NOVEMBER CALENDAR

November

Military Family Appreciation Month. Military families know what it means to serve. Every day, they get up and support their service members, standing by during long trainings and deployments. They know the risks, but they accept this life of service anyway. Throughout the month, families are honored and recognized for their commitment and contributions in support of our military and nation.

National Entrepreneurship Month. According to the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor, 27 million working-age Americans—nearly 14%—are running their own businesses, and a growing number of people are considering entrepreneurship as a career option, with 51% of the working population believing that good opportunities exist to branch out on their own.

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 26 people will be diagnosed with epilepsy at some point during their lifetime. Epilepsy is one of the least understood of all neurological diseases, yet it is the fourth most common. During November, many organizations join together to provide information about prevention, treatment, research, and resources to fight epilepsy.

National Runaway Prevention Month. National Runaway Prevention Month is a public awareness campaign designed to shine a light on the experiences of runaway and homeless youth, and an opportunity to spotlight the resources available to support youth in crisis throughout the nation. As part of the campaign, individuals, organizations, and communities nationwide work together to prevent youth homelessness.

WEEKLY

National Veterans Small Business Week, Nov. 1–5. Each year the U.S. Small Business Administration celebrates, connects, and empowers service members, veterans, National Guard and Reserve members, and military spouses during National Veterans Small Business Week.

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 7–14. There are approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States serving the estimated 6–8 million homeless animals that seek refuge each year, but only about half of those animals get adopted. The Humane Society of the United States celebrates National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week to honor animal shelters and the dedicated people who work to protect animals.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Nov. 13–21. Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is an annual program where people come together across the country to draw attention to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Participating groups spend the week holding a series of educational, service, fund-raising, and advocacy events.

Holiday spending looking up in 2021

If you're planning your holiday shopping, you may have lots of competition at the mall and online. A Roku and Harris Poll survey on consumer shopping trends in 2021 found that spending could hit new records this season, as consumers expect to increase their spending for the holiday season.

The survey found that 72% of holiday shoppers feel confident the economy will improve in the next 12 months. Thirty-six percent of consumers expect to spend more this year, the highest number reported since 2018. Holiday spending is expected to reach a record $937 per person on holiday purchases, a 5% increase from 2020.

In-store shopping may be coming back as well. Forty-three percent of respondents said they plan to shop in person on Black Friday and Cyber Monday, an 11% increase from 2020, when concerns about COVID-19 kept many shoppers at home. Online shopping isn't going away, though — 57% of consumers plan to do most of their shopping online.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

More than a few one-liners

Try these when you want to get a laugh during a lull in conversation:

- Where there's a will, I want to be in it.
- The last thing I want to do is hurt you, but it's still on my list.
- Light travels faster than sound, which is why some people appear bright until you hear them speak.
- I'd agree with you, but then we'd both be wrong.
- Knowledge is knowing the tomato is a fruit. Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.
- I thought I wanted a career. Turns out, I just wanted a paycheck.
- In filling out an application, where it says, "In case of emergency, notify _____" I always put, "DOCTOR."
- I didn't say it was your fault. I said I was blaming you.
- You're never too old to learn something stupid.
- Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.
- I'm supposed to respect my elders, but these days it's getting harder and harder for me to find one.

A bald promise

An old man who lived by a forest called his children to his deathbed.

He said, "Look at my hair. It used to be so magnificent, but I'm completely bald now." Then he gestured at the forest outside his window. "Now look at that forest. Someday all the trees will be cut down, and this forest will look as bald as my head. After I'm gone, every time a tree is cut down or dies, plant a new one in my memory. Tell your descendants to do the same. It shall be our family's duty to keep this forest strong."

And so for centuries, the forest remained as lush and pretty as ever—all because of one man and his re-seeding heirline.

I have always felt that laughter in the face of reality is probably the finest sound there is and will last until the day when the game is called on account of darkness. In this world, a good time to laugh is any time you can.
