PRESIDENT'S PODIUM....

Nominations have arrived.

Our Executive meeting will be held February 1st, 10am at the clubhouse.

Our Annual/Membership meeting will be February 3rd, 9am. Our nominating committee will be accepting the last of the nominations for the Board of Officers, once this meeting is adjourned, nominations will be closed. Members are encouraged to attend. If you want to run for an office and serve as a Board member for the up coming year, you must fill out a nomination/pre-qualification form and place your name on the list of positions provided at the clubhouse. The nominating committee has the forms available.

Nominations can be taken off the floor at this meeting, providing the member is present to accept the nomination and meets the qualifications for the position.

We have many activities planned this month, please enjoy them all.

Nancy Labbe

VICE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCEMENT

---

Hello my fellow neighbors. I would like to inform everyone on how the Nominations are conducted.

Please review the following:

The nominating committee chairman was appointed by me, the chairman has selected 3 members of the HOA membership. The members chosen are in good standings and not running for an Executive office. The committee constructed and posted a list of all the Executive Offices on a standard piece of paper with enough ample room to the right side of each title for the members who wish to place their names for that office. The list is posted in a common place (Clubhouse). Eligibility forms have been received and verified to date.

Eligible candidates are Property Owners/Lease Holders (name appears on the Title/Lease) and are of enough age as described per office they are running for. Only one (1) candidate per Mobile (dual ownership) is allowed on the ballot for any position. No candidate can run for more than one (1) position. No one has written the name of any other member for any office with or without consent.

Nominations can/will be taken off the floor at our Annual February 3rd meeting, providing the member is present and accepts the nomination, and can prove at that time eligibility. A nominee may remove his/her name after the closing provided the following are met; must present a signed letter in writing or print to any nominating committee chairperson prior to the election.

Campaigning is allowed and limited to only social activities or events held by the HOA membership. The use of propoganda however shall not be used for campaigning. Slandering, defacing, or any inappropriate conduct toward your opponent or any member will not be tolerated and can/will have you removed from the nominations.

Any questions, please let me know. Thank you

Debra Delphi

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP PARTY

Are you ready for some FOOTBALL? Come to the Clubhouse and watch the 2 teams battle it out on the gridiron for the Best in the NFL. Who will win, is your favorite team even playing, who will be the MVP? SO many questions, but we will find out, Sunday February 13th @ 6pm. There will be a Flyer with more details coming your way.

TRIVIA NIGHT

This is Trivia... How well do you know the 50's, 60's and 70's? Come test your knowledge and use your teams Brain Power to beat your opponents. This will be in teams, so more brains means more opportunities. Cost to play is cheap, and all funds returned to winning team. Music, Art, TV, Movies, General Knowledge... all from the Decades you can remember...or can you? Starts at 6pm Saturday the 19th.

TEXAS HOLD EM

You have to know when to hold them, know when to fold them. Do you have a great Poker Face? If you think you do, then try your odds and fool your opponents. Texas Hold 'Em every Sunday night @ 7pm

Mah Jong

Every Tuesday at 1pm. Not sure how to play? Come on in, sit and learn, they will love to show you how.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Are you bored! Grab a neighbor and enjoy our courts. Slide your puck down the aisle but remember stay out of the Kitchen! Join in on the Fun every Wednesday morning 11am.

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Find the sweet spot

Some people know exactly what they want to do with their lives at an early age. Not Rebecca Stephens. The first British woman to summit Mount Everest came to mountaineering in her late 20s, after graduate school and years of working as a journalist.

A magazine assigned her to cover an expedition to the Himalayas. There she realized that her true goal in life was to climb to the peak of the highest mountain in the world. So she quit her job and spent years working to fund a climbing expedition. The fear of dedicating herself to such a goal without a job, during a recession, and with a mortgage to pay was daunting, but she didn't let it stop her from pursuing her dream.

Since reaching the peak in 1993, Stephens has gone on to summit the "Seven Sisters," the highest peaks on every continent. Her advice to people still looking for their calling? "Don't panic. It's OK to explore. It's OK to try different things," she tells the Insider website. "It's a question of finding the sweet spot. But quite often if you follow what it is that really fulfills and interests you, the rest falls into place."

Still a champion

Charlie Boswell was an all-American athlete who was offered professional contracts in both football and baseball. But when WWII erupted, Charlie enlisted in the military and was assigned to a tank division.

During a battle in Europe, a shell hit Charlie's tank. As the tank burned, he made sure everyone else got out safely, but then a second shell hit, throwing him 50 feet, breaking his bones and burning his body.

After a weeklong coma, Charlie woke up in a hospital and learned that he'd be blind for the rest of his life. Refusing to be discouraged, he worked hard at his rehabilitation, learning to live in a world of darkness.

One day a friend came to visit him. "Would you like to play some golf?" he asked.

"How in the world can I hit a golf ball when I can't even see it?" Charlie asked, but the friend was persistent. He took Charlie to a golf course, showed him how to hold and swing a club, and let him hit the ball.

Charlie's first drive traveled 200 yards straight down the fairway.

Charlie began training, and slowly his abilities improved. Ultimately Charlie won a world championship, shooting a 38 on nine holes.

The moral, as the Conscious Panda website puts it: There is always an alternate route if you just have the will to find it.

Entrance requirement

A Sunday School teacher was testing the children in her class to see if they understood the concept of getting to heaven. She asked them, “If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale, and gave all my money to the church, would that get me into heaven?”

“No!” the children answered.

“If I cleaned the church every day, mowed the yard, and kept everything neat and tidy, would that get me into heaven?”

Again, the answer was, “No!”

“Well, then, if I was kind to animals and gave candy to all the children, and loved my husband, would that get me into heaven?” she asked.

Again, they all answered, “No!”

Bursting with pride, she asked, “Then how can I get into heaven?”

A five-year-old boy shouted out, “You have to be dead!”

Drawn to the light

A man walked into a brain surgeon’s office in the hospital. “Can I help you?” the surgeon asked.

“I keep thinking that I’m a moth,” the man replied.

“Well, you probably want to see a psychiatrist for that,” he said. “I’m a brain surgeon.”

“Yeah, I know,” he replied.

The surgeon looked confused. “Then why are you here?”

“The light was on.”

Divine intervention

After starting a new diet, a man altered his commute to work to avoid driving past his favorite bakery. One day he accidentally drove by the bakery and saw in the window a wide selection of chocolates, donuts, and cheesecakes.

The man prayed. “Lord, it’s up to you. If you want me to have any of those delicious goodies, create a parking place for me directly in front of the bakery.”

And sure enough, he found a space on the eighth time around the block.

Job interview

---

A man goes in for a job interview. The manager asks him, "What do you think is your worst quality?"

The man says, "I'm probably too honest."
"That's not a bad thing," the manager says. "I think being honest is a good quality."

The man replies, "I don't care about what you think!"

Work — a laughing matter

- My memory has gotten so bad that I lost my job. I'm still employed. I just can't remember where.
- Nothing ruins a Friday more than realizing it's actually Tuesday.
- There's a new trend in our office; everyone is putting names on their food. I noticed it today, while I was eating a sandwich named Jason.
- My performance review says I lack "passion and intensity." I guess my boss has never seen me alone with a Big Mac.
- A clean desk is a sign of a cluttered desk drawer.
- The only thing worse than seeing something done wrong is seeing it done wrong slowly.
- The probability of someone watching you is proportional to the stupidity of your action.
- I don't mind coming to work, it's the eight-hour wait to go home I can't stand.
- All I ask is a chance to prove money can't make me happy.
- Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool.

Pancakes

A husband and wife had just finished eating pancakes for breakfast. To the wife's surprise, her husband walked back to the stove and started making more pancakes.

Confused, she asked, "Honey, we just ate. Why are you making pancakes? Are you still hungry?"

"No, they're for the dogs," he replied.

"Why are you making pancakes for the dogs?" she asked.

"Because they don't know how."

A good laugh is sunshine in the house.

Listening to the groundhog

Most of us know the story of Groundhog Day. On Feb. 2, the legend goes, a groundhog that comes up out of its burrow to check the weather will go back inside if it sees its shadow, and winter will continue for six more weeks. But if the sky is cloudy and it casts no shadow, the harsh winter weather is over.

Punxsutawney, Pa., hosts the best-known Groundhog Day event, featuring “Punxsutawney Phil” (who gained fame in the 1993 film Groundhog Day), but other towns in Pennsylvania and Maryland hold similar celebrations.

Where does the legend come from? It may have origins in ancient European beliefs involving a badger or a bear as a weather forecaster, as well as the pagan festival Imbolc, whose traditions point to a bear or a serpent as a herald of good or bad weather. In the United States, Groundhog Day can be traced back to 1841, when a Pennsylvania shopkeeper wrote in his diary that that Candlemas day (Feb. 2) was the day on which, “according to the Germans, the Groundhog peeps out of his winter quarters and if he sees his shadow he pops back for another six weeks nap, but if the day be cloudy he remains out, as the weather is to be moderate.”

So keep an eye out for the groundhog’s report, and dress appropriately.

Love is in the air on Feb. 14

Although today the word “Valentine” is synonymous with love, several early Christian martyrs shared the name. The Valentine most closely associated with the holiday was a priest who lived in Rome in the 3rd century. The Emperor Claudius II had outlawed marriage, under the theory that married men didn’t make fierce soldiers. When Valentine continued to perform weddings, Claudius had him put to death.

In another version of the story, Valentine attempted to convert Claudius to Christianity while in prison and was executed. In other tales, Valentine healed his jailer’s blind daughter, and the two fell in love. According to legend, Valentine’s final letter to her was signed, “From your Valentine.”

Valentine’s Day began to take off in the late 18th century, when a British publisher brought out a book called The Young Man’s Valentine Writer, full of sentimental poems for lovers unable to compose their own romantic messages.

Better printing technology and lower postal rates combined to make holiday cards more convenient. The first line of Valentine’s Day cards was launched in 1847 by Esther Howland, whose father owned a book and stationery store in Worcester, Mass.

Valentine’s Day is celebrated today in many countries around the world, including the United States, Canada, Mexico, the United Kingdom, France, and Australia.
