Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

Jill Chambers, Vice-President, Lot 234 440-318-4738

As we head into February we will start with a new group of officers. The election was held after this went to publication. New officers will be at the meeting on February 14 at 7 PM. We do have two new board members appointed in December as Sergeants at Arms. They will support HOA board during monthly meetings making sure that our meetings run smoothly and the agenda is followed. The term is for two years and it is a board appointed position.

Our February meeting is set for February 14 at 7 PM. Hope to see you there. Please bring ideas written down for negotiations include your name, lot number and phone number. This is so the negotiating team can contact you if they have questions about your ideas.

Acting president Jill Chambers

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 512, 843-457-9599

We have a lot of activities going on in February & March.

We will not be doing a pancake breakfast in February.

We will have the oldies party on the 19th of February (see Linda's letter for details)

The last pancake breakfast for the season will be March 5th

The carport sale will be March 12th

March 19th we will be hosting a Barbeque. Don will once again come and cook us a fantastic barbeque. For those who were not here last year just want to let you know that you can eat in or take out (for now). Because of Covid last year we could not use the clubhouse. Don will cook out on the clubhouse lawn. Tables will be set up for serving. The price will be $13.00 p.p. Tickets will be on sale starting the end of February. I will post the menu on our web site and in the clubhouse. We had a fantastic turn out last year and hope to have a great turnout this year.

Valentine's Day

Activities Committee

Linda Galan, Chairwomen, Lot 31 315-657-1114

As 2021 has come to an end, we started another new year here at Oak Crest/Acorn. Thank you to all who attended our Christmas Dinner/Dance, that was a huge success, everyone enjoyed a good meal & music by Flashback.

January event was, We've Survived 2021, music by Band Stand.

The winner of our "Best Decorated Home" is Bob & Ann Kirst #530 Twin Oak. There were many beautifully homes this year & congratulations to all those homeowners.

Our next event is our 50's & 60's (oldies) on Saturday February 22, 2022. DJ: Kim Klien & her dad.

Tickets will be available starting February 1st 2022. More information to come. More information will be coming up for the month of March.

Also, we are always looking for extra people that would like to volunteer their help on all the activities or become a member on the activities committee.

Again, we want to thank all the ladies that are on the activities committee for doing a great job.

Oakcrest-Acorn Canadian Club

Suzanne Thrasher, Secretary, Lot 356, 727-581-2642

Welcome to those Canadian Club members who have been able to join us since the beginning of the new year. Hopefully 2022 will spell the end of this 'pandemic life' we have all been forced to deal with over the last 2 long years. This is a very short season for us.

The Canadian Club Executive will be holding a meeting this week to brainstorm ideas for outdoor events to be held over the next couple months. I know we all miss seeing one another. I will be sending a note out this week to members to ask for their input as well.

Meanwhile enjoy the Florida sunshine!

Interview with someone who makes a difference.

This month I interviewed Calvin Kohn, a man I am fairly sure is known and universally liked throughout Oakcrest Acorn. Calvin is the wonderful young age of 96 - he is forever young !

He was born on May 5, 1925 in North Bolliin, New York where was educated. He then went to Colgate University . After that, he trained in several areas including as an electrician and as a tool and die maker at Ford Motor Company. He retired from Ford in 1987.

He joined the Navy and speaks in true admiration of all "the real heroes" he met there.

He and his beloved late wife Lorraine moved to Largo in 2002 to live at Oakcrest. Calvin and Lorraine were married for 61 years and he still misses her.

He has 5 living children, 16 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren ! How blessed are they to have this lovely gentleman in their lives.

Calvin is never at loose ends to do something. He swims EVERYDAY regardless of the weather as many of us have observed! He loves to play games (chess, pinochle, shuffleboard to name a few) and it's the people who he interacts with that make his day.

Calvin has always lent a helping hand at events here and is a regular food prep guy at the Pancake Breakfasts.

A long time ago Calvin made the life decision not to let little things bother him - life is too short for that. Instead he focuses on enjoying country and western music and the many dear friends he has here at Oakcrest Acorn.

CARPORT SALE

Just a reminder to everyone to start putting items aside for the Oakcrest Acorn CARPORT Sale to be held on Sat. March 12th. from 9 AM to 2 PM.

As usual, you will be able to borrow a table for your items from the clubhouse the day before (bring someone with you as the tables are very heavy).

People always ask why they have to pay $3 for a balloon to display for the sale. Well, first of all it puts you in the 50/50 draw 🐣 and secondly, it helps to defray the advertising expenses in the Monthly Messenger.

A Sunday School teacher was testing the children in her class to see if they understood the concept of getting to heaven. She asked them, "If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale, and gave all my money to the church, would that get me into heaven?"

"No!" the children answered.

"If I cleaned the church every day, mowed the yard, and kept everything neat and tidy, would that get me into heaven?"

Again, the answer was, "No!"

"Well, then, if I was kind to animals and gave candy to all the children, and loved my husband, would that get me into heaven?" she asked.

Again, they all answered, "No!"

Bursting with pride, she asked, "Then how can I get into heaven?"

A five-year-old boy shouted out, "You have to be dead!"

Drawn to the light

A man walked into a brain surgeon's office in the hospital. "Can I help you?" the surgeon asked.

"I keep thinking that I'm a moth," the man replied.

"Well, you probably want to see a psychiatrist for that," he said. "I'm a brain surgeon."

"Yeah, I know," he replied.

The surgeon looked confused. "Then why are you here?"

"The light was on."

Divine intervention

After starting a new diet, a man altered his commute to work to avoid driving past his favorite bakery. One day he accidentally drove by the bakery and saw in the window a wide selection of chocolates, donuts, and cheesecakes.

The man prayed. "Lord, it's up to you. If you want me to have any of those delicious goodies, create a parking place for me directly in front of the bakery."

And sure enough, he found a space on the eighth time around the block.

We cannot really love anybody with whom we never laugh.

Job interview

A man goes in for a job interview. The manager asks him, "What do you think is your worst quality?"

The man says, "I'm probably too honest."
"That's not a bad thing," the manager says. "I think being honest is a good quality."

The man replies, "I don't care about what you think!"

Work — a laughing matter

- My memory has gotten so bad that I lost my job. I'm still employed. I just can't remember where.
- Nothing ruins a Friday more than realizing it's actually Tuesday.
- There's a new trend in our office; everyone is putting names on their food. I noticed it today, while I was eating a sandwich named Jason.
- My performance review says I lack "passion and intensity." I guess my boss has never seen me alone with a Big Mac.
- A clean desk is a sign of a cluttered desk drawer.
- The only thing worse than seeing something done wrong is seeing it done wrong slowly.
- The probability of someone watching you is proportional to the stupidity of your action.
- I don't mind coming to work, it's the eight-hour wait to go home I can't stand.
- All I ask is a chance to prove money can't make me happy.
- Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool.

Pancakes

A husband and wife had just finished eating pancakes for breakfast. To the wife's surprise, her husband walked back to the stove and started making more pancakes.

Confused, she asked, "Honey, we just ate. Why are you making pancakes? Are you still hungry?"

"No, they're for the dogs," he replied.

"Why are you making pancakes for the dogs?" she asked.

"Because they don't know how."

A good laugh is sunshine in the house.

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team

Keep your diet balanced with this simple advice

Staying healthy, especially during the winter months, requires commitment, but it's not all that complicated. Just remember these health and wellness tips from the Savvy Mom website:

- Eat breakfast every day. Eating something in the morning helps kick your metabolism into gear. A piece of toast, some oatmeal, or a smoothie can help you wake up and feel energized for the day.
- Practice moderation. You don't have to starve yourself or deny yourself your favorite foods. Just keep things in the right proportion. Eat slowly, and resist the temptation to binge. You'll find yourself just as satisfied if you give your body a chance to digest without stuffing your stomach.
- Stay hydrated. Water helps flush things through your system and makes you feel full. You can add some flavor to it with a slice of lemon or a drop of orange or cranberry juice if plain water is too boring.
- Monitor your emotions. Depression and anxiety can push you into overeating. Don't wallow in guilt for having a good meal. Put it behind yourself and focus on maintaining a healthy balanced routine going forward.
- Keep a food journal. Write down everything you eat. This helps you keep track of habits and patterns so you can make better choices during and between meals.

A hero of the pandemic

Many heroes stepped up to raise money to help people during the COVID-19 pandemic. One of them, as told on the Baxter Restoration website, was Captain Tom Moore, a 99-year-old British veteran of WWII. Wanting to support Britain's National Health Service, he announced he would walk laps around his garden to encourage people to pledge money to his cause. Moore promised to do 100 laps by his 100th birthday, hoping to raise $1,000.

Much to his surprise, Captain Moore became a hit on the internet, raising $33 million. He's still doing his laps.

Stories have to be told or they die, and when they die, we can't remember who we are or why we're here.

— Sue Monk Kidd

Listening to the groundhog

Most of us know the story of Groundhog Day. On Feb. 2, the legend goes, a groundhog that comes up out of its burrow to check the weather will go back inside if it sees its shadow, and winter will continue for six more weeks. But if the sky is cloudy and it casts no shadow, the harsh winter weather is over.

Punxsutawney, Pa., hosts the best-known Groundhog Day event, featuring “Punxsutawney Phil” (who gained fame in the 1993 film Groundhog Day), but other towns in Pennsylvania and Maryland hold similar celebrations.

Where does the legend come from? It may have origins in ancient European beliefs involving a badger or a bear as a weather forecaster, as well as the pagan festival Imbolc, whose traditions point to a bear or a serpent as a herald of good or bad weather. In the United States, Groundhog Day can be traced back to 1841, when a Pennsylvania shopkeeper wrote in his diary that that Candlemas day (Feb. 2) was the day on which, “according to the Germans, the Groundhog peeps out of his winter quarters and if he sees his shadow he pops back for another six weeks nap, but if the day be cloudy he remains out, as the weather is to be moderate.”

So keep an eye out for the groundhog’s report, and dress appropriately.

Love is in the air on Feb. 14

Although today the word “Valentine” is synonymous with love, several early Christian martyrs shared the name. The Valentine most closely associated with the holiday was a priest who lived in Rome in the 3rd century. The Emperor Claudius II had outlawed marriage, under the theory that married men didn’t make fierce soldiers. When Valentine continued to perform weddings, Claudius had him put to death.

In another version of the story, Valentine attempted to convert Claudius to Christianity while in prison and was executed. In other tales, Valentine healed his jailer’s blind daughter, and the two fell in love. According to legend, Valentine’s final letter to her was signed, “From your Valentine.”

Valentine’s Day began to take off in the late 18th century, when a British publisher brought out a book called The Young Man’s Valentine Writer, full of sentimental poems for lovers unable to compose their own romantic messages.

Better printing technology and lower postal rates combined to make holiday cards more convenient. The first line of Valentine’s Day cards was launched in 1847 by Esther Howland, whose father owned a book and stationery store in Worcester, Mass.

Valentine’s Day is celebrated today in many countries around the world, including the United States, Canada, Mexico, the United Kingdom, France, and Australia.
