Carve your turkey with flair

A good Thanksgiving dinner is usually about the turkey. You don't have to be a surgeon to carve one correctly, but proper carving and slicing techniques will ensure you get the most meat from your bird and enable you to present an attractive meal to your family and friends.

Follow these simple techniques for successfully carving your holiday turkey:

- Let your 10-pound-or-bigger turkey stand at room temperature for 10 to 20 minutes after cooking and before slicing. This allows the juices to distribute evenly throughout the turkey. Netting and cooking bags are also easier to remove after waiting.
- Slice or carve the turkey on a sanitized cutting surface. Knives, pans, and covers should be sanitized, too. Re sanitize boards and knives every 30 minutes. Wear disposable food-handling gloves while carving or frequently wash your hands thoroughly.
- After 10–20 minutes holding time, carve the turkey into major sections (i.e., breasts, thighs, drumsticks, and wings).
- To serve turkey hot, place sections in pans. Cover with foil or plastic film to retain heat and moisture and to minimize the possibility of contamination. Hold at 140° F or higher in a hot holding device (a cabinet or steam table). Your turkey should be at least 140° F when placed in the holding pans. The heating device will only maintain temperature. A maximum holding time of 20 to 30 minutes is recommended.
- Slice the sections into serving pieces, arrange them on a plate, and add garnish. Enjoy!

She liked the uniforms

Maya Angelou wasn't always a famous poet. According to one story, when Angelou was 16, she decided she wanted to be a streetcar operator. However, she was rejected because she was Black.

Her mother told her not to give up. Following her mother's advice, Angelou went to the hiring office every day and sat reading books all day long. After two weeks, someone finally asked her why she wanted the job so much. "Because I like the uniforms," she replied.

She got her dream, and became San Francisco's first Black female streetcar operator.

Great stories happen to those who can tell them.
— Ira Glass

Drink up

A guy walks into a bar and orders 12 beers. The bartender lines them up, and the guy starts gulping them down as fast as he can.

The bartender asks, “Hey, why are you drinking those beers so fast?”

The guy says, “You’d be drinking fast too, if you had what I have.”

“What do you have?”

“About 75 cents.”

Dead man working

On his way home late one night, Jack took a shortcut through the local cemetery. Hearing a tapping sound nearby, he grew scared and quickened his pace.

The tapping got louder.

Jack ran until he spotted a man chiseling a tombstone.

“Thank goodness!” Jack stopped and wiped sweat from his forehead. “You gave me the scare of my life! But why are you working out here in the middle of the night?”

The man turned. “They spelled my name wrong.”

Wrong answers

A police officer pulled a driver over. The nervous motorist asked. “What did I do wrong, officer?”

“Nothing at all.” The police officer smiled. “You’ve just won $1,000 in a safe driving competition. Hey, what do you think you’ll do with the money?”

The man said, “Oh, I guess I’ll go to driving school and get my license.”

His wife, sitting next to him, said, “Don’t listen to him, officer. He lies when he’s drunk.”

Then a man in the back seat woke up, saw the cop, and said, “Darn it, I told you we wouldn’t get far in a stolen car!”

Just then the officer heard a knock at the trunk. He walked to the back of the car.

A voice called, “Are we over the border yet?”

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.

— Jean Houston

1. Is your doctor's office still open?
2. Have you heard from your doctor in the past two weeks?
3. Is your doctor personally calling and texting to check on you?
4. Has your doctor called you to explain your risk of coronavirus?
5. Is your doctor's office offering doctor phone visits?
6. Does your doctor allow walk-in visits?
7. Are you able to call your doctor anytime, day or night?
8. Do you have any difficulty getting to and from your doctor?
9. Is your doctor helping to make sure you receive all of your prescription refills?
10. Is your doctor offering to help you get your medications delivered?

Don't waste your time

A donkey and a tiger got into a foolish argument: "The grass is blue," the donkey insisted, while the tiger said, "No, the grass is green."

The discussion became heated, so the two decided to ask their king, the lion, for his judgment. As they approached the lion, the donkey shouted, "Your Highness, isn't it true that the grass is blue?"

The lion replied, "If you believe it is true, the grass is blue."

Then the donkey said, "This tiger disagrees with me. Please punish him."

The lion declared, "Very well. The tiger will be punished with three days of silence."

The donkey jumped with joy and went on his way, chanting, "The grass is blue, the grass is blue!"

The tiger asked the lion, "Your Majesty, why have you punished me? After all, the grass is green."

The lion replied, "The punishment is because it is degrading for a brave, intelligent creature like you to waste time arguing with a donkey, then coming to bother me to validate something you already knew was true."

The moral: Never waste time on arguments that make no sense.

A steady flight

An Airbus 380 was on its way across the Atlantic. It was flying at 30,000 feet, when suddenly a fighter jet appeared.

The pilot of the fighter jet slowed down, flew alongside the Airbus, and greeted the pilot of the passenger plane by radio: "Hello, Airbus! Boring flight, isn't it? Have a look here!"

He rolled his jet on its back, accelerated, broke through the sound barrier, rose rapidly to a dizzying height, then swooped down almost to sea level in a breathtaking dive. He looped back next to the Airbus and asked, "Well, what do you think of that?"

The Airbus pilot answered, "Very impressive! Now you look!"

The jet pilot watched the Airbus, but nothing happened. It continued to fly in a stubbornly straight line at the same speed.

After 15 minutes, the Airbus pilot radioed, "Well, how was that?"

Confused, the fighter pilot asked, "What did you do?"

The Airbus pilot laughed and said, "I got up, stretched my legs, walked to the back of the aircraft to use the washroom, then got a cup of coffee and a chocolate fudge pastry."

The moral of the story: Speed and adrenaline may seem to be great, but sometimes stability and peace are more important.

More than a few one-liners

Try these when you want to get a laugh during a lull in conversation:

- Where there's a will, I want to be in it.
- The last thing I want to do is hurt you, but it's still on my list.
- Light travels faster than sound, which is why some people appear bright until you hear them speak.
- I'd agree with you, but then we'd both be wrong.
- Knowledge is knowing the tomato is a fruit. Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.
- I thought I wanted a career. Turns out, I just wanted a paycheck.
- In filling out an application, where it says, "In case of emergency, notify _____" I always put, "DOCTOR."
- I didn't say it was your fault. I said I was blaming you.
- You're never too old to learn something stupid.
- Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.
- I'm supposed to respect my elders, but these days it's getting harder and harder for me to find one.

A bald promise

An old man who lived by a forest called his children to his deathbed.

He said, "Look at my hair. It used to be so magnificent, but I'm completely bald now." Then he gestured at the forest outside his window. "Now look at that forest. Someday all the trees will be cut down, and this forest will look as bald as my head. After I'm gone, every time a tree is cut down or dies, plant a new one in my memory. Tell your descendants to do the same. It shall be our family's duty to keep this forest strong."

And so for centuries, the forest remained as lush and pretty as ever—all because of one man and his re-seeding heirline.

I have always felt that laughter in the face of reality is probably the finest sound there is and will last until the day when the game is called on account of darkness. In this world, a good time to laugh is any time you can.
