Mary Gilmore

After March of 2020, our world has changed in so many ways. Many of our neighbors from Canada and the United States were not able to return to Boca Ciega last season. We are hoping that our northern border will be reopened soon and our Canadian neighbors can drive across the border once again. We are also praying that more variants of the coronavirus do not occur.

Our residents who have been away from Boca Ciega for more than a year have many concerns. Is my foxtail growing, is there mold on the north side of my home? Are the weeds taking over my front yard that has a stone base? To address some of these concerns, we are fortunate that the rainy season is with us. Our foxtail palms are healthy. Our homes have been power washed by Mother Nature from the east, south, west and north more than one time on each side. That's good. Our landscaping service have kept our lawns looking good. If you do have a portion of your front yard covered with stones and have hired Norine Enot to look after your property, you are in fine shape. She has always worked hard and has done a good job. Some interesting sights have been seen at Boca Ciega this summer. It has been so hot, humid and rainy that flowers have been seen growing out of cement cracks. June has white and pink impatiens growing out of a crack of cement in front of her home. Doris has a white begonia growing in her driveway. The mounds of dirt and stone that have been delivered for the ditch have become berms between some of our neighbors' homes. Don't worry. We all will have projects when we return. I'm going up to camp in Maine and I expect to have some things to take care of on my property too.

In getting ready to go to Maine, I put down all of the awnings on my home. The only ones that I found that I needed help with are the two long awnings on the front of my home. The morning that I chose to put down the last two awnings, it did not fit into Virginia's schedule. She always helped me with this job, but this morning, she had an appointment. I called David and he said that he would be able to come by in about 35 minutes since he was at Loew's. So I started to prepare for the job by getting out the step ladder, my kitchen step ladder and the shop broom. It was early in the morning before the heat of the day, when a couple walked by and we all said good morning. A little while later, when I was up on the kitchen step ladder taking off the wing nuts and the "L" shaped things that held the poles of the awnings in place, this couple walked by again. They were Bill and Elaine who were guests of Greg and Cindy Huettig. Bill offered to help me and I said sure and thanks so much. We got the two awnings down in no time. I know that we have great residents in our park and we have great guests of residents too!

Boca Ciega has a new office manager. Her name is Susan Ables. Susan is originally from Avilla, Indiana which is twenty miles north of Fort Wayne. She came to Florida in 2000. Before becoming our office manager from Holiday Isles, she had worked for other corporations and gained experience working with a variety of communities. Her job at Boca Ciega is to troubleshoot problems and try to solve issues. Right now, Susan and Virginia are working on a trash contract. In the little time that I met Susan and talked with her, I was amazed at the jobs that she has had. She has sold cars. She became a certified mig welder in an automotive plant. There were some problems in the shop and she helped organize a local union and was a UAW secretary in local 2345. She has also done boat detailing. She likes to be outside and has raised several Doberman puppies. Susan, you are an amazing woman. Welcome to Boca Ciega.

Our newest resident of the park is David Grubbs who bought #74. David is from Lincoln Park, Michigan. He has three children, two boys and a girl and one grandson. He learned about Boca Ciega from his two cousins and his uncle and aunt who live in the park, Connie Philbeck, Kim Walden and Ralph and Pat Cornelius. David has worked for Ford Motor Company for 31 years and 4 months. He is busy working on his home making it his own. David was here when Hurricane Elsa came through. He helped put the pool furniture away and lowered the remaining awnings at the clubhouse. When the safety rope with floats at the pool came lose, Terry asked him for a Phillips screwdriver, but he came over himself and secured the rope. When Bob Robortella needed a ride to the Motor Vehicle Department, David drove him over. He has met many of the all year rounders by attending our Independence Day dinner at Cody's Roadhouse and joining us for breakfast at SpEggtacular. David is a welcome addition to our Boca Ciega family.

Marlene and Ervin's grandson, Travis James, is graduating from boot camp at the U.S. Marine Corps military base at Parris Island, South Carolina. Marlene and Ervin travelled with Travis James' family for this special occasion. We wish him all of the best in his chosen career.
