Jill Chambers, Vice-President, Lot 234 440-318-4738

Well, it's August already and we've definitely had a lot of rain here. New gutters were put on the clubhouse and the front is being redone and updated.

I hope everyone's summer is going well and hope you stay cool during the month of August.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 504, 843-457-9599

Just want to remind everyone of the rules for joining our PRIVATE Facebook page.

1. You must reside in our park.
2. You may not invite anyone outside the park to join.
3. The person who wants to join must go through Facebook. After you log on, you go to the search bar and type in: OakCrest/Acorn 2018-2019 exactly as shown here.
4. If you are not in our phone book please contact me personally and leave your address (lot #) and your phone number. It will help a lot to answer your request for membership as I usually have to take a list of people to the clubhouse and verify you if I can't find you in our phone directory. Sometimes it takes a while to verify new requests because the office is very busy and they can only look things up when they have time.
5. If you have requested to be a member and I didn't accept you may re-request membership (and again, only if you live in the park). Sometimes the request just disappears. I have no way of preventing this.

As a reminder, please be respectful to all others who post their opinions. This was not started as a place to vent about each other. If ANYONE disrespects others you will be removed from our site. After all, we are all adults and should act like one. If you don't have anything nice to say then don't respond.

Thank You!

COSCO RECALL

A food recall is issued when a product may make someone sick or injured if it is consumed. This can be because of organisms or bacteria like Salmonella, foreign objects, or the mislabeling of a major allergen. But a product sold at Costco that was just recalled does not fit any of those descriptions.

A notification was recently sent to members who purchased the Redland's Dark Chocolate Salted Pistachios, in announcing that the 32 oz containers of the item with the number 1540859 have been recalled. However, the reasoning is unique.

Redland Foods explains; It has come to our attention that some of the pistachios in this product may have been over roasted. While not a food safety issue, this does not meet our quality expectations.

So while there are no threats to anyone's health should they consume the pistachios like with a regular recall, it is still considered one. But this is not the only item, here are other products that are subject to a recent recall at Cosco.

Don Lee Grenn Chili Shredded Chicken & Rice Cauliflower Bowls. This item may contain Plastic. They were available in the freezer section. Her is no mention of any illnesses related to the plastic or how it was discovered.

Organic Dark Chocolate Blueberries, these could contain undeclared almonds. There are no reports of any adverse reactions but should stop eating them immediately.

Tin Star Foods Ghee. A quality issue that shortened the shelf life of this product. The recall notice was sent out because Cosco's membership system tracks which products are purchased. These items were purchased between March 15ths 2021 and June 19th, 2021, if you have any of these items, whit the code and dates, return them to Cosco for a full refund.

FIRST ELECTRIC LINCOLN

Lincoln will launch its first all-electric model in 2022, just as the Cadillac Lyriq is coming to market.

The auto maker did not specify what size or type of vehicle it will be, but Ford's chief product platform and operations officer Hua Thai-Tang last month revealed a battery-powered platform that hem said would be used for future electric Ford Explore and Lincoln Aviator models. Technical details for the Lincoln, including projected range and performance, were not released, but it will be sold globally. A Lincoln spokesman could not confirm if it would be on sale in calendar year 2022, or just revealed. During a press briefing, Lincoln President Joy Falotico said it would b e the first of four fully electric models added to the lineup and that all Lincolns would be available with “electrified” powertrains, which includes hybrids, by 2030. That its version of Ford’s

Lincolns current lineup consists of four SUVs, with the Corsair and Aviator available as plug-in hybrids.

Along with the electric vehicle announcement, Lincoln also confirmed that its version of Ford’s hands-free Blue Cruise highway driving system will be called Active Glide. The feature uses facial recognition technology to ensure the driver is watching the road while it is engaged.

Lincoln is also testing a new concierge service in Houston that allows vehicle owners to have their cars fueled and detailed anywhere through a remote service they can order on the Lincoln Way app.

THIS MONTH IN 1929-1930

THE GREAT DEPRESSION

The Wall Street Crash of 1929s Started the period of the Great Depression in the United States. During most of the decade turf wars between rival gangs were frequent and extremely violent. The best known of the many was Al Capone’s Saint Valentine’s Day Massacre in Chicago during 1929.

The thirties, the Depression caused by wall Street in late 1929, caused the world to undergo a fundamental change in lifestyles, and as part of the change some new radical politics became popular as seen in the rise of Fascism, Nazism and Stalinism. The 30’s also provided a strange phenomenon.

It was a severe worldwide economic depression that took place mostly during the 30’s, beginning in the United States. The timing varied across nations, in most countries, it started in 1929 and lasted to late 1930. Culture described the hardship of people living in the middle to lower classes, and after the depression, culture depicted a time to become greater than before. Because the upper class had more money and did not struggle as much. Therefore, the art during the depression describes the poor more often.

CULTURE IN THE 1930’S

The differences to politics and to the larger social concerns of the 1930’s was reflected as well in the popular culture of the decade. In contrast to the prosperity of the Roaring Twenties, the 30’s emphasized simplicity and thrift. Although styles tended to reflect the glamour of contemporary movies, clothes, themselves were mended before being replaced, and the invitation of synthetic fibers led to the use of washable, practical, easy-care fabrics.

MAJOR EVENTS IN THE 30'S

Key Technology and popular culture cost of living in the USA.

The Smoot-Hawley Tariff bill was passed, raising duties on imports. The very first FIFA World Cup was held in Uruguay, Uruguay defeated Argentina to win the title. Mahadma Gandhi and his followers marched 200 miles to the salt beds of Jalalpur. The popular cartoon character “Betty Boop” made her debut in “Dizzy Dishes.”

FACTS OF THE MONTH

Who is Hilmar Moore?

He is the longest serving mayor of a United States City. He was the mayor of Richmond, Texas from September 22, 1949, until December 4th, 2012, the day he passed away.

New Car Smell

Who does not love the new car smell? After you hear what makes up the new car smell, that might be you. That specific smell comes from a mix of 50 to 60 VOC's. VOC stands for “Volatile Organic Compounds”. Though not dangerous at the levels used for new cars, they are still volatile.

Master Impersonators

Mockingbirds are master impersonators; In addition to singing, they can copy the sounds of other birds and of other animals such as frogs and cats. Apparently, they can even mimic a squeaking door.

The shortest war

The shortest war in the record books took place on August 27th 1896 and lasted a total of 38 minutes. The battle took place on the tiny island of Zanzibar as the British Army defeated military forces led by Khalid bin Bar gash, Bar gash had just pulled a coup d'état and taken control of the tiny island. The Brits quickly stopped that.

There is a flower that smells like chocolate in Mexico, this dark red flower is not edible. It is called “cosmos atrosanguineus” or “chocolate cosmos.”

singing and dancing, willing to accompany me the whole day at home during my leisure hour if I don't go out. Be able to tell me interesting stories when I need a companion for conversation and be silent when I want to rest.”

The matchmaker entered the information into the computer and, in a matter of moments, handed her the results, which read “BUY A TELEVISION.”

A woman gets on a bus with her baby, the bus driver says, “that’s the ugliest baby that I’ve ever seen. UGH!” The woman goes to the rear of the bus and sits down, fuming. She says to the man next to her, “The driver just insulted me!” The man says, “You go right up there and tell him off – go ahead, I’ll hold YOUR MONKEY for you.”

A 3-year-old boy sits near a pregnant woman.

Boy; Why do you look so fat? Woman: I have a baby inside me. Boy; Is it a good baby? Woman: Yes, it is a very good baby. Boy; Then why did YOU EAT IT?!

A girl realized that she had grown hair between her legs. She got worried and asked her mom about that hair. Her mom calmly said, “That part where the hair has grown is called your monkey. Be proud that your monkey has grown air.” The girl smiled. At dinner, she told her sister, “My monkey has grown hair.” Her sister smiled and said, “That’s nothing; mine is already EATING BANANAS.”

A husband got his mother-in-law a cemetery plot for Christmas. It came with a coffin, tomb stone, the works. Next Christmas comes by, and the husband gets her nothing. When the mother-in-law asks, “Why did you not get me a gift?” The husband says, “YOU HAVENT USED THE ONE I GAVE YOU LAST YEAR!”
