The next HOA Board Meeting will be held in the Fall.

All HOA members are invited to attend the HOA meetings. There is a question and answer session after the regular meeting of the board. The meeting is held in the Clubhouse.

Notes from the HOA Board of Directors

We are excited to finally be getting back to “normal” and able to actually see smiles without masks. We are planning several events in the coming months and really hope that we will be able to have our “snowbirds” come back home to celebrate with us!

We continue to work with Karen on the many Park improvements for our Community and unfortunately we have had some delays that we had no control over. The bridge to the island is not finished because the contractor is unable to get the vinyl railings as there is now a shortage on vinyl. The new fire pit is not installed because we need to see the options as far as placing it on the island but we can’t get there until the railing is installed.

The new ice maker is installed in the laundry area which gives easy access to us all so that we could fill up when needed for a function we are holding on the grounds.

Along with our improvements, we do continue to hear concerns from the community regarding the Prospectus rules that were written for all of us, to assure we live in a community that is safe and peaceful. Many of the rules were written because the Park must abide by certain Health and Safety laws. The pool area is a prime example. There should never be any food in the pool area. There are tables with umbrellas right outside the pool gates, it has great access to the Community Center and all the amenities in there. Additionally, the children's hours in the Prospectus are less than the sign in the pool area so we have communicated this discrepancy to Karen and she has had the change approved by the Lautrec Corporation. The Prospectus will now show the children's hours to be 9-11am AND 5-7pm. Please explain to your guests that they are expected to abide by the rules. We can all be good neighbors to one another by being respectful and considerate of each other. If you wish to have a gathering with music etc., the Community Center can be available to reserve for you, and your guests, no charge, pending inspection after your personal event.

At this writing we are currently awaiting either a Topical Storm or a Hurricane. The Water Aerobics Ladies and Gentlemen helped many of our residents safely secure items that may fly or become a projectile. We are all responsible for items on our property and what may happen during windy weather. When the storm is over, what a great time to clean out our carports and those items that cannot be secured, especially when we are away. Please be mindful when returning some of your items to the previous areas, that they could be susceptible to wind. Anything that a gust could pick up and dislodge could cause damage. The Hurricane Season can last into November so let's be proactive and prepare. If you have a physical challenge doing so, please contact the HOA and we will arrange assistance for you.

It's such a delight to see many of our neighbors rehabbing and improving their homes. Enjoy seeing what your neighbors are doing – maybe you will get some good ideas for your own home. Now is a great time to enhance your home's charm! We are excited to introduce our new monthly spotlight. We are going to select one home a month and with it comes special recognition for that time period. Will it be yours? More details to follow.....

We are planning fun activities for you, for our community. Be sure to look at the calendar in this book and The Amber Glades FB page. We continue to update our page throughout the month with information that is important and informative for everyone who is a part of our community. Let's make our community the Best It Can Be!! – Ann Ohr, President, Amber Glades HOA

TACO AND GAME NIGHT

Have some taco's (3) for $2 or a taco chip plate for $2 to start your game night off with a happy tummy. We will meet at the Community Center on August 7 at 5:30 pm, eat at 6:00 pm and then start our games at 7:00 pm. If Horses is one of the games you would like to play, please don't forget your dimes and nickels. For tickets: Jackie LaFountain, #44, 802-839-0462 or Bev Chism, #231, 513-379-3765.

FEED YOUR SWEET TOOTH

We will be having a "Make Your Own Sundae" ice cream social on Sunday, August 15, 2021 at 3:00 pm. Meet at the Community Center and greet new and old friends with yummy ice cream and toppings provided by the HOA. Tickets are $3.00 and can be obtained from Jackie LaFountain, #44, 802/839-0462 or Bev Chism #231, 513/379-3765.

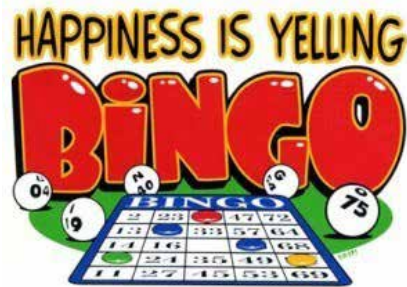

BINGO – LET'S BRING BACK BINGO!! HERE'S WHAT WE NEED TO DO:

- * We need volunteer to run the game. This means do the payouts at the game, buy the supplies and schedule the callers.
- * We need a "back-up" volunteer in case of injury or illness.
- * We need 18 people to commit to playing once a week.
- * We need volunteers to call the numbers.

We have a brand new computer generated system that times the calls so there isn't a problem with a slow or fast caller. We have new games and a faster verification system! Do we need to change to a different night? We will definitely change the announcement for the time so everyone will know when they really need to be there to have their card ready for the first game. We also have permission to open the game up to Bay's End which could help the "Pot Size".

Please participate – we will have lots of fun and make new friends.

Please call Ann Ohr (724-372-3825) for more information or to volunteer.

GAME NIGHT IS BACK!

We had our first game night Saturday, June 5 and it was a fun night for all. It was a great night to be with friends, have great snacks, and play fun games again. Don't forget we have ping-pong, horseshoes, cornhole, board games, dice games and card games. We will continue with Game Night the first Saturday of every month at 7:00 p.m. at our Clubhouse. The August Game Night will be August 7. We are also looking at reviving "horses" again. If you have any questions or would like to know more, feel free to call Bev Chism, 513-379-5930 or Ann Ohr at 724-372-3825.

Greetings from the Plant Lady

Greetings neighbors. Today's burning question... To pot or not to repot...
Your plant needs to be repotted if

1. the plant wilts soon after watering, a hard salty crust forms on the soil
2. the plant is top-heavy and prone to toppling over.

Without repotting other ways to keep your plants from needing repotting, are cutting back the plant. You can scale it back instead to keep it from getting bigger. Turn the plant out of the pot, and trim off the outer roots. Put the root ball back in the pot along with fresh soil. Prune away some of the foliage to accommodate the smaller root ball. Pots that are too small dry out fast, those are too large hold more water than the plant needs, which can lead to root rot. When you get ready to repot, choose a container 2 inches wider and deeper than the current one. The plant will have room to grow and just the right amount of moisture.

Trim roots before replanting. Give plants a drink before removing them from their old pot. Wet roots are less likely to break off when you slide the plant out of its pot. By doing this instead of repotting until the springtime. It also gives it a head start when you do the new dirt.

Stop putting gravel at the bottom of plants. You can do more harm than good. Far from improving drainage, gravel and pottery shards can leave roots more waterlogged. Gravel actually slows the water down as it moves through the pot, so the soil above it stays wetter, longer periods at the roots. If we use good quality potting soil, in a planter with good drainage skip the rocks. If we use good quality potting mix in a planter with drainage holes.

Keep soil in and test out. Cover the drainage hole in the bottom of the pot with a clean coffee filter. Extra water will still drain out, but the soil won't go out with it. It will also prevent pests from entering the plant through drainage holes. Unscented dryer sheet will do the same thing.

Happy gardening,

Debra Michelle

The plant lady

HOW TO AVOID UNFORSEEN CREDIT CARD CHARGES

6 Ways to spot unintentional purchases before they cost you cash
(by Sari Harrar, AARP, July 7, 2021*

A growing number of Americans are making an unsettling discovery while examining their credit card accounts. Embedded in the list of monthly transactions are charges for things they don't remember buying or services they can't recall receiving.

Federal fraud busters and other experts call the ploys behind these nasty surprises “dark patterns”. That term applies to tactics used by online companies, subscription services and even political fundraisers to trick consumers into triggering recurring credit card charges, making unintended purchases or giving up personal information.

These might be items sneaked into your web shopping carts. Or maybe while in the process of buying something online, you were tricked by the software into accepting a more expensive item or a monthly surcharge. Or perhaps a web company used visual fakery like hard-to-see opt-out buttons to deceive you into unintentionally opting in – every month.

Tactics like these are sometimes illegal under a federal law that bans “deceptive practices of any kind”, says Katharine Roller, A Federal Trade Commission (FTC) attorney. But many hide in the law’s shadows; there are no bright legal lines saying when type on a web page is too small or a box too hidden to pass from legal to illegal. And online businesses, fundraisers, and, yes crooks know that.

“Dark patterns are surging right now, “ Roller says. “They manipulate consumers into spending more than they intended, buying things they don't want or staying subscribed to things they don't need”.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
