Jolley Trolley II - an evening at Clearwater Beach

Another chartered Jolley Trolley outing is being planned for the week of December 6th, exact date tbd (to be determined). An “interest” sign up sheet has been posted in the Clubhouse during October and hopefully it has been filling up. For those who do not check the Clubhouse bulletin board, this is an information delivery. There’s a minimum of 20 people, but up to 30 can ride.

It is planned that the Trolley will leave the Clubhouse at 6 pm and depart for the lower Clearwater beach area where there are many choices of restaurants and opportunities to walk or shop, or just enjoy the area. The trolley will return at 8:30pm and drop us back off at the Clubhouse. The cost will be approx. $25 per person, which will defray the trolley rental and tip, less if we can fill all seats. For any further information, please call Maggie G. (Lot 143) at 907.687.3513. Watch the Clubhouse Bulletin Board in mid-November for updates and (if we have enough signed up to go) how to drop off your payment to #143.

Southwind Summer Bowling League

by Bill A.

At the time you read this the summer league has ended, and the fall and winter league has already started.

Summer league: We had an average of 18-19 bowlers in the summer league. The summer league, even though we have teams, it's a show up time when you are not away on vacation. We bowled 21 weeks up until October 1st, when we had our playoffs. The first two teams play each other and on down the list until the 7th and 8th teams play each other.

The top two teams were George and Jean Moore, and John Mietus. The other team was Teresa Russell, Phil Hargis and Bill Adams (myself). My team was 4 games behind the first place team and we needed to win all four points to tie for first. They won the first game by a large margin and the second game by one point and we won the third game.

Congratulations to George, Jean and John for finishing in 1st place. On Oct. 1st we had pizza and drinks served by the Maple Lanes staff, during games two and three.

A great, big THANK YOU to all bowlers who showed up and had fun!

The fall league started on Oct. 22nd and we have 10 teams of three players on each team. If you are interested in bowling, we can place you on a sub list, and we always need subs.

HOUSEHOLD HACKS

For Spray Painters – from Art Temple

Perhaps some of you have used a spray can from time to time to quickly paint an object. And no doubt sometimes, when you return to spray something else, the spray won't spray. That's because the nozzle is plugged, so you spend valuable time, to soak it in whatever you have on hand to open the valve.

BUT, THERE'S A WAY TO SOLVE THIS PROBLEM.....

1. Buy a can of CRC QD ELECTRONIC CLEANER.
2. When you finish spraying, and before you replace the cap, and put it away, spray a steady stream of the CRC into the valve; and PRESTO! The valve will be clean the next time you use it.

This cleaner can be purchased at any Auto Supply store or Hardware store, and on Amazon. A petroleum distillate / alcohol based precision cleaner designed as an alternative to CFC based cleaners. It has a rating of 4.7/ 5 with 7,657 reviews.

*it comes in a red, white and black 11 oz can

KITCHEN HACKS

Broken glass on the floor: use a whisk broom to sweep up large pieces and all glass in a pile, put them in a paper bag. For small chards and slivers of glass, take a slice of bread and mash on top of pile to pick up these tiny slivers, and then throw the bread in the paper bag and then in your trash bag. Do not use your vacuum cleaner, as it can damage the machine, or the filter.

To take the sting out of your eyes when chopping onions, use a wet paper towel on your cutting board. Chop the onions on top of the wet paper towel with a sharp knife.

Microwave tips:

For even re-heating of leftover pasta, and mashed potatoes, put food in a donut shape with a "hole" in the center of the food. Mash or flatten food down with a fork on the plate. It will re-heat evenly with no cold spot in the center.

Reheat meat and veggies using a wet paper towel on top of the plate to keep meat from drying out in the microwave.

Reheat pizza using a folded dry paper towel under the slice, on the plate to keep it from getting soggy in the microwave. Use power level 7 for 30-40 seconds a slice

JOKES OF ART

From Art Temple

Mary’s husband was fixing a door and found that he needed a new hinge. He felt a little tired and didn’t feel like taking the time to go to the hardware store. “Mary” he yelled, “will you please run over the Luke’s Hardware and buy a new hinge? I think I’d like a quick cup of coffee while you’re gone.

“Sure, I’ll go,” said Mary, and off she went with the old hinge as a sample. As Mary entered the hardware store, she saw a beautiful teapot on a top shelf. When Luke turned to wait on her, she asked, “How much for the teapot?”

“That costs $100,” replied Luke. “My Goodness!,” exclaimed Mary. She showed Luke the hinge and Luke went into the back room to get one. From the back room Luke yelled, “Mary, you wanna screw for that hinge?”

Mary replied, “No, but I will for that teapot.

Thanksgiving

- What did the turkey say before it was roasted? Boy, I'm stuffed!
- What do you call a running turkey? Fast Food.
- What smells best at a Thanksgiving dinner? Your nose!
- When asked to write a composition entitled "What I'm thankful for on Thanksgiving," Little Johnny wrote: "I am thankful that I'M NOT A TURKEY!"

Saturday Mornings

By Bill Roberts

Saturday mornings. The end of the work week. The day that many live for and dream about. A mini holiday for some and one that allows you to celebrate multiple times during a month. But for a child it is more of a birthright. A day and a time for adventure that cannot be achieved while sitting in a classroom or doing your assigned chores. It is a moment and for a child a lifetime to decide what is in store and where you want to strike out. Maybe it's skipping rocks down at the creek, shooting hoops with your buds, riding your bike with no hands, or simply gazing at the sky and trying your best to figure out what shape that cloud is. We all have our memories of those special Saturday mornings. I was remembering...

- Of waking up and running to the TV to watch Bugs Bunny, Scooby Doo, and Super friends
- Of bouncing a ball off of a brick wall for hours on end and assuring myself that I was getting a step closer to the big leagues
- Of going downtown with Mel so we could experience the sights, sounds, and smells of Louisville waking up
- Of riding my bike up to Taylor's Drug Store to purchase baseball cards in hopes of getting anybody who played for the Cincinnati Reds
- Of playing baseball on Portia Court and breaking a neighbors window three times before being put in a car with my buddies by said neighbor and driven to a field where it was heavily suggested we play in the future
- Of going to the railroad tracks to flatten pennies and then working up the courage to hop the train
- Of having Mom make BLTs and lemonade for supper that went down smooth on the warm summer evenings
- Of playing league ball at Buechel and trying to be the next Pete Rose or Johnny Bench and then rushing home to watch the game of the week with Tony Kubek and Joe Garagiola
- Of waiting for the neighbor with the pool to go on vacation so we could hop their fence and go for a cool swim
- Of walking the streets with my buds in search of girls so we could inevitably make fools of ourselves
- Of staying up late with the family to watch the Carol Burnett show and seeing how long it would take Tim Conway to make Harvey Korman laugh in one of their hilarious sketches

Don Henley in the masterful song "The End Of The Innocence" tells us that with time the innocence in our hearts begins to fade and with each passing year our walk becomes a little heavier. We grow older and we see the world with tired eyes and before we know it we have become a bit more jaded. But this is why we have the memories to take us back to those days of our youth where anything was possible and could be accomplished with just the mere suggestion of our minds. Memories that transform us back to our days of dreams and freedoms. So take time now and drift back to those times of your youth where simple was the only way you saw and went about things. If you need me I'll be watching Looney Tunes and drifting back to those Saturday Mornings.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By Terri C.

Recently I've learned firsthand that swelling in legs (and arms) can be caused by a blockage in the lymphatic system. If you or someone you know suffers from swollen legs, you may want to read what I found out, below.

“Lymphedema is swelling that can develop in your legs after your lymph nodes have been removed or injured. Lymph nodes are small, bean-shaped structures that are located throughout your body. They help move fluid out of the different areas of your body. If this fluid can't be moved out, the tissue begins to swell”

Therapy can help relieve the blockage. It can include:

1. Exercises. Gentle contraction of the muscles in the arm or leg can help move the excess fluid out of the swollen limb.
2. Manual lymph drainage
3. Compression bandages (wraps)
4. Compression garments (support stockings)

Something you can do for yourself is called “dry-brushing” your legs from the ankles up the outside of your legs to your hip, using a dry, soft bristled bath (back) brush. In a sitting or reclining position, start lightly brushing up your leg towards your heart to help with lymphatic flow. Also, lightly brush up the inside of your leg towards the groin on both sides. My Doctor said that it's more common on the left leg, but can affect both. Also, you can exercise a swollen ankle by lifting a straight leg and making circular motions at the ankle for 10 repetitions three times a day.

Lymph drainage can be done with a good foot massage.

For an instructional you-tube self-message for lymphatic drainage for the legs you can go to this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZLyT\_0Tr40M

From MassagebyHeather.com (it works on the leg above the knee up to the abdomen)

Of course, diet is a factor for a healthy lymphatic system. Foods like burgers, fries and pasta can also increase inflammation. Following a low-salt diet may reduce fluid buildup and swelling. An easy way to remember what foods are best is to “eat a rainbow” consisting of blueberries and grapes, greens, yellow peppers and squash, sweet potatoes, yams and carrots and tomatoes and red pepper. A Mediterranean diet (salmon and olives) lots of fish and olive oil is also highly recommended. When you are suffering from swollen feet, eat magnesium-rich foods. These include tofu, spinach, cashews, almonds, dark chocolate, broccoli and avocados.

There are reports of leg swelling as the first sign of lymphoma, often with swollen lymph nodes in the groin area or a cancer growing in the abdomen. The lymphedema also may be caused by a growing mass of cells that is blocking the lymph from flowing. According to www.cedars-sinai.org, lymphoma can go undetected (as low-grade disorders) for many years. These grow so slowly that patients can live for many years mostly without symptoms, although some may experience pain from an enlarged lymph gland. After five to 10 years, low-grade disorders begin to progress rapidly to become aggressive or high-grade and produce more severe symptoms.

Simple lifestyle changes — such as exercise and weight loss — also can help reduce or prevent swelling while also improving your overall health. Things like walking and swimming — which we can all do right here in Southwind, can make a huge difference in our health.

Veterans Day is an important day set aside to honor and show appreciation for ALL who have served in the United States military—in wartime or peacetime, living, or deceased.

Veterans Day is a public holiday held on the anniversary of the end of World War I (November 11) to honor US veterans and victims of all wars. It replaced Armistice Day in 1954.

Thanksgiving Day, annual national holiday in the United States and Canada celebrating the harvest and other blessings of the past year. Americans generally believe that their Thanksgiving is modeled on a 1621 harvest feast shared by the English colonists (Pilgrims) of Plymouth and the Wampanoag people.

The American holiday is particularly rich in legend and symbolism, and the traditional fare of the Thanksgiving meal typically includes turkey, bread stuffing, potatoes, cranberries, and pumpkin pie. With respect to vehicular travel, the holiday is often the busiest of the year, as family members gather with one another. Thanksgiving Day is celebrated on Thursday, November 25, 2021.
