Aluminum Beverage Can Recycling is continuing through the Summer. Gary Smith and Rich Cote are covering this until Dale Wittig and Larry Hoffman return in the Fall. Deposit containers are located near the Dumpsters, in the Clubhouse, and in the Pool Area.

A Park Picnic in the Clubhouse was held on both Memorial Day and July 4th, with more than 40 Park Residents attending each event. Along with the Fried Chicken provided by the Park Association, lots of great side dishes and desserts were provided and shared by those residents attending. Now looking forward to another Park Picnic on Labor Day in the Clubhouse..... everyone seems to be enjoying these events as things are gradually opening back up after a long pause due to Covid!!

Please let me know of any questions or concerns.
Thanks,
Gary Smith

FACEBOOK

Some news I learned from Facebook – On or about June 8th Andy Chergi, lot #144, was awarded a Quilt of Valor for his military service. On July 12th, to celebrate her 70th birthday, Chris Wittig jumped out of an airplane! There is a video of her falling through the sky from 14,000 feet, so you can experience the jump vicariously without having to do it yourself!

This little story is from Ann Scott....

A guy is driving around the back woods of Vermont and he sees a sign in front of a broken down shanty-style house: 'Talking Dog For Sale'. He rings the door bell and the owner appears and tells him the dog is in the backyard. The guy goes into the backyard and sees a nice looking yellow lab sitting there.

"You talk?", he asks. "Yep," the lab replies. After the guy recovers from the shock of hearing a dog talk, he says, "So, what's your story?"

The lab looks up and says, "well, I discovered that I could talk when I was pretty young. I wanted to help the government, so.....I told the CIA.

In no time at all they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders, because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping."

"I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years running...but the jetting around really tired me out, and I knew I wasn't getting any younger so I decided to settle down. I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security, wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings and was awarded a batch of medals.

I got married, had a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired."

The guy is amazed. He goes back to the owner and ask what he wants for the dog?

"Ten dollars", the owner says.

"Ten dollars? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap? "

"Because he's a liar! He's never been out of the yard."

This from my friend John in Indiana....

The FBI had an opening for an assassin. After all the background checks, interviews and testing were done, there were 3 finalists: two men and a woman.

For the final test, the FBI agents took one of the men to a large metal door and handed him a gun. "We must know that you will follow your instructions no matter what the circumstances. Inside the room you find your wife sitting in a chair... Kill her!!"

The man said, "You can't be serious. I could never shoot my wife." The agent said, "Then you're not the right man for this job. Take your wife and go home."

The second man was given the same instructions. He took the gun and went into the room. All was quiet for about 5 minutes. The man came out with tears in his eyes, "I tried, but I can't kill my wife." The agent said, "You don't have what it takes. Take your wife and go home."

Finally, it was the woman's turn. She was given the same instructions, to kill her husband. She took the gun and went into the room. Shots were heard, one after another. They heard screaming, crashing, banging on the walls. After a few minutes, all was quiet.

The door opened slowly and there stood the woman, wiping the sweat from her brow. "This gun was loaded with blanks," she said. "I had to kill him with the chair!"

A scam warning from my friend John.....

The following is a recounting of the incident from the victim:

Wednesday a week ago, I had a phone call from someone saying that he was from some outfit called: "Express Couriers," (The name could be any courier company). He asked if I was going to be home because there was a package for me that required a signature.

The caller said that the delivery would arrive at my home in approximately an hour. Sure enough, about an hour later, a uniformed delivery man turned up with a beautiful basket of flowers and a bottle of wine. I was very surprised, since there was no special occasion or holiday, and I, certainly, didn't expect anything like it. Intrigued, I inquired as to who the sender was.

The courier replied, "I don't know, I'm only delivering the package."

Apparently, a greeting card was being sent separately. (The card has never arrived!) There was also a consignment note with the gift.

He then went on to explain that because the gift contained alcohol, there was a $3.50 "delivery/ verification charge," providing proof that he actually had delivered the package to an adult (of legal drinking age), and not just left it on the doorstep where it could be stolen or taken by anyone, especially a minor.

This sounded logical and I offered to pay him cash. He then said that the delivery company required payment to be by credit or debit card only, so that everything is properly accounted for, and this would help in keeping a legal record of the transaction. He added, "Couriers don't carry cash to avoid loss or being, likely, targets for robbery."

My husband, who by this time was standing beside me, pulled out his credit card, and the "delivery man," asked him to swipe the card on a small mobile card machine with a small screen and keypad. Frank, my husband, was asked to enter his PIN number and a receipt was printed out. He was given a copy of the transaction.

The guy said everything was in order, and wished us good day, and left.

To our horrible surprise, between Thursday and the following Monday, $4,000 had been charged/withdrawn from our credit/debit account at various ATM machines.

Apparently, the "mobile credit card machine," which the delivery man carried, now, had all the info necessary to create a "dummy" card with all our card details including the PIN number.

Upon finding out about the illegal transactions on our card, we, immediately, notified the bank which issued us a new card, and our credit/debit account was closed.

We, also, personally, went to the police, where it was confirmed that it is, definitely, a scam because several households had been similarly hit.

WARNING: Be wary of accepting any "surprise gift or package," which you neither expected nor personally ordered, especially if it involves any kind of payment as a condition of receiving the gift or package. Also, never accept anything if you do not, personally, know or there is no proper identification of who the sender is.

Above all, the only time you should give out any personal credit/debit card information is when you yourself initiated the purchase or transaction!

RECIPE

Found a recipe to try, from the July 2020 issue of “relish”, an insert in the local newspaper.

Refrigerator Garden Pickles

Use whatever vegetables you have in your fridge to make these tangy pickles, no canning necessary

- In Dutch oven, combine
- 6 cups sugar,
- 6 cups white vinegar
- ¼ cup celery seed
- ¼ cup mustard seed
- 2 TBLS canning salt (or kosher salt)

Bring to a boil, stirring to dissolve sugar.

Meanwhile, in a large bowl, place 10 medium carrots, halved lengthwise and cut into 2-inch pieces; 3 medium cucumbers, sliced; 3 medium red bell peppers, cut into 1-inch pieces; 2 large onions, halved and sliced and 1 bunch green onions, cut into 2-inch pieces. Pour hot liquid over vegetables, cool.

Transfer to jars, if desired; cover tightly. Refrigerate for 6 to 8 hours before serving. Store in fridge for up to 1 month. Makes 7 pints.

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

It is very good to see events happening again at Honeymoon! Memorial Day picnic, Fourth of July picnic, potlucks, breakfast, Caribbean cruise, cards have happened or are on the docket. Now if we can just have the Canadians back in the fall, it will truly by “back to normal”.

The neglected spouse

After 35 years of marriage, a husband and wife came in for counseling.

When the counselor asked what the problem was, the wife spent a long time complaining about years of neglect, lack of intimacy, loneliness, feeling unloved, and more.

When she finished, the counselor stood up, walked around his desk, asked the wife to stand up, and gave her a passionate embrace and a deep kiss as the husband watched.

The wife sat down, dazed, and the counselor turned to the husband: "This is what your wife needs, at least three times a week."

The husband shrugged. "OK, I can drop her off Mondays and Tuesdays, but on Fridays I go fishing."

Adoption

A husband and wife who worked for the circus went to an adoption agency looking to adopt a child, but the social workers there had doubts about their suitability.

The couple produced photos of their 50-foot motor home, which was clean and well maintained and equipped with a beautiful nursery.

The social workers were satisfied by this, but then raised concerns about the kind of education a child would receive in their care. The husband put their mind at ease, saying, "We've arranged for a full-time tutor who will teach the child all the usual subjects, along with French, Mandarin, and computer skills."

Next, the social workers expressed concern about a child being raised in a circus environment. This time the wife explained, "Our nanny is a certified expert in pediatric care, welfare, and diet."

The social workers were finally satisfied, so they asked the couple, "What age child are you hoping to adopt?" The husband said, "It doesn't really matter, as long as the kid fits in the cannon."

I will look for the flowers by the side of the road; I will laugh and love and be strong. I will try to lighten another's load this day as I fare along.

— Mary S. Edgar

Have the Right Doctor? Ask Yourself These 10 Questions.

At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
