PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

Welcome February! I'm using my prognostication skills and stating emphatically that the annual Community Sale was a huge success. Due to the nemesis that wouldn't go away – COVID – we were unable to have the sale in 2021 as non-residents were not permitted in the park. Needless to say, the storage garage was overflowing with donations made during 2020 and 2021. We appreciate everyone who came out to help with all the many tasks involved in making the sale a success. It involved three days of work, and many of you showed up all three days. A special thanks to members of our sister parks who lent us a hand, and most especially to the Women's Hobby Club members who did their usual outstanding job coordinating every aspect of the sale. Thank you all soooo much. Take a well-earned rest until next January when we get to do it all over again.

In January, Carla & John Corley hosted a Karaoke event which was free to the entire park. It was such fun to watch everyone lose their inhibitions and perform to their favorite songs..... even those who just lip synced were a hoot. We must do this again.

Thanks to the Corley's for transporting and setting up all the many pieces of equipment involved. It was a very entertaining night.

Zumba has morphed into several different exercise formats and renamed "Golden Fitness". Even the organizers kept tripping over their feet trying to keep up with Zumba's rapid pace and decided to vary the exercise regime with the slower paced and less stressful movements of Richard Simmons and Yoga. So, if you gave up on Zumba because it was agony just getting out of bed the next day, consider joining us in Park #1 Clubhouse on Tuesday evenings at 6:30PM for a milder workout– everyone welcome.

February is the traditional month for the Annual HOA Meeting. Mark your calendars for Wednesday, February 16 at 7PM; the meeting will be conducted in the Park #1 Clubhouse. Please ensure your annual dues are paid so that you are eligible to vote for board members and any floor issue requiring membership approval. Bylaws state one vote per household; only home owners may attend the meeting.

Don Heller is interested in starting a Men's Hobby Club and has offered to have some of his personal tools available for woodworking projects – specialty items like a lathe and saws. If you are a guy and interested in participating – or just want to learn a new skill, please sign up on the Park #1 bulletin board by month-end so that Don can determine the feasibility of forming this new group.

The February Pot Luck will feature Meatloaf – if you plan to attend, please be certain to sign up in the Clubhouse.....and indicate what side dish you plan to bring. Speaking of Pot Luck Dinners, the January Chili Cook-Off was a great success. It featured six different types of chili – mild to robust, white (chicken), vegetarian and even one based on a keto recipe. All were delicious, but Peggy Lyter with her “robust” version won the prize. Congratulations, Peggy, and thanks to all who contributed their specialty version.

Coming up on Saturday, February 19, will be an encore Tacos & Trivia Night. Tickets are $5/pp and available from Marcia Lilley #26 (484-388-3368) –come join us for a night of good food and entertainment. Yes, I’ve listened to all your moans and groans and promise to make the questions easier (fingers crossed). No bizarre categories or Jeopardy type questions..... well, perhaps just a few - gotta make it somewhat of a challenge to determine the winning group. Hope to see you there.

Advance notice – the Spring Dance is scheduled Saturday, March 12; one of our favorites, Carlo, will provide the music. Reserve this night on your calendar.

Park #1 residents – see you at the monthly Association Meeting, Saturday February 5th; coffee and donuts available starting at 8:30, meeting convenes at 9:00AM. We’re saving a seat for you.

Happy Valentine’s Day – eat lots of chocolate – and watch out for Cupid’s arrows!

TREASURE COVE PARK 2 HAPPENINGS

Susan Regan secretary

Happy February everyone! Hopefully everyone is looking forward to a little cooler weather. I know some of us welcome that while others (no names mentioned) really enjoy the hot weather. At any rate we are blessed to live in our own little paradise.

Let us now look forward to upcoming social events. Park 2 recently held a Mandala Monday which was taught by the lovely Jennifer Proctor Simon. The turnout was great. It's not as simple as "painting rocks". It really is a time to quiet your mind and look within which in turn enables you to create. Jennifer is like our own in house "therapist" as she guides us along. If you want a truly relaxing, get away from it all night please join us at our next Mandala Monday which will be held on March 14th. Details will follow so please watch your tubes for further info.

Please don't forget our Community Sale which will be held in the Clubhouse on Saturday, February 12 from 8am-1pm. We will have many household items and a huge bake sale. We will also be selling coffee and donuts in the morning and hot dogs, chips and soda after 11am. We will also be raffling off some very generous gifts from local establishments that include superb dining and a fantastic golf package at The Dunedin Country club! You won't want to miss out on that.

If you have items you would like to donate you may bring them to the Clubhouse starting Wednesday, February 9 through Friday February 11. NO Soft items (clothing, bedding etc...) will be accepted. If anyone would like to volunteer we could use all the help we can get with setting up, selling and cleaning up. If you're interested in volunteering we would love for you to contact Susan (501) or Lori (254). We appreciate it.

There are also future plans for a Mardis gras/St Patrick's Day party on 3/12/22. So far our menu will involve a corned beef dinner and a chicken dish. We're still working on that. We will be having JJ Crum again whom everyone thoroughly enjoyed at the Christmas Party. Details will follow but mark your calendars!

We hope to see you at our next meeting which will be held February 15 at 7pm. We value your input as we continue to brainstorm for future parties. In the meantime Happy Valentine's Day and Happy Presidents Day!

Guana Cay News and Updates

Rob Peacock – Park 3 Association President

Hi Everyone

The holidays have come and gone with a lot of parties, food and dancing. We then marched right into January. Happy New Year started with continued good times. Park 3 had a great new year's celebration which carried over for some to park 1 karaoke ringing in the new year with John and CC. Park 3 also had a soup and salad potluck. Thank you to all for a wonderful spread. We also had a pizza and entertainment event and finished January with a great picnic BBQ. Thank you to all that helped with cooking, serving, set up and clean up.

Welcome February! On the agenda this month includes:

Feb 7th..... Potluck International Night

Feb 17th... Bar Poker Night

Feb 26th... BBQ Picnic

Don't forget your sweethearts on Valentines Day, Feb 14th.

Park 3 held its monthly association meeting with an awesome turnout. On the agenda was once again, the water being shut off, this time was minimal but still a break. ELS says we are on the list for pipe replacements depending on supplies, the fountain is off again and waiting on company to repair and parking issues. Finally, several of our residents have had some health issues. My point here is we must continue to check on our friends and neighbors. Not everyone always has access to their phones and accidents do happen. If you know of anybody in our community needing our assistance, please call our "Neighbors helping Neighbors" program for help.

Our hearts go out to anybody losing a loved one this past year due to the virus pandemic or any other cause. We know you've been deeply saddened and anything we can do to ease your sorrow; we are here to help or simply listen.

Feb 1st begins Black History Month, Feb 2nd is Groundhogs Day, Feb 4th is Thank your mailman Andy day. Feb 12th is Lincoln's birthday, Feb 14th is Valentine's Day, Feb 21st is president's day and Feb 22 is Washington's birthday. Enjoy all the festivities our community has to offer.

To make a difference in someone's life, just show you care. Show dignity and respect toward one another and the world will be a much better place.

Find the sweet spot

Some people know exactly what they want to do with their lives at an early age. Not Rebecca Stephens. The first British woman to summit Mount Everest came to mountaineering in her late 20s, after graduate school and years of working as a journalist.

A magazine assigned her to cover an expedition to the Himalayas. There she realized that her true goal in life was to climb to the peak of the highest mountain in the world. So she quit her job and spent years working to fund a climbing expedition. The fear of dedicating herself to such a goal without a job, during a recession, and with a mortgage to pay was daunting, but she didn't let it stop her from pursuing her dream.

Since reaching the peak in 1993, Stephens has gone on to summit the "Seven Sisters," the highest peaks on every continent. Her advice to people still looking for their calling? "Don't panic. It's OK to explore. It's OK to try different things," she tells the Insider website. "It's a question of finding the sweet spot. But quite often if you follow what it is that really fulfills and interests you, the rest falls into place."

Still a champion

Charlie Boswell was an all-American athlete who was offered professional contracts in both football and baseball. But when WWII erupted, Charlie enlisted in the military and was assigned to a tank division.

During a battle in Europe, a shell hit Charlie's tank. As the tank burned, he made sure everyone else got out safely, but then a second shell hit, throwing him 50 feet, breaking his bones and burning his body.

After a weeklong coma, Charlie woke up in a hospital and learned that he'd be blind for the rest of his life. Refusing to be discouraged, he worked hard at his rehabilitation, learning to live in a world of darkness.

One day a friend came to visit him. "Would you like to play some golf?" he asked.

"How in the world can I hit a golf ball when I can't even see it?" Charlie asked, but the friend was persistent. He took Charlie to a golf course, showed him how to hold and swing a club, and let him hit the ball.

Charlie's first drive traveled 200 yards straight down the fairway.

Charlie began training, and slowly his abilities improved. Ultimately Charlie won a world championship, shooting a 38 on nine holes.

The moral, as the Conscious Panda website puts it: There is always an alternate route if you just have the will to find it.

Storytelling is our obligation to the next generation.

A Sunday School teacher was testing the children in her class to see if they understood the concept of getting to heaven. She asked them, “If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale, and gave all my money to the church, would that get me into heaven?”

“No!” the children answered.

“If I cleaned the church every day, mowed the yard, and kept everything neat and tidy, would that get me into heaven?”

Again, the answer was, “No!”

“Well, then, if I was kind to animals and gave candy to all the children, and loved my husband, would that get me into heaven?” she asked.

Again, they all answered, “No!”

Bursting with pride, she asked, “Then how can I get into heaven?”

A five-year-old boy shouted out, “You have to be dead!”

Drawn to the light

A man walked into a brain surgeon’s office in the hospital. “Can I help you?” the surgeon asked.

“I keep thinking that I’m a moth,” the man replied.

“Well, you probably want to see a psychiatrist for that,” he said. “I’m a brain surgeon.”

“Yeah, I know,” he replied.

The surgeon looked confused. “Then why are you here?”

“The light was on.”

Divine intervention

After starting a new diet, a man altered his commute to work to avoid driving past his favorite bakery. One day he accidentally drove by the bakery and saw in the window a wide selection of chocolates, donuts, and cheesecakes.

The man prayed. “Lord, it’s up to you. If you want me to have any of those delicious goodies, create a parking place for me directly in front of the bakery.”

And sure enough, he found a space on the eighth time around the block.

We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh.

Job interview

A man goes in for a job interview. The manager asks him, "What do you think is your worst quality?"

The man says, "I'm probably too honest."
"That's not a bad thing," the manager says. "I think being honest is a good quality."

The man replies, "I don't care about what you think!"

Work — a laughing matter

- My memory has gotten so bad that I lost my job. I'm still employed. I just can't remember where.
- Nothing ruins a Friday more than realizing it's actually Tuesday.
- There's a new trend in our office; everyone is putting names on their food. I noticed it today, while I was eating a sandwich named Jason.
- My performance review says I lack "passion and intensity." I guess my boss has never seen me alone with a Big Mac.
- A clean desk is a sign of a cluttered desk drawer.
- The only thing worse than seeing something done wrong is seeing it done wrong slowly.
- The probability of someone watching you is proportional to the stupidity of your action.
- I don't mind coming to work, it's the eight-hour wait to go home I can't stand.
- All I ask is a chance to prove money can't make me happy.
- Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool.

Pancakes

A husband and wife had just finished eating pancakes for breakfast. To the wife's surprise, her husband walked back to the stove and started making more pancakes.

Confused, she asked, "Honey, we just ate. Why are you making pancakes? Are you still hungry?"

"No, they're for the dogs," he replied.

"Why are you making pancakes for the dogs?" she asked.

"Because they don't know how."

A good laugh is sunshine in the house.

Pandemic eats away at savings and security for many

The economic impact of the pandemic has taken its toll on savings in the United States for many people, according to a poll commissioned by the Fund Our Future coalition and DailyPay. The survey of more than 2,000 U.S. adults found that 36% of those with incomes below $50,000 have less money in savings than they did before the pandemic struck; only 13% have more. On the other hand, 41% of Americans with incomes of $100,000 or more reported having greater savings than before; only 20% have less.

Understandably, 58% of Americans say they’re worried about their financial situation, including 71% of those 18–34, 70% of renters, and 67% of people whose household income is under $50,000.

Trust in science on the upswing

The COVID-19 has raised trust in science and scientists, according to a report in The New York Times. A survey of 119,000 people in 113 countries by the Wellcome Trust, a health research foundation in London, found that approximately 80% trust science “some” or “a lot,” and close to 75% say the same about scientists.

In the United States, 54% of Americans said they had “a lot” of trust in scientists, a nine percent increase from 2018, when the last survey was conducted. Trust in scientists increased by at least 10% in regions like East Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe, and Southeast Asia.

Teen drug use down during pandemic

One positive side effect of the pandemic seems to be that alcohol and drug use by teenagers fell dramatically, according to a study funded by the National Institutes of Health. Alcohol use decreased among eighth graders from 20.5% in 2020 to 17.2% in 2021, the research found, along with a decrease from 40.7% to 28.5% among 10th graders, and a smaller decrease for 12th graders, from 55.3% to 46.5%. Marijuana use fell from 11.4% to 7.1% among eighth graders, and use of drugs other than marijuana decreased from 7.7% to 4.6% in the same age group.

Without science, everything is a miracle.

WE ARE FLORIDA'S #1 RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES PARTNER!

FEBRUARY CALENDAR

Black History Month. During Black History Month, Americans reflect on more than 400 years of Black history and heritage in communities and national parks across the country. Use this month to find special places, historic moments, and personal journeys that contribute to conversations about Black representation, identity, and diversity in our nation's history and today.

National Embroidery Month. No one is quite sure how this celebration of the art of embroidery got started, but it remains an opportunity for embroiderers everywhere to share their love of the craft. Many museums or local stores have events during this month.

National Time Management Month. During February, the National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals emphasizes the importance of improving time management to achieve a more balanced life.

Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Month. This campaign strives to follow the wisdom of young people as they work to prevent teen dating violence, advocate for healthy relationships, heal from trauma, and engage in social justice.

FEBRUARY WEEKLY

Women's Heart Week, Feb 1–7. Heart disease is the No. 1 killer of American women. Recognizing symptoms and risks, making lifestyle changes, and getting timely care can save a woman's life. Women's Heart Week is a national outreach campaign aimed at improving women's outcomes from this deadly disease.

Children's Mental Health Week, Feb. 7–13. This year's theme is "Growing Together," encouraging children (and adults) to consider how they have grown and how they can help others to grow.

National Entrepreneurship Week, Feb 12–19. Celebrating America's entrepreneurship ecosystem, National Entrepreneurship Week is a nonpartisan, congressionally chartered initiative founded in 2006 that takes place the third week of February annually.

National Eating Disorders week, Feb. 21–27. An annual campaign to educate the public about the realities of eating disorders, and to provide hope, support, and visibility to individuals and families affected by them.
