December 2021 Social Club News

November is now past; clocks have been set back, and we are now in the Christmas season. November was a busy month trying to get the Social Club activities back on track. With new officers the activities outlined in our November notice might be changed. With a full committee we will be able to plan things to suit everyone's taste. Thank you for your patience.

November 13 was a coffee and donut activity and our "potluck" in November was an early Thanksgiving celebration. We are planning coffee and donuts on December 4 and 11. If our kitchen is fully open, we will be able to have carry-ins on December 2, 9, and 16. Because it is so late, we may have trouble acquiring entertainment for New Year's Eve, but we will certainly try. Our Christmas celebration will be on the 16th so that families may be together on Christmas Day.

Please remember to sign in for events in the green notebook. We will also have sheets for the hosts and hostesses to sign in for events. The red notebook was replaced as it was very dirty and falling apart.

Mary Ellen Coyne, Secretary, Social Club

HILLCREST LADIES FRIENDSHIP CLUB 2021-2022

The Friendship Club will meet for the first time this 2021-2022 season. We meet at 1 p.m. on the 2nd Tuesday each month and welcome all previous and hopefully new members. Our first meeting will be December 14, 2021. At each meeting we collect $1.00 from everyone attending and after the meeting we have coffee and cake, served by volunteer hostesses, unless there is a special event scheduled. Please consider joining and get to meet some of the other residents. Our last meeting was on March 11, 2020.

Christmas is coming...Ho ho ho

In defense of slacks

Author Rebecca Hains tells this women's rights story on Facebook:

Helen Hulick was called to court as a burglary witness in November 1938. The 29-year-old, an innovative educator who worked with deaf children, arrived in her usual attire of a top and slacks.

But seeing slacks on a woman so greatly offended Judge Arthur S. Guerin that he would not allow Hulick to testify. Instead, he rescheduled her testimony and ordered her to wear a dress at her next appearance.

She refused. When she appeared in slacks once more, the judge chastised her for both attire and what he perceived as problems with her demeanor, and threatened to cite her with contempt of court.

The Los Angeles Times quoted her response: "Listen, I've worn slacks since I was 15. I don't own a dress except a formal. If he wants me to appear in a formal gown that's okay with me. I'll come back in slacks and if he puts me in jail, I hope it will help to free women forever of anti-slackism."

Hulick returned to court wearing slacks. She also brought her attorney, William Katz, who came armed with citations supporting her argument that she had the right to appear in the attire of her choice.

Judge Guerin held her in contempt of court nevertheless, sentencing her to five days in jail. As Hulick's story gained attention, hundreds of supporters sent letters of protest. Finally, the appellate division court overturned Judge Guerin's contempt citation.

Hulick continued to do amazing work. In 1985, Lafayette College awarded her an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree "for her work as teacher, scientist, and pioneer in the field of auditory therapy." In 1988, the Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf awarded her the organization's highest tribute, Honors of the Association.

We construct a narrative for ourselves, and that's the thread that we follow from one day to the next. People who disintegrate as personalities are the ones who lose that thread.

DECEMBER DAYS

World AIDS Day, Dec. 1. An international day dedicated to raising awareness of AIDS and mourning those who have died of the disease.

National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, Dec. 7. Survivors, veterans, and visitors from all over the world come together to honor and remember the 2,403 service members and civilians who were killed during the attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941.

Human Rights Day, Dec. 10. On this day in 1948, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, proclaiming the inalienable rights everyone is entitled to as a human being regardless of race, color, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth, or other status.

National Sobriety Day, Dec. 11. Celebrate the wonder of being fully awake to life and its joys.

Christmas, Dec. 25. Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ with songs, food, gifts, and family togetherness.

Life without a partner is a growing trend

Living without a spouse or partner is becoming more common these days, according to the Pew Research Center. Its analysis of census data found that in 2019, 38% of adults 25–54 were neither married nor living with a partner. That’s a jump from 29% in 1990.

The trend is driven mostly by the decline in marriage among adults of prime working age. More of them are cohabiting, but that doesn’t offset the drop in marriage. The unpartnered population does include adults who were previously married and are now separated, divorced, or widowed, but the growth of the unpartnered population since 1990 comes from an increase in the number of adults who have never been married at all.

Not having a spouse or partner can have negative effects for people: Unpartnered adults earn less money on average, and are more likely to be unemployed or economically dependent on others. They’re more likely to live with their parents and have a lower level of education, and some research suggests that they experience more health problems than their coupled counterparts.

DECEMBER CALENDAR

National Drunk and Drugged Driving Prevention Month. December is a month of fun, parties, and drinks with family and friends. Just remember to drink responsibly. The holiday season has a higher accident rate than others on average, so it's important to be in a proper state behind the wheel.

National Pear Month. A medium pear has six grams of fiber, which equals about 24% of the recommended daily value. Pears are also hypoallergenic, and they contain pectin, an essential water-soluble fiber that binds to cholesterol and removes it from the body, making pears an excellent choice for anyone with high cholesterol.

Safe Toys and Gifts Month. Accidents will always happen, but Safe Toys and Gifts Month is the perfect opportunity to review some basic safety advice and brush up on your knowledge about buying safe, appropriate toys and knowing what to do should you discover a potential hazard.

Worldwide Food Service Safety Month. December marks Worldwide Food Service Safety Month, established to remind everyone, from the professional food service industry to cooks at home around the world, that food safety is of supreme importance.

WEEKLY

National Handwashing Awareness Week, Dec 5–11. Proper handwashing is more important than ever these days. Remember to wash your hands when they are dirty and before eating, don't cough or sneeze into your hands, and above all, don't put your fingers into your eyes, nose, or mouth.

Older Driver Safety Awareness Week, Dec. 6–10. Older Driver Safety Awareness Week aims to promote understanding of the importance of mobility and transportation to ensure that older adults can remain active in the community—shopping, working, or volunteering—and not stranded at home.

Computer Science Education Week, Dec. 6–12. Computer Science Education Week is an annual call to action to inspire K–12 students to learn computer science, advocate for equity in computer science education, and celebrate the contributions of students, teachers, and partners to the field.

Kwanzaa, Dec. 26–Jan. 1. Created by Dr. Maulana Karenga, professor and chairman of Black Studies at California State University, Long Beach in 1966, Kwanzaa is an annual weeklong celebration designed to give Black people an opportunity to celebrate themselves and their history.

Words of wisdom

Here are some random observations about life:

- To me, “drinking responsibly” means not spilling it.
- The older I get, the earlier it gets late.
- It’s the start of a brand-new day, and I’m off—like a herd of turtles.
- When I say, “the other day,” I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.
- I had my patience tested. I’m negative.
- I finally got eight hours of sleep. It took me three days.
- When you lose a sock in the dryer, it comes back as a Tupperware lid that doesn’t fit any of your containers.
- I hate when a couple argues in public, and I didn’t hear the beginning so I don’t know whose side I’m on.
- When someone asks what I did over the weekend, I like to say, “Why, what did you hear?”
- When you ask what I’m doing today and I say, “Nothing,” it doesn’t mean I’m free. It means I’m doing nothing.

What Tom said, humorously

Remember “Tom Swifties”? Here are a few to amuse your friends:

- “I’d like to stop by the mausoleum,” Tom said cryptically.
- “We just struck oil!” Tom gushed.
- “Get to the rear of the ship!” Tom said sternly.
- “I have no flowers,” Tom said lackadaisically.
- “I forgot what I needed at the store,” Tom said listlessly.
- “I want my money back, and then some,” Tom said with interest.
- “I decided to come back to the group,” Tom rejoined.
- “I love hot dogs,” Tom said with relish.

Laughter is a form of internal jogging. It moves your internal organs around. It enhances respiration. It is an igniter of great expectations.

Woman of her word

An old woman told her husband that if he walked across the wet kitchen floor after she mopped it one more time, she was going to shoot him.

One day she mopped the kitchen floor, and when her husband came home he did it again, getting the kitchen floor dirty and tracking water into the living room. Without a word the woman got his pistol from a drawer and shot him as he sat in his recliner.

Then she called 911. “I told my husband that if he walked through the kitchen after I mopped it, I would shoot him. He didn’t listen and I just shot him.”

Emergency dispatch immediately sent an ambulance for the husband and a squad car for the wife. The chief of police heard about the call and drove to the house. When he got there his officers were still waiting outside.

“What’s going on?” he demanded. “Why haven’t you gone inside and arrested that woman?”

“Sir, we can’t go in now,” one of the officers said. “The kitchen floor is still wet.”

A likely story

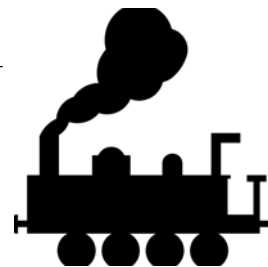

Rosie bought a build-it-yourself cabinet from her local hardware store. At home, she read the instructions carefully and assembled it in the bedroom. However, Rosie and her husband lived near a railway line, and when the train passed by, the cabinet collapsed.

She reassembled the cabinet. Another train passed and the cabinet collapsed again. Rosie phoned the hardware store, and the manager sent out a handyman. He reassembled the cabinet while Rosie went out to the grocery store. When the next train went by, it fell apart again.

Baffled, the handyman rebuilt the cabinet yet again and decided to sit inside it to see what was making it fall apart. He was sitting there when Rosie’s husband came home early, went upstairs to his bedroom, and saw the cabinet. Puzzled, the husband opened it up and found the handyman.

“Hey! What are you doing in my bedroom?” he demanded.

The handyman said, “Would you believe I’m waiting for a train?”

We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh.

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.
