So true

My husband and I went through the McDonald's driveway window and I gave the cashier a $5 bill.
Our total was $4.25, so I also handed her 25c.

She said, 'you gave me too much money.'

I said, 'Yes I know, but this way you can just give me a dollar back.'

She sighed and went to get the manager who asked me to repeat my request.

I did so, and he handed me back the 25c, and said 'We're sorry but we don't do that kind of thing.'

The cashier then proceeded to give me back 75 cents in change.

Do not confuse the people at MacD's.

We had to have the garage door repaired.

The repairman told us that one of our problems was that we did not have a 'large' enough motor on the opener.

I thought for a minute, and said that we had the largest one made at that time, a 1/2 horsepower.

He shook his head and said, 'You need a 1/4 horsepower.'

I responded that 1/2 was larger than 1/4 and he said, 'NOOO, it's not. Four is larger than two.'

We haven't used that repairman since...

I live in a semi rural area.

We recently had a new neighbor call the local city council office to request the removal of the DEER CROSSING sign on our road.

The reason: 'Too many deers are being hit by cars out here! I don't think this is a good place for them to be crossing anymore.'

IDIOT SIGHTING IN FOOD SERVICE.

My daughter went to a Mexican fast food and ordered a taco.

She asked the person behind the counter for 'minimal lettuce.'

He said he was sorry, but they only had iceberg lettuce.

I was at the airport, checking in at the gate when an airport employee asked, 'Has anyone put anything in your baggage without your knowledge?'

To which I replied, 'If it was without my knowledge, how would I know?'

He smiled knowingly and nodded, 'That's why we ask.'

The pedestrian light on the corner beeps when it's safe to cross the street. I was crossing with an 'intellectually challenged' co-worker of mine. She asked if I knew what the beeper was for. I explained that it signals blind people when the light is red. Appalled, she responded, 'what on earth are blind people doing driving?!' She is a government employee.....

When my wife and I arrived at a car dealership to pick up our car after a service, we were told the keys had been locked in it.

We went to the service department and found a mechanic working feverishly to unlock the driver's side door.

As I watched from the passenger side, I instinctively tried the door handle and discovered that it was unlocked.

'Hey,' I announced to the technician, 'its open!'

His reply, 'I know. I already did that side.'

STAY ALERT!

They walk among us, they breed, and they vote.....

Jokes

A young child asked a woman how old she was. She answered, "39 and holding."
The child thought for a moment, then said, "And how old would you be if you let go?"

My husband is a minister who generally conducts an expanded altar call at the end of each sermon. He invites those who wish to accept Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior to come forward, as well as those in need of prayers or anyone who has other special requests, to come forward.

To the surprise and delight of the congregation our three-year-old daughter, without saying a word to me, got up and made her way forward.

She waited patiently while the others in line ahead of her made their special prayer requests.

When her turn came, my husband leaned down to ask what she needed.

She whispered, "Can we go to the restaurant after church today?"

A local Pastor joined a community service club, and the members thought they would have some fun with him.

Under his name badge they printed "Hog Caller" as his occupation. Everyone made a big fanfare as the badge was presented.

The Pastor responded by saying, "I usually am called the 'shepherd of the sheep'... but you know you people better than I do."

A bag of miseries

A rich man every night prayed the same prayer: “Dear God, I am the most unhappy man on the earth. Why have you made my life full of problems? I am ready to exchange my difficulties with anybody else. Can’t you give me an opportunity to exchange my worries with somebody else?”

One night in a dream he heard a voice that told him: “Gather all of your miseries into a bag and bring them to the town hall.”

When he got to the town hall, the rich man saw that all his neighbors had also packed their miseries into big bags. He saw that some people were carrying much bigger bags than his. Even people he had always seen smiling on the street and saying nice things to each other were carrying bigger bags.

Inside the hall, the voice said, “Put your bags around the hall.” Everyone put their bags down, and the voice said, “Now you can choose any bundle that you like.”

And everybody rushed to their own bags.

The rich man also rushed towards his own bag, afraid that somebody else might choose it. But everybody chose their own bag with great relief and happily carried their bags back to their homes. Even the rich man who had prayed for years to exchange his miseries was very happy. He walked home thinking, “Who knows what is in the other bags? At least we are aware of our own problems. And we have become accustomed to our own difficulties.”

Moral: Solving your own problems is better than exchanging them with someone else.

Give 100 percent

A little boy and girl were enjoying a pleasant afternoon playing outside in their neighborhood together. The boy showed the girl his collection of beautiful, unique marbles. In turn, the girl showed the boy the handful of candy that she had just gotten for her birthday.

The boy proposed that the two of them switch—he would give her all of his marbles if she handed over all of her candy. The girl agreed, as she found the marbles to be beautiful as well.

The boy handed over all of his marbles, but kept one—the most exquisite one of them all—in his pocket. The girl kept her promise and gave the boy all of her candy.

That night, the girl was happy with the exchange and peacefully went to sleep.

The boy, however, couldn’t sleep, because he kept wondering if the girl had secretly kept some of her candy, just like he did with the marble.

If you don’t give 100%, you will always assume your partner isn’t giving 100% either.

Unsportsmanlike conduct

At one point during a game, the coach called one of his nine-year-old baseball players aside and asked, “Do you understand what cooperation is? What a team is?”

“Yes, coach,” replied the little boy.

“Do you understand that what matters is whether we win or lose together as a team?”

The little boy nodded.

“So,” the coach continued, “I’m sure you know, when an out is called, you shouldn’t argue, curse the umpire, or call him a jerk. Do you understand all that?”

Again, the little boy nodded.

The coach continued, “And when I take you out of the game so that another boy gets a chance to play, it’s not a stupid decision or that the coach is an idiot, is it?”

“No, coach.”

“Good,” said the coach. “Now go over there and explain all that to your father.”

The Sacrifice

Eleven people were hanging on a rope under a failing helicopter — ten men and one woman. The helicopter was about to crash under their combined weight, and they realized that one of them would have to let go, otherwise all would fall to their deaths.

No one volunteered, though, until the woman spoke.

She said that she would let go of the rope because she was used to giving up everything for her husband and her sons, and was used to sacrificing everything for men in general without getting anything in return.

The men were so touched by her speech that as soon as she finished, they all started clapping.

Hearing problem

Apriest was giving blessings to children outside his church. Billy, 16, walked up and asked him, “Father, can you help me with my hearing?”

“I’ll try,” the priest said. He put his hands over Billy’s ears and prayed. When he removed his hands, he asked, “How is your hearing now?”

“I can’t tell,” Billy said. “It’s not until next Wednesday.”

No ordinary talking mule

A farmer in the country was very poor. Tired of living in squalor, he decided to sell the only thing he owned—his talking mule. This was no ordinary talking mule, though. He could tell jokes and sing and dance. But with much regret, the farmer set off to the big city to sell his mule.

He set up on a street corner, and the mule drew an immediate crowd. The mule was so funny that the crowds couldn't remain standing for long because they were laughing so hard. Finally, a man came up to the farmer and said, "I'm a talent scout. I MUST have your mule for our show."

Unfortunately, the talent scout had just been pickpocketed, and had lost his wallet. The only thing in his pockets was a subway token. He convinced the farmer to trade the mule for the "Magic Token of Good Fortune" and secured the mule.

On the way home, the farmer realized that he had been cheated. Broken hearted, he decided to use the subway token to ride to the edge of the city. But when he put the token in the slot, alarms went off. He was frightened at first, but then he was notified that he was the 1 billionth rider of the subway, and he had just won $50 million.

Meanwhile, the mule was so successful that he became the toast of Broadway.

Moral of the story: A mule that is funny is soon bartered.

The best way to pray

A priest, a minister, and a guru sat in a new interfaith community center. While a telecommunications worker installed the new phone system, they began discussing the best positions for prayer.

"Kneeling is definitely the best way to pray," the priest said.

"No," said the minister. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to heaven."

"You're both wrong," the guru said. "The most effective prayer position is the lotus position."

The telephone technician sat up. "Excuse me, gentlemen, but I should tell you that the best praying I ever did was when I was hanging upside down from a telephone pole."

If you wish to glimpse inside a human soul and get to know a man ... just watch him laugh. If he laughs well, he's a good man.
