September Reminder from the Recreation Board

We are looking forward to resuming our weekly activities next season such as indoor and pool aerobics, Hum and Strum, fiber arts, Bingo, crafts, cards, golf league, shuffleboard, trivia, Happy Hour, and pancake breakfast. The 2021-2022 Recreation Board Calendar of Events will be published every month in the Bulletin. Please note the theme based activities such as the Mardi Gras Dance and the Disco Dance. Although costumes are not required, awards will be given for the best costumes so be on the lookout for something to wear. There will be 2 potlucks this next year. The Rec Board will host the Christmas Potluck and we are looking for volunteers to host the St Patrick's potluck. The 2nd annual Chili Cook-off will be held in January 2022, so perfect your best chili recipe and compete with your neighbors for the coveted Best Chili Trophy. Our important fundraiser, the Rummage Sale, will be held in Jan 2022. Don't forget to donate re-sellable items. They can be stored in the shed (contact Anne Carter). The proceeds from the sale help support our activities. For the month of April, coffees will be held on the 1st & 15th. Crafty Corners will be held on the 14th (check Facebook for details and registration). Happy Hour is on the 16th on the lanai and at the pool from 4-6pm. Trivia will be on the 3rd & 17th at 6pm. Have a safe and happy summer. We look forward to seeing you in November. (Originally published in April/21 bulletin)

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Parents and caregivers have many responsibilities, but keeping baby safe and healthy is a No. 1 priority. Whether you are expecting your first baby, adding to your growing family, or becoming a grandparent, now is the time to put into action some simple steps to keep baby safe.

Classical Music Month. In 1994, President Bill Clinton issued a proclamation making September Classical Music Month. The proclamation read in part: “Classical music is a celebration of artistic excellence. ... This month we exalt the many talented composers, conductors, and musicians who bring classical music to our ears.”

National Suicide Prevention Month. All month, mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members unite to promote suicide prevention awareness.

Self-Awareness Month. Three key questions can help us increase our self-awareness: Who am I? What do I want? How do I want to be in my life? Reflecting on these questions will lead you to new insights about yourself. Give yourself the attention you deserve. When you do, you’ll be equipped to create the you that you want to be and create the life you want to have.

Weekly

National Waffle Week, Sept. 5–11. The word “waffle” comes from the Dutch “wafel,” from Middle Dutch “wafele,” which stretches as far back as the 13th century. No matter what you call them, no one can deny waffles are delicious.

National Assisted Living Week, Sept. 12–18. National Assisted Living Week provides a unique opportunity for residents, their loved ones, staff, volunteers, and surrounding communities to recognize the role of assisted living in caring for America’s seniors and individuals with disabilities.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 12–18. National Truck Driver Appreciation Week is a time to pay respect and thank all professional truck drivers for their hard work and commitment in undertaking one of our economy’s most demanding and important jobs.

National Dog Week, Sept. 19–25. Established in 1928 by WWI veteran Captain Will Judy, who wrote, “The world likes dogs because dogs are nearest to moral perfection of all living things.”

Low-impact exercise

Feeling the need to exercise? Start out with this one:

Stand on a comfortable surface with plenty of room on each side. With a five-pound potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to last for a full minute, then relax.

Each day you'll find yourself holding this position just a bit longer.

After a week, move up to 10-pound potato bags. Then try 50-pound bags. Eventually, try to get to where you can lift a 100-pound potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for three minutes.

When you feel confident, put a potato in each bag.

The last drop

A bartender was so sure he was the strongest man around that he offered a standing $1,000 bet. He would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money.

Many people tried over time—weightlifters, longshoremen, etc.—but nobody could do it.

One day a scrawny little man came into the bar wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit. He said in a tiny squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet."

Everyone laughed, but the bartender grabbed a lemon and squeezed it dry. Then he handed the remains to the little man.

Then the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man gripped the lemon and squeezed six more drops into the glass.

As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid the $1,000 and asked the man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weightlifter, what?"

"No," the man replied. "I work for the IRS."

Some short snappy ones

- If you want to find out who likes you more, lock your best friend and your dog in the trunk of your car for an hour. When you open the trunk, who is happy to see you?
- What did one eye say to the other? “Between you and me, something smells.”
- How did the hipster burn his mouth? He ate pizza before it was cool.
- Insect puns bug me.
- My leaf blower doesn’t work. It sucks.
- Teacher: “Which book has helped you the most in your life?” Student: “My father’s checkbook.”
- My friend thinks he’s so smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut in his face.
- Math teacher: “If I have five bottles of beer in one hand and six in the other hand, what do I have?” Student: “A drinking problem.”
- Two psychics run into each other on the street. One says to the other, “You’re fine, but how am I?”

Missing ingredient

A food critic visited a local restaurant to review its food for the local magazine. The owner welcomed her and showed her to a table.

After a while, the critic called the owner over to say that there was something missing in her bowl of soup.

The owner asked if it was too spicy, too sweet, or too salty. The critic said no, so the owner decided to taste the soup himself. “Give me a spoon.”

"That's what's missing," said the critic.

The history of Labor Day

Labor Day is a creation of the labor movement and is dedicated to the social and economic achievements of American workers. It's a national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of the United States.

Some records show that Peter J. McGuire, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, was first to suggest a day to honor those “who from rude nature have delved and carved all the grandeur we behold.” But other research seems to support the contention that machinist Matthew Maguire, later the secretary of Local 344 of the International Association of Machinists in Paterson, N.J., proposed the holiday in 1882 while serving as secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York. The Central Labor Union adopted a Labor Day proposal and appointed a committee to plan a demonstration and picnic.

Either way, the first Labor Day holiday was celebrated on Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1882, in New York City, in accordance with the plans of the Central Labor Union. The Central Labor Union held its second Labor Day holiday just a year later, on Sept. 5, 1883.

In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the holiday. As labor organizations grew in size and power, so did the idea of Labor Day. In 1885 Labor Day was celebrated in many industrial centers of the country.

The first governmental recognition of the holiday came through municipal ordinances passed during 1885 and 1886. While the first state bill proposing the holiday was introduced into the New York legislature, Oregon passed the first law on Feb. 21, 1887. Four more states—Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and New York—created the Labor Day holiday by legislative enactment that same year.

By the end of the decade Connecticut, Nebraska, and Pennsylvania had followed suit. By 1894, 23 other states had adopted the holiday in honor of workers, and on June 28 of that year, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September a legal holiday in the District of Columbia and the territories.

The power of story

Author Neil Gaiman explains the power of stories with a tale on the Books Bird website:

“My cousin Helen, who is in her 90s now, was in the Warsaw ghetto during World War II. She and a bunch of girls in the ghetto had to do sewing each day. And if you were found with a book, it was an automatic death penalty. She had gotten hold of a copy of Gone with the Wind, and she would take three or four hours out of her sleeping time each night to read. And then, during the hour or so when they were sewing the next day, she would tell them all the story. These girls were risking certain death for a story. And when she told me the story herself, it actually made what I do feel more important. Because giving people stories is not a luxury. It’s actually one of the things you live and die for.”

An enduring act of kindness

An act of kindness can have a lifelong effect, as this story illustrates:

A Jewish family who had immigrated from Lithuania to the United States took pity on a seven-year-old boy and brought him to their home. He spent the night in family home, where for the first time in his life he was treated with kindness and tenderness. When he went to bed, the mother sang him Russian lullabies, which he sang along with her. Later he learned to sing and play several Russian and Jewish songs.

Over time, the boy became the adopted son of this family. The father gave him money to buy his first musical instrument.

The little boy grew up and wrote a book about the family, and proudly spoke Yiddish fluently.

In memory of this family, he wore the Star of David. He said that in this family he learned determination and "to live a real life."

The little boy's name was Louis Armstrong.

Humanity’s legacy of stories and storytelling is the most precious we have. All wisdom is in our stories and songs.
