MESSAGE FROM THE OFFICE

DeeVon Schisler, LCAM, Office phone 727 584-1413, email: secretary.fourseasonsestates@gmail.com

Well, we are now over six months into 2021. Thank goodness for getting back to a new normal! Our streets have been resealed, our pool has been resurfaced, the clubhouse doors have finally been replaced with “to code” doors that are ADA compliant and our Clubhouse is now open! The office hours will be Monday-Thursday from 8-2. The office will remain closed on Fridays until we resume “season” in October.

We have Tracey back in the office. Some of you may remember her. She was deployed with Homeland Security and is now done with that and back to us. If you have not met her, feel free to stop by her inside window and say hello, now that the Clubhouse has reopened.

There has been a flock of activity with demolition of old homes. Two new homes will be placed in the community in August on lots 454 and 459 and a third coming soon after that!

The new traffic control device has been installed and is going well. We have had a few hits and mishaps with it. Fortunately nothing serious. Any of the hits that have happened have been caught on camera. Please refrain from giving the code out to persons who do not live in the community. This includes taxi cars that are still trying to use both parks as a cut through.

There has been a surge in speeding in the park over the last few months. The Board of Directors are watching this closely and violation letters have gone out to numerous persons. Letters for this and other violations will continue to go out and further infractions will lead to more serious actions that may involve attorney involvement.

The park looks great. This has not happened by accident. Thank you all for showing your pride of ownership! Our new lawn service has settled in nicely and I have had only one complaint about their quality of work. That is a welcomed change from what we experienced with our former company!

We are all happy that we are closer to normal and welcome all SAC sponsored activities to resume! I go to a lot of meetings off property in my duties and I will say, I really believe we have a well-oiled machine here at FSE. Managers that I deal with cannot believe what all our SAC does for us here. Hats off to the SAC Board for all of their hard work to keep everyone entertained!!

That’s all folks!!

MESSAGE TO OUR FOUR SEASONS COMMUNITY FROM SAC

Lynn Ruhl, Chair of Information, Lot #482, sacinfochair21@gmail.com

Four Seasons Estates' clubhouse is reopening on Thursday, July 1st. The ROC Board of Directors has made this decision, and we want to give them a BIG thank you! Our monthly newsletter calendar will continue to keep residents as current as possible concerning upcoming events and activities. These will gradually restart as summer and early fall progresses. Our SAC Facebook page will post these updates as they occur.

The Memorial Day picnic was a HUGE success! Over 130 hamburgers were served as well as hot dogs, macaroni salad, baked beans, apple pie and ice cream. The meal was delicious! Cruiser provided music from 6 to 8 PM. A terrific time was had by all 😊. SAC would like to thank all the volunteers who assisted and the residents who attended.

Looking ahead to the Fourth of July (Sunday), preparations are being made for an event in the clubhouse at 2:00 PM. Purchase your tickets from Mary in #353 or flag her golf cart down!

We hope our community friends continue to stay safe and healthy wherever you are. Be patient and understanding as we move forward resuming the "good times" of Four Seasons Estates.

AQUA LADIES...AND MEN!

Pat McDonnell #508 and Joanne Halle #434

Yes! We are still here. All are welcome Monday through Saturday at 9AM and Tuesday and Thursday nights at 6pm. No better place to be than the 4 Seasons pool during the summer!

PLANNING ANY TRIPS NOW THAT YOU'VE HAD YOUR VACCINE?

If you'd like to share your plans with your Four Seasons friends, send a paragraph or two for the next newsletter to Marilyn at moosicldy@aol.com and Lynn at sacinfochair21@gmail.com. We certainly look forward to seeing all of our seasonal neighbors back in the Fall.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN!

Tropical Storm season or some people say Hurricane Season is upon us again! June through November on every Floridian's calendar. Are you prepared JUST IN CASE?

Because we live in a mobile home we are required to evacuate in case of a hurricane. Where will you go? Do you have your medications at the ready with a supply of them in case you are gone for an extended length of time? What about food and water? Clothes?

If you need help due to medical issues, there is a form that must be completed and returned to the Largo Fire Department so you can be put in their data base. This is very important for any resident who might have a health issue and need assistance during an evacuation.

First thing...where would you go? Friends or family? Hotel? Shelter? Which hotel would you go to? How long will it take you to get ready to leave? Remember you have to also prepare the outside of your home...bring in "flying objects like outside chairs, tables, plants, decorations, BBQ grills, etc. how long will this take? Put your awnings down! Will you need help? Is there gas in your car as the gas pumps won't work if no power? Do you have cash available in case there is no power and you can't withdraw from an ATM as most stores won't take a credit/debit card?

FOOD? What do you have in your evacuation kits? Put high protein non-perishable food items like tuna, chicken, spam, beans, peanut butter, dry cereal cups, crackers. How about non-refrigerated milk. Can opener? Plastic ware? Paper plates, napkins, paper towels and toilet paper?

BEDDING? If you have to leave do you need to bring bedding supplies with you? Your favorite blanket or pillow? What about bath towels?

CLOTHING? What will you need for a couple of days? What about a week? Warm clothes in case of a chill? Rain gear? Footwear? Anything special?

MEDICATIONS? Do you have your medications together? Do you have enough for a couple of weeks in case pharmacies are closed or shipments can't get in? If hurricane is called you can get a two week supply before you have to evacuate. Call your pharmacy. If the medications are in your refrigerator do you have a note in your evacuation kit to remind you to grab it/them? Do you need needles? Alcohol swabs? Do you have a first aid kit at the ready?

DO YOU HAVE A NOAA weather alert radio/device? Make sure you have it on and if it needs batteries put them in in case of electrical outages. Are you listening to the weather to keep track of what the updates are? DONT PANIC BUT BE PREPARED! Also if you have a CELL PHONE and there is no power how will you charge your phone, you need to purchase a

BOUTIQUE & SHED UPDATE

Ann Crowley, #375 and Judy Ingram, #243

Now that Koffee Klatch is on the calendar beginning in July, the Boutique and the Shed will be open from 8AM – 9:30AM on Wednesday mornings. Come by and see the treasures!

Please remember, Park residents, don't leave anything outside of the shed or Boutique. Do not leave anything at Lot 243 in the car port unless you call Judy first. We are not accepting any donations that are dirty, broken, or torn. Please do not leave any plastic bags at Lot 243 or at the shed. This is the rainy season and anything left outside gets ruined and just has to be tossed in the trash.

O NOT JUST DROP ITEMS OFF IN FRONT OF THE SHEDS! We very much appreciate your cooperation during the summer months. Call Ann or Judy if you have any questions.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

ONE MINUTE CAN CHANGE A LIFE

Steve Goodier, Life Support System

He almost killed somebody, but one minute changed his life. The beautiful story comes from Sherman Rogers' book, Foremen: Leaders or Drivers? In his true-life story, Rogers illustrates the importance of effective relationships.

During his college years, Rogers spent a summer in an Idaho logging camp. When the superintendent had to leave for a few days, he put Rogers in charge. "What if the men refuse to follow my orders?" Rogers asked. He thought of Tony, an immigrant worker who grumbled and growled all day, giving the other men a hard time.

"Fire them," the superintendent said. Then, as if reading Rogers' mind, he added, "I suppose you think you are going to fire Tony if you get the chance. I'd feel badly about that. I have been logging for 40 years. Tony is the most reliable worker I've ever had. I know he is a grouch and that he hates everybody and everything. But he comes in first and leaves last. There has not been an accident for eight years on the hill where he works."

Rogers took over the next day. He went to Tony and spoke to him. "Tony, do you know I'm in charge here today?" Tony grunted. "I was going to fire you the first time we tangled, but I want you to know I'm not," he told Tony, adding what the superintendent had said.

When he finished, Tony dropped the shovelful of sand he had held and tears streamed down his face. "Why he no tell me dat eight years ago?"

That day Tony worked harder than ever before – and he smiled! He later said to Rogers, "I told Maria you first foreman in deese country who ever say, 'Good work, Tony,' and it make Maria feel like Christmas."

Rogers went back to school after that summer. Twelve years later he met Tony again. He was superintendent for railroad construction for one of the largest logging companies in the West. Rogers asked him how he came to California and happened to have such success.

Tony replied, "If it not be for the one minute you talk to me back in Idaho, I keel somebody someday. One minute, she change my whole life."

Effective managers know the importance of taking a moment to point out what a worker is doing well. But what a difference a minute of affirmation can make in any relationship!

One minute. Have you got one minute to thank someone? A minute to tell someone what you sincerely like or appreciate about her? A minute to elaborate on something he did well? One minute. It can make a difference for a lifetime.

BOOK OF THE MONTH CLUB

Marilyn Franz, #411, moosicldy@aol.com

MITCH ALBOM is an internationally renowned and best-selling author, journalist, screenwriter, playwright, radio and television broadcaster and musician. His books have collectively sold more than 40 million copies worldwide; have been published in 49 territories and in 47 languages around the world; and have been made into Emmy Award-winning and critically-acclaimed television movies.

In 1995 he re-encountered Morrie Schwartz, a former college professor who was dying of ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. His visits with Schwartz would lead to the book Tuesdays with Morrie, which moved Mitch away from sports and began his career as an internationally recognized author.

Tuesdays with Morrie is the chronicle of Mitch's time spent with his beloved professor. As a labor of love, Mitch wrote the book to help pay Morrie's medical bills. It spent four years on the New York Times Bestseller list and is now the most successful memoir ever published. His first novel, The Five People You Meet in Heaven, is the most successful US hardcover first adult novel ever. For One More Day debuted at No.1 on the New York Times Bestseller List and spent nine months on the list. In October 2006, For One More Day was the first book chosen by Starbucks in the newly launched Book Break Program, which also helped fight illiteracy by donating one dollar from every book sold to Jumpstart. Have a Little Faith, was released in September 2009 and selected by Oprah.com as the best nonfiction book of 2009. His following titles, The Time Keeper and The First Phone Call from Heaven, both debuted at #1 on the New York Times Bestseller List. Bestselling The Magic Strings of Frankie Presto (2015) was the first book to be published in tandem with a soundtrack of original songs and covers, released by Republic Records. Debuting as #1 on the New York Times Bestseller List, The Next Person You Meet in Heaven, a sequel to The Five People You Meet in Heaven that follows the life of the little girl after being saved by the first book's lead character. His most recent book is Finding Chika, his first nonfiction title in over a decade.

Several of Albom's best sellers have been turned into successful TV movies – garnering many Emmy awards. An award-winning journalist and radio host, Albom wrote the screenplay for For One More Day, The Five People You Meet in Heaven, and Have a Little Faith and is an established playwright, having authored numerous pieces for the theater, including the off-Broadway version of Tuesdays With Morrie (co-written with Jeffrey Hatcher) which has seen over one hundred productions across the US and Canada.

Mitch is also an accomplished song writer and lyricist. Later in his life, when music had become a sideline, he would see several of his songs recorded, including the song “Hit Somebody (The Hockey Song)” which he wrote for rock singer Warren Zevon. Albom also wrote and performed songs for several TV movies, including “Cookin’ for Two” for Christmas in Connecticut, the 1992 remake directed by Arnold Schwarzenegger.

Albom has founded nine charities in the metropolitan Detroit area: SAY Detroit, an umbrella organization for charities dedicated to improving the lives of the neediest, including the SAY Detroit Family Health Clinic, Detroit Dream Scholars, and A Time To Help, and In January 2015, Albom announced the launch of the SAY Detroit Play Center at Lipke Park, an innovative motivational learning program equipped with state-of-the-art athletic facilities, digital learning center and tutoring program. A Hole in the Roof Foundation helps faith groups of every denomination who care for the homeless repair the spaces in which they carry out their work. The seed that gave root to the Foundation – and also inspired its name—was the hole in the roof of the I Am My Brother’s Keeper church in inner-city Detroit, written about in Have a Little Faith.

I just finished reading “Have a Little Faith” for the second time. A true story that spans eight years, Mitch reunites with his family rabbi and agrees to do the rabbi’s eulogy. Over the next eight years, they reconnect and share a deep bond of renewal and mutual devotion. The author admits this is not a book about faith, he is not a religious expert, nor is it a ‘how to guide’— rather it is written in hope that all faiths can find something universal in the story.

This story also relives Mitch’s meeting and friendship with Henry Covington, the founder of A Hole in the Roof Ministry in Detroit. They developed a special bond to aid the homeless and down-trodden and in the end, Mitch actually does two eulogies – one for Rabbi Lewis and, a year later, one for Pastor Covington. Two men of faith who touched the lives of so many. “The true definition of ‘church’. It is not the building, it is the people and their faith.”

If you’d like to read either The Magic Strings of Frankie Presto or Have a Little Faith – pick them up from Marilyn and pass them on when you are finished.

And if you’ve read a good book and would like to write a brief synopsis, send it to Marilyn at moosicldy@aol.com.
