Office

Due to the increase in COVID-19 cases and the Delta variant, all residents, shareholders, guests and visitors are required to wear masks when entering the office.

Children's Swim Hours

The FVRA Board of Directors, at their July 2021 meeting, reestablished the swim hours for children under 12 at the FVRA pools. The rule is: Children may swim from 10 am to 2 pm and then again from 5 pm to 7 pm, 7 days a week. This Park is for the residents and we will allow our children guests to use the pool facilities for 6 hours each day.

Labor Day

At the height of the Industrial Revolution the average person worked 12-hour days, seven days a week. Despite some restrictions children as young as five also worked long days. People faced unsafe work conditions; including sanitary facilities and no breaks.

Labor unions, which appeared in the late 18th century, grew more prominent and vocal. They began organizing strikes and rallies to protest the poor conditions, long hours, and low wages. On September 5 in New York City, 10,000 workers left work and marched from City Hall to Union Square holding the first Labor Day Parade in history.

The “workingmen’s holiday” caught on across the country and many states passed legislation recognizing it. Twelve years later, after the 13 deaths that occurred during the riots at the Pullman Palace Car Company in Chicago, President Cleveland signed into law that the first Monday in September become a federal holiday.

Today, on Labor Day, we honor all workers for their achievements and contributions. We celebrate with picnics, parades, barbecues and fireworks. For some, the day also represents the end of summer and the start of back to school.

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Parents and caregivers have many responsibilities, but keeping baby safe and healthy is a No. 1 priority. Whether you are expecting your first baby, adding to your growing family, or becoming a grandparent, now is the time to put into action some simple steps to keep baby safe.

Classical Music Month. In 1994, President Bill Clinton issued a proclamation making September Classical Music Month. The proclamation read in part: “Classical music is a celebration of artistic excellence. ... This month we exalt the many talented composers, conductors, and musicians who bring classical music to our ears.”

National Suicide Prevention Month. All month, mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members unite to promote suicide prevention awareness.

Self-Awareness Month. Three key questions can help us increase our self-awareness: Who am I? What do I want? How do I want to be in my life? Reflecting on these questions will lead you to new insights about yourself. Give yourself the attention you deserve. When you do, you’ll be equipped to create the you that you want to be and create the life you want to have.

Weekly

National Waffle Week, Sept. 5–11. The word “waffle” comes from the Dutch “wafel,” from Middle Dutch “wafele,” which stretches as far back as the 13th century. No matter what you call them, no one can deny waffles are delicious.

National Assisted Living Week, Sept. 12–18. National Assisted Living Week provides a unique opportunity for residents, their loved ones, staff, volunteers, and surrounding communities to recognize the role of assisted living in caring for America’s seniors and individuals with disabilities.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 12–18. National Truck Driver Appreciation Week is a time to pay respect and thank all professional truck drivers for their hard work and commitment in undertaking one of our economy’s most demanding and important jobs.

National Dog Week, Sept. 19–25. Established in 1928 by WWI veteran Captain Will Judy, who wrote, “The world likes dogs because dogs are nearest to moral perfection of all living things.”

SEPTEMBER DAYS

Labor Day, Sept. 6. A federal holiday in the United States celebrated to honor and recognize the American labor movement.

Rosh Hashanah. Sept. 6. Starting at sunset and ending at nightfall, Sept. 8.

Patriot Day and National Day of Service and Remembrance, Sept. 11. A day to pay tribute to the selfless heroes and innocent victims of the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001.

Yom Kippur, Sept. 15. The Jewish Day of Atonement, traditionally observed with a day-long fast and intensive prayer.

World Pharmacists Day, Sept. 25. “Pharmacy: Always trusted for your health” is the theme of this year’s World Pharmacists Day.

NUMBERS IN THE NEWS

Online sources of news dominate

The days of getting your news from Walter Cronkite or the morning newspaper are long gone. The Pew Research Center reports that 86% of Americans get their dose of news from a smartphone, computer, or tablet “often” or “sometimes.” Sixty-eight percent rely on television, 50% listen to the radio, and 32% read print publications.

Digital devices are the dominant medium, with 52% of survey respondents saying they prefer to get their news from an online platform—a news website (26%), social media (11%) or podcasts (three percent). Just 35% said they prefer TV, seven percent like the radio, and five percent say their preference is print.

Crystals grew inside rock like arithmetic flowers. They lengthened and spread, added plane to plane in an awed and perfect obedience to an absolute geometry that even stones—maybe only the stones — understood.

— Annie Dillard
