of the events we were able to have in the past. Both of them are very caring people who have devoted their time here in the park being as helpful to many others. We hope they will continue to return to visit us and as they are not so far away, we can go visit them!

We wish the best to all three.

GOOD NEWS

After a long long wait for our favorite recreation site to be refined, refurbished and refilled, several of the resident "mermaids" were able to enjoy the delight of the swimming pool and area. Kicking up their heels are: Sylvia Disotell, Polly Pifer, Kathy Schultz, and Gail Garside. Happy summer days ahead!

Today’s cars have all kinds of electronic entertainment options, including CD players, Sirius XM, Wi-Fi hookups, and more. So what do most people listen to while driving on short errands or long-distance road trips? It’s still the radio.

A 2021 survey of 1,057 people reported by the RadioInk website found that 75% had listened to AM/FM radio in their cars in the past month, down from 81% in 2020 but still the No. 1 choice of drivers. Here’s how radio ranks compared to other sources of sound:

A plan to save the vanishing leatherback turtle

Huge leatherback sea turtles, which weigh as much as a compact car and date back to the dinosaur age, migrate thousands of miles across the Pacific Ocean to the coasts of central and south America. According to U.S. News & World Report, scientists were startled by the discovery that the leatherbacks could make such a long journey, feasting on jellyfish in cold water off the U.S. west coast before heading back home.

Now scientists are worried because the number of leatherbacks off California has dropped 80% in the last 30 years, for a 5.6% annual decline. If it continues—due to climate change, international fishing, and the loss of nesting grounds—they could disappear off the coast within 30 years. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration has launched an aggressive campaign to save them by reducing the number of eggs taken on beaches and reducing the number of leatherbacks tangled up in nets by commercial fishing.

Reflection

Long ago in a small village was a place known as the House of 1,000 Mirrors. A small, happy little dog learned of the house and decided to visit. When he arrived outside, he bounced happily up the front steps to the doorway of the house. He looked through the doorway with his ears lifted high and his tail wagging as fast as it could.

To his great surprise, he found himself staring at 1,000 other happy little dogs with their tails wagging just as fast as his. He smiled a great smile, and was answered with 1,000 great smiles just as warm and friendly. As he left the house, he thought to himself, "This is a wonderful place. I will come back and visit it often."

In the same village, another little dog, who was not quite as happy as the first one, decided to visit the house too. He slowly climbed the front steps and hung his head low as he looked into the door. When he saw 1,000 unfriendly looking dogs staring back at him, he growled, and was horrified to see 1,000 little dogs growling back at him. As he left, he thought to himself, "That is a horrible place. I will never go back there again."

All the faces in the world are mirrors. What kind of reflections do you see in the faces of the people you meet?

The story carries us along, bottles on the tide, each with our secret message and the fervent hope that it does not turn out to be blank.

— Erica Jong

“Wow, honey, I never thought our son would go that far!”
“Yeah, that catapult is really amazing.”

Years ago, I threw away a boomerang really hard. I’ve lived in constant fear since.

My aunts would come and tease me at weddings, “Well, Sarah? Do you think you’ll be next?” We settled this quickly once I started asking them the same thing at funerals.

Whenever I see lovers' names carved in a tree, I wonder how many people bring a knife on a date.

I haven’t been sleeping well recently. Well, that's it for my last talent.

Lunch date

The geography teacher was lecturing on map reading. After explaining about latitude, longitude, degrees, and minutes, the teacher asked, “Suppose I asked you to meet me for lunch at 23 degrees, 4 minutes north latitude and 45 degrees, 15 minutes east longitude?”

After a long silence, a student answered, “I guess you’d be eating alone.”

Absentee

A mother asked, “Why did you get such a low mark on that test?”

“Because of absence,” her son answered.

“You mean you were absent on the day of the test?”

“No, but the kid who sits next to me was.”

Laughter heals all wounds, and that’s one thing that everybody shares. No matter what you’re going through, it makes you forget about your problems. I think the world should keep laughing.
