Notes from the HOA Board of Directors

The HOA Board Members would like to thank Dave Suderman for taking and guiding the helm for the last year. We have appointed a new President, Ann Ohr and a new Board Director, Audrey Lawrence. Audrey and her husband Fred come to our community from New Jersey.

Audrey has several years as an HR Manager for a large Healthcare company and will bring valuable experience to the Board. Audrey is very active in our community, and we appreciate her stepping up to the important role as Secretary of the Board.

We continue to meet with Karen Barker, Park Manager, the 1st Wednesday of every month. During these meetings updates are provided on complaints that Norm Goldberg receives and are reviewed. We also encourage input on management activities that will improve our community.

As of this date: new pool furniture, continued to work on street drainage, sidewalk repair and replacement, new high speed router which allows better and more consistent Wi-Fi coverage in the pool area, new poker tables, chairs and cushions in the game room, a smoke-free zone outside the clubhouse doors, repair and replacement of the putting green (in progress), better support and follow-up with violations of Park Policy, Negotiating Committee that obtained a more reasonable rent increase than originally proposed, working with the community to restore social activities, actively seeking a reasonable solution to the speeding issues, continually working with management seeking resolution to complaints about our dog issues, bridge replacement (in progress), repair of walkway and pavement with decorative concrete design by pool and patio area, and purchase of noodles for Water Aerobics. We will continue to work on areas that require improvement in our community. We welcome and encourage your ideas and feedback. We will work together to make our community a better place to live!

4th of July Picnic and Celebration

Amber Glades HOA is planning a picnic fare and all you must bring is yourself, neighbors, and friends, along with a beverage of choice. We will begin eating between 4-5 p.m. We would also love to meet our new neighbors and welcome you to our great Community! There will be ping pong, cornhole, our new putting green, photo card, and of course, our pool will be available for your entertainment. Do you play an instrument or have a musical talent? Would you like to volunteer a talent or labor of love? We would love hearing from you! Amber Glades will be providing the hamburgers, hot dogs and chicken. We will also provide gluten free items. We are encouraging our residents to sign up for one of your favorite side dishes. We will hold a dessert competition. The battle of the bakers – will your dessert be chosen as #1? Tickets will be offered to all residents at no charge and non-residents for $5. Unfortunately, if you do not have a ticket, we will not be able to serve you that day. Please sign up no later than Saturday, July 1st. We will also have a golf cart parade at 7 p.m. For your ticket, please contact:

Linda Silvie, #240, 828-773-2166; Marie Scalabrino, #2, 917-620=7348 or

Lou Smith, #238, 217-836-4732

May the fourth be with you!!!

PLEASE DON'T FEED THE ALLIGATORS

This applies to ducks, turtles, and fish also. Feeding wild animals, whether on purpose or not, does more harm than good. Here is why.

1. "People" food is not good for animals. Human foods are not nutritious enough for animals and may cause serious health problems (especially when animals are continually fed french fries, bread and popcorn). These processed human foods are empty calories with little protein that fill animals up but provide minimal nutrition.
2. It makes wild animals lose their natural fear of people. Feeding can make large, potentially dangerous animals become too comfortable in residential or recreational areas. Once animals learn they can panhandle for food, they can become a nuisance or even worse, a safety risk.

Unfortunately, we are still having an issue with feeding the alligators in the pond and management of the park has informed us that this is a Class A Felony, and they will have to call the authorities if this continues.

Let a word to the WISE be sufficient.

GAME NIGHT IS BACK!

We had our first game night Saturday, June 5 and it was a fun night for all. It was a great night to be with friends, have great snacks, and play fun games again. Don't forget we have ping-pong, horseshoes, cornhole, board games, dice games and card games. We will continue with Game Night the first Saturday of every month at 7:00 p.m. at our Clubhouse. We are also looking at reviving "horses" again. If you have any questions or would like to know more, feel free to call Bev Chism, 513-379-5930 or Ann Ohr at 724-372-3825.

FOOD DRIVE NEWS

We are still collecting items to be donated to the food bank every Saturday at noon. For questions or to donate, please contact Liz Johnson, Lot 263, 618/791-6555.

MILITARY & SENIOR DISCOUNTS

Greetings from the Plant Lady

Greeting plant lovers. Spring has sprung. I cannot help but see all the beautiful flowers when I drive around the neighborhood. I am going to get back to snapping pictures of your beautiful flowers. Look for them on Facebook daily. Let us get on to fertilizer. It is that time of year when you need to fertilize your plants. Here's a low budget fertilizer to mix for your plants: Epson salt contains magnesium and sulfur; two nutrients plants need. Mix 1 tbsp. Epson Salt in a gallon of water and treat your plants to a healthy feast. It's a great homemade fertilizer for roses, vegetables and houseplants. Just an aside – you may have heard that it is a good idea to pour out leftover beer around plants providing them with a nice boost of minerals and other nutrients. Do not risk it. Beer like other alcoholic beverages contains ethanol. This is a form of alcohol that can burn plants and even kill them. It is best to stick to water. (No one wants a drunk Hibiscus plant). Be light-handed with fertilizer. If you have heard the advice to give your perennials lots of fertilizer, do not do it. Too much fertilizer may be too bad for your perennials, encouraging them to become leggy with fewer flowers and stunted roots. Give new plants a tiny bit of quick release fertilizer and let them get on with growing. Do not over mulch, especially if you live in a dry hot place. Too much mulch can soak up oil water from rain and sprinklers before it gets to the roots of the plants. Too much mulch may also attract slugs looking for a full refuse. Woody's scrubs with shallow roots like azaleas and rhododendrons suffer the most from too much mulch. Just pick up a handful of mulching material on the upside down and just flip your wrist to spread evenly – no need to pour most from a heavy bag.

Have a Great Summer -Happy Gardening and see you next month.

Debra Santee, The Plant Lady

Germ in the Pool:

A Survival Summer is here, and with the easing of coronavirus restrictions, the urge to dive back into the swimming pool could not be higher. Swimmers may be relieved to know that you can't catch COVID-19 from the water — but plenty of other disease-causing germs are lurking below the surface.

Between 2015 and 2019 the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recorded 208 outbreaks of illness linked to pools and hot tubs that resulted in 3,646 infections, 286 hospitalizations and 13 deaths, and experts say those numbers could be much higher.

Nearly all of the recorded outbreaks (96 percent) were associated with public pools, hot tubs or water playgrounds. Hotels and resorts accounted for 34 percent of outbreaks, with the majority of them originating in hot tubs (70 percent) versus pools. And most outbreaks occurred in the months of June, July and August.

“With public pools, you have more people with more germs coming into that water,” said Michele Hlavsa, chief of the CDC’s Healthy Swimming Program. “So, they are more likely to have an outbreak versus if it's just one family using the pool — they're bringing in less germs.”

Guide for Swimmers

Chlorine kills most pathogens, but parasites, bacteria and viruses can still lurk below surface

by Aaron Kassraie, AARP, May 25, 2021

10 ways to stay safe from a pool-related illness

- 1. Stay out of the water if you have diarrhea. If you have been diagnosed with cryptosporidiosis, the illness caused by the parasite, don't go back into the water until two weeks after diarrhea has completely stopped.
- 2. Shower before you swim. Rinsing off in the shower for 1 minute removes most of the dirt or anything else on your body that uses up pool chemicals to kill germs. Most people have about 0.14 grams of feces — comparable to a few grains of sand — on their body at any given time, according to the CDC.
- 3. Don't swallow the water. The number one way you can protect yourself from crypto is to avoid swallowing the water, Hlavsa said. Chlorine kills most germs within minutes; it doesn't kill germs instantly.
- 4. Have kids? Take frequent bathroom breaks. For those who are very little, check diapers every hour and change them away from the water to keep germs from contaminating it.
- 5. Beware of red eyes and a strong “chlorine” smell. The smell comes from a chemical irritant called chloramine that occurs when chlorine combines with what washes off swimmers' bodies. Chloramine also causes red, blood-shot eyes. An abundance of chloramine likely means there is an excess of urine, feces or sweat in the pool. It also means there's less chlorine remaining in the water to kill germs.

6. Protect open cuts or wounds. It's best to stay out of the water, especially if the cut or wound is the result of a recent surgery or piercing. If you do go in, use waterproof bandages to completely cover the cut or wound.
7. Mind your ears. Dry ears thoroughly after swimming or wear a bathing cap or ear plugs to prevent swimmer's ear, an infection in the outer ear canal. The bacterial infection is more common in children.
8. Shower after with soap. After getting out of water for the day, remove your swimsuit and lather up to kill any germs clinging to your skin. Wash your swimsuit, too — this prevents “hot tub rash,” an itchy red bump that can fill with pus around hair follicles.
9. Conduct your own inspection. If it doesn't meet proper criteria, talk to the pool operator or go to your local health department to make sure the pool or hot tub is operating properly:
 - Make sure the drain at the bottom of the deep end of the pool is visible, secured and in good condition.
 - Use test strips that can be purchased at a pool supply or hardware store to check the chlorine or bromine levels and pH in the water.
 - o Chlorine should be at least 1 part per million (ppm) in pools and at least 3 ppm in hot tubs.
 - o Bromine, an alternative to chlorine, should read at least 3 ppm in pools and 4 ppm in hot tubs.
 - o The pH level represents how effectively germs are killed and should be between 7.2 and 7.8.
10. Do your part. “If swimmers and caregivers of young swimmers are doing their part — not swimming with diarrhea, not swallowing the water — I think we can all have a great summer in and around the pool this year,” Hlavsa said. “It's just going to take all of us doing that together.”

Aaron Kassraie writes about issues important to military veterans and their families for AARP. He also serves as a general assignment reporter. Kassraie previously covered U.S. foreign policy as a correspondent for the Kuwait News Agency's Washington bureau and worked in news gathering for USA Today and Al Jazeera English.

No ordinary talking mule

A farmer in the country was very poor. Tired of living in squalor, he decided to sell the only thing he owned—his talking mule. This was no ordinary talking mule, though. He could tell jokes and sing and dance. But with much regret, the farmer set off to the big city to sell his mule.

He set up on a street corner, and the mule drew an immediate crowd. The mule was so funny that the crowds couldn't remain standing for long because they were laughing so hard. Finally, a man came up to the farmer and said, "I'm a talent scout. I MUST have your mule for our show."

Unfortunately, the talent scout had just been pickpocketed, and had lost his wallet. The only thing in his pockets was a subway token. He convinced the farmer to trade the mule for the "Magic Token of Good Fortune" and secured the mule.

On the way home, the farmer realized that he had been cheated. Broken hearted, he decided to use the subway token to ride to the edge of the city. But when he put the token in the slot, alarms went off. He was frightened at first, but then he was notified that he was the 1 billionth rider of the subway, and he had just won $50 million.

Meanwhile, the mule was so successful that he became the toast of Broadway.

Moral of the story: A mule that is funny is soon bartered.

The best way to pray

A priest, a minister, and a guru sat in a new interfaith community center. While a telecommunications worker installed the new phone system, they began discussing the best positions for prayer.

"Kneeling is definitely the best way to pray," the priest said.

"No," said the minister. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to heaven."

"You're both wrong," the guru said. "The most effective prayer position is the lotus position."

The telephone technician sat up. "Excuse me, gentlemen, but I should tell you that the best praying I ever did was when I was hanging upside down from a telephone pole."

If you wish to glimpse inside a human soul and get to know a man ... just watch him laugh. If he laughs well, he's a good man.
