Pool Improvement Club

Dear Ranchers,
It has been quite a long time since I have communicated in the Recorder.

As I write this we are in the throes of putting the spaghetti dinner together. So, by the time you read this it will have been all over with already! Hope you enjoyed it.

I want to take this Opportunity to tell you that we now have a new president, Beverly Benkowski. She has taken over as the chief executive with her niece, Lisa Brand, as cochairman. I'm sure they will bring great spark to our Pool. Please congratulate them and put your support behind them as you have done for Lou Lowery and for me.

We still need a Secretary to fill our Board. Please consider helping. We all enjoy the POOL.

As a fund raiser, we are still recycling cans in our Park. It is very important that you all follow these directions.

Pool Club - Aluminum Can Drop Off Collection:

Our Pool Club recycles Aluminum Cans ONLY.

NO aluminum foil or serving pans nor any other aluminum items you want to toss in to the receptacle. PLEASE leave your bags of cans outside the Can Cubby, if you cannot feed them through the open slot in the door.

DO NOT throw your kitchen or small plastic bags over the fence of our repository, storing area. Leave them outside the Can cubby next to the Maintenance Building. We need to keep the bags uniform for handling ease at Recycle Plant.

Thank you for all your efforts to help with the collection and environment.

I have taken many of you with me on recycling trips, it is not an easy task nor is it a clean job. It is much better for us if you follow these directions. Thank you so much.

May all our days of this season be delightful weather and happy moments with us all together.

God bless you all.
President Sue Berton

FEBRUARY DAILY

Groundhog Day, Feb 2. Will the groundhog see its shadow?

Feed the Birds Day, Feb. 3. Early February is when your backyard birds need your help the most. The seeds in your feeder provide energy and strength to help birds make it through the rest of winter.

Autism Sunday, Feb. 13. Also known as the International Day of Prayer for autism spectrum disorders, this event is observed annually on the second Sunday of February.

Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. Spend the day with someone you love.

President's Day, Feb. 21. The day honors George Washington (born Feb. 22), and Abraham Lincoln (born Feb. 12) and all U.S. presidents.

Lack of knowledge fuels health care worries

We're all worried about the cost of medical care, whether we've got insurance or not. Business Wire reports that 75% of people with health insurance are nervous about suffering financial problems because of medical bills, only slightly less than the uninsured 77% who are just as worried.

The MITRE-Harris Poll Survey on Health Insurance Literacy and Perception found that 47% of people have experienced not having their insurance pay for as much as they expected, 42% have discovered that a procedure wasn't covered, and 33% didn't realize that a doctor or facility they used was out of network.

The problem may be our lack of understanding of health coverage. The survey found that 53% of people say they understand their plan only "somewhat," with just 33% feeling they know the details of their coverage "completely." Twenty-six percent said they never check what's covered ahead of time. Trying to figure out what is covered is the most frustrating aspect of health care to 28%, along with finding someone to answer their questions (20%), and determining whether a physician or hospital is or isn't in their network (20%).

A healthy outside starts from the inside.

Find the sweet spot

Some people know exactly what they want to do with their lives at an early age. Not Rebecca Stephens. The first British woman to summit Mount Everest came to mountaineering in her late 20s, after graduate school and years of working as a journalist.

A magazine assigned her to cover an expedition to the Himalayas. There she realized that her true goal in life was to climb to the peak of the highest mountain in the world. So she quit her job and spent years working to fund a climbing expedition. The fear of dedicating herself to such a goal without a job, during a recession, and with a mortgage to pay was daunting, but she didn't let it stop her from pursuing her dream.

Since reaching the peak in 1993, Stephens has gone on to summit the "Seven Sisters," the highest peaks on every continent. Her advice to people still looking for their calling? "Don't panic. It's OK to explore. It's OK to try different things," she tells the Insider website. "It's a question of finding the sweet spot. But quite often if you follow what it is that really fulfills and interests you, the rest falls into place."

Still a champion

Charlie Boswell was an all-American athlete who was offered professional contracts in both football and baseball. But when WWII erupted, Charlie enlisted in the military and was assigned to a tank division.

During a battle in Europe, a shell hit Charlie's tank. As the tank burned, he made sure everyone else got out safely, but then a second shell hit, throwing him 50 feet, breaking his bones and burning his body.

After a weeklong coma, Charlie woke up in a hospital and learned that he'd be blind for the rest of his life. Refusing to be discouraged, he worked hard at his rehabilitation, learning to live in a world of darkness.

One day a friend came to visit him. "Would you like to play some golf?" he asked.

"How in the world can I hit a golf ball when I can't even see it?" Charlie asked, but the friend was persistent. He took Charlie to a golf course, showed him how to hold and swing a club, and let him hit the ball.

Charlie's first drive traveled 200 yards straight down the fairway.

Charlie began training, and slowly his abilities improved. Ultimately Charlie won a world championship, shooting a 38 on nine holes.

The moral, as the Conscious Panda website puts it: There is always an alternate route if you just have the will to find it.

Storytelling is our obligation to the next generation.

FEBRUARY CALENDAR

Black History Month. During Black History Month, Americans reflect on more than 400 years of Black history and heritage in communities and national parks across the country. Use this month to find special places, historic moments, and personal journeys that contribute to conversations about Black representation, identity, and diversity in our nation’s history and today.

National Embroidery Month. No one is quite sure how this celebration of the art of embroidery got started, but it remains an opportunity for embroiderers everywhere to share their love of the craft. Many museums or local stores have events during this month.

National Time Management Month. During February, the National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals emphasizes the importance of improving time management to achieve a more balanced life.

Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Month. This campaign strives to follow the wisdom of young people as they work to prevent teen dating violence, advocate for healthy relationships, heal from trauma, and engage in social justice.

FEBRUARY WEEKLY

Women’s Heart Week, Feb 1–7. Heart disease is the No. 1 killer of American women. Recognizing symptoms and risks, making lifestyle changes, and getting timely care can save a woman’s life. Women’s Heart Week is a national outreach campaign aimed at improving women’s outcomes from this deadly disease.

Children’s Mental Health Week, Feb. 7–13. This year’s theme is “Growing Together,” encouraging children (and adults) to consider how they have grown and how they can help others to grow.

National Entrepreneurship Week, Feb 12–19. Celebrating America’s entrepreneurship ecosystem, National Entrepreneurship Week is a nonpartisan, congressionally chartered initiative founded in 2006 that takes place the third week of February annually.

National Eating Disorders week, Feb. 21–27. An annual campaign to educate the public about the realities of eating disorders, and to provide hope, support, and visibility to individuals and families affected by them.
