President's Message

Cindy Sadusky, Lot #14

As we begin the final month of the 2021 I would like to wish everyone a happy holiday season. No matter the holiday that you celebrate may your days be filled with fun and laughter, good health, and joyous times with your family and friends.

Here in Island In the Sun we have quite a few activities to help us celebrate the season and hopefully you will find 1, or 2, or 3 to partake in. Tree Trimming Party, Christmas Cheer Crawl, Golf Cart Parade, and a New Year's Eve party to ring in 2022. I can't wait to see everyone!

I have met many new people this year, and have made some wonderful new friends. To them, and to all of you I say:

Hanukkah Sameach!
Joyous Kwanzaa!
Merry Christmas!

Christmas

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, observed primarily on December 25 as a religious and cultural celebration among billions of people around the world. A feast central to the Christian liturgical year, it is preceded by the season of Advent or the Nativity Fast and initiates the season of Christmastide, which historically in the West lasts twelve days and culminates on Twelfth Night. Christmas Day is a public holiday in many countries, is celebrated religiously by a majority of Christians, as well as culturally by many non-Christians, and forms an integral part of the holiday season organized around it.

The traditional Christmas narrative, the Nativity of Jesus, delineated in the New Testament says that Jesus was born in Bethlehem, in accordance with messianic prophecies.[18] When Joseph and Mary arrived in the city, the inn had no room and so they were offered a stable where the Christ Child was soon born, with angels proclaiming this news to shepherds who then spread the word.

Although the month and date of Jesus' birth are unknown, the church in the early fourth century fixed the date as December 25. This corresponds to the date of the winter solstice on the Roman calendar. It is exactly nine months after Annunciation on March 25, also the date of the spring equinox. Most Christians celebrate on December 25 in the Gregorian calendar, which has been adopted almost universally in the civil calendars used in countries throughout the world. However, part of the Eastern Christian Churches celebrate Christmas on December 25 of the older Julian calendar, which currently corresponds to January 7 in the Gregorian calendar. For Christians, believing that God came into the world in the form of man to atone for the sins of humanity, rather than knowing Jesus' exact birth date, is considered to be the primary purpose in celebrating Christmas.

The celebratory customs associated in various countries with Christmas have a mix of pre-Christian, Christian, and secular themes and origins.[27] Popular modern customs of the holiday include gift giving; completing an Advent calendar or Advent wreath; Christmas music and caroling; viewing a Nativity play; an exchange of Christmas cards; church services; a special meal; and the display of various Christmas decorations, including Christmas trees, Christmas lights, nativity scenes, garlands, wreaths, mistletoe, and holly. In addition, several closely related and often interchangeable figures, known as Santa Claus, Father Christmas, Saint Nicholas, and Christkind, are associated with bringing gifts to children during the Christmas season and have their own body of traditions and lore. Because gift-giving and many other aspects of the Christmas festival involve heightened economic activity, the holiday has become a significant event and a key sales period for retailers and businesses. The economic impact of Christmas has grown steadily over the past few centuries in many regions of the world.

Kwanzaa

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Kwanzaa (/ˈkwɑːn.zə/) is an annual celebration of African-American culture that is held from December 26 to January 1, culminating in a communal feast called Karamu, usually held on the 6th day. It was created by Maulana Karenga, based on African harvest festival traditions from various parts of Africa, including West and Southeast Africa. Kwanzaa was first celebrated in 1966.

History and etymology

American Maulana Karenga created Kwanzaa in 1966 during the aftermath of the Watts riots[2] as a specifically African-American holiday. Karenga said his goal was to "give blacks an alternative to the existing holiday of Christmas and give blacks an opportunity to celebrate themselves and their history, rather than simply imitate the practice of the dominant society." For Karenga, a major figure in the Black Power movement of the 1960s and 1970s, the creation of such holidays also underscored the essential premise that "you must have a cultural revolution before the violent revolution. The cultural revolution gives identity, purpose, and direction."

According to Karenga, the name Kwanzaa derives from the Swahili phrase matunda ya kwanza, meaning "first fruits". First fruits festivals exist in Southern Africa, celebrated in December/January with the southern solstice, and Karenga was partly inspired by an account he read of the Zulu festival Umkhosi Wokweshwama. It was decided to spell the holiday's name with an additional "a" so that it would have a symbolic seven letters.

During the early years of Kwanzaa, Karenga said it was meant to be an alternative to Christmas. He believed Jesus was psychotic and Christianity was a "White" religion that Black people should shun.[10] As Kwanzaa gained mainstream adherents, Karenga altered his position so practicing Christians would not be alienated, stating in the 1997 book Kwanzaa: A Celebration of Family, Community, and Culture that "Kwanzaa was not created to give people an alternative to their own religion or religious holiday." Many African Americans who celebrate Kwanzaa do so in addition to observing Christmas.

After its initial creation in California, Kwanzaa spread outside the United States.

Observances

A woman lighting kinara candles for Kwanzaa

Families celebrating Kwanzaa decorate their households with objects of art, colorful African cloth such as kente, especially the wearing of kaftans by women, and fresh fruits that represent African idealism. It is customary to include children in Kwanzaa ceremonies and to give respect and gratitude to ancestors. Libations are shared, generally with a common chalice, Kikombe cha Umoja, passed around to all celebrants. Non-African Americans also celebrate Kwanzaa.

The holiday greeting is "Joyous Kwanzaa".

A Kwanzaa ceremony may include drumming and musical selections, libations, a reading of the African Pledge and the Principles of Blackness, reflection on the Pan-African colors, a discussion of the African principle of the day or a chapter in African history, a candle-lighting ritual, artistic performance, and, finally, a feast of faith (Karamu Ya Imani). The greeting for each day of Kwanzaa is Habari Gani?, which is Swahili for "How are you?"

At first, observers of Kwanzaa avoided the mixing of the holiday or its symbols, values, and practice with other holidays, as doing so would violate the principle of kujichagulia (self-determination) and thus violate the integrity of the holiday, which is partially intended as a reclamation of important African values. Today, some African American families celebrate Kwanzaa along with Christmas and New Year.

Hanukkah is observed for eight nights and days, starting on the 25th day of Kislev according to the Hebrew calendar, which may occur at any time from late November to late December in the Gregorian calendar. The festival is observed by lighting the candles of a candelabrum with nine branches, called a menorah (or hanukkiyah). One branch is typically placed above or below the others and its candle is used to light the other eight candles. This unique candle is called the shamash (Hebrew: שָׁמַשׁ "attendant"). Each night, one additional candle is lit by the shamash until all eight candles are lit together on the final night of the festival. Other Hanukkah festivities include singing Hanukkah songs, playing the game of dreidel and eating oil-based foods, such as latkes and sufganiyot, and dairy foods. Since the 1970s, the worldwide Chabad Hasidic movement has initiated public menorah lightings in open public places in many countries.

Although a relatively minor holiday in strictly religious terms, Hanukkah has attained major cultural significance in North America and elsewhere, especially among secular Jews, due to its occurring around the same time as Christmas.

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Our resident spotlight this month is on Gert and Jack Oosterhuis, Lot 71 on Bahama.

They have been snowbirds here at IITS for 7 years. The other half of their year is spent in their home in Orillia, Ontario in a condo close to Lake Couchiching.

Gert was born in Holland and immigrated to Canada with her mother and 7 siblings in 1956. Young Gert remembers flying from Holland to Montreal, Canada and then taking the train to Union Station in Toronto.

Jack was born in Newmarket, Ontario. When his parents were just children, their family immigrated to Holland Marsh in Canada in 1928.

Gert and Jack met each other at a church function in 1965. They have been married for 55 years and have 3 sons and 6 grandchildren, all living in Canada.

Jack retired from a career in accounting. Gert retired from retail and volunteer work.

Jack played hockey and baseball and is now still a huge fan. Go Maple Leafs!

Gert's hobbies include crafts, painting, cooking, baking, and entertaining.

Gert is the Chair for the upcoming CanAm event in February.

This social and fun loving couple can be seen at the pool most days and attending events here at IITS.

Curious how to find out what is happening at IITS?

Submitted by Marilyn Babcock, Lot 161

As there are many new neighbors here at Island on the Sun, I thought I would take a minute to let you know about the various ways you can stay abreast of the meetings and activities taking place in the park.

There are 2 Facebook pages:

1. The Official Island in the Sun HOA - this page contains information about HOA related issues.
2. Island in the Sun Social Group - this group has information about activities taking place in our community and provides notifications.

The Island in the Sun Sentinel, also known as the media, is delivered by fellow neighbors monthly. It contains information about the community and articles of general interest.

The marquee as you enter the park has up-coming events. If sign-up is required, the form will be in the clubhouse on the table straight ahead as you enter.

The HOA meeting for all residents takes place on the first Tuesday of the month at 7 PM. HOA meetings will resume on September 7 in the Clubhouse. By the way, if you have not already done so, please join the HOA. Current dues for a 2 person household are $20.00 annually. See any Board Member at the HOA meetings or in the community for membership.

There is also a Robocall, placed by Mike Malliet, for upcoming events. If you wish to be on the list to receive these calls, please send Mike an email at: mmal1974@yahoo.com. Please include your Name, Lot number and full telephone number including area code. Be aware some carriers have auto-blocking for numbers. If you add 1-877-333-9336 to your contacts the call will go through without issue. If you do not have access to email, please see any board member and we will be happy to forward your information to Mike.

I hope this has helped our new neighbors. Our community is warm and welcoming. Glad you joined the IITS family!

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY CHEER CRAWL DECEMBER 18

Submitted by Jill Norwick

Happy Holidays Neighbors!

We would like to invite everyone in the Island in the Sun to participate in Christmas Holiday Cheer Crawl! The neighborhood Halloween Trick or Treat event went so well we have had many requests to have another event but with Christmas Cheer in mind.

Please contact Jill @ 727-243-4592 (phone or text) or email me at jillnorwick@yahoo.com for a time slot of 30 minutes for your time at your home & what type of Christmas Cheer you will be offering so we don't have repeats. Neighbors this will be on 12/18/21 from 5:00pm to 10:00 pm. Please list your name, phone #, time frame, & your treat.

Again, please be flexible for your time slots for we are trying to do blocks for those closest to each other for convenience and for everyone to enjoy.

Just as an example: Jim & Jill Lot 253 5pm with spiked punch and rum balls. Or a finger food.

After having the Halloween event we have learned a few things to share:

1. Please be on time to each lot/Host for the host to be able to go to the next destination.
2. If you are a smoker, please have an area for you to smoke and place the cigarettes butts properly away.
3. If you are hosting, please make sure you have a trash can for waste.
4. If you need to sit (like my Jim) bring a lawn chair.
5. We do not know how many will be participating so if your Holiday Cheer item runs out...it runs out.

Elisa Thomas will be taking pictures for this event to post.

Please make sure you have reserved a time with me so I can post a map of for those who are hosting.

This information will need to reach me by 12/11/2021.

This will be the first time for Christmas like this in Island in the Sun. Let's spread the Holiday Cheer and let's be Merry!!

Hope you all will participate for we are looking forward to another successful event!

This is not an HOA event.

Happy Holidays!!
