From The President

Tom Vanzant

The year is almost at its end. Many of our Seasonal Shareholders have returned and more are returning every day. My hope is, when January rolls around, we will all be back together again.

The coating of our roads were completed in September and October. Most likely the pond and culvert going to 106th Street will have the muck and debris removed, which will give more water capacity when we receive heavy rains.

Long and short range and finance continue to look to improve the park. One of the most recent projects was new flooring and paint for the main entrance, library, pool room and out to the pool entrance.

We have also replaced one of our pool tables with a much newer pre-owned commercial pool table. I'm sure that the year around and seasonal pool players will be happy with the new table.

The extra revenue will assist in keeping increasing HSP's "reserve account," for future infrastructure issues, maintenance, and mitigate the chance of "assessments."

From The Office

Pat Merl

Just a reminder for those of you who are returning to the Park for the winter months. If you have not already done so, please inform the office, by email, at holidayshorepark10289, in writing, on a small piece of paper and drop it in the Office Mailbox, or call 727-393-5916 and leave a message. Please provide your name, address, phone, cell, email, and the dates of your arrival and projected departure date.

The office is legally required to keep current and accurate contact information for all shareholders, on file. Most importantly, it is a way for us to contact you directly with Association notices and other important correspondence.

The trees are being trimmed a little later this year. We are awaiting an updated quote for the hardwoods, from a new vendor, and the palms are projected to be done, by our regular vendor, in a few weeks or so. Recently, he has spent a considerable amount of time in New Orleans helping to clean up the mess left behind by hurricane Ida. Yes, we've been very lucky, so far, just a few more weeks and the season will be over.

A highly qualified vendor, Breen Acres Aquatics, has finally been selected to clean the considerable accumulation of muck from our waterways. Now that the roads have been Welcome back everyone!

For those of you still on your way back we wish you safe travel and a little arguing over the GPS directions with your navigator. Lol

Our Halloween party October 31 kicks off our first activity celebration 6 PM to 10 PM with Jay Z entertainment. Music for all! Tickets for all activities functions are sold on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11 AM until noon.

We will have our first activities meeting November 6 starting at 9 AM with coffee and donuts. We will continue our meeting at 9:30 with much to discuss. Veterans Day, military matters, our new activities lined up, activity schedule and holidays just to name a few. WE WANT YOU TO SHARE YOUR INPUT AS WELL AS YOUR PARTICIPATION!

An important reminder. Military matters for those of you who might not be familiar. At our activities meeting on November 6 we will write a thank you note to an active duty service member. On Veterans Day we ask that you bring in item(s) to the clubhouse. (Requested items list can be found on the activities bulletin board or community website. Our picture will be taken that day with all the items and the Holiday Shores sign with us. The items and notes will be put in a gift box and sent to active duty service men and women around the world.

GOLF: HOLIDAY CHIPPERS

Priscilla Donegan

Welcome back snowbirds. Holiday Shore Chippers normally has this event on the 3rd Saturday of the month. Unfortunately, our President, Mark Stevens, recently passed away and we are not sure just when we will begin. As soon as we know, you will be notified as to when we will start. Mark did a wonderful job every month for a number of years and he will be missed. Until I have more information this is all I have to report.

Sharing and Caring

Nita Anderson

Hello Friends and Neighbors of Holiday Shores Park.

I'm sorry to report that Frank Speckman recently passed away. He recently moved from the Park. He and his wife, Carolyn, lived at 10335 S. Lake Drive and had been in the park since 2015. Please keep Carolyn and the family in your prayers.

Also, Robert Kisner (10285 N. Lake Drive) passed away on October 9 2021. He had been in the Park since 2005. Please keep his family and friends in your prayers.

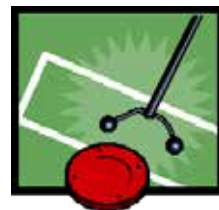

Please call me (440-724-1488) if you are aware of any of our friends and neighbors who are ill, have had a death in the family, or have had a surgical procedure. I will keep you posted on any new developments. Please keep these friends and neighbors (and their families) in your prayers. Thank you.

Shuffleboard News

Priscilla Donegan

It's so nice to see many of our residents returning from the north to spend the fall and winter months here in sunny Florida. Shuffleboard may have begun by the time you arrive, so be sure to check if the shuffleboard flag is out.

We encourage anyone new to the park to give it a try. The cost to shuffle is 10 cents a game and we shuffle 3 games. If you win, you get your dime back!

Hopefully, by the time we are ready for night shuffling, the new lighting will be in place.

In November, close to Thanksgiving, we have our turkey shoot. Watch the boards for more details on the board or in the clubhouse on the bulletin board.

See you on the courts.

Friends, enemies, and employees all are gathered at Big Louie's Blue Orchid Lounge, located on the South Side of Chicago to celebrate Big Louie's birthday. The year is 1927. It's the Jazz Age - flappers, gangsters, and gun-molls abound!

It's a Saturday night in November and the crowd has come together for cocktails and dinner when suddenly the lights go out and gunshots explode in the dark. Moments later, Big Louie, owner of The Blue Orchid Lounge, is found slumped on the floor, dead from a bullet wound to his heart.

Where were Phillip Muggs, the bartender, and Ginny Tonic, the cocktail waitress when the lights went out? Who is the mystery lady with amnesia? Is Mona Lott, Louie's ex-wife, really upset at his passing? Find all these answers and more as you try to unravel the mystery behind Big Louie's death during The Blue Orchid Murder Mystery Dinner on Saturday, November 13th.

Tickets are $10 and include Before-Dinner Nibbles, Salad, Crackers, Spaghetti and Meatballs, Bread, and Dessert plus Entertainment and Surprises. BOYB. Roaring 20s costumes are encouraged, but not necessary. Tickets are now on sale in the clubhouse on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11am to noon. Deadline to purchase tickets is Tuesday, November 9th.

The next scheduled meeting for the Way-Off Broadway Theater Group will be Tuesday, December 7, 2021, at 2 pm to begin plans for our big show in the spring. Theatre Group Officers David Middleton, Linda Dunn, Judy Garneau, and David Helms want you to come and join the fun; we're always looking for new talent on stage and off!

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

November

Military Family Appreciation Month. Military families know what it means to serve. Every day, they get up and support their service members, standing by during long trainings and deployments. They know the risks, but they accept this life of service anyway. Throughout the month, families are honored and recognized for their commitment and contributions in support of our military and nation.

National Entrepreneurship Month. According to the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor, 27 million working-age Americans—nearly 14%—are running their own businesses, and a growing number of people are considering entrepreneurship as a career option, with 51% of the working population believing that good opportunities exist to branch out on their own.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 26 people will be diagnosed with epilepsy at some point during their lifetime. Epilepsy is one of the least understood of all neurological diseases, yet it is the fourth most common. During November, many organizations join together to provide information about prevention, treatment, research, and resources to fight epilepsy.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to shine a light on the experiences of runaway and homeless youth, and an opportunity to spotlight the resources available to support youth in crisis throughout the nation. As part of the campaign, individuals, organizations, and communities nationwide work together to prevent youth homelessness.

WEEKLY

National Veterans Small Business Week, Nov. 1–5. Each year the U.S. Small Business Administration celebrates, connects, and empowers service members, veterans, National Guard and Reserve members, and military spouses during National Veterans Small Business Week.

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 7–14. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States serving the estimated 6–8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year, but only about half of those animals get adopted. The Humane Society of the United States celebrates National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week to honor animal shelters and the dedicated people who work to protect animals.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 13–21. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together across the country to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fund-raising, and advocacy events.
