President's Report

By Ray Lamoureux #9

I'm back in Florida for the winter. The park is largely empty with all the summer residents still here waiting for the return of the snowbirds. The clubhouse is still closed for functions due to the virus outbreak in Florida. I have not heard of anyone in the park reported as having the virus. Usually that would travel fast in the park if anyone was sick from the virus. Almost all the people living here now are vaccinated. I hope everyone here is staying safe when they go to different places in Florida.

The repairs on the pool are starting Monday September 13th and estimate completion is September 18th. The drainpipe in the bottom of the pool must be dug up and replaced. Also, the two lights that are in the pool are leaking and will be replaced at the same time. The pool needs to have the pool finish where the digging occurred be replaced to complete the repairs. The pool has to be drained and the water refilled to complete the project.

The budget meeting for the board and anyone else that wants to attend will be held on October 6th at PMI. The meeting has taken up to two hours or more to complete next year's budget. As you know the board stopped putting money into the reserves last year to keep the maintenance fee increase to a reasonable amount. We will start contributing to the reserves with next year's budget. How much it will affect maintenance fees will be determined on how much we contribute to the reserves.

The member's budget meeting will be held on December 2nd at the club house. Right now, it will be held outside.

I talked to lawn service about trimming the palm trees, they need it as they are hanging down to the sidewalk. I'm waiting for a date this will happen, he is short on help at this time and will give a date next week.

The park looks great, and we still have no units for sale and over 500 people on a waiting list. I hope everyone is having a safe and happy summer.

From the Editor's Desk

By Sue Bailey #188

suebail@tampabay.rr.com

Autumn is my favorite time of the year when I lived in the north. Those beautiful tree covered hills full of vibrant colors. In Florida it's also my favorite time of the year because it represents cooler weather from the summer heat and humidity and also because our northern residents will be preparing to come back to Golden Acres and we will be reunited again!

Not too much has been happening here at Golden Acres recreation-wise since we have had so much heat and so many thunderstorms, plus the Covid variant. We've just been staying indoors to keep cool and dry.

In this month's newsletter you will read about a surprise 50th Anniversary celebration, Fraud Watch and News in Health. It has been a month with much sadness that we have lost three women from our park. Marsha Baylor #196, Linda Duff #51, and Marilyn McKay's daughter and caregiver, Sharon Emond #198. Our thoughts and prayers go out to their families and friends.

Important dates in October include Monday, October 11th is Canadian Thanksgiving Day Happy Thanksgiving to all of our Canadian residents! and also Columbus Day in the USA; and Sunday, October 31st is Halloween.

Quote of the Month: "Connection is why we're here; it is what gives purpose and meaning to our lives." — Dr. Brené Brown is an author, research professor, and speaker

Until next time,
May God bless and keep you well and safe...

Credit Repair Scams

By Sue Bailey #188 as an AARP Fraud Watch Fighter

Free Helpline at (877) 908-3360 or

<https://www.aarp.org/benefits-discounts/all/aarp-fraud-helpline/>

A poor credit history can be a real hindrance for people trying to recover from financial setbacks and getting behind on bills. Scammers exploit that vulnerability with phony promises of a quick credit fix.

You may have seen ads in newspapers, on TV or online offering to fix whatever credit woes you might have or received a mailer or phone call making a similar pitch. Shady companies will claim they can remove bankruptcies, liens, and bad loans from your record, or even erase a bad credit history completely, helping you start over with a new credit identity that will make you look like a better risk to lenders. One such outfit falsely asserted it had Federal Trade Commission (FTC) approval to promise that it could boost a client's credit score to 700 in 120 days or less.

The fact is that no one can remove bad information from your credit report if it is correct and timely. If a debt, bankruptcy, or other item was accurately reported, it stays on your credit record for up to 10 years. Negative data can be deleted if it is proven to be incorrect or out of date.

Legitimate credit-repair firms say they know how to navigate the complexities of credit reporting to find and fix those errors. But they can't legally do anything you couldn't do yourself, for little or no cost: file disputes with the major credit bureaus (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion) about negative items, in hopes that investigation will show them to be wrong.

Bogus credit-repair companies resort to illegal tactics or use the promise of cleaned-up credit to lure you into committing crimes yourself, like fraud or identity theft. They may offer to sell you a new Social Security number to use in applying for loans. The number was probably stolen, possibly from a child, and using it could send you to prison.

Crooks might also offer you an alternative nine-digit number called a CPN (credit privacy number or credit profile number), or direct you to falsely obtain an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the Internal Revenue Service. Using one of those can get you in legal trouble, too.

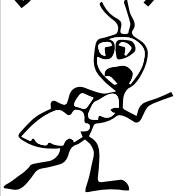

And the scammers will charge you a hefty amount for such dangerous advice. One outfit that was put out of business by the FTC in 2019 allegedly bilked consumers out of more than $6.2 million and threatened lawsuits against those who dared to complain.

Learn About Burn Care

From NIH (News in Health) newsinhealth.nih.gov

Burns are skin or tissue damage, usually caused by heat. Burns often happen in the home. Some are caused by fire. They can also be caused by hot liquid, steam, and certain chemicals.

Burns are defined by how deep they are and how large an area they cover. First degree burns are the least serious. They affect only the thin top layer of skin. A sunburn is a common example. They usually heal on their own within a week. Second-degree burns damage the layer of skin below the outer layer as well. They may leave a scar. Third-degree burns damage or destroy the entire thickness of the skin. They require skin grafts—natural or artificial skin to cover and protect the body while it heals.

It's important to seek medical care quickly for deep or large burns. Serious burns require professional medical care. Some can even be life-threatening. But research advances over the past few decades have increased the chances of survival for people with severe burns.

Minor burns can often be treated at home. First, clean the area with cool water and dry. Then cover with sterile gauze or a non-adhesive bandage. Avoid breaking blisters because this can cause infection. Call your doctor if the burn has not healed after several weeks or shows signs of infection. These include increased pain, swelling, and redness.

For more information on burns and burn research, visit www.nigms.nih.gov/education/fact-sheets/Pages/burns.aspx.

Sharon (McKay) Emond, 56

Dunedin, FL - Sharon (McKay) Emond passed away at home on August 18th, three days before her 57th birthday. Daughter of Marilyn (Larson) McKay and the late Harold McKay, she lived most of her life in Northbridge, Massachusetts before moving to Florida to live with her mother.

Sharon grew-up around her mother's family, attending and being a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church of Worcester, the same church as her Swedish grandparents. Growing up she was close with her three younger sisters: Pam (and Dale), Tammy (and Bill), and Michelle (and Tom) and her numerous cousins. Sharon loved her family and loved being around and caring for children. She majored in Early Childhood Education at Worcester State College before she left school, wanting to start a family of her own.

Sharon is survived by her three children: Nathaniel, Kadie, and Marrisona. She always wanted to give her kids the world, and that love extended beyond her home. Neighborhood kids gathered and stayed over at Sharon's house, where she always had food, crafts, and fun planned for the day.

She spent as much time as she could with her kids while working long hours and multiple jobs as a bartender/waitress. No matter where she was-work, home, or with friends or family-everyone who knew her loved her. Sharon was a gift-giver, always giving time and presents to her biological and honorary nieces, nephews, and family throughout her life.

Despite the difficulties she faced, she always tried to look forward, making the best of whatever situation she found herself, never letting those who knew her best learn how sick she felt. As her health declined, Sharon hated when she could no longer work, throwing all of her energy, attention, and affection into being an amazing grandmother, Nanny, to her four grandchildren: Cameron, Cooper, Peyton, and Oliver. When she wasn't staying with her mother in Florida, she regularly flew to Massachusetts to see her grandchildren, buying them iPads to keep in touch no matter where she was. Sharon waited her whole life to be able to give all of herself to someone, finally finding her happiness and purpose in devoting herself to being a grandmother.

Funeral services for Sharon will be held at Emanuel Lutheran Church of Worcester, 200 Greenwood Street Worcester, on October 21st at 10am. Reception details to follow. Flowers in her honor may be sent to the church.
