From The President

Tom Vanzant

We sure have had our share of rain this summer. As a result, the lake, canals, creek and pond are full. The rain has assisted in producing a banner crop of weeds. Please, if you have not had someone tend to yours, find someone to pull your weeds before your return. Remember, those of us who stay year around deserve to have a beautiful park even while the seasonals are gone

Hopefully, by the time you receive this newsletter, the pond and culvert demucking project completed.

It won't be long 'til our Northern friends start returning to our wonderful Florida fall weather. Everyone here looks forward to seeing you soon. We wish you safe travels.

From The Office

Pat Merl

It's another very wet season here in Florida. Thankfully, we are moving along without any serious storms landing in our part of the state. A constant reminder...please be sure to keep your weeds under control, whether you are here or away. Lawns are mowed weekly from May through September each year, as these are the wettest months and the lawns grow very quickly.

It has come to my attention a number of people are not quite sure when the board meetings occur at Holiday Shores Park. In accordance with the Bylaws, the board meetings the third Thursday of every month except July and August. Board meetings are regularly held at 9:30 a.m. The Short and Long Range Planning Meeting is held on the second Thursday of each month at 9:30 a.m. All meetings are held in the clubhouse barring any unforeseen circumstances.

The Annual Membership Meeting and Election are held on the second Saturday of December. This year it will be on December 11, 2021 at 10 a.m. During that meeting you will be voting for board members and other association issues. If you are interested in running for the board, please obtain a Notice of Intent to Run as a Candidate Form from the office, or you can print one off of the website. These completed forms must be in the office (or office mailbox) before 9:00 a.m. on the morning of November 1, 2021.

Last, but definitely not least, there is always a need for volunteers to work with the many committees that make invaluable contributions toward the Park's on-going improvements and smooth operation, as well as creating the many enjoyable events that happen throughout the year.

In the meantime, enjoy your summer, wherever you are!

Theater

David Middleton

Here we are in the end of summer, but still trying to stay cool and comfortable the best way we can while dodging daily thunderstorms. The past year has been trying for us all and it seems many of us have missed exercising our theater skills. Last Spring, we discussed staging a Murder Mystery show, but the group felt the timing still wasn't right, so we said, "maybe later."

Well, "maybe later" will be this coming November (Saturday, November 13, 2021, to be exact) and the Way Off Broadway Theatre Group is planning a Murder Mystery Dinner and Show. "The Blue Orchid Murder" takes place in Big Louie's Blue Orchid Lounge in 1928 and features a cast of nefarious characters. Stay tuned for more details.

But before the festivities can begin, everything needs to be organized and planned. There will be an organizational meeting Tuesday, October 12, 2021, 2:00 in Clubhouse. WOBTG welcomes everyone to come "play" with us; we're always looking for new talent both on stage and off! Any help and suggestions will be welcome. Come join us.

The power of story

Author Neil Gaiman explains the power of stories with a tale on the Books Bird website:

“My cousin Helen, who is in her 90s now, was in the Warsaw ghetto during World War II. She and a bunch of girls in the ghetto had to do sewing each day. And if you were found with a book, it was an automatic death penalty. She had gotten hold of a copy of Gone with the Wind, and she would take three or four hours out of her sleeping time each night to read. And then, during the hour or so when they were sewing the next day, she would tell them all the story. These girls were risking certain death for a story. And when she told me the story herself, it actually made what I do feel more important. Because giving people stories is not a luxury. It’s actually one of the things you live and die for.”

An enduring act of kindness

An act of kindness can have a lifelong effect, as this story illustrates:

A Jewish family who had immigrated from Lithuania to the United States took pity on a seven-year-old boy and brought him to their home. He spent the night in family home, where for the first time in his life he was treated with kindness and tenderness. When he went to bed, the mother sang him Russian lullabies, which he sang along with her. Later he learned to sing and play several Russian and Jewish songs.

Over time, the boy became the adopted son of this family. The father gave him money to buy his first musical instrument.

The little boy grew up and wrote a book about the family, and proudly spoke Yiddish fluently.

In memory of this family, he wore the Star of David. He said that in this family he learned determination and "to live a real life."

The little boy's name was Louis Armstrong.

Humanity’s legacy of stories and storytelling is the most precious we have. All wisdom is in our stories and songs.

— Doris Lessing

Low-impact exercise

Feeling the need to exercise? Start out with this one:

Stand on a comfortable surface with plenty of room on each side. With a five-pound potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to last for a full minute, then relax.

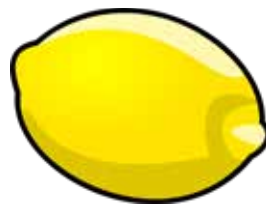

Each day you'll find yourself holding this position just a bit longer.

After a week, move up to 10-pound potato bags. Then try 50-pound bags. Eventually, try to get to where you can lift a 100-pound potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for three minutes.

When you feel confident, put a potato in each bag.

The last drop

A bartender was so sure he was the strongest man around that he offered a standing $1,000 bet. He would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money.

Many people tried over time—weightlifters, longshoremen, etc.—but nobody could do it.

One day a scrawny little man came into the bar wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit. He said in a tiny squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet."

Everyone laughed, but the bartender grabbed a lemon and squeezed it dry. Then he handed the remains to the little man.

Then the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man gripped the lemon and squeezed six more drops into the glass.

As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid the $1,000 and asked the man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weightlifter, what?"

"No," the man replied. "I work for the IRS."

Some short snappy ones

- If you want to find out who likes you more, lock your best friend and your dog in the trunk of your car for an hour. When you open the trunk, who is happy to see you?
- What did one eye say to the other? “Between you and me, something smells.”
- How did the hipster burn his mouth? He ate pizza before it was cool.
- Insect puns bug me.
- My leaf blower doesn’t work. It sucks.
- Teacher: “Which book has helped you the most in your life?” Student: “My father’s checkbook.”
- My friend thinks he’s so smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut in his face.
- Math teacher: “If I have five bottles of beer in one hand and six in the other hand, what do I have?” Student: “A drinking problem.”
- Two psychics run into each other on the street. One says to the other, “You’re fine, but how am I?”

Missing ingredient

A food critic visited a local restaurant to review its food for the local magazine. The owner welcomed her and showed her to a table.

After a while, the critic called the owner over to say that there was something missing in her bowl of soup.

The owner asked if it was too spicy, too sweet, or too salty. The critic said no, so the owner decided to taste the soup himself. “Give me a spoon.”

"That's what's missing," said the critic.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
