Hi all:

“To live in hearts, we leave behind is not to die.” ~ Thomas Campbell

We are all feeling the big loss of three amazing people from our Riviera Family but will cherish our memories of them always.

Well, the border is open, and the Snowbirds are flocking back. I'm sure you have noticed a buzz of activity in the park. I'm looking forward to meeting the many new people to Riviera.

The Riviera Soggy Bottom Band will be gearing up, Golf, euchre, Pancake Breakfast, Parties...

Lots of options

News Flash: John and I will be joining the very exclusive Club in April. We will become grandparents!!!

Hope everyone is doing well.

Take care of each other and stay safe.

Best regards,

Debbie

RIVIERA ESTATES – FROM THE OFFICE

Mike Richards, Community Manager

To: Residents at Riviera Estates

Date: 10-20-21

Dear Community,

I had a few more phone calls this week from some of our friends up north who are making plans to join us. Safer activities are things we can do outside. For your own safety you should spend your winter with us here in Clearwater. Sunsets at the beach are free and safe.

SALES- Did you know that our average home sale for 14 used homes this year is up to $46,400? Homes with new roof, flooring, windows, AC, and kitchen are bringing our sales way up. Fixer uppers are getting $10,000 to $25,000. Let me know if you are ready to sell your home.

See our listings at; <https://www.mystatemls.com/profiles/us/134453/>

Community Activities- We now have pool aerobics. Nice to see you all planning new things. You make this a great community. You have the choice to join in or even plan something new.

Making Our Community Look Great- Some of you are above and beyond my expectations for making the outside of your home look so good. Your hard work is making things nice for everyone.

I am here Monday – Friday, 9am – 4pm. Let me know how I can help.

Sincerely,

Mike Richards

Community Manager

HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION REPORT December 2021

A long with cooler days, we welcome back our wonderful neighbor's aka... Snowbirds! We resumed normal operations of the Riviera Estates Mobile Homeowners Association on 6 November. Since we suspended meetings and HOA dues in 2020-21, we had to basically start fresh with membership. We had a great meeting and signed up 29 coaches. This is great because we really needed some members in good standing to have a vote for board members in December. We are expecting to sign up more at the next meeting. If you need to pay dues, please come about 15 minutes early.

The meeting will be in the Clubhouse, 4 December at 11:00 am.

Your attendance is important!!!

We will be voting to fill 4 open seats on the Executive Board. We did not have an election committee this year to identify candidates, so the ballot will allow for write in candidates along with the names of the people currently filling these positions on an interim basis, should they decide to run. After the election the new board members will take the Oath of Office and we will continue with the normal business meeting to include old and new business.

Lavonna Csutoras

Riviera Mobile Homeowners Association, Interim President

December Fun Facts

December is known around the world as a family time of celebration honoring cultures, religions and traditions that have been with humanity for hundreds of years. See below for a mix of the weird and wonderful facts about this magical month!

1. An almanac prediction states that if snow falls on Christmas Day, Easter will be warm, green, and sunny.
2. The term Yuletide comes from a Norse tradition of cutting and burning a tree to bring in the Winter Solstice. This was to last through 12 days – later known as the 12 days of Christmas.
3. December 12th is Poinsettia Day.
4. Saint Nickolas, who would eventually be called Santa Claus, was originally the patron saint of children, thieves, and pawnbrokers!
5. December 28th is considered by some to be the unluckiest day of the year.
6. The first artificial Christmas tree was made in Germany, fashioned out of goose feathers that are dyed green!
7. Spiders and spider webs are considered good luck on Christmas.
8. Common decorations on a Christmas tree each have their specific meanings. Candles – the light of the world, the Star at the top is a reminder of the first Christmas night and Candy canes are to represent the Shepherd’s cane.
9. “Jingle bells” was composed in 1857, and not for Christmas – it was meant to be a Thanksgiving song!
10. An ancient legend states that forest animals can speak in human language on Christmas Eve!

Hale Activity Center, 330 Douglas Ave, Dunedin, FL, 34698

More info: https://dunedinyouthguild.org/?page_id=189

On Saturday, December 4, 2021, the Dunedin Youth Guild will host the 52nd Annual Holiday Tour of Homes. This year's theme is "Let's Get Together – One Way or Another" and reflects the new way that everyone socially interacts with each other. Our four Dunedin homes, four RV's and two PODS (alternative housing), and the Dunedin Fine Art Center are all included in this year's tour. The locations on this year's tour really showcase what our beautiful town is all about ... keeping traditions alive while still maintaining a healthy respect for all the changes that have occurred in the past two years.

Don't forget to save time for a visit to the Holiday Tea included in the ticket price. Join us for delicious holiday cookies served with a cup of hot tea or coffee while chatting with friends and browsing our vendors and boutique tables. The vendor and boutique areas are a wonderful spot to begin your holiday shopping for unique, one-of-a-kind presents for family and friends.

During his retirement years in Florida, he enjoyed playing golf, shuffleboard, and numerous road trips on his Harley motorcycle. Gary recently checked off his bucket list to skydive, when he did his first tandem jump that he loved so much he signed up to jump from a higher altitude.

Gary is survived by his wife of 40 years, Connie (Campbell) Russell; son Todd Russell-USAF-Retired.

Diana's Words of Wisdom:

Never make fun of someone who speaks broken English.
It means they know another language.

When he wanted to take her picture, he didn't tell her to smile, but told her, "I love you" and her smile was more beautiful.

If you don't like where you are, move. You are not a tree.

How to stop time: kiss

How to travel in time: read

How to escape time: music

The ability to speak several languages is an asset, but the ability to keep your mouth shut in any language is priceless.

You may not feel strong but in someone's eyes you are their comfort and strength.

If you take care of things, they last.

Be decisive. Right or wrong, make a decision. The road of life is paved with flat squirrels who couldn't make a decision.

Never make a woman mad. They can remember stuff that hasn't even happened yet.

Behind every angry woman, stands a man who has absolutely no idea what he did wrong!

Despite the old saying, "Don't take your troubles to bed," many women still sleep with their husbands.

A wise man once said nothing.

Most of the things you worry about won't even happen, so relax.

May you always have: Love to share, Cash to spare, Tires with air,

And friends who care🙏

AMEN 🙏

From Claudi's Kitchen:

Christmas Shortbread Cookies

With only a few ingredients, these Christmas Shortbread Cookies are a simple and delicious addition to your holiday baking!

Prep Time 10 minutes

Cook Time 10 minutes

Additional Time 30 minutes

Total Time 50 minutes

Ingredients:

- 1 cup unsalted butter, room temperature
- 1/4 cup plus 3 tablespoons powdered sugar
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract, optional
- 2-1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons red and green nonpareils

1. In a large bowl, add in the butter, powdered sugar, granulated sugar, and vanilla if you're using it.
2. Beat on medium with an electric mixer until creamed.
3. Add in the flour, salt, and nonpareils. Mix until the flour is incorporated and a stiff cookie dough forms.
4. Divide the cookie dough into 2 pieces and press the dough flat. Wrap each piece in plastic wrap and place in the refrigerator for at least 30 minutes to chill.
5. Preheat the oven to 350°F. Line a cookie sheet with parchment paper or a silicone mat.
6. Roll the dough out to 1/4-inch thickness on a lightly floured surface. Cut out your cookies and place them on the prepared cookie sheet.
7. Bake for 10 to 13 minutes or until the edges are golden brown. (See notes)
8. Let the cookies cool for 5 to 10 minutes on the cookie sheet and then transfer to a wire rack to cool completely.
9. Store in an airtight container at room temperature.

Notes

Yield: varies Prep Time 10 minutes Cook Time 10 minutes Additional Time 30 minutes
Total Time 50 minutes

The bake time can vary depending on the size of your cookie cutter. I recommend keeping an eye on the cookies at the 8-minute mark.

Feel free to add a drizzle of melted chocolate for added pizzazz.

You don't need cookie cutters for this recipe! You can use a knife and cut the cookie dough into sticks, rectangles, or square shapes.

To freeze dough:

You can wrap the dough in a couple of plastic wrap layers and then a layer of aluminum foil and place them in large freezer-safe zip top bags for up to three months. When you are ready to bake, thaw the frozen dough overnight in the refrigerator before using it.

To freeze baked cookies:

Be sure the cookies are cooled completely before freezing! Line the bottom of an airtight freezer-safe container with freezer paper. Arrange an even layer of shortbread across the container's bottom, making sure the cookies do not overlap. Place another piece of freezer paper on top of the first layer.

Add more cookies in an even layer, and cover with freezer paper. Repeat this process of layering until you fill-up the entire container. Ensure the top layer of shortbread is completely covered by the freezer paper, then cover it securely with the lid. Freeze for up to six months.

To serve, allow the cookies to thaw to room temperature.

Blue.... Throat Chakra

BLUE CHAKRA

The 5th chakra is the throat chakra and the 1st of the higher centers-associated with communication, self expression, and creativity through sound. It is about personal expression combined with responsibility. Developing the throat chakra means choosing words that bring value to communication.

In addition to sound, this chakra relates to hearing. It is sad that active listening is neglected in today society, and we need to develop the outer ear before the inner ear can be available to us.

By reacquainting yourself regularly with this chakra chart as a prelude to the section on the throat chakra, you will help to keep your mind focused on related issues, including the importance of expressing your emotion and communicating your truth to yourself and others.

Mastering the throat chakra helps us grasp the importance of purifying ourselves by honestly recognizing how we feel and having the confidence to communicate those emotions to others.

CHAKRA CHARACTERISTICS: See which of the following characteristics of excessive (too open), deficient (blocked) and balanced chakra energy you can relate to-and then determine (should you choose) to take the necessary action, using the tools and techniques given here.

TOO OPEN (chakra spins too fast) over talkative, dogmatic, self righteous, arrogant.

BLOCKED (chakra spins sluggishly or not at all) holds back from self-expression, unreliable, holds inconsistent views.

BALANCED (chakra maintains equilibrium and spins at correct vibrational speed) good communication, contented, finds it easy to meditate, artistically inspired.

The throat chakra is located centrally at the base of the neck.

The next time that you meet someone that seems to have trouble expressing themselves, see if their chin is held down, hiding the throat area in a childlike manner. This shows that this person is vulnerable in the 5th throat chakra. Such people must frequently clear their throat because it feels like it is being choked by the truths they are having to swallow. They may speak in an unexpectedly dull, monotonous tone. They may attempt to contribute to group discussions, but because of inarticulation or lack of enthusiasm they are frequently not "heard" by others. These are all clues to a dysfunctional throat chakra.

In its extreme form the negative archetype associated with the throat chakra is the masked self. Here we have someone incapable of opening and honestly expressing feelings. They may wish to refuse an unreasonable (or reasonable) request but say "yes" anyway. Anger and frustration then build up, further blocking the throat chakra, which may manifest itself physically as sore throat, glandular fever, stiff neck, and thyroid problems. The silence is not from lack of communication but lack of truthful expression. By contrast, communicators "walk their talk". They often have wonderful speaking voices which others enjoy listening to.

Communicators recognize their desire to express their hurt or anger but do so in such a way that it doesn't diminish the other person. They integrate both heart and mind in their communication with others.

Exercises for the throat chakra: For a lot of us the neck tends to be one of the areas in which we suffer from stiffness and tension due to stress and poor posture. If this area is hindered in any way stagnancy and blockages occur which also contribute to rigidity in the neck area. These inverted yoga poses help loosen the neck and stimulate the thyroid gland associated with the throat chakra.

1. Use a wall for support. Start off by sitting next to the wall.
2. Raise your legs so that they are flat against the wall and lie back with your butt against the wall.

Key crystals for the throat chakra are Turquoise, Sodalite, Lapis Lazuli, Celestite and Aquamarine.

Meditations for the throat chakra:

1. Sit or lie comfortably and breath slowly and deeply through your nose.
2. Tense each set of muscles in turn, from your feet to your head. Feel yourself sink heavily into the floor or chair.
3. Now focus on you lower head and neck and imagine a beautiful blue mist washing inside your mouth.... bathing your throat cavity.... swirling around your ears.... caressing your neck..... gliding over your tongue.... relaxing your jaw.....so that the area becomes free.
4. Be aware of any tension and draw the attention of the blue mist to that area so it can be released.

5. Be aware of your breathing and allow each inhalation to increase the intensity of the blue mist. Each exhalation is to spread the blue mist throughout your throat, mouth, tongue, ears, and neck.... strengthening each area.... allowing you to speak your truth....to express your feelings honestly, openly with compassion to yourself and others.
6. As you continue to sense the blue mist swirling around your throat chakra think of the words "I want" and "I need". What do you want? What do you need? You have the right to have your requests listened to with respect and patience.
7. Determine to speak out for yourself in some way every day.
8. Know that by meditating on this beautiful mist daily, you will strengthen and support your throat chakra and move towards a time when your needs and wants are listened to....and met.... because you have within you everything you need to meet those needs for yourself. By accepting this you will find that others will support and honor them.
