NOVEMBER EVENTS

VETERAN'S DAY MEMORIAL LUNCH

There will be a Veteran's Day Memorial and Lunch on Thursday, November 11 at 11 am. We plan on having Subway sandwiches and sides. There is a sign-up sheet in the Clubhouse – please sign up no later than November 5. We'd also like all Veterans that are here in the park and in Canada to sign up in the clubhouse or email me with your full name at jolynnk1952@gmail.com so we can include all of you in the service.

NOTE: The LHRO Board Meeting was scheduled for Thursday, November 11 at 10 am but, after talking with Sue Zerbe, President LHRO, it has been changed to Wednesday, November 10 at 10 am in the clubhouse, in order to not conflict with the Veteran's Memorial. Thank you, Board!

THANKSGIVING DINNER

We will be having our annual Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday, November 25, at 4:00 in the Clubhouse. Please sign up prior to Nov. 19 at the clubhouse – and remember, on a big event such as this, if you sign up and don't come, there will be a nominal fee charged. Also, if you have family that you would like to bring with you, there will be a charge for that – the amount is soon to be determined. If you'd like to volunteer to help prepare, serve or cleanup, please contact Judy Walling at #200 as she is hosting this event. Thank you to all of our volunteers – we couldn't do this without you!

A big thank you to Mark Durbin (and his helper Karen) for smoking the fantastic ribs for our Rib Dinner on September 18. There was also coleslaw, baked beans, chips and cookies. Thanks to Sue Wilson and Sandy Clark for putting the dinner together. There were many other helping hands with serving and cleaning up – thanks to all for volunteering.

The cornhole was a big success, too! And our winners were JP St. Laurent and Fuzz Haynes. Thank you to all who participated – it was a great turnout!! We hope to have events like this from now on through the winter.

LET'S BE HAPPY!!

submitted by Becky Holander

Do not regret growing older, it is a privilege denied to many.

Live your life and forget your age.

I've seen better days, but I've also seen worse. I don't have everything I want, but I do have all I need. I woke up with some aches and pains, but I woke up. My life may not be perfect, but I am blessed.

Spending time with children is more important than spending money on children.

Put your phone away and pay attention to those talking to you. There's an app for that – it's called respect!

If you are depressed, you are living in the past. If you are anxious, you are living in the future. If you are at peace, you are living in the present.

Two things to remember in life: Take care of your thoughts when you are alone. Take care of your words when you are with people.

Whoever said that diamonds are a girls' best friend never owned a dog!

THIEVES HOPE YOU LIKE ONLINE QUIZZES!!

(this article is quoted from the Tampa Bay Times from 9/26/21)

In stressful times – and I think we all agree these times qualify – Facebook can feel like a bit of a sanctuary. Facebook is where you get to see someone’s new puppy, vicariously enjoy their vacation or chime in on a happy birthday.

Then there are the quizzes that pop up, those mindless momentary diversions – What was your first dog’s name? Where’s your hometown? Or this one: Transpose the numbers of your age to show your true level of maturity.

All in fun, right? Then came a dry response from a fellow Facebooker who essentially said: “Why don’t I just give you my bank account number and password and save you some time?”

These seemingly harmless quizzes, often posted or reposted by well-meaning Facebook friends for fun, are potential gold to identify thieves who mine social media like they’re working a metal detector at the beach.

In one popular quiz, you’re asked to combine your first pet’s name with your Mother’s maiden name to come up with your stage name should you become an exotic dancer. And BOTH of these subjects are often used security questions for accessing your various accounts.

Whenever you’re being asked to provide information that could easily be background security questions, you’re potentially exposing yourself to malicious acts. PLEASE DON’T DO IT!

Even age, gender and zip code can be building blocks for both legitimate marketers and someone looking for personal data to commit fraud. It’s shocking how little information is needed in order for malicious actors to move on it. That’s the thing people don’t grasp. It’s far more than our bank account information. Cyber criminals are very good at using human psychology to trigger people into giving away information without even thinking about it.

According to Norton Life-Lock survey data, one in five of us have used our own name/and or birthday in a password. Nearly a third of us have used a pet’s name. And we do like those quizzes: Nearly 40% of social media users surveyed had completed a quiz or played a game that appeared in their feed in an average week.

That’s a lot of people out there fishing for information. That’s their job. That’s what they do. Protect yourself and ignore the quizzes. You’ll be glad in the long run.

Change the Menu

Two elderly ladies meet at the drug store after not seeing one another for some time. After inquiring about each other's health, one asked how the other's husband was doing.

"Oh, Harold died last week. He went out to the garden to dig up potatoes for dinner, had a heart attack and dropped down dead right there in the middle of the vegetable patch!"

"Oh dear! I'm very sorry," replied her friend. "What did you do?" "Opened a can of baked beans instead."

Senior Citizen Exercise Program

I feel like my body has gotten totally out of shape, so I got my doctor's permission to join a fitness club and start exercising. But by the time I got my leotards on, the class was over!

Glad to Share

A tour bus driver is driving with a bus load of seniors down a highway when he is tapped on his shoulder by a little old lady. She offers him a handful of peanuts, which he gratefully munches up. After about 15 minutes, she taps him on his shoulder again, and she hands him another handful of peanuts. She repeats this gesture about five more times. When she is about to hand him another batch again, he asks the little old lady, "Why don't you eat the peanuts yourself?" "We can't chew them because we've no teeth," she replied. "We just love the chocolate around them."

Listen to Your Doctor

Elizabeth was an 85-year-old woman who was particularly despondent over the recent death of her husband, Edward. She decided that she would just kill herself and join him in death. Thinking that it would be best to get it over with quickly, she took out Edward's old Army pistol and made the decision to shoot herself in the heart since it was so badly broken in the first place.

Not wanting to miss the vital organ and become paralyzed, she called her doctor's office to inquire as to just exactly where the heart would be. "On a women," the doctor said, "your heart would be just below your left breast." Later that night, Elizabeth was admitted to the hospital with a gunshot wound to the left knee!
