Let's live in harmony with wildlife

By Jennifer O'Connor

Believe it or not, July 16 is “World Snake Day.” It’s time these beleaguered reptiles got their due. Many people are genuinely fearful of snakes, but snakes don’t want anything to do with us, either! Snakes avoid contact with humans, they aren’t out to get you. Most species are harmless, and they help control the mouse and rat population. If you see a snake near your home, don’t scream, be happy that mice and rats are going elsewhere. If you are truly terrified of snakes, keep in mind that leaving companion-animal food outside or keeping bird feeders can be an invitation to both rats and snakes.

There are so many ways to live in harmony with wildlife:

- Rinse out recyclable jars and bottles and put the lids back on them so that the containers can’t become lodged on an animal’s head. Cut apart plastic six-pack rings, including the inner diamonds. Crush plastic tubs like yogurt.
- Keep your trash inside or in your shed in tightly sealed containers.
- Instead of squishing them for the “crime” of getting inside, put cups over bugs or spiders and slide a piece of cardboard or paper over the bottom. Then you can let them go. You can also use humane mouse traps and relocate them outside. Please never sentence animals to a prolonged, painful death by using glue traps.
- Keep cats indoors or on a screened porch to prevent them from killing wildlife (and to keep them safe, too).
- Choose Earth-friendly garden methods. Pesticides and herbicides made of dangerous chemicals pollute the environment and poison animals’ food sources.
- Discard fishing gear properly and please clean up any you see that has been carelessly

Let's Recycle Smart

By Jennifer O'Connor

People are putting obvious GARBAGE in the recycling bin, including piles of broken ceiling tiles, hoses, garden clippings, clothing, sheets, pillows, Styrofoam "popcorn" and egg cartons, etc, and most of all, plastic bags. Use the large dumpster for garbage, debris, construction materials, garden clippings, etc. I'm finding masks, cellophane paper chip, cracker and snack bags, dryer lint, dirty A/C filters ... you get the picture.

Plastic bags of any kind - garbage, grocery, sandwich - contaminate the load and get caught in the sorting gears. Do not put in empty, plastic-wrapped cases that once held water bottles. If you gather your recyclables in a plastic bag, please empty it and reuse it, or if it's soiled, throw it in, you guessed it, the garbage bin.

You CAN recycle:

- Aluminum, steel and tin cans.
- Flattened, clean cardboard - including boxes and boxboard (cereal, rice, dried good boxes).
- Milk, cream, soy milk, half-and-half cartons.
- Glass bottles and jars. NO OTHER types of glass, including broken dishes or lightbulbs.
- Newspaper and mixed paper. NO shiny wrapping paper. NO shredded paper.
- Plastic bottles #1-7 (code is on the bottom). NO OTHER broken plastic, including toys, beach stuff, or furniture. NO straws! NO used coffee pods.

You CANNOT recycle:

- Styrofoam of any kind. Publix has green bins outside their doors for that. Publix also has bins for plastic bags.
- No plastic bags, wrap, packaging or film.
- No paper towels, waxed paper plates, cups, tissues or wax paper. No empty coffee cups or lids.
- If you can, please remove lids from water and other bottles. They don't recycle.

Thank you all for following these simple guidelines.

Thank you for making East Bay Oaks your home!

We strive to deliver the high level of customer service you have come to expect and promptly address the needs of all our residents. In order to deliver on this goal, we are highlighting a process to help us address any questions or concerns that may arise during your residency.

STEP 1: Please visit the community office or call (727) 531-9105 to discuss any questions or concerns with your community manager. Please allow appropriate time for a response or action from your community manager, and feel free to follow up as necessary.

STEP 2: If, after allowing appropriate time for your community manager to respond or initiate action, you feel the need to further address your questions or concerns, you may contact the regional manager for your community at (813) 282-6754.

STEP 3: After allowing appropriate time for a response or action from the community's regional manager, if you find it necessary, you may take the additional step of contacting our corporate customer service representative at (312) 279-1400.

We appreciate that you have chosen to call East Bay Oaks your home and look forward to continuing to serve you for many years to come.

Sincerely,
Your management team at
