FROM THE BOARD

By April Loomis, Vice President

Can you believe that 2021 is almost over? This means that the board will need to fill three vacancies for 2022. I know that many of you are reluctant to volunteer because it is a huge commitment of time and energy. Think about it. It is also a time to share your opinions and talents. It is a time to learn how and why our association is operated the way it is.

Maybe you have a better way and need to share your ideas. Many points of view help make good decisions. All you need, is a willingness to serve and a desire to learn. Nothing is more rewarding than to feel that you have increased harmony in our community and reduced conflict.

Step up, help and serve Clearwater Cascade in a way that benefits all our residents. You can make a difference!

November is a month of giving. What better way to give of yourself, than to serve on the board of directors.

Happy Thanksgiving !!

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

By: Jane Jarlenski, CMCA, AMS, PCAM

Welcome Back – Our snowbirds have begun returning to their winter homes in Clearwater Cascade. It is so good to see them all and we appreciate the cooler weather that accompanies their return!

Office Closure – The business office will be closed Thursday, November 25th and Friday, November 26th for the Thanksgiving Holiday. 🦃 We will reopen on Monday, November 29th.

Maintenance Fees –The Postal Service warned, as of October 1, 2021, mail formerly delivered in 1 to 2 days may now take up to 5 days! If you mail your maintenance fee, please do it earlier now; any payments received after the 10th of each month will be assessed a $25.00 late fee.

Air Pump – Don't forget we have an air pump if your tires need air. It's located in the east parking lot, near the Adult Pool and is very simple to use. Left of the pump you will find the off/on switch; turn it on, then fill your tire. If you do not hear the motor turn on when you turn the switch on, that doesn't mean it is not functioning. If air in the tank is full, you may not hear anything until the air pressure is used and you will hear it come on as you fill your tire. Be sure

Cable TV & Internet – The new bulk agreement with Spectrum begins November 2nd. If you already have Spectrum, you do not need to do anything. If you are here in the park, and you need new equipment, you simply need to call Spectrum to have your equipment delivered to your home by UPS. As an alternative, you may visit the Spectrum store located at 4049 Park Blvd and tell them you are a new bulk cable/internet customer through Clearwater Cascade and they will provide the equipment to you. If you are not a current Spectrum customer with both cable and internet services, please call the bulk care center ON or AFTER 11/2/2021 at 1-833-697-7328 to subscribe to the new bulk package. When calling, tell the Spectrum representative your address, unit number and that there is a bulk agreement in your community.

Mailboxes – Parking at the laundry facilities is for residents doing their laundry or picking up their mail. We will notify you by VOLO Message, when we will begin using the new mailboxes exclusively. After that date, the post office will no longer deliver mail to the current freestanding mailboxes; however, they will remain up for a while, so returning residents can still retrieve any mail that may have been delivered to them prior to the changeover.

Mailbox Keys – By now most of our year-around residents have received their new mailbox keys. Seasonal residents can pick theirs up when they visit the office to sign in.

Golf Carts – Remember, you must have a drivers' license to drive a golf cart. In addition, as of September 22, 2021, all golf carts in the community must display a registration sticker on the rear of the vehicle.

Architectural Guidelines – There are new guidelines for installing pavers around residents' homes. A copy of these will be sent along with the First Notice of Annual Meeting later this month.

Water Charges – Beginning January 1st, the park will start reading the water meters again and as of March 1st we will start invoicing residents for any water used, in excess of 3,000 gallons per month.

Library Doors – New doors have been installed on the library facility; they are taller and a little wider to accommodate wheelchairs. They look nice and now match the clubhouse and office doors.

Craft Fair – I don't know about everyone else, but I am really looking forward to the Craft Fair on the 13th. There will even be a food truck. I am looking forward to doing some holiday shopping and enjoying a nice lunch!

That is all I have for this month, take care, and stay safe.

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

The time has come to think seriously about whether or not you think you would like to add your voice to the Board of Directors of Clearwater Cascade Mobile Home Park. Read the next article from our CAM Jane. Surely many of you have the knowledge, determination, skills, and desire to help make this Park the best it can be. Can you be a team player and help ensure that our Board continues to work together as an effective, co-operative group?

The current border news has given the Canadian snowbirds the hope that they may be able to drive south by mid-November. However, as with many of the northern American snowbirds and many of the permanent residents in CC, the tendency will likely be to stay with their small group of friends, wear masks, and not go to public places to reduce possible risks. Whatever your friends and neighbors decide to do is a personal decision and, I'm sure, everyone will respect others' choices.

To all our American friends and residents, I extend Happy Thanksgiving wishes.

Traits of Good Board Members

By: Jane Jarlenski, CMCA, AMS, PCAM

Do you have what it takes to be a good board member? Chances are you do. If you have a mix of some of the following traits and skills, consider running for a seat on the board. We'd love to have you.

Respect. If you can give others respect and expect it in return, you can help keep board discussions civil, productive and on point. We're looking for people who can lead by consensus, not by command.

Good listening. People want to be heard. Can you listen to board members and residents with sincere interest? You may have a few ideas of your own, but everyone benefits by sharing and discussing.

Thick skin. Sometimes, residents—even other board members—can be mean and insulting. Are you good at turning a conversation around and finding out what's really bothering people?

Egos aside. If you can give others credit, the board will operate better as a team.

Agenda aside. Members who come to the board looking to help only themselves are a problem. A board is more productive when members don't have a personal punch list. Are you able to look after the community, not just your own interests? Are you willing to compromise?

Skill. An association is a business. So having board members with accounting, organizational behavior and teambuilding backgrounds can help. Someone with a financial background, for example, might make for a good treasurer.

The ideal board comprises a mix of management styles, professional skills and temperaments. If you know people with some of these traits or relevant skills, ask them if they'd be interested in joining the board. Some people don't think about running for a seat unless asked.

You don't have to know everything when you join, but you should be familiar with the governing documents and the responsibilities of the job. Fellow board members and managers can help you with the transition and train you on board responsibilities, current work, projects and hot issues.

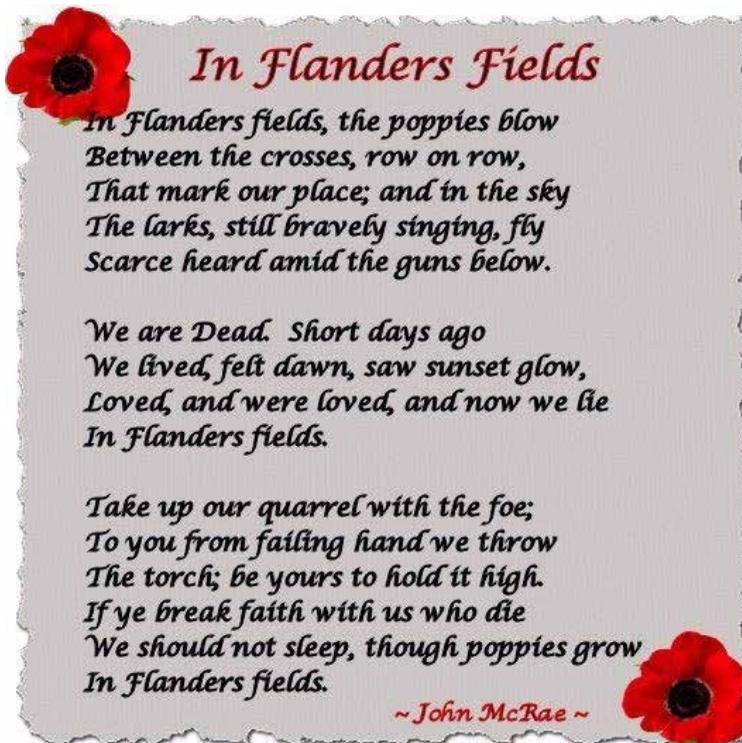

Leaders can come from different places and backgrounds. There's no one mode that fits all. Share your knowledge and passion with the community.

Remembrance Day

Lest We Forget

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hand we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We should not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Promoting Your Cause in the Community

By Tim Caddell

So, you've found a great cause and are looking for a way to rally support for it—wonderful! Of course, as you've thought about the people who could help your charitable cause, your friends and Clearwater Cascade neighbors probably came to mind. The board encourages all residents in their altruistic endeavors and always welcomes any effort that fosters a philanthropic environment within our community. But before you start going door to door to fight cancer or whip up a bake sale to end hunger, please check with the manager or a member of the board not only to make sure you're within the association's fundraising policies, but also to see if there is any way the association can help.

If you're looking to get the community association involved in your charity, such as holding an event in one of the association's common areas, let the board know by putting your idea in writing and send or deliver it to the office. The board may want you to attend a board meeting and propose your idea. We'll let you know what's possible, and how to go about it. Or we may recommend other places within Pinellas Park or central Pinellas County that might be able to assist. Also, to help you get the word out, be sure to ask us about mentioning your event in our newsletter or on our website.

It's caring people like you who make Clearwater Cascade a great place to live, and we want to give you the support you need to make a difference—so keep fighting for your cause and don't hesitate to see what we can do to help.

SOCIAL CLUB

By Donna Collins, Secretary

Happy Thanksgiving! There are now three openings for the Cascade Social Club. If you are interested in running for any of these openings then now is your chance. You have lots of time to think about it as our Annual Meeting isn't until Saturday, February 5, 2022 after the Breakfast at 10:00 AM. You can submit your resume to Don Collins - dcollins4@cogeco.ca or Donna Collins – collinsdonna12@gmail.com. Please include your reason for wanting to become a part of the SC and your background.

Keep an eye on the Social Club bulletin boards in the laundry rooms, by the old mail boxes and in the Clubhouse just inside the pool entrance. Updates on planned events will be posted and times and location for getting event tickets for some of the activities. As you know, the November dinner has been cancelled. The SC is saddened by the passing of two directors in the last eighteen months. Our thoughts are with the families of Cathy Long and Paul Fournier.

DID YOU KNOW THESE THANKSGIVING FACTS?

The First Thanksgiving Took Place in 1621

Although there are several accounts as to where the first Thanksgiving celebration took place, the most well-known version describes the inaugural Thanksgiving as a three-day pilgrim celebration that took place in 1621 at the Plymouth Colony (now Plymouth, Massachusetts). Most traditional historians recognize this as the first American Thanksgiving feast.

Over 200 years later, President Abraham Lincoln issued a proclamation declaring the last Thursday in November as a day to give thanks. It wasn't until 1941 that congress made Thanksgiving an official national holiday.

Every Thanksgiving, the President Pardons a Turkey

Every year since 1947, a ceremony known as "The National Thanksgiving Turkey Presentation" has been conducted at The White House a few days before Thanksgiving. During the ceremony, the current President of the United States is presented with a live turkey. The commander-in-chief does not eat the turkey; instead, he "pardons" the bird and spares it from being slaughtered. After being pardoned, the turkey gets to live out its days on a farm.

Thanksgiving Dinner Hasn't Changed Much Over the Years

The food eaten at the first Thanksgiving feast in 1621 was not too different from our modern standard. The pilgrims' meal consisted of turkey (debatable), venison, waterfowl, lobster, fish, clams, pumpkin, squash, berries, and fruit. Aside from the seafood, most of these foods are still staples of our present-day Thanksgiving dinners.

Americans Eat a Lot of Turkey

While there is no official reason why turkey is the quintessential main dish used in Thanksgiving dinners, it was likely the most plentiful type of meat in Plymouth Colony in 1621. We've carried on the tradition of eating Turkey for Thanksgiving dinner ever since. According to the National Turkey Federation, over 95% of Americans eat turkey on Thanksgiving. Around 280 million turkeys are sold during the weeks leading up to the holiday.

There Is an Official Thanksgiving Postage Stamp

In 2001, the U.S. Postal Service issued a commemorative stamp in honor of the Thanksgiving holiday. The stamp was designed by artist Margaret Cusack to resemble traditional folk-art needlework. The intention behind the stamp's creation was to commemorate the tradition of being thankful for the abundance of goods we enjoy in America.

Watching Football Is a Central Part of Most Thanksgiving Celebrations

In the United States, football is a major part of many families' Thanksgiving celebrations. This tradition dates back to the first-ever football game between Yale and Princeton, which was held on Thanksgiving Day in 1876. Since then, watching football has become synonymous with Thanksgiving. It's interesting to think that one football game played in 1876 would have such a lasting impact on a seemingly unrelated holiday. Another tradition is the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade started in 1924.

Canada also celebrates Thanksgiving — but on a different day.

Our neighbors to the north also celebrate Thanksgiving, but they do so on a different day and for an unrelated reason. While American Thanksgiving pays homage to a feast between the pilgrims and the Native Americans, the Canadian celebration commemorates a meal of salt beef, biscuits and mushy peas, between English explorer Martin Frobisher and his crew after their successful sail from England to the Canadian territory (Nunavut) in 1578. Canadian Thanksgiving takes place on the second Monday of October every year.

That doesn't mean there are zero similarities between the two holidays. Both American and Canadian Thanksgiving menus often revolve around turkey, and revelers in both countries frequently spend the day watching football marathons and festive parades. In Canada, the biggest one is the Kitchener-Waterloo Oktoberfest Thanksgiving Day Parade.

A WEED ANGEL LIVES AMONG US

By Diane and Jim Cudnik

Hello to all our neighbors in CWC! we have a little story to tell you, well not really a story but a happening that is worth repeating.

Recently we received a violation letter from our office. Yes, fellow residents even the Board of Directors get violation letters when they deserve them. Along with the letter, the office sent a photo of the violation. Again, we are happy that the office is being so diligent in following our rules and enforcing them for the good of all of us.

When we looked at the photo, we could see that the weeds around our coach were getting quite out of hand. Now, that's not what our violation was for, so keep reading...

We thought we should do something about the weeds but Lo and Behold! There is an angel who walks among us. An actual Weed Angel who goes about quietly pulling weeds. We do not know who this person is. we do not know the motivation for pulling weeds they are not responsible for, nor do we wish to speculate. But we do find the need to say thanks.

We love this Park dearly and this is another reason why. You never know who walks among us, what kind souls are out there silently helping others.

Thank you very much, whoever you are – you made our day!

Thanksgiving
