Pepperoni pizza quesadillas

Ingredients

- 8 flour tortillas (I used Trader Joe's handmade tortillas)
- 8 ounces of shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1/3 lb pepperoni
- 1 16-ounce jar of pizza sauce
- Optional: 1 6-ounce can of sliced black olives, 1 cup of sliced cremini mushrooms

Instructions

1. Heat a medium skillet over medium heat and fry the pepperoni until crisp. Transfer on a paper towel to drain.
2. Brush each tortilla with a thin layer of pizza sauce (so thin that if you turned it over, none would drip).
3. Sprinkle cheese on top of the sauce on the bottom tortilla. Top with pepperoni and other toppings, if desired. Sprinkle with another layer of cheese and place the other tortilla on top (sauce side in).
4. Pre-heat a medium cast-iron skillet over medium heat.
5. Lay quesadilla in the pan and cook for 3-5 minutes on each side, until cheese is melted and tortillas are crispy.
6. Slice into quarters and serve with a little bowl of pizza dipping sauce.

SEPTEMBER CALENDAR

Baby Safety Month. Parents and caregivers have many responsibilities, but keeping baby safe and healthy is a No. 1 priority. Whether you are expecting your first baby, adding to your growing family, or becoming a grandparent, now is the time to put into action some simple steps to keep baby safe.

Classical Music Month. In 1994, President Bill Clinton issued a proclamation making September Classical Music Month. The proclamation read in part: “Classical music is a celebration of artistic excellence. ... This month we exalt the many talented composers, conductors, and musicians who bring classical music to our ears.”

National Suicide Prevention Month. All month, mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members unite to promote suicide prevention awareness.

Self-Awareness Month. Three key questions can help us increase our self-awareness: Who am I? What do I want? How do I want to be in my life? Reflecting on these questions will lead you to new insights about yourself. Give yourself the attention you deserve. When you do, you’ll be equipped to create the you that you want to be and create the life you want to have.

Weekly

National Waffle Week, Sept. 5–11. The word “waffle” comes from the Dutch “wafel,” from Middle Dutch “wafele,” which stretches as far back as the 13th century. No matter what you call them, no one can deny waffles are delicious.

National Assisted Living Week, Sept. 12–18. National Assisted Living Week provides a unique opportunity for residents, their loved ones, staff, volunteers, and surrounding communities to recognize the role of assisted living in caring for America’s seniors and individuals with disabilities.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 12–18. National Truck Driver Appreciation Week is a time to pay respect and thank all professional truck drivers for their hard work and commitment in undertaking one of our economy’s most demanding and important jobs.

National Dog Week, Sept. 19–25. Established in 1928 by WWI veteran Captain Will Judy, who wrote, “The world likes dogs because dogs are nearest to moral perfection of all living things.”

SEPTEMBER DAYS

Labor Day, Sept. 6. A federal holiday in the United States celebrated to honor and recognize the American labor movement.

Rosh Hashanah, Sept. 6. Starting at sunset and ending at nightfall, Sept. 8.

Patriot Day and National Day of Service and Remembrance, Sept. 11. A day to pay tribute to the selfless heroes and innocent victims of the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001.

Yom Kippur, Sept. 15. The Jewish Day of Atonement, traditionally observed with a day-long fast and intensive prayer.

World Pharmacists Day, Sept. 25. “Pharmacy: Always trusted for your health” is the theme of this year’s World Pharmacists Day.

NUMBERS IN THE NEWS

Online sources of news dominate

The days of getting your news from Walter Cronkite or the morning newspaper are long gone. The Pew Research Center reports that 86% of Americans get their dose of news from a smartphone, computer, or tablet “often” or “sometimes.” Sixty-eight percent rely on television, 50% listen to the radio, and 32% read print publications.

Digital devices are the dominant medium, with 52% of survey respondents saying they prefer to get their news from an online platform—a news website (26%), social media (11%) or podcasts (three percent). Just 35% said they prefer TV, seven percent like the radio, and five percent say their preference is print.

Crystals grew inside rock like arithmetic flowers. They lengthened and spread, added plane to plane in an awed and perfect obedience to an absolute geometry that even stones—maybe only the stones — understood.

The power of story

Author Neil Gaiman explains the power of stories with a tale on the Books Bird website:

“My cousin Helen, who is in her 90s now, was in the Warsaw ghetto during World War II. She and a bunch of girls in the ghetto had to do sewing each day. And if you were found with a book, it was an automatic death penalty. She had gotten hold of a copy of Gone with the Wind, and she would take three or four hours out of her sleeping time each night to read. And then, during the hour or so when they were sewing the next day, she would tell them all the story. These girls were risking certain death for a story. And when she told me the story herself, it actually made what I do feel more important. Because giving people stories is not a luxury. It’s actually one of the things you live and die for.”

An enduring act of kindness

An act of kindness can have a lifelong effect, as this story illustrates:

A Jewish family who had immigrated from Lithuania to the United States took pity on a seven-year-old boy and brought him to their home. He spent the night in family home, where for the first time in his life he was treated with kindness and tenderness. When he went to bed, the mother sang him Russian lullabies, which he sang along with her. Later he learned to sing and play several Russian and Jewish songs.

Over time, the boy became the adopted son of this family. The father gave him money to buy his first musical instrument.

The little boy grew up and wrote a book about the family, and proudly spoke Yiddish fluently.

In memory of this family, he wore the Star of David. He said that in this family he learned determination and "to live a real life."

The little boy's name was Louis Armstrong.

Humanity's legacy of stories and storytelling is the most precious we have. All wisdom is in our stories and songs.

— Doris Lessing

Low-impact exercise

Feeling the need to exercise? Start out with this one:

Stand on a comfortable surface with plenty of room on each side. With a five-pound potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to last for a full minute, then relax.

Each day you'll find yourself holding this position just a bit longer.

After a week, move up to 10-pound potato bags. Then try 50-pound bags. Eventually, try to get to where you can lift a 100-pound potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for three minutes.

When you feel confident, put a potato in each bag.

The last drop

A bartender was so sure he was the strongest man around that he offered a standing $1,000 bet. He would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice out would win the money.

Many people tried over time—weightlifters, longshoremen, etc.—but nobody could do it.

One day a scrawny little man came into the bar wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit. He said in a tiny squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet."

Everyone laughed, but the bartender grabbed a lemon and squeezed it dry. Then he handed the remains to the little man.

Then the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man gripped the lemon and squeezed six more drops into the glass.

As the crowd cheered, the bartender paid the $1,000 and asked the man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weightlifter, what?"

"No," the man replied. "I work for the IRS."

Some short snappy ones

- If you want to find out who likes you more, lock your best friend and your dog in the trunk of your car for an hour. When you open the trunk, who is happy to see you?
- What did one eye say to the other? “Between you and me, something smells.”
- How did the hipster burn his mouth? He ate pizza before it was cool.
- Insect puns bug me.
- My leaf blower doesn’t work. It sucks.
- Teacher: “Which book has helped you the most in your life?” Student: “My father’s checkbook.”
- My friend thinks he’s so smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut in his face.
- Math teacher: “If I have five bottles of beer in one hand and six in the other hand, what do I have?” Student: “A drinking problem.”
- Two psychics run into each other on the street. One says to the other, “You’re fine, but how am I?”

Missing ingredient

A food critic visited a local restaurant to review its food for the local magazine. The owner welcomed her and showed her to a table.

After a while, the critic called the owner over to say that there was something missing in her bowl of soup.

The owner asked if it was too spicy, too sweet, or too salty. The critic said no, so the owner decided to taste the soup himself. “Give me a spoon.”

"That's what's missing," said the critic.

Laughter is the corrective force which prevents us from becoming cranks.

There is nothing in the world so irresistibly contagious as laughter and good humor.
