At Dedicated Senior Medical Center, we're committed to keeping seniors healthy, happy and at home. We understand these are scary times, but we're here to help. Dedicated doctors specialize in caring for seniors and that's why we make it easy for you to see a doctor.

Ask yourself:

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

If you answered no to four or more of these questions,

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Well, going into September the club house is now open. We will be having Labor Day at the club house. Lunch will be served at 1:00pm. There will be hamburgers, hot dogs, and all the fixin's.

I would like to thank those who helped out going through the containers and getting the kitchen set up. Thanks, also, to the crew setting up the library. It was a lot of work. Please help share ideas for things to do at the new club house.

There is a Halloween party coming October 31st . We are working on all the details. It should be a good time. Flashback is playing the music.

Rob Lloyd

Everyone stay healthy.
The Best of Health

"A good life is when you assume nothing, do more, need less, smile often, dream big, laugh a lot, and realize how blessed you are. "

KOFFEE KLATCH

By Sandy Rassmussen

Thanks to Mark Rassmussen who still gets up at 5am and meets Henry from Sunshine Bakery to get Saturday morning donuts. We are currently meeting at the "club house"??? We have had a few birthday parties, when donuts are free, or there is $1.00 for donut and coffee. We will continue to adhere to social distancing and facemasks if you are not vaccinated for everyone's protection

WELCOME WAGON

By Sandy Rassmussen

Welcome wagon meets the last Wednesday of the month.. Mark has provided his burnt hotdogs (which are always a hit) . We have had an average of 35 people attending, 4 new residents a month. Check with Sandy if there is a meeting this month.

SHUFFLEBOARD

By Sandy Rassmussen

Shuffleboard games have been continuing, with adjustment to start times due to light issues. There have been no lights in the back area due to construction, so playing during day hours has worked well. Now it is getting warmer, we have changed the time to 6:30pm. Hope to see you there.

We have asked for poles to be placed by the benches for sun coverage, to place umbrellas during the day. Check out BSW resident's Facebook page for updates

GOLF CART POKER RUN

Poker Run has been happening monthly, 5-7pm starting at the pool. Thanks to Rob Lloyd for organizing this fun activity. Money pots have been averaging $125.00. You do not need to know how to play, join us at the pool, pay $5 and get a playing card in an envelope, then you socialize for 15 min. Then all karts go to the second home, which include goodies, another envelope and socialize, this continues up to 5 homes. Once you are at the last home, you open all envelopes and then compare your hand to everyone and the best poker hand wins the pot. fun...fun...fun

A thought to ponder

I tried the Japanese method of decluttering where you hold every object that you own and if it does not bring you joy, you throw it away. So far I have thrown out all of the vegetables, my bra, the electric bill, the scale, a mirror, and my treadmill.

The power of story

Author Neil Gaiman explains the power of stories with a tale on the Books Bird website:

“My cousin Helen, who is in her 90s now, was in the Warsaw ghetto during World War II. She and a bunch of girls in the ghetto had to do sewing each day. And if you were found with a book, it was an automatic death penalty. She had gotten hold of a copy of Gone with the Wind, and she would take three or four hours out of her sleeping time each night to read. And then, during the hour or so when they were sewing the next day, she would tell them all the story. These girls were risking certain death for a story. And when she told me the story herself, it actually made what I do feel more important. Because giving people stories is not a luxury. It’s actually one of the things you live and die for.”

An enduring act of kindness

An act of kindness can have a lifelong effect, as this story illustrates:

A Jewish family who had immigrated from Lithuania to the United States took pity on a seven-year-old boy and brought him to their home. He spent the night in family home, where for the first time in his life he was treated with kindness and tenderness. When he went to bed, the mother sang him Russian lullabies, which he sang along with her. Later he learned to sing and play several Russian and Jewish songs.

Over time, the boy became the adopted son of this family. The father gave him money to buy his first musical instrument.

The little boy grew up and wrote a book about the family, and proudly spoke Yiddish fluently.

In memory of this family, he wore the Star of David. He said that in this family he learned determination and "to live a real life."

The little boy's name was Louis Armstrong.

Humanity's legacy of stories and storytelling is the most precious we have. All wisdom is in our stories and songs.

Yom Kippur, Sept. 15. The Jewish Day of Atonement, traditionally observed with a day-long fast and intensive prayer.

NUMBERS IN THE NEWS

Online sources of news dominate

The days of getting your news from Walter Cronkite or the morning newspaper are long gone. The Pew Research Center reports that 86% of Americans get their dose of news from a smartphone, computer, or tablet “often” or “sometimes.” Sixty-eight percent rely on television, 50% listen to the radio, and 32% read print publications.

Digital devices are the dominant medium, with 52% of survey respondents saying they prefer to get their news from an online platform—a news website (26%), social media (11%) or podcasts (three percent). Just 35% said they prefer TV, seven percent like the radio, and five percent say their preference is print.

Crystals grew inside rock like arithmetic flowers. They lengthened and spread, added plane to plane in an awed and perfect obedience to an absolute geometry that even stones—maybe only the stones — understood.
