PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

It's March and you know what that means – everyone becomes Irish. There is an endearing quality about the Irish – or is that just something we have been programmed to believe through songs, movies and literature? Regardless, I'm sold hook, line and sinker. Does anyone other than me remember the classic film The Quiet Man with John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara?? Now that was a movie!

So don your Tam O'Shanter, dress in something green and lift your glass in a toast as we celebrate shamrocks and leprechauns and everything Irish with a traditional Corned Beef pot luck dinner on March 5th.

Remember back in the day when we would build floats for St. Pat's Day? The most memorable were the year the guys turned the green monster into a Paddy Wagon filled with prisoners, and another year we decorated it lavishly with crepe paper and Irish flags, installed a discarded toilet and paraded Queen Shirley sitting on her throne. We would decorate bikes or trikes, dress in outlandish Irish regalia replete with green leggings and pompoms taped on the tips of our shoes and parade through the three parks singing shanty songs then gather in one of the clubhouses for some Irish cheer. No, you don't remember those days? Well it used to be a lot of fun – when did we become so civilized? Guess it's a generational thing – or perhaps people have just become more sophisticated.

Back to reality – a great big thank you to Linda Rupp, Peggy Lyter and Cheri Mathews for the delicious meatloafs they prepared for the February pot luck; there is nothing better than comfort food. Great job ladies!

Plans are in the works for a Pizza Party on March 19 with music provided by our very own DJ John Corley. Watch for a flyer with details; as always everyone is welcome to attend.

Marcia Lilley has planned an open house type Memorial Service for Richard on March 26 from 2:30-5:00PM in Park #1 clubhouse. You are invited to stop in during those hours to extend your condolences to Marcia and her family and to view some of Richard's artwork. Richard was not only skilled in gardening but was an accomplished artist. One of his passions was trains which will be very obvious from his paintings. If you knew Richard or were one of his Lake Haven customers, you are invited to attend and partake in some of his favorite snacks and beverages.

We extend appreciation and congratulations to those who were elected to serve on the HOA Board of Directors. Thank you for your willingness to serve our Lake Haven community.

We have new residents in Park #1 – welcome! Please join us for coffee and the monthly association meeting on Saturday, March 5, to get acquainted with your new neighbors.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK’S DAY – ERIN GO BRAGH

TREASURE COVE-PARK 2 HAPPENINGS

Susan Regan, Secretary

Welcome to the month of March! March comes in like a lion and out like a lamb! This month we celebrate Mardi Gras March 1 and St Patrick's Day March 17. March is also known for being the best month for basketball but the worst for productivity-oops! Well one out of two is not so bad! Yea for March Madness!

Park 2 had their annual sale (minus 2021) and it was a huge success! Thank you to all that assisted/volunteered. We had some good treasures which were quickly scooped up along with delicious coffee/donuts, hot dogs and the fixings and a HUGE bake sale. We could not have done it without you. And, a big, big thank you to our donors –

OUR PLACE RESTAURANT, DUNEDIN GOLF CLUB, STARLITE CAFÉ, JETS PIZZA, MAPLE LANES COUNTRYSIDE, BON APPETIT, FIRST WATCH, COUNTRY BOY RESTAURANT, UMBERTOS RESTAURANT!

Thank you to you all for always being so generous. Please be sure to frequent these wonderful establishments throughout the year.

Park 2 is now getting ready for our annual Mardi Gras Party which will be on Saturday, March 12, 2022 at 5pm. We will have a fabulous dinner, as always, along with some great music and dancing with our wonderful friends, JK Krum. We welcome any and all volunteers. Please see Lori (254) or Susan (501). Watch your tubes and Facebook pages for more information on ticketing.

And, our Taco Night was rescheduled to Saturday, February 26, 2022 at 5:00pm. This was FREE to ALL MEMBERS of Park 2. If you are not a member, the cost was $10.00 per ticket. So, if you want to be a member and enjoy discounted ticket costs and some free events, please be sure to see Lori (254) or Susan (501) to pay your 2022 membership dues.

Our next meeting for Park 2 is March 8 at 7pm. We hope to see as many people as possible attend.

*REMINDER Daylight Savings is March 13th. Don't forget to turn your clocks ahead 1 hr.

Guana Cay News and Updates

Rob Peacock – Park 3 Association President

Welcome March

The Ides of March, traditionally a new beginning of warmer weather, extra hour of daylight, plants and flowers coming back to life. A month of celebrations! Mardi Gras, Fat Tuesday, Ash Wednesday, St. Patrick’s Day, St. Joseph’s Day and is supposed to be the beginning of Baseball season. We will have to wait and see about the 2 months of spring training for the Blue Jay’s here in Dunedin as the lock out continues between owners and players.

Park 3 Association held it’s monthly meeting on 02/02/2022. We discussed a great February of events including our new “Bar Poker” night. A great turnout and a lot of fun. Also discussed upcoming events for March and Park 3 business. Our acting manager, Penny has said tree trimming and canal cleanup is to begin in April. Fountain is being repaired now. Duke Energy reports all the streetlights have been repaired, if you notice one not working, get the pole number and report directly to Duke Energy.

The events for March include our potluck on 03/07/2022, Spring Sale on 03/19/2022, End of Season Brunch on 03/27/2022 and perhaps another “Bar Poker” night upon demand.

Show someone you care, check on your friends and neighbors. Call our Neighbors Helping Neighbors program if you just can’t do something yourself.

Show respect and dignity toward one another and the world would be a much better place

Could be worse

James was walking down the street one day, and he happened to see his old high school friend, Harry. "Harry, Harry, how are you?"

"Not so good," said Harry.

"Why? What happened?"

"I just went bankrupt," Harry said, "and I don't know what I'm going to do."

"Could be worse," James replied calmly. "Could be worse."

A month or so later, James again encountered Harry, this time in a restaurant. "How are things now?" he asked.

"Terrible!" said Harry. "Our house burned down last night."

"Could be worse," said James again, and he went to sit down at his table.

A month later, James ran into Harry a third time. "Well, how goes it?" he inquired.

"Oh!" said Harry. "Things just get worse and worse. Now my wife has left me."

Harry nodded his head. "Could be worse."

This time, Harry grabbed James by the shoulders. "Wait a minute!" he said. "I'm not letting you off so easy this time. Every time I tell you about the latest disaster in my life you say the same thing: 'Could be worse.' This time, Harry, I want you to tell me: How in heaven's name could it have been any worse?"

James looked at Harry with a little wisp of a smile. "Could have happened to me."

At the height of laughter, the universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.

Not so dumb

A young boy enters a barber shop, and the barber whispers to his customer, “This is the dumbest kid in the world. Watch while I show you.”

The barber puts a dollar bill in one hand and two quarters in the other, then calls the boy over and asks, “Which do you want, son?”

The boy takes the quarters and leaves.

“What did I tell you?” said the barber. “That kid never learns!”

Later, the customer sees the same young boy coming out of an ice cream parlor. “Hey, son! May I ask you a question? Why did you take the quarters instead of the dollar bill?”

The boy licks his cone and replies: “Because the day I take the dollar, the game is over!”

Quite a scare

A taxi passenger tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask him a question.

The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the sidewalk, and stopped inches from a shop window.

For a second, everything was quiet in the cab. Then the driver said, “Look, don’t ever do that again. You scared the living daylights out of me!”

The passenger apologized and said, “I didn’t realize that a little tap would scare you so much.”

The driver replied, “Sorry, it’s not really your fault. Today is my first day as a cab driver. Before this, for 25 years, I worked in a funeral home and drove a hearse.”

The professor

A professor was taking a boat across a wide river. The boatman, humming a happy tune as he rowed, was clearly no scholar, so the professor decided to test him.

“My man, can you read?” he asked.

“Nope.” The boatman shook his head. “Never had time to learn.”

“Then you’ve lost one quarter of your life. Can you write?”

“No, sir. Too busy making a living.”

“Then you’ve lost another quarter of your life. Can you do arithmetic?”

“No. Never saw much use for it on the river.”

“Pity. Now you’ve lost another quarter of your life. Do you know how much that is?”

“No, sir. But may I ask you a question?”

“Certainly, my man.”

“Can you swim?”

The professor smiled. “No. In my learned profession, there was never any need for that.”

“Well, sir,” the boatman said, “you’re about to lose all your life, because this boat’s leaking and we’re going to sink.”

March Calendar

Brain Injury Awareness Month. More than 5.3 million adults and children are living with a permanent brain injury-related disability in the United States. If you know someone who is living with a brain injury, or if you have one yourself, join the #MoreThanMyBrainInjury campaign to help educate people about what it's like to live with a brain injury.

Red Cross Month. Red Cross Month has been an annual tradition since 1943, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt issued the first Red Cross Month proclamation. Join the Red Cross mission by volunteering, donating blood, learning lifesaving skills, or making a financial contribution.

Social Work Month. The theme for Social Work Month 2022 is “The Time is Right for Social Work.” During Social Work Month, take time to learn more about the positive contributions of the profession and celebrate the social workers you know.

Women’s History Month. Since 1995, presidents have issued a series of annual proclamations designating March “Women’s History Month.” These proclamations celebrate the contributions women have made to the United States and recognize the specific achievements women have made over the course of American history in a variety of fields.

Weekly

LGBT Health Awareness Week, March 1-7. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people encounter discrimination in employment, relationship recognition, and insurance coverage on a regular basis; consequently, they are less likely to be able to afford vital health care than their straight and non-transgender neighbors.

National Consumer Protection Week, March 6-12. National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW) is a time to help people understand their consumer rights and make well-informed decisions about money.

Save Your Vision Week, March 6-12. Few realize how many people lose their sight every year. Many forms of blindness can be cured if discovered soon enough, and many people blinded by accident could have kept their sight had they taken minor eye safety precautions. Our eyesight and the eyesight of our children should be paramount on our list of personal responsibilities. Money can't buy it, but a checkup and early care can preserve it.

National Poison Prevention Week, March 20-26. National Poison Prevention Week raises awareness of poison prevention nationwide. The week is an opportunity to highlight the dangers of poisoning for people of all ages and promote community involvement in poisoning prevention.

March Days

World Wildlife Day, March 3. This year's theme, "Recovering key species for ecosystem restoration," seeks to draw attention to the status of some of the most endangered species of wild fauna and flora, and to drive discussions towards imagining and implementing solutions to conserve them.

Pi Day, March 14. Divide any circle's circumference by its diameter and the answer is always approximately 3.14. Keep calculating, as mathematicians have been doing for 4,000 years, and you'll discover it goes on with no pattern literally forever.

St. Patrick's Day, March 17. The luck of the Irish be with you!

World Storytelling Day, March 20. A global celebration of the art of oral storytelling, celebrated every year on the March equinox.

National Agriculture Day, March 22. This year's theme: "Growing a Climate for Tomorrow."

NUMBERS IN THE NEWS

City or somewhere else? The pandemic changed minds

The pandemic has fueled a change of attitude about where people want to live, according to the Courthouse News Service website. In research conducted by the Pew Research Center, 23% of participants said they preferred living in the city in 2018, a number that declined to 19% in 2021. The number of people who expressed a preference for living in the suburbs was 46% in 2021, a 4% increase from 2018.

Forty-three percent of city residents said they wanted to move in 2021, up from 37% in 2018. Forty percent of suburb dwellers, and 50% of rural residents, said they had no desire to move in 2021, a shift from 36% of suburbanites and 43% of those in rural areas in 2018. Only 8% of any Americans actually moved in 2020, the lowest number since the 1950s, according to U.S. Census Bureau data.

It is not in numbers, but in unity, that our great strength lies.
— Thomas Paine

All the mathematical sciences are founded on the relations between physical laws and laws of numbers. — James Clerk Maxwell

The wooden sword

One night a king changed out of his fancy robes for a walk outside his palace. On the edge of town he saw a man sitting in a small house singing as he cooked his modest dinner. Curious, the king knocked at the door, and the man let him in.

“How can you be so happy with such a small house and small meal?” the king asked.

“I make just enough money fixing people’s shoes to get by,” the man explained.

The king thought this poor man was very foolish. The next day he signed a law forbidding anyone to fix shoes for pay.

That night he visited the man again. “The king passed a law against fixing shoes,” the man explained, “so I got a job carrying water from the river.”

Annoyed, the next day the king passed a law against carrying water for pay.

The man took a job as a woodcutter. Losing patience, the king ordered all woodcutters to report to his palace and serve as guards. He gave them all swords.

The man, needing money, carved a sword from wood and sold his own sword to a peasant. But the next day the king spotted the peasant carrying a sword. Enraged, he arrested the man and then ordered his guards to the palace. Spotting the man he’d been talking to, he pointed his finger and said, “I order you to cut off this thief’s head.”

At first the man protested. “I have never killed even a fly.”

But the king insisted. So the man approached the peasant, his hands trembling. Then he had an idea.

He lifted his head and cried, “Oh, God, if this man is guilty, let my sword slice his head clean off. But if he is innocent, turn my sword to wood so that I may spare him!”

He drew his sword, and the people cheered, believing they had seen a miracle.

The king was suddenly moved by the man’s cleverness. Calling him over, he revealed that he had been the man’s visitor, and said, “Now that I see how wise you are, I would like you to come live in the palace and be my chief advisor. I have much to learn from you.”

Storytelling is the commonality of all human beings, in all places, in all times.

Start your spring in good health

With spring coming, lots of us are planning a cleanup of our homes and offices. How about some spring cleaning for your health? Follow these tips from the Everyday Health website for cleaning up your health habits as the weather turns warmer:

- Get back to fruits and vegetables. Fresh fruits and veggies start coming into season during the springtime months. Visit your local farmer's market when it reopens and look for organic produce in your grocery store. Mushrooms, bell peppers, zucchini, berries and more will become more plentiful as the year goes on.
- Stay hydrated. As temperatures grow warmer you may be outside more, exercising, running errands, and doing chores. You can easily sweat away moisture from your body without realizing it, so make sure to drink plenty of water throughout the day to ward off the fatigue, headaches, and low energy that can result from dehydration.
- Get moving. Take advantage of the milder weather to get outside and get your blood pumping. Even light exercise can do your body good after a sedentary winter. Take a walk or do some gardening to improve your muscle and bone health.
- Enjoy the sun — cautiously. Sunshine boosts your skin's production of vitamin D, which is good for bone health and increases serotonin levels, which elevates your mood. Just remember to protect your skin from UV radiation by covering up and using sunscreen when you're outside. Safeguard your eyes with sunglasses and hats.
- Watch for allergens. Unfortunately, springtime is allergy season for many people. Aside from pollen outdoors, many allergens can be found indoors—dust, mold, and the like. A thorough spring cleaning of your house can eradicate many of them. Visit an allergist to discuss problems and seek treatment.
- Get a spring checkup. Schedule an exam with your doctor. An annual physical can alert you to potential problems before they grow out of control. Review your medications and overall health history to make sure you're on the right track for good health throughout the year.

Wellness encompasses a healthy body, a sound mind, and a tranquil spirit. Enjoy the journey as you strive for wellness. — Laurette Gagnon Beaulieu
