Jill Chambers, Vice President, Lot 234, 440-318-4738

Well summer has arrived and it is definitely hot and muggy. This is the time of year when families come down to visit so remember to drive slowly through the park as children can dart out into the street. We have speed limits posted and we do have stop signs that we need to stop at.

Management has been working on repairing sidewalks around the park. If the sidewalk by your house needs repairs be sure to let them know. Management is installing new net for the golf practice net and has cleaned up the bocce court and putting greens. Again, if you ever see anything that needs to be done just let the office know as they are not the ones using them, so don't always check them out.

When we have some cooler evenings the shuffleboard court is a great place to be. The equipment for that is in the shed there along with the horseshoes and bocce balls. There are also lights that you can turn on at night. if you're using the shuffleboard court, just remember to turn them off when you're done. The basic pool rules have been posted on the pool gates. Remember we are all responsible for our guests that come to visit. Enjoy your summer.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 504, 843-457-9599

For those of you who are still with us this summer Sharon repealed the mask having to be worn in the clubhouse. No more sign in either.

There are plenty of activities going on this summer. Please look at the calendar in the middle of this book. All activities are listed there. If you have any suggestions for any new activities, or wish to start a new activity, please let me know. We are open for all suggestions.

We will check with the office to see if we can maybe have some functions for everyone this summer. Any suggestions are welcome.

Stay safe!

Ray Duncan

JOKES

FROM REGGIE 'K'

A man arrived at a brothel, knocked on the door and a madam opened the door to find an elderly man, his clothes all disheveled, and he looked needy.

"Can I help you?" she asked the man. "I want to see Natalie," he replied. "Sir, Natalie is one of my most expensive ladies, perhaps you would like to see someone else?" "No, I must see Natalie," he demanded.

Just then Natalie appeared and announces that she charges $ 1000.00 dollars per visit. The man never blinked an eye, reached into his pocket and handed her ten $100.00 bills.

The two went up to a room for one hour whereupon the man calmly left. The next night, he appeared again and demanded to see Natalie. She exclaimed that no one had ever come back two nights in a row and that there would be no discount. The old man handed her the money, and they went up to the room and he calmly left an hour later.
